PRIVILEGE OF FOREIGNERS ONLY

—Central Press Canadian

An unusual sight in Paris these days is a motorist refuelling his auto with a reserve can of gas since the French are not allowed to carry an extra supply during the current fuel shortage. Here, a foreign tourist, who has run out of gas, is shown filling his gas tank with a reserve supply. An emergency committee of 15 U.S. oil companies has begun to carry out President Eisenhower's order to provide a half million barrels of oil daily to Europe.

Plugged Manhole Blast Startles Residents

What some residents of the East Ward thought was a recurrence of last year's series of manhole explosions took place last night and this morning on Queen St.

One resident said that about 11 p.m. flames were observed shooting from one manhole and during the night and this morning gas fumes were very strong in the district.

A crew from the Board of Works were on hand today and one of the men said that the trouble was caused by a plugged line which they were clearing. He said that the manhole cover did not blow off, although it is reported that possibly there might have been a flash of flame at one time.

Last year a number of manhole covers blew off on Colborne St. E. due to accumulating gas in the sewers.

Rotary Anns See Slides On South

The Rotary Anns held their regular meeting at the Benson House. The meeting opened with singing of Grace and a toast to the Queen with Phyllis Watson at the piano.

The lucky draw in charge of Marg Hill was made by Muriel Pollock, Dorothy Lightbody being the winner.

The president Margaret Symonds then welcomed new members and guests. The members were particularly pleased to welcome Edith Lyons who has not been able to attend for some time.

It was moved by Connie Baty and seconded by Norma Service that the necessary money should be given to Dorothy Lightbody to finish the slides which are being made.

The meeting was then turned over to convenor Peggy Dahl who asked her husband Bill to showing some very interesting and beautiful slides of Florida and Niagara.

Dorothy Gordon graciously thanked them on behalf of the members present. The meeting was then adjourned.

Early Response Encourages Seals Officers

The wide-spread work of the Victoria County Tuberculosis Association is again being brought to the attention of people throughout the county as the annual Christmas Seal sale goes on. Most everyone has already received seals in the mail along with a letter from the president of the Association, J. A. McKessock outlining the work which goes on throughout the year on free chest X-rays, education and rehabilitation of persons coming out of sanatoria.

Early replies show a pleasing response to the annual appeal. E. L. Veitch, vice-president Victoria County Association, says, "The proceeds from this appeal to defray the cost of the battle against TB which we are glad to say is gradually being won. Continuously throughout the year education is carried on by use of films at various meetings throughout the county, while the quiet work of rehabilitation of patients discharged, or assistance to the families of persons who are in sanitoriums goes on under the auspices of the Victoria County TB Association. Everyone is asked to add to the joy of Christmas by using Christmas seals and thus extending a helping hand to community health. Next trip downtown is a good time to bring in the donation to the Canadian Bank of Commerce, or drop your envelope in the nearest mail-box or post office."

As last night's meeting of Lindsay's Council, the members were presented with a report from Mr. T. H. Stinson, chairman of the Santa Claus Stocking Fund.

Mr. Stinson advised that last year $1,244.79 was expended and used for Christmas baskets, fuel, clothing, food, and rent for needy Lindsay families. He said all monies were kept by the Canadian Bank of Commerce. He also pointed out that absolutely none of the money was spent to cover any expenses, not even postage. He explaining that every cent used was to give assistance. He also presented an audited statement of each individual expenditure, which for obvious reasons he asked not to have published.

Mayor Hick and his council extended their thanks to Mr. Stinson for his fine efforts on behalf of the worthy cause.

Kawartha I. O. D. E.	$ 15.00

5 to 3 Vote Okays C of C Request In Spite Of Advice

Lindsay's Council has hesitantly and somewhat reluctantly given approval to a request of the Chamber of Commerce merchant's committee which may or may not be welcomed by Christmas shoppers. Council has granted the people of Lindsay immunity from the town's parking meters for one week, beginning December 17th to 22nd, despite Mayor Hick's comment, "gentlemen, I think you are making a big mistake."

The whole thing started when Town Clerk W. R. Allely read a letter from Mr. Perkins representing the merchant's committee which said he had been instructed to ask if Council would give the necessary approval to such a plan. He said the committee proposed to place coverings over each parking meter in Lindsay and to tie a sprig of holly on each meter. The committee proposed that Christmas shoppers in Lindsay would have free parking all week in all metered areas.

The discussion which became quite lively at times commenced when Deputy-reeve Holtom suggested that he would like to hear the recommendation of the chairman of the police committee, Councillor Maidens.

Councillor MAIDENS: "Don't try to shove this thing off onto me . . . I want nothing to do with it."

Mr. Ed MAY: "The merchant's committee did check with Chief Hunter on this and he felt there would be utter confusion. He said, however, that it would make an interesting experiment and felt that no particular traffic congestion would develop."

Councillor McCRAE: "Well I don't agree at all. You can talk all you want about courtesy, but the people of town would take advantage of the situation and park all day. People from out of town wouldn't have a chance."

Councillor LAMB: "I don't think the merchants would abuse the privilege."

Reeve GREAVES: "Well since the merchant's committee have asked for this, I don't think we should be so concerned about it. If the police feel it won't involve serious problems, it might be interesting to try it out. I personally don't think that it's a good plan, but in view of the recommendation I feel we should concur."

Mayor HICK: "If you lift this by-law, you must remember we'll have no parking regulations or control on Kent St. at any time."

Councillor MAIDENS: "Well let it be remembered that the merchants asked for this, so I don't want to hear any squawks from them when things get all fouled up."

Councillor BREESE: "I don't think it would affect Christmas shopping one iota. We have provided a lot for people to park as long as they want at a nominal cost. I feel the situation would be abused and would not affect shopping at all since people have to shop anyway. I also think that a week is too long; one day might be better."

Councillor POUND: "I am in favour of giving it a try and giving the police department the authority to enforce the law at their discretion."

Councillor MAIDENS: "Oh no, you don't! It's going to be one or the other."

Mr. MAY: "The committee has authorized me to say that if Council felt the time was too long, it can can be changed. It was also planned that on one day the committee would check the license numbers of all cars parked in metered areas and find out how many of them belonged to the merchants themselves. The committee feels that this is a good way to advertise Lindsay and for the town to give the motorists and shoppers something for Christmas."

Councillor MAIDENS: "I want it

Mid-East Oil Arrives In Britain

—Central Press Canadian

The first oil tanker to go from the Middle East by way of the long route around Cape Horn, Africa, arrives at a refinery on the Isle of Grain, England. The tanker Althea Livanos, with an all-Greek crew, carrying 27,882 tons of crude oil. In the meantime, President Eisenhower ordered a massive emergency flow of oil to ease the critical shortage in Europe. U.S. officials said that at least 500,000 barrels a day will be transit before Christmas.

Native Of Vienna Is Canadian Club Speaker At Lindsay

A man who was born in Vienna and obtained his M.S.C. in radio engineering at the Vienna Technical University is going to address the Lindsay Canadian Club.

Lt.-Co. K. B. Swinton, who will speak on a current aspect of international affairs, is general manager of Thomas A. Edison and Company of Canada.

Coming to Canada in 1940 and joining the Canadian Army, he became Assistant Director of Electrical Design at National Defence Headquarters. Following the war he was Electronics Manager of R.C.A. Victor Company and later Vice-President and General Manager of Sonograph Ltd. of Toronto.

Laff it off

The housewife who was returning an item borrowed from a neighbour stepped into the kitchen but found no one there. So she called out cheerily to any one who might be in the house: "I'm just laying an egg here, on the table!"

"Wait a minute," came a man's voice from the bathroom; "this is something I must see."

Town going to the dogs?

Dog Bylaw Relaxed, Get Run Of Town October To April

"April Pool's Day will be the dog's day in Lindsay," quipped Mayor Hick at Tuesday's meeting of Council after the members gave approval to an amendment to the existing dog by-law.

A report was read to council from Chief of Police John Hunter who had been asked to suggest changes to the by-law by the police committee following a recent appeal by the Kawartha Kennel Club which was on record as feeling that the existing by-law was too restricting.

After studying the Chief's report, a few alterations were made and the amendment approved.

Dogs in Lindsay are to be restrained between April 1st and September 30th. Between these times they are to be kept in an enclosure or on a leash. Other times of the year, dogs may run at will unless there are grounds for the dog being termed vicious.

The fee for female dog licenses will be increased to $10 unless the dog has been spayed.

Council will have authority to take emergency measures in case of an outbreak of rabies.

Councillor Breese said he felt that the Chief's recommendation seemed like a fair analysis of the situation and that most dog owners do not let their dogs run indiscriminately. He said it was not fair to the dogs to be kept tied up all the time.

"This is what can turn a good dog into a bad dog," he said.

Councillor Maidens objected to this theory. He asked, "What about the people who don't own dogs. I think that dogs upsetting garbage cans are troublesome to people. They're still doing it too."

The suggested amendment received approval.

Editorial

THEIR CONTRIBUTION IS APPRECIATED . . .

Not all of those who sought election to Lindsay's public offices on Monday were successful in their bid. This was the natural outcome of any election because in order to have an election in the first place, it is necessary to have more people seeking office than there are offices to fill.

When an election has been held those who have been elected get all kinds of publicity, especially if they happen to head the polls. Mention is made, of course, of the candidates who didn't win but we don't believe these people get half enough credit. They deserve the highest possible praise for their contribution to municipal politics for without opposition effort, politics at every level would soon deteriorate and interest lag. It is these contesting or opposition forces which keep alive democratic government.

In the election just held at Lindsay there weren't any offices filled with what might be termed a "whopping" majority . . . The vote wasn't large enough to make this possible for one thing and for another, all candidates appear to have enjoyed a fairly evenly distributed degree of public endorsement. Those who have been placed in office will no doubt recognize this fact and be anxious to serve in the best interests of the whole town.

750 People Delighted By Marionnette Wizardry

The Merten Marionettes company, sponsored by King Albert Home and School Association, presented a special world for children, in two performances, at the Collegiate auditorium to some 750 persons.

All who saw the presentation said they came away feeling that puppetry involves much more than the mere ability to manipulate figures on a string. It covers the entire range of arts and theatre.

Mr. Merten gave his young audience good theatre composed of a variety of ingredients. One was the amusing story of a family of monkeys, another the very lovely presentation of the Christmas story "The Littlest Angel".

One high point in the show was when Mr. Merten manipulated marionettes before his audience, one of these being a very "spooky" witch performing over the traditional cauldron. A demonstration of hand puppetry was most enjoyable. Still another ingredient of the show was conversation between the marionettes and the audience. This the children found most exciting.

Doesn't Favor Turning People Out In Winter

water line freeze-up concerns councillor

With the specified date for vacancy of the town-owned houses on Russell St. close at hand, the chairman of town property, Councillor W. S. W. Breese advised the other members that of the three houses, one is vacated, another tenant has given notice, and a third advises he has been unable to secure accomodation and had inquired if the town would consider selling the house as he could fix it up.

Deputy-reeve Holtom said he was still opposed to turning people out in the middle of winter, especially since the buildings were not immediately needed by the town. He said he would like to see the tenants get an extension until spring.

Henry O. Stuart

After an illness of some two years, Henry Osborne Stuart of Bobcaygeon, Ont. died at the Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay, on November 12th, 1956. He was in his 55th year.

The late Mr. Stuart was born at Dunsmuir, Ont., the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Stuart. He received his education in Gedfrich, Ont. and came to the Bobcaygeon district about 15 years ago. For 14 years the late Mr. Stuart was employed as a millwright at the firm of Reid Bros., and for six months previous to that he had been with H. W. Jermyn and Son.

A member of the Presbyterian Church, the deceased was also a member of the L.O.L. branch 121, Bobcaygeon.

Besides his sorrowing wife, the former Jennie H. Coumbe, the late Mr. Stuart leaves his children, Dorothy (Mrs. Wm. Purdy) Bobcaygeon; Waverley (Mrs. Norman Drinkwalter) Bobcaygeon; Kelvyn (Mrs. Douglas Purdy), Bobcaygeon; William and Clinton of Lindsay. A son Garfield predeceased him.

His brothers and sisters survive, Norman of Lucknow, Ont., Roy of Bobcaygeon, Joseph of Lindsay, Maude (Mrs. Frank Elliott) Jackson's Point; May (Mrs. Harry Ward) Windsor; Nellie (Mrs. William Irish) of Lindsay. A brother Charles predeceased him.

The funeral was held on November 14th from the home of the late Mr. Stuart with service conducted by Rev. R. C. White of the United Church. Pallbearers were Robert Richmond, Roby Higgins, Stirling Jermyn, Hilden Johnson, Raymond Johnston, and Jack Lambert. Interment was at Verulam Cemetery.

New Leather Colors

Next time you are in a store look and see the variety of lovely colors you can get in purses, bill folds, suitcases and other things. They are beautiful and the leather seems to be so smooth you can't believe it is leather. If you are thinking of purses or over-night bags, then you have a wonderful assortment to choose from. Ideal for Christmas giving and our shops can show you some really super ones. The colours are lovely.

Too Many Santas

It must be a bit confusing for some children who seen several Santas running around and they wonder which is the real one. You see them in store windows and the small fry think the dummy is really Santa. It is enough to confuse children and a visit to "Old St. Nick" isn't half as much fun as it used to be. This is true about large cities especially and it spoils their fun.

Eulogy Of A Cat

It's amazing what kind of things happen but maybe we're prejudiced because we are not fond of cats. The story goes that an American has written a book on her favorite cats. One has to admit they are great playmates for children but why do they need a book written about them?

Delightful Tea

Church bazaars are in the air and the Catholic Women's organization Tea was a big success. The teas come close together and one can find many gifts for Christmas at these affairs. They'll soon be over so make sure you pick up some of your Christmas gifts at these bazaars.

A Bit Fattening

Fifty years ago there was an article in a journal that this is what they had for their Christmas dinner: "The goose really the Christmas bird, is quite enough with a good joint of roasted beef. A steak may be served with duck, or turkey with ham. Chicken and mutton are a good combination.

Fifty Years Ago

"A false roll is all right if it is made of fine, natural hair," believes Mrs. Rorer, "but those of wire and wool are hot and bad for the hair, besides giving a most unnatural, unbolstered look to the pompadour. Black jetted-tulle wings japanied with silver and gold are much worn by older women."

"Ruffles?"

Men—says a man—are about to take to wearing ruffles and pleats on their shirts . . . to lash back at women fashion plates.

Harry Bonnell, New York Coutourier to men says it won't be long before ruffled shirts are everyday male apparel. That means, he explains, there will be ruffles on collars and cuffs, and lace-trimmed pleats down shirts frontal. Lace on cuffs, he predicts, will come later, but probably not for office wear.

Wedding

Griffith-Morris

Valentia (PNS) — A quiet wedding took place at Valentia Church on Nov. 24, 1956, when Rev. Honey, assisted by Mr. Mills, united in marriage, Glen Carol, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Morris, and Trevor Arthur, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Griffith of Lindsay.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by her sister, Mrs. Arthur Fields, of Valentia. The groom was assisted by Mr. Ted Pullen, of Lindsay.

Mrs. George Mcdolock presided at the piano and rendered a pleasing solo before the ceremony, "Lord today and ever, Me at the altar stand." and during the ceremony she sang, "The Lord's Prayer."

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. A delicious buffet supper was served to about 35 guests by Mrs. MacGlassford, assisted by Mrs. Joe Cockerell, Mrs. Art Baker and Mrs. Russ Mark. Mr. and Mrs. Griffith will reside in Lindsay.

Says Bonnell, "men are lashing back. They're trying to make this a man's world. I get the feeling they are trying to compete with women, fashionwise at least. They want attention."

If the happily married men's wear designer is right, chances are his married mate will have a shirt he can call his own. His idea of the future in men's shirts sounds like a woman's way to easy wardrobe expansion.

Eat In Private

"Mamie's Cabin" the American President's residence at the Augusta National Golf Club has a new dining room. And the family is finding it a welcome addition to the luxurious cottage.

Members of the golf club added the 13-thousand dollar room to the Eisenhower residence since the president's last visit there.

In Memoriam

THURSTON, James A., who passed away, December 6, 1955:

God knew that he was suffering,
That the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed his weary eyelids,
And whispered, "Peace be thine".
Away in the beautiful hills of God,
By the valley of rest so fair,
Sometime, someday, we know not when,
We will meet our loved one there.

—Lovingly remembered by wife, Kit, Betty and Margie (4305)

KAY—In loving memory of a dear husband, Charles, who passed away Nov. 30, 1953.

It only takes a little space to write
How much we miss you.
But it will take the rest of our lives to forget, th eday we lost you.

—Lovingly remembered by his wife, Ethel. (4478)

Henry George Joblin, passed away December 5th, 1955:

There is a link death cannot sever,
Love and remembrance last forever.

—Lovingly remembered by Grandchildren—Ben, Thelma and family (4459)

SHORT—In loving memory of my wife Maude Short who passed away December 4, 1954:

I have lost my soul's companion
A life linked with my own,
And day by day I miss her more,
As I walk through life alone.

—Sadly missed by husband Joseph Short. (4406)

GRAHAM—In loving memory of a dear brother and uncle, John Graham, who passed away December 1, 1955:

We often think of bygone days,
When we were all together,
The family chain is broken now,
But memories live forever.

Former Lindsay Girl Marries

A wedding of particular local interest was performed in Peterborough when a former Lindsay girl—Carole Berniece McFadyen—became the bride of Stuart Cameron Brooks of Peterborough. Principals in the wedding are shown above.

A pretty candlelight wedding took place at George St. United Church, Peterborough, at five o'clock Saturday, November 24th, when Carole Bernice McFadyen, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mel McFadyen, Peterborough, became the bride of Stuart Cameron Brooks, son of Mr. Harry Brooks, Peterborough.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a ballerina-length gown of white brocaded satin with three-quarter-length sleeves, tightly fitted bodice and full skirt. Her finger-tip veil was held by a white velvet head-piece. She wore wrist-length gloves, and carried a mauve orchid on a white prayer book.

Mrs. Charles Whitney of Sault Ste. Marie, aunt of the bride, was matron of honour and Miss Marlene Ainsworth of Lindsay, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. Their gowns were pale yellow and pale pink chiffon with matching feathered headdresses. They carried bouquets of yellow and white mums.

Mr. James Brooks, brother of the groom, was groomsman. Mr. Wm. Brooks, brother of the groom and Mr. Robert Drinhaly ushered.

Soloist, Mr. Robert Aspinall accompanied at the organ by Mr. Charles Allan, sang the "Lord's Prayer." During the signing of the register "Because" was sung.

The reception was held in the Knights of Columbus Hall which was attended by many relatives and friends. Mr. Wm. White proposed the toast.

The bride's mother received in a sheath gown of blue crystalette and a corsage of white gardenias. Mrs. Fred Stewart, aunt of the groom, assisted, wearing grey and white crepe with a corsage of pink rose buds.

For a motor trip to the United States the bride chose a mauve green wool dress with a rust coat and matching accessories.

On their return they will reside in Peterborough.

Critchley-Smith

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday afternoon, November 24th at Cambridge Street United Church parsonage, Lindsay, when Phyllis Irene Smith, of Lindsay, was united in holy matrimony to James Taylor Chitchley, of Camp Petawawa.

The Rev. Dr. Harold B. Neal of Cambridge St. United Church, performed the ceremony. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. James Lawrence Hick, of Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. Critchley will reside in Pembroke.

Warne-Hamilton

Blackstock (PNS) — In a beautiful candlelight ceremony at St. Johns Anglican Church, Shirley Anne Hamilton, only daughter of Mr and Mrs. John Hamilton was united in marriage to Gerald Douglas Warne, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Warne, Toronto, Rev. Nicholson officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Harold Kirk was soloist, and Mrs. F. McClintock was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a dress of dull satin. The gown featured a full hoop skirt and a deep fold over at the neckline was embroidery with seed pearls. The bride's small cap and veil was also accented with seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book creited with a white Gardenia and deep red rose buds

The bride's sister, Mrs. Douglas Hayes, Toronto, was matron of honour and wore a princess-style gown of red velvet and carried a cascade bouquet of white mums. The flower girl, Miss Wendy Warne Toronto, dressed in red velvet and carried white mums.

Mr. Ronald Warne home on leave from Germany was best-man for his brother. The bride's brothers Harold and Bryan were ushers.

At the reception in the parish hall the bride's mother received, wearing a gown of rose beige velvet with black accessories. The groom's mother assisted wearing an oysterskin broaded sheath with brown accessories.

The couple left by car for their new home in Winnipeg where the groom holds a position with the Hudson Bay Co. The bride and groom are both graduates of Ryerson Institute of Technology in Ryerson Hotel and Restaurant Administration.

McAlpine McGill

Janetville (PNS) — The many friends and acquaintances of Mr. McAlpine McGill in the village and surrounding country, were shocked and deeply grieved when on Tuesday Nov. 20th, it was learned that he had passed away very suddenly at the home of his nephews, Messrs Percy and Walter Walker in Janetville, where he had made his home for many years.

"Calph," as he was familiarly called had not been ill at all, but on Tuesday, following his return from work at noon he complained of a pain, which he thought was caused by indigestion. A doctor was called at once, but before his arrival, Mr. McGill had passed away.

He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McGill of Janetville, where he was born and lived his entire life, of 76 years. Mr. McGill who was unmarried, was a member of the United Church and by trade was a plate-maker. He was a most pleasant man and reliable, as a workman, as every farmer for many miles around can testify and exhibit some of the splendid work in the line of building that had been done by Calph McGill. He will be greatly missed by all.

Surviving to mourn his loss and to cherish his memory are one brother, Mr. Bruce McGill of Hamilton, and four nephews, Messrs. Moseom Walker, Percy Walker, Walter Walker, all of Janetville and Stanley of Toronto. Two sisters (Maggie) Mrs. Joe Walker and (Bella) Mrs. Robert Nugent, predeceased him, and also a brother Allan, who lived in Western Canada.

Funeral services were held at the residence on Friday, Nov. 23rd and were conducted by Rev. Mr. Bousteel, pastor of the Janetville United Church.

The pallbearers were Bud and Joe Walker, Earl and Ronnie Walker, Mervyn Werry, of Blackstock and Bruce McGill, of Hamilton. Interment was made in the Janetville United Church Cemetery.

Love ang respect for the deceased was testified to by the many beautiful floral tributes.

DINNER FOR BABY-SITTERS IS NO CHORE

When it's your night out, neither you or the baby-sitter wants to spend a lot of time on the preparation of her dinner. Make it easy on yourself, and easy for her, by providing a luscious frozen chicken pie—from the grocer's freezer.

Ready to cook and eat, each pie is a generous 8-ounce serving of savory chunks of chicken and smooth rich gravy in a tender flaky crust. You might stock your freezer with turkey and beef pies, too. Then, there are three kinds to choose from.

All the baby-sitter needs to do is bake the pie in the pan for about 40 minutes in a (425°F.) oven. Out it will come, golden brown and crisp outside, succulent and steaming within. Along with the chicken pie, your teenage helper can have shoestring potatoes and a pretty molded salad (from what you've prepared for the family's dinner next day). For dessert, regardless of her age, she'll enjoy a piece of "Glamour Girl" Angel Cake. You can make this in tiptime, using a packaged mix. Bake it either in a large tube pan, or in the individual angel cake pans now available.

To make Jellied Fall Fruit Salad: Prepare 1 package lime-flavored gelatin, adding 2 tablespoons vinegar with the cold water; chill until slightly thickened. Fold in ½ cup chopped celery, ½ cup coarsely chopped apple, and ½ cup seedless grapes. Pour into 4 or 6 individual molds or a square cake pan; chill until firm.

TOPPING FOR PIES IS FREEZER READY

If you have a freezer, you'll like this trick. Whip cream and freeze it in mounds; store in the freezer. These frozen mounds of cream are wonderful for topping the individually packaged frozen fruit pies you can buy and store. To freeze the whipped cream, just whip it as usual; drop in small mounds on pie plates. When frozen, remove and store gounds in plastic bags or freezer cartons.

BRING OUT THE SOUP TUREEN!

Here's a beautiful soup, thick and satisfying as any old-fashioned potage your grandmother might have made. But this soup is as modern as the freezer that holds the ingredients. Simply combine and heat slowly: 1 can (10½-ounce size) of frozen condensed oyster stew, 1 can (10½-ounce size) of frozen condensed cream of potato soup, 1½ cups of diced cooked ham, and 1½ soup cans of water. Four big soup plates can be filled to the brim with heart-warming goodness.

To make Glamour Girl Cake: Prepare angel food cake from your favorite mix. Fold a few drops of red food coloring and ½ teaspoon peppermint flavoring into the batter. Bake in large tube pan or in individual angel cake pans. Frost with white frosting, sprinkle with crushed peppermint stick candy.

MRS. FRANK RICH ENTERTAINS WMS

Oakwood (PNB) — A large number of members and friends attended the November meeting of the W. M. S. of Oakwood United Church at the home of Mrs. Frank Rich. Vice president Mrs. Hugh Stroud was in the chair, and Mrs. W. A. Lane at the piano.

Mrs. Teel led the Worship service, and was assisted by Mrs. L. M. Scott who led the discussion on Ephesians. The study for the evening was on Korea, and was led by Mrs. Teel, assisted by Mrs. Dawson and Mrs. B. Moynes.

During the business period, the treasurer, Mrs. Frank Rich reported that all but $45.00 of the allocation had been received. She also reported on the work of the East Oakwood Mission Band. Mrs. Ewart Rogers reported on the splendid quality of the October Bale, which netted about $100, and a discussion was held concerning further work of the Supply Committee. Literature Secretary, Mrs. Hardy called attention to books available for reading on the current study of S. E. Asia. Mrs. Percy Teel told of activities of the C. G. I. T.

The following ladies were appointed as the nominations committee — Mrs. A. Dawson, Mrs. M. Jenkins Mrs. Stanley Rien and Mrs. B. Moynes.

Lunch was served by the committee and a pleasant social time enjoyed.

Fireside Gathering See Bible Film

Pencion Falls (PNB) — The first Fireside gathering of the winter season featured a science film "God of Creation" producing by the Moody Bible Institute. The film portrayed in vivid colour a few of the mysterious and magnitude of nature... the insects, the stars and the flowers, all of which conveyed a telling message.

Rev. Wm. Patterson was chairman for the service, which was preceded by a prelude of band music by the Salvation Army Band, conducted by Bandmaster Al. Brokenshire. Mr. J. E. Barrett led the opening sing song of familiar gospel hymns and the devotional period was conducted by Rev. Harold James, who read the 19th psalm stressing the first verse. — "The Heavens declare the glory of God and the firmament showeth his handiwork," as being particularly fitting to the picture. Three young men from Glenarm, Messrs. James Nesbitt, Keith Hargrave and Howard Nesbitt, accompanied at the piano by Miss Catherine McKay, contributed two messages in song: "A Great Day In Glory," and "I Want My Life to Count for Jesus."

Mr. Patterson, representing the Ministerial Association, who sponsor the "Fireside" announced a few plans for future gatherings, which promise to be most inviting.

Sr. Major Earle Harris closed the service with prayer.

Canadian Stylists Contribute

Elegance in Fashion World

In the elegant but competitive world of high fashion, Canadian designers are steadily climbing up the gilt-edged ladder of public acceptance, and recently, international acclaim. Twenty top-flight Canadian Couturiers united in 1954 in a bid to bring Canada into the fashion spotlight hitherto the privileged domain of the "big Four" style setters who dictate fashions from Paris, Rome, London and New York. Above, Montreal's Marie France, whose creations have a romantic flair, works on a ballerina-length gown of Canadian nylon.

Backstage, before the show, there is all the bustle and excitement of an opening night. Petite Elaine Bedard, above, frequently models the costumes created by Jacques Michel whose clothes have an appealing "young-in-heart" air.

A close relationship exists between the Association and the Canadian Primary Textile Industry. Many of their shows feature Canadian textiles exclusively. Above, France Davies, of Montreal, discusses a new fabric with Canadian stylist Dick Whalley.

The Association of Canadian Couturiers set out to make its mark in the realm of haute couture with a purpose as sharp and pointed as a dressmaker's needle: to develop style trends more closely tailored to Canadian needs and the rigors of the Canadian climate and to exploit the fashion possibilities of the exciting new fabrics being produced by Canada's flowering textile industry. Above, members of the Association gather in the salon of President Marie-Paule to discuss arrangements for a Montreal showing.

The Association has attracted the attention of Canadian garment manufacturers who have bought and copied many of the cleverly styled creations. In this way the Couturiers hope to broaden the scope of their influence, formerly restricted to an elite clientele.

Designer Raoul-Jean Fouré, of Montreal, has discovered endless possibilities in the versatile "Made in Canada" synthetic fabrics featured by the Association.

Charles E. Courtney

Charles Edward Courtney passed away early Tuesday morning, Nov. 27th, 1956, at the Lindsay Private Hospital as the result of a fall suffered over four weeks ago in which he sustained a fractured hip.

Late; infection developed in his arm making recovery at his advanced year, impossible.

Mr. Courtney was born in Lindsay, March 8th, 1874, elder son of the late Charles Henry Courtney and his wife, Maria Catherine Hepburn. He spent the greater part of his life in Lindsay with the exception of a few years in Toronto and Western Canada and was a carpenter and contractor until failing health. The result of two previous severe accidents made it necessary for him to retire many years ago.

He had a kindly considerate disposition and sacrificed his whole life for his loved ones. He is survived by one brother James Henry Courtney of Duluth Minn., at present seriously ill in hospital and an only sister, Irene Minty, of Lindsay who resided with her brother.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday, Nov. 29th from the McArthur Funeral Home by the Rev. Rackham, substituting for Rev. Dr. Neal of Cambridge St. United Church. "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," a favourite hymn of deceased was read during the service as a request and the remains were laid to rest in the family plot at Riverside cemetery.

The following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: Messrs. H. J. McMullen, Ted Oke, J. Hennessey, A. Blewett, R. White and L. J. Johnstone.

How Can I

How can I remove stains from the hands, and keep them in good condition? Instead of using soap on the hands, use a small cup of paste composed of vinegar and cornmeal. Just try it and see!

DAMAGE BY FIRE

Blackstock (PNS) — Fire of undetermined origin broke out in Vine's service station and did considerable damage but fortunately did little damage to the lunch room. Fire brigades from Port Perry and Cannetons responded to the call.

understood that this is not Council's doing, but the Chamber's. If there's any credit they can take it all. And if there's any trouble . . . it's all theirs."

Deputy-reeve HOLTOM: "I would like to see it given a try."

Mayor HICK: "Gentlemen, council is representative of all the people of Lindsay, not just a group. Therefore we must decide whether the majority of the citizens would approve of this plan. The Chamber can't take the credit or blame since it all comes back to the council who approved or rejected the plan in the first place."

Deputy-reeve HOLTOM: "I would like to see this tring for three days and if it is not working out the Chief could have the authority to enforce the by-law. How much revenue will the town lose?"

Clerk ALLELY: "The revenue from the meters for that week is between $350 to $400."

Dep-reeve HOLTOM: "That's quite a nice chunk for the town to donate."

The matter was put to a vote and approved by 8 - to - 3 Councillors Breese, Maidens, and McCrae were opposed.

Mayor Hick said: "Remember, you will have no parking regulations in town that week. I am afraid that you are making a mistake in approving this."

Doesn't

Mr. Breese explained there was a serious problem of water freeze-up, since one house, (the centre one), being vacant, the lone water supply to the third house might easily freeze. He also said that living conditions within the buildings were not at all suitable.

"I suggest that Mr. Reynolds of the water board and the engineer be asked to check and see what can be done. If there was a freeze up, we would be in quite a mess," said Mr. Breese.

Councillor Hutton, said he felt the whole thing was Mr. Breese's responsibility, as chairman of town property, to which Mr. Breese replied that he was no technician and he felt Mr. Reynolds and Mrs. Timberlake would have more ability to judge the situation.

Councillor Lamb said that Mr. Reynolds should be given the power to act in order to affect any necessary repairs or adjustments to the water supply situation which might be required.

Councillor McCRAE: "Mr. Lamb would you approve of town spending an unknown amount of money to fix up the water situation in a house which must be vacated in a few days anyway?"

Councillor LAMB: "I'd do it before I'd put him out on the street."

Councillor HUTTON: "It's a matter of principle."

The discussion came to a close when Mayor Hick swerved that both Mr. Reynolds and Mr. Timberlake had sufficient integrity to examine the situation and bring a comprehensive report to Council next week.

Regents Drop 10-8 Against Peterboro

With heavy body checking suspended for the evening, goals were plentiful Monday night as Peterboro B's beated the short-staffed Regents 10-8. O'Connell, Davis, Lewis, Taj Mondick and Bill Hennessey, filled in the gaps as a conditioner for future contests.

Jago, Gardner, Darling, Crosby and Haig proved puck-passing opportunists to lend the B's while Hutton, Crawford, Davis, Teal, Growden, Parker and Lou Hennessey fired Regents goals.

How Long Has Curling Been Going On

"How long has curling been going on? After asking this question some of times, we still don't know the answer for sure. What we do know though is that "The Roaring Game" has been played for hundreds of years. As evidence of this is a coloured plate in Cleve Dayman's office, a reproduction of a painting by a Dutch artist, titled "Winter Sports in the Ice." One of the sports depicted is undoubtedly curling, whilst another bears a close resemblance to what might be ice hockey. The significant point about this picture is that it was painted before the year 1590 since the artist died in that year. So we know that curling goes back to before 600 A.D. and that's quite a stretch of time.—Curling Bulletin.

31.4% VOTE ELECTS 1957 COUNCIL

Hutton Polls Top Vote, Peirce, Polito Elected; R. Siddle On School Bd.

An estimated 31.4 per cent of the eligible voters of Lindsay cast their ballots on Monday to elect the 1957 council. This figure represents 1,741 votes cast. Voters in Ward Two were also called upon to select their representative to the Public School Board.

Here are the successful candidates listed in order of votes received:

Joseph A. Hutton	1,156
B. C. Maidens	1,056
Russell Lamb	990
Lloyd G. Pound	987
Harry Peirce	971
Roy Polito	929

The unsuccessful candidate for council was Gordon A. Pepper who received a total of 900 votes.

In the school board, Ronald Siddle defeated Dr. J. B. Coburn by a vote of 199 to 185.

After the polls had closed at 6.30 p.m. Monday, all returns were entered and tabulated within 45 minutes. Returning Officer W. R. Allely said that voting through the day was very light at all sub-divisions and only picked up late in the afternoon. It was pointed out that a heavy fall of snow and generally adverse weather conditions may have contributed to the relatively small vote.

There were more votes cast in this election, however than in the election last December. At that time 21.4 per cent of the voters cast their ballots, which represented 1,324 persons o fa possible 5,540. This year 1,471 votes were polled.

Mr. David Clee Guest Speaker

Haliburton (PNS) — An evening of interest was held in the Haliburton County High School auditorium when a capacity crowd attended the commencement exercises.

A highlight of the evening was the presentation of certificates. Another special item of interest was the address given by Mr. David Clee of Toronto. This noted guest speaker is a former school teacher in Haliburton. Mr. Clee is heard on T.V. in the interests of young people.

After the presentation and addresses, a lovely lunch was served. Later a dance followed and continued until midnight.

HIGHWAY DEPT. TAKES OVER COUNTY ROAD

Omemee (PNS) — The Provincial Highway Dept has taken over the County road between Fowler's Corners and Scott's Corners, thus improving the connecting link of some six miles between No. 7 Highway and No. 28 Highway.

This road, which runs along the boundary line separating Peterborough, Victoria and Durham Counties, has been a short-cut to Port Hope. Work of widening, grading, etc., will begin as soon as possible and very likely some buildings that are too close to the surveyors line will have to be moved.

LINDSAY MEN at SUNNYBROOK

Reports have been received on the condition of local members of the Canadian Legion who are patients in Sunnybrook Hospital, from officials who have returning from a visit.

Messrs. J. J. Spencer, W. D. MacArthur, and Sam Brazier are reported to be doing well. Mr. Roy McLean is scheduled to undergo surgery this week.

Unfortunately Norman "Cappy" Williams is reported to be still in very serious condition.

Talk On Gardens Is Given By Leroy Brown

Coboconk (PNS) — Coboconk Home and School Association met in the school with the president presiding. Following reading of minutes, treasurer's report and other business, the speaker was introduced by Mrs. Jean Callan.

Mr. Leroy Brown of Lindsay, Agriculture Representative for Victoria County, gave a very interesting talk on garden planting. He showed lovely slides on agriculture, some from the district.

Mr. Walter Robertson thanked the speaker. A committee of three were appointed to help the teachers with costumes for the children's Christmas programme. There will be no December meeting.

Laff it off

Rossini, the Italian composer, heard that some healthy admirers in France were planning to erect a statue in his honour.

"How much will it cost?" the composer asked.

"About ten million francs," was the answer.

Joseph Hutton

Councillor Joseph Hutton, who made his first appearance on Lindsay's Council last June when he was elected following the death of Richard Butler, polled the highest vote of all candidates for council in Monday's election, receiving a total of 1,156 votes, exactly 100 votes more than B. C. Maidens who ran second.

VARIETY PROGRAM IS PRESENTED AT BAND CONCERT

Omemee (PNS) —Omemee Legion Band added a concert on 2,000 coronation Hall Sunday afternoon under the direction of Bandmaster Ronald Williamson.

The program consisted of cornet solos by Marie Morrison, two vocal solos by Mrs. J. Hayes, entitled "Smiling Through" and "In The Garden." Charles Evans rendered a cornet solo, "The Lord's Prayer." Jerry Nelson contributed with a bass horn solo "Asleep in The Deep". Two trombone solos were rendered by Dr. Lourcid of Bethany accompanied by Mrs. Art Williamson.

The band played a selection of numbers including "Military Escort," "Stars and Stripes Forever", "Sousa March", and a medley of hymns.

Bandmaster Williamson a versatile artist on any instrument played an intricate cornet solo accompanied by Leslie Mann.

Down With Common Cold

White statesmen, admirals and generals are concerned with wars and rumors of war, the United States Navy has been quietly conducting a campaign on the Great Lakes against one of the greatest plagues of peace — acute coryza commonly known as the common cold. A report from Chicago says a crew aboard a vessel on 5,000 sailors has been found from 50 to 70 per cent. effective.

There are few who do not know from experience what a common cold is, and, few if any, who know exactly what causes it. It is caused by infection with bacteria, but bacteriologists, until recently at any rate, have been unable to lay the blame on a single specific germ. The study has been made difficult by the fact that many species of bacteria are constant inhabitants of the healthy throat.

The attribution usually runs a course of three to ten days, and the best treatment, according to the best medical opinion, is rest in bed with such palliatives as may alleviate the misery. Rest should be insisted on if the temperature is over 100 degrees or if the patient is afflicted with some chronic ailment, such as diabetes or heart disease. The sufferer who goes about his business as usual is exposing others to infection, and running the risk of serious complications.

Sailors are usually considered as an unusually hardy class, and it is surprising to learn that respiratory illnesses constitute the U. S. Navy's Number One medical problem. If the experiments now being conducted lead to discovery of a cure of preventive, they will benefit untold millions of landlubbers, and give point to Milton's saying that "Peace hath her victories no less renowned than war." —The Telegram.

Fire Hazards Pointed Out By Fire Chief

Fire Chief A. W. Watson has prepared some worthwhile information well in advance of Christmas concerning the potential fire hazards which can lurk in homes during the holiday season. He points out many of the dangers which are present and offers some constructive advice.

"Year after year, the merry Christmas season is overshadowed by tragic fires and loss of life due to careless and improper use of decorations. Christmas, being the festive season that it is, tends to make us forget the ever-present danger of fire in the gay tinsel, and glittering lights that decorate our homes.

"The Yuletide fire loss statistics for the past number of years form a pattern such a consistent pattern that we can almost predict the number of deaths and disastrous fires which will occur this coming season. Sadly enough, helpless children seem to be the most frequent victims, yet the precautions are put up for their particular benefit.

"In selecting your tree choose one that is not too large—remember, the larger the tree, the greater the potential hazard. To our knowledge there is no such things as a fire-proof Christmas tree—be wary of such claims by tree sellers. To ensure freshness cut a growing tree yourself, if possible, otherwise, when buying a tree test to see that the needles and branches are not dry and brittle. Keep the tree outdoors in the snow until you are ready to set it up. Just before setting it up, saw off the trunk diagonally at least one inch above the original cut. Then support the tree in a good solid stand in such a position that the diagonal cut can be completely immersed in water. The tree will absorb the water rapidly; therefore, keep the water level daily. An excellent fire prevention measure is to keep a pail of water at a reasonable distance from the tree during the time it is in the house. The tree should be situated in such a position that it does not block an escape route should it catch fire, and furthermore, should be kept away from all sources of heat, e.g., radiators, etc. An evergreen tree contains considerable amounts of pitch and resin, both extremely combustible substances, and burns furiously to charred wood in eighteen seconds.

"Obviously, lighted candles must never be used on Christmas trees, but the electric lights that are recommended in they place are not entirely foolproof, either. These lights must carry the approval label nonogram, or an approval number on the manufacturers nameplate, of the Canadian Standards Association. Insist upon flame-proof or non-inflammable decorations when buying these items. Before using the lights, each cord, connection and socket should be checked for fraying and damage. Remember — light bulbs produce heat—heat produces fire. Keep all bulbs from touching the tree. There should be no more than four lights sets on any house circuit and this circuit must be protected with a fuse of not over fifteen amperes. Turn off the lights before retiring or leaving the house.

"Due to the ever-increasing use of flammable plastics in the manufacture of gifts and children's toys, particular caution must be used in the choice of gifts for young children. Also on the market are many toys which operate on alcohol, gasoline, or some other flammable liquid, and the danger inherent in some of these playthings must be appreciated.

"Only metal, glass, asbestos or other non-flammable or flame-proofed decorations should be used.

BEING RETIRED—The RCAF has announced that two of its once first-line aircraft, including the first jet to come into operational service with the Air Force, are being declared surplus. The piston-engined Harvard (top), a day fighter in service during the Second World War and since, and the Jet Vampire, used to equip the Air Force's first jet squadrons in 1948, are being retired after long and useful service. A model of each is being retained and will be held in storage by the RCAF.

FALLS IN HOME AT HALIBURTON

Mrs. Laura Brohm of Mountain Street fell in her home on Sunday morning and she received several bruises and injured her back. Dr. Good was called and Mrs. Brohm is resting in bed for a few days.

to decorate the house and, above all, allow no smoking near the Christmas tree. The fireplace must not be overlooked and a substantial screen should be placed in front of the open hearth to prevent the possibility of flying sparks. Each year the death of some good-hearted would be Santa Claus is recorded because of his costume or simulated beard being set afire. Many of the children's gifts include flimsy paper or cloth costumes, which, when ignited, transform the child into a human torch. Only flame-proofed material should be used in these costumes.

"Church candlelight services have ended in funeral services in past instances. Safety battery candles, if used in this type of service, are just as effective and are safer than open-flame candles.

"At this time of year, there is an ever-increasing tendency for unthinking parents to leave children alone or improperly attended while visiting relatives, friends, and, quite often, drinking establishments. In addition to the moral obligation of parents to protect their offspring, they can be charged under the Criminal Code for failing to provide proper protection for their children.

"The use of baby-sitters introduces other serious problems. Many baby-sitters do not even know the address of the home in which they are minding the children, and could not give the correct address to the fire department should a fire occur. It must also be remembered that a baby-sitter is not as familiar with a house as those who live in it. Any outside person given the responsibility of the children while the parents are out should be carefully briefed as to location of exits and the telephone, the fire department telephone number and the address and telephone number of the place to which the parents are going. These instructions should be in writing as well as verbal."

James Wallis IODE Chapter Pledges $750 To RMH Fund

Pencion Falls (PNS) — The November meeting of the James Wallis Chapter I. O. D. E. which was held in the Rebecca Lodge conditorium opened with the prayer of the Order and the placing of the flags. This was followed by the routine business proceedings.

Mrs. F. W. Webster, educational secretary reported on the presentation of business, donated by the chapter at the recent High School Commencement. Several other secretaries reported.

The matter of contributing to the Expansion Fund of Ross Memorial Hospital was discussed, and it was decided to pledge $750 which will furnish a private room.

Mrs. Hugh Hepburn conducted a Chinese Auction, which was thoroughly enjoyed.

Delicious refreshments were served by the tea convener, Mrs. Howard McInnes and her assistants.

Six Contestants All Seeking To Fill Four Council Seats

Omemee (PNS) — Prospects of a three-cornered race for reeveship of this village developed at the nomination meeting held in Coronation Hall.

Opposing present Reeve L. W. MacKenzie at the polls will be ex-reeve Harry Deyell and councillor Walter J. Reeds.

Cost of Living Climbs Again

The Bureau of Statistics says that the consumer price index hit a record high of 120 point three on November first. Higher prices for 1957 model passenger cars coupled with increases for theatre admissions, haircuts and hairdressing, some drugs and liquor, resulted in the largest monthly upswing in this component of the index in several years. (BUP).

PRINCIPAL GIVES DETAILED REPORT ON ACTIVITIES

Pencion Falls (PNS) — All members were present at the November meeting of the Pencion Falls Public School Board. Mr B. Dalby was also present.

A letter was read from Mr C. W. Lesse, regarding chest x-ray examinations for teachers and employees of the school.

The principal, Mr B. Dalby, presented a report to the board regarding (1) Inspection visits through class rooms, which proved very satisfactory; (2) arrangements made, subject to approval of the Trustees, for a children's Christmas concert to be held. (3) Hospital Expansion Campaign. Teachers have set a minimum objective of $800, to be raised by teachers and scholars for the fund. (4) Flower gardens arranged and prepared for a profusion of spring flowering bulbs. (5) Sand boxes and bicycle racks constructed. (6) Damage to school door on November 21st during heavy wind storm. Although pupils were entering the door, at the time, Mr. Dalby noted that they were not a contributing factor.

A report from Dr. C. C. Graham, M.O.H. noted that 102 pupils have been innoculated with anti polio vaccine recently.

The Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. Wm. Mallion was instructed to check with Mr. Dalby regarding pupils attending the school from outside the recognized area and refer to previous motions regarding bills being sent to individuals affected; also to those, if any, who have been delinquent in payment of same. Mr. In the absence through illness of clerk Horace Hill, Mr. Ross Rehelli was in charge of the nominations.

Nominations for council were Clare Hyde, W. J. Reeds, George Stephenson and Wilson Ellis, all members of 1956 council, Clarence Wright, Wilfred Wilson, Richard Vaughan, Brackley Shaw, Arthur Jamieson, Joan Windrem and Byron Hyland.

Messrs. Windrem, Shaw, Vaughan, and Hyland withdrew, leaving the remaining six to contest the four seats.

For Hydro Commission, Mr. Cecil Jones and Austin Hayes were re-Board. Messrs. Gordon Babcock, elected.

To fill vacancies in the School Jack Smith, Larry McQuade and T. J. Pope were nominated.

Reeve MacKenzie said it was a memorable experience to have served on County Council although his real interest was in village affairs. He was glad to have been one of those instrumental in having weed-clearing accomplished in the rivers of the County. He was not in favor of construction of the Pigeon Lake causeway, fearing that it would steer tourist traffic away from this area. He congratulated Ex-Reeve Deyell on the excellence of the Home for the aged.

Mr. Reeds received the work of Council and presented figures of the expenditure on road maintenance and bridge construction, over $7,000 being investing in the new bridge on the old railroad track.

Geo. Stephenson prophesied no markedincrease in village taxes except for school expenses.

Motion of thanks was moved to W. Ellis who had been an untiring worker in care of the roads and streets.

Harry Sisson, secretary of the School Board gave a summary of school expenses; Debentures of $103,000 were sold and costs of building of the new school kept within this figure.

Chesley Bast read the financial report of the Hydro.

E. Jackett was instructed to arrange for repair of damaged door.

Following a discussion of the proposed erection of a wire fence around the school grounds, Messrs. Dixon, Leach, and Hanthorn were named as a committee to investigate and report on estimates regarding same.

Our Own and Other Opinions

THESE FELLOWS DESERVE CREDIT

The deer hunting season, which closed in this area last weekend, established something of a record . . . a record which is worthy of honourable mention and every encouragement to maintain it intact. As was, as far as we know, a fatality-free hunt, one of the first in several years.

Hunting accidents, particularly the fatal accidents which have been recorded in this district in the past, have always seemed so tragically unnecessary and, for the most part, seemingly easily avoidable if ordinary common-sense precautions were employed while in the bush, that it was virtually impossible to understand why the same things continued to happen over and over again. Invariably, in the case of a hunting fatality, the report would come through and the explanation would be to the effect that the victim had been mistaken for an animal—"I saw something moving and fired"—so went the almost stereotyped version how the accident occurred.

We believe the record established by hunters participating this year is worthy of the highest praise and its perpetuation cannot be too strongly advocated.

BIG WORDS, SMALL SPACE

A future Ph.D. student may be able to determine the influence that headline writers have on the English language. Like the writers of sonnets and fugues they have to fill a form and there is no allowance for too little or too much. A half-filled line is as inexcusable as a line of a sonnet in iambic pentameter which has only two feet, or a fugue whose second voice has failed to carry the full theme. As the poet or composer is disciplined by his form, so the headline writer is sharpened by the two-inch width of his column.

The scope is flexible when the words are strong and short:

Big Ben Booms
Exit Great Tom

leads the story efficiently and well. But trouble comes when the headline should include long words like Peterborough. Rokossovsky, Eisenhower, Bulganin, and Khrushchev, township, Hammarskjold Invention is the mother of necessity. Inevitably like, B & K, twp and Dag (for Hammarskjold) become colange

(Fenelon Falls)

Mrs. E. Vanatter presided for the fall Thankoffering meeting of the W.M.S. of Fenelon Falls United Church, which was held in the Sunday School room, with a large attendance. The meeting was opened with a hymn of thanksgiving, followed by a prayer written by one of the missionaries in the Caribou.

Mrs. F. W. Webster introduced the programme, a two act play "Second Class Citizen", which was written by a member of the United Nations, with the theme. "The Protection of Human Rights". Presenting the impressive play were Mrs. Geo. Palmer, Mrs. J. E. Barrett, Mrs. T. C. Graham, Miss F. M. Neate, Mrs. C. Rutherford, Mrs. A. W. McGee, Mrs. D. A. Scott and Mrs. F. W. Webster. There was much food for thought in the play, as people who are inclined to take their freedom and rights for granted realize that "It Could Happen Here".

The devotional period with the theme"Not Your Own Deed" which continued the study of Ephesians was conducted by Mrs. F. Webster. She was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Webster, who read a portion of Scripture from Ephesians and left a number of key questions with the audience for their consideration.

Miss Viola McIntosh brought a few of the highlights of the Fall Rally held in Little Britain, after which, Mrs. F.M. Graham read excerpts from an article by Robert McCrachen of Riverside Presbyterian Church, New York, entitled "Money Can Be Beautiful". She concluded her talk with a fitting meditation on "Stewardship".

The meeting was closed with the W.M.S. benediction repeated in unison. Lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed by all.

APPOINT SECRETARY
(FENELON FALLS)

At the October meeting of the Fenelon Falls Union School Section Public School Board the application of Mr. Wm. Mallion for Secretary-treasurer was accepted. Mr. Mallion commenced his new duties on November 1st at a salary of $300 per annum. Five applications for the position were received by the board.

Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Hebel and Mr. Dalby of the Public School staff attended the meeting to discuss matters pertaining to school.

It was moved by Mr. Hanthorn, seconded by Mr. Dixon that the following accounts be paid: Bell Telephone, $5.95; Book Society $1.79; A Shesta $18.77; Handley Planing Mill $26.28;Moyer School Supplies $14. 35; Brandon and Murchison $255.04; Brandon and Murchison $164.00; Petty Cash $34.31; Geo. H. Palmer Insurance $309.05.

It was moved by Mr. Leach, seconded by Mr. Graham that the Liability Insurance Policy be increased to $50,000.00 individual and $100,000.00 on groups and that $1000 be added to property damage with the Geo. H. Palmer Insurance Co.

RAIL VETS ELECT OFFICERS

Election of Canadian National Railway Veterans' Association officers for the Lindsay Branch was carried out at a meeting held in Moose Hall, Thursday night. It resulted as follows: G. H. Palmer-1. P.P., F. Augustus President, L. Gordon-Vice Pres., H.G. Dickey-Sec.-Treas.

Among those present: From Toronto-Vic. Roberts, Ed Stewart, F. Bennett, Bert Johnston, Nell Seward, Stewart Wilkinson, E. Sheppard, Jack Bailey, J. Obern, A. Jones, T. H. Nugent, E. J. Moxley, J. Melkle, W. Pass; From Whitby-E. N. Granger; Oshawa-Stouffville-M. S. Mowatt, R. N. Johnston and J. W. Wheeler from Lorneville.

Lorneville W.M.S.

Lorneville W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. H. Campbell with a very good attendance. President, Mrs Marshall opened the meeting.

A business period followed and the treasurer's report was given.

Mrs. Moore read an article on Temperance and Mrs. Shaw took charge of the devotional period, assisted by Mrs. Sweet, Mrs. Corner and Mrs. Middleton. Mrs. Hargrave introduced the new study book, "The Church in south east Asia" and used a map to introduce the location which was very interesting and helpful. A discussion followed about helping a needy family.

Lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. H. Goard, Mrs. R. Flynt and Mrs. K. Luke. Mrs. Roy Shaw is to be Christmas meeting hostess.

Mrs. Albert West Entertains Eden WA

Eden (PNS) — The annual meeting of the Eden W. A. convened at the home of Mrs. Albert West. There were 19 members, five guests and nine children present.

Mrs. G. Cameron and her group conducted the worship service. Their theme was "Perfect Trust and Perfect Peace"; Mrs. B. Upton read a psalm and Mrs. Jack Jewell lead in prayer. Mrs. Cameron gave an inspiring topic. She said, "Not only should we be at peace with the nations, but, also be at peace with God."

The business was in charge of the president, Mrs. Harold Jewell. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the sec-treas. Mrs. Lorn Jewell, and a report of finances given. Balance on hand $250.21; a successful chicken supper was held in the school recently clearing $67.81; donations from birthday box $9.72; bazaar fund amounted to $111.62.

A motion was made to give $20.00 to the general fund and $10.00 to the M. & M., making a total of $140.00 to general fund and $35.00 to M. & M. of the church this year. There was also a motion that $10.00 be sent to the Temperance Federation, and that transportation to the Rally at Omemee be paid. Eden W. A. were asked to supply a secretary for the Presbytery, and Mrs. Lee has consented to help.

Thank-you notes were read from Mr. Norman Eagleson and Mrs. Joan Cullis. A vote of thanks to the president was given, and she replied with words of appreciation to all.

Mrs. Finney occupied the chair for the election of officers. Mrs. Harvey Greenaway, president; Mrs. John Tamlin, 1st vice president; Mrs. Lorne Jewell, sec-treasurer; organists, Mrs. Albert West and Mrs. Norman Lee; flower committee, Mrs. Ganton Carr, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. W. Mollon and Mrs. Harry Bacon; parsonage committee — Mrs. H. Greenaway, Mrs. Finney and Mrs. J. Tamlin; auditors, Mrs. Howard Western and Mrs. Elwood Stroud.

Editorial

ON GUARD!

STRUCK BY ICICLE WOMAN IN HOSPITAL

"St. Marys, Nov. 28 — An icicle fell 40 feet from a three-story building and struck Mrs. Ralph Hanley, 65, on the head.

In hospital, it was found she had only a minor head injury but had suffered a fractured hip when she fell to the sidewalk."

The brief item above reminds us that winter's icicle crop presents a hazard which deserves some eliminative action. Beautiful as icicles are in safe places, they have no place in a travelling area. Citizens would be doing themselves a favor to "clip" off icicles overhanging from their homes in areas where they or others walk and owners of downtown premises with overhanging eaves would be contributing to safety by keeping them free of these sabre-like ice formations.

This is ideal weather for massive formations. Have you noticed them?

Home For Aged Visited By W.I.

The members of the Lindsay W. I. visited the Victoria County Home bringing treats for all and providing an excellent programme with Mrs Deyman, convener in the chair.

After singing enjoyed by all, the programme was as follows: selection on the Bag Pipes by Shirley and Doris Brasier; solo by Francis Taylor, accompanied by Mrs. McArthur; dance and son by three girls, accompanied by Mrs. McArthur; dance and song by three girls, accompanied by Mr. Johnston; solo by Edgar Smith; a monologue by Mrs. Rosdall, "The Baby Sitter"; Scotch song by David McKay; sword dance by the Smith sisters; a selection by the Pipe Band girls; solo by Edgar Smith; solo by David McKay; solo by Francis Taylor.

After Mrs. Cross heartily thanked the W. I. the meeting closed by singing the Queen.

Snow Tires

It's time to get your snow tires on in case winter sets in early. There's nothing worse than having to put them on when the cold north wind blows. You'll be all set if you get the snow tires on and your car greased and you haven't a worry in the world. Believe it or not, it will be a real joy if you leave it.

Winter On Way

Some of us haven't even the windows washed and it is going to be bit too cold to do it. On a sunny day it isn't so bad but when the snow comes down you'd better leave it until next year. There are so many chores that one is liable to forget some of them. Better do it now than when more snow is flying and fur coats are the order of the day. We're quite liable to have a cold spirited and those fur coats will feel good when it comes.

Wassail Bough

Make a Wassail bough to hang up this Christmas. Here is an easy one to make in case you are interested. Some people wouldn't have Christmas without one. The base can be either cane or stiff boiling wire. Shape the cane or wire into three circles about two feet in diameter. Then fit these hoops together in a sphere and tie at the top and bottom intersecting for hanging it up. Next attach busy fir or spruce branches to the hoops, using fine wire. Decorate with Christmas tree baubles. Use one of your most delicate ornaments for the centre position. Hang wassail bough over a sideboard, or some place where it will not interfere with room passage.

Pines

Pines, particularly Scotch pines, are growing in popularity in Canada, especially in Ontario. Like firs, pines are moderately wide at the base — a five foot tree might be two-and-a-half feet in diameter —but the light, open look of the branches as they curve gracefully upward makes them suitable for small homes and apartments. The blue-green needles make a pleasant cool contrast with the reddy-brown bark that shows through the open branching. Pines look best with light, airy decorations. Pines retain their moisture for a long time and are least flammable type of Christmas tree. They seldom drop their long needles, especially if kept in water. An added dividend is the particularly spicy fragrance of pines.

Twin Portraits

A Canadian artist, Llewellyn Petley-Jones has been following the Queen around for more than a year and loves every minute of it.

When the Queen attended a recent parade for Victoria Cross winners, artist Petley-Jones was a few yards away, sketching her eyes.

And at Ascot he watched her majesty through binoculars to note the shape of her face.

Almost daily he has waited outside the gates of Buckingham Palace when the Queen was in residence to get a glimpse of her nose as she drove in and out.

Eight nights in succession he spent all alone at Madame Tussaud's Waxworks painting the Garter robes which drape the effigies of the Queen and her husband.

All this happened because 46-year old Petley-Jones has been commissioned by the Government of Alberta to do twin portraits of the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh.

The pictures are to hang behind the speaker's dais in the Alberta legislature in Edmonton.

Petley-Jones, father of seven children, was chosen out of 500 artists who applied for the commission. He had hoped the Queen would sit for him, but said it could not be arranged.

Now the paintings are finished. They will be exhibited in London before being shipped to Canada.

Our Bazaars

Already the Christmas bazaars are coming up and Cambridge Street United Church had theirs last week. One can pick up so many lovely hand-made gifts for your Christmas list and pay decorations for your coat to give an air of Christmas coming soon. The snow makes us very sure that the weatherman is starting early with winter and it is time to put on warmer clothes or you might catch a cold that will spoil your Christmas joy. So, wear your rubbers and your heavy coats and you'll enjoy your holidays better when they come along. It looked on Monday as if we would have winter in leaps and bounds and it could be thus it will stay with us.

One Dollar A Day

One genius has come up with the exact amount of money she should need for her clothing bills. The coat, according to the challenging woman, is one dollar a day. How does that compare with you, or do you do it for more or less? We are afraid this is a bit steep for many women who couldn't spend $365 in a year. How does this compare with you? It definitely won't provide a mink coat and the only way to get one is to let someone else buy it for you. It might work if the woman works out a long-term, clothing purchase plan, decided how much to spend on each item, and then sticks to her intentions. It also helps if she does some sewing at home. She might rely on sales and save some. But be sure you go to them with your money on your find and good values that you really need.

Don't Break Your Shovel

With the snow getting deeper by the minute we wonder if those high rubber boots have come to town. If this snow is a sample of winter we can be sure we'll need long rubber boots and galoshes. It could be that we'll have the heaviest winter for some time but even the weatherman doesn't predict that far ahead. One can always stick their neck out but they may have to take everything back.

Double Mint Fluff

The ingredients are three egg-whites, 1 ten ounce jar (about one cup) mint jelly, 1 and one-half tablespoons lemon juice, few drops of green food coloring and one cup heavy cream, whipped. Beat egg-whites, until foamy; gradually add one-half cup of the jelly (reserve the remainder), beating until stiff. Add lemon juice and green food coloring. Fold in whipped cream. Pour into refrigerator tray; freeze firm. Melt reserved jelly; stirring occasionally. Serve over the ice cream. Makes eight servings.

New Lunch

The newest in kitchen units, the lower part of cabinet doors pulls forward slightly, up and back to fit a flip, against long edge of cabinet—out of the way. Top door swings out and down in same manner. Note that the curved metal edge for fingerhold becomes an important part of the cabinet trim. Clever! The top part of these cabinets, including too-space area, all around the kitchen is converted to a row of tilt-out, roomy recessed drawers. They make dandy places to store large pans, big bowls, and other bulky items of regular use. Front panels won't scuff or mar.

Smaller Classes

Smaller classes for High School English students, . . .

That's what a New York State English Council Committee recommends.

The committee, after making a two-year study on the subject, issued a report that English teachers cannot do an adequate job for the average student when the teacher has and class loads are high.

Committee recommendations: — Classes in English limited to 25 students, and teach loads confined to 100 students.

Cosmetics

Cosmetics have been given a Christmas look with their gay colors and wrappings and no doubt Santa is watching to see how they like them. How they think up these new ideas dressing them for Christmas with the most unusual bottles as containers. Next to a mink coat, women love to get personal gifts that helps them keep their beauty from one Christmas to another. Watch their eyes gleem when they see a gift of cosmetics in their stocking. It may come from your girl friend or from Santa himself.

Read Directions

Did you know cranberries are in our shops? They seem to be very good ones this year and Christmas wouldn't be complete without them. So, get some and put them in sealers for the holiday. Make some into mould, for the Christmas feast and please don't cook the color out of them!

Hoods

Hoods are very popular in the fashion world and they are simple to make. They are very much like a bonnet or you can shape one of a scarf without too much work on it. The materials can be heavy or light and some of them just wrap around your head and often tied at the back. They are called hoods and one made with a glamorous fabric will pay dividends in your choice and looks. These hoods go formal also and brocaded are tops to glitter in the evening. Some are velvet lined and add a softness to them.

Christmas Baking

There is nothing like a Christmas cake to get you in the mood for the holidays this month. From the time it comes out of the oven you feel that something has been accomplished for the Christmas season head. Some like dark cakes while others like light cakes but they boys are lusty. You'll find the almonds a bit expensive this year but one can't do without them.

The Easier Way

Do you know about the coffee-stain remover that quickly restores plastic cups to like-new appearance with next to no effort on your part. The many virtues of plastic dinnerware have brought it into popular demand but heretofore the bane of to-remove coffee and tea stains that embed themselves on the inside of the cups have proved a disadvantage.

Christmas Trees

Santa's helpers aren't the only ones working overtime this holiday season . . .

Canadian wood-cutters are busy preparing about 17-million trees for Canada and the United States.

There are only a few weks for the cutting, grading and shipping the trees to market.

Household Hint:

Dress up a turkey by putting fruits or vegetables with fancy cutters.

Christmas Vegetable

No longer does the cook in your household have to serve canned vegetable on Christmas day. There are frozen peas, asparagus and many other dishes have the look of Christmas. Brocholi and pimento eyes you an attractive color combination and we're sure to be able to get it at Christmas. Cook it only until it is tender, put a piece in a small flash and top with several bits of pimento for color. It will look so attractive with the red for decoration. A yelling salad ring colored yellow will give it a lightness that only jello can. The center-piece may be turkey or ham and how you cook it depends on just how good it will taste. Follow your chart to the bitter end so you will have it perfect and you will get lots of compliments.

Delicious Substitute

Don't worry if you haven't a plum pudding for your last course at Christmas. Whip up a date pudding and it is sure to please you and your guests. Fruits and nuts are added whole! They get "chopped" when you slice this fruit cake: . . . (two pounds (5 cups) whole pitted dates, one cup mixed candied fruits and peels, one-cup drained maraschino cherries, three cups, of broken nuts . . . 1 cup sifted enriched flour, 1 cup sugar, 1 tea-spoon baking powder and ½ teaspoon salt, 4 beaten eggs. Combine fruits and nuts. Sift dry ingredients over fruit mixture; mix well. Add egg and blend thoroughly. Line two 8 by 4½ by 2½ inch loaf pans with paper, allowing one-half inch to extend above all sides. Pour batter into pans. Bake in slow oven (300) about one hour and forty minutes or until done. Cool 10 minutes and turn out of pans.

Busy Days Ahead

Soon greeting cards will be streaming, "everywhere, everywhere Christmas tonight."...

So let's pretend it's Christmas at your house now. The time is fitting (with bubbles and tinsel) . . . or perhaps sprayed with snow and dramatically strung with lights of one color. Those once-intriguing packages hold no surprise, now . . . but the gifts laid out for all to see. Dinner is over and the family is settled before the fire. It's been a happy day, but there's one more thing—you want to share the day with friends.

As hostess you can do this and still enjoy the fun if you plan carefully. Choose a buffet or open house—the easiest ways to entertain. Invite only as many guests as you can take care of. Consider your silver and china supply, food preparations and clean-up. Then delegate friends or relatives to help with specific jobs.

The menu you decide on is all-important. Avoid serving too many dishes which require last-minute fixing. Include one dish that can be made in a flash . . . using canned or frozen foods.

Gelatine salads and desserts are excellent because they look fancy but are made easily the day before. Perhaps you'll want to serve a ham, which lends itself perfectly to a buffet and is easy to garnish. See the words "Noel" or "Christmas in whole cloves. Another idea—cut star or Christmas trees from thin slices of jellied cranberry sauce and place on chilled orange slices round the ham.

You may want to feature punch on the table for an open house. Fresh cranberry juice makes a refreshing base. Put eight cups of washed cranberries in water and 12 whole cloves. Cover and bring to boil. Cook until skins pop — for about six to eight minutes. Strain and add four cups sugar. Cook slowly about five minutes. Cool. Then add one cup fresh or frozen orange juice, four tablespoons lemon juice and salt to taste. A tangy addition is dry, white wine, like rine wine. This serves 24.

For festive ice cubes, dilute frozen limeade concentrate and pour into a freezing tray with dividers in place. When partially frozen, press a cherry on top of each cube.

SNOW? IT'S BEAUTIFUL STUFF

Up until a few days ago autumn would never end. But winter was not to be denied and when it arrived it brought snow, sleet and cold, all in liberal quantities, the tall end of a record snow storm moving in from the U.S. Happy about this whole thing is Jane Coulter, four, Toronto, who thinks snow is just dandy.

3 TONS WIRE, FENELON HAUL

Second Time Hydro Warehouse Looted In Year

$5,000 VALUE PLACED ON LATEST THEFT

A second large theft of copper wire from the warehouse of the Ontario Hydro at Fenelon Falls within the calendar year occurred sometime Wednesday night or early Thursday morning. According to Hydro officials the value of the three missing tons of copper wire is estimated at $5,000. A third wire theft from the same place occurred a few years ago.

The manager, Mr. Yearwood, told "The Post" today that entry into the warehouse was made through a window. He said the windows were of metal frame construction but had been pried sufficiently to allow a person to reach in and open the lock. After entry was gained the large drum of the warehouse were opened from the inside and the coils of copper wire were removed. He said each coil weighed about 300 pounds.

"They practically cleaned us out of copper wire," Mr. Yearwood stated. He said this theft of wire was almost double the value of the earlier theft of wire in this year and he commented that he had no idea how the thieves would manage to dispose of their bulky loot.

The break-in and theft was discovered by Hydro crew members when they arrived on the job Thursday morning and Provincial Constable John Williams of the Fenelon Falls OPP Detachment was immediately summoned. He was Chief of Police William Weaver of the village. It is reported that the OPP Criminal Investigation branch is also co-operating in the investigation.

P. C. Williams stated that the warehouse is unattended during the night but that check ups are made by police. He said it is thought that the thieves drove their truck inside the building while they loaded the wire aboard. He pointed out that the casual passerby would hardly suspect anything amiss seeing men working around the building at odd hours.

P. C. Williams said he does not believe the theft was committed by local criminals.

"Tour 80"

887 People See Magic Of Modern Telephonics

"Tour 80" proved to be one of the many interesting tours of the Bell Telephone Co's Lindsay branch (in which 887 people participated during three evenings this week.

"Tour 80" started like all the rest in the main office of the building where a historical display of early telephone equipment used in Lindsay provided interesting diversion for guests waiting for their tour to be called. As each person entered the reception room they were handed a dice bearing the number of the tour they were to join and left to chat with friends or view the various displays pending its start.

Once on the tour, the first stop was to witness a picture outline of the transmission in the home, tracing its course to the exchange. This display, as with others by Bell, was accompanied by commentary from a telephone company attendant.

Proceeding "Open House" guests saw an informative display of normal power transmission facilities as powered by hydro, auxiliary battery units, for sudden emergencies and a diesel auxiliary which the attendant explained, was able, if necessary, to maintain telephone communication at normal levels for as long as required.

An absorbingly intricate cable display attracted considerable interest at the next stop with cables ranging from those no bigger than a piece of complex examination twine for carrying multiple wires under water. More about cables was learned when the tour moved into the cable vault. It was revealed here that one massive cable in service in the vault was capable of carrying 1818 conversations at once and served nearly all of the South Ward.

What happens when a dial telephone went into operation was demonstrated by a glass encased working model. The mechanical reaching which set in from the time the receiver is lifted until the receiver is replaced was a fascinating exhibit of electronics at work.

For those who were curious about microwave transmission (that's the method by which television programs and other similar transmissions are made, there was a display of how this is carried out. Basically the transmission consists of beaming electronic waves from one tower to another. It was shown that this type of transmission was subject to the hazard of interception by metallic objects crossing the beam. When a steel plate was held between the miniature demonstration towers, transmission continued at one tower but reception at the other was interrupted. Another demonstration showed how these waves could be bent, thus restricting the spread of the beam and intensifying the volume.

From here the tour moved along to the repair service desk which demonstrated how people who leave their receivers off the hooks (expecially a frequent occurrence in Lindsay) are alerted to the fact by a blower-like sound which intensifies to attract attention to the off-hook receiver in the home.

Local and long distance test board operations were explained in some detail as was actual operating procedure. These demonstrations were real life with the boards in action.

The very latest in telephones — the speaker phone—appealed to newspapermen and others who like to talk effortlessly. With this type of phone, the party on the receiving end hears the phone ring, walks over, presses a button to make the connection, adjusts the volume to a small microphone placed nearby and after saying hello (the speaker is not touched) through a microphone at the base of the dial section, listens to what the caller has to say. The conversation can be carried on at distances of up to 10 or 15 feet from the telephone and both caller and recipient can write or otherwise engage themselves.

The first aid room, operators' lounge and a mobile telephone display were final points any events of interest. A painting by Mr. J. Foster, in the lounge room attracted a set of favourable comment.

Mr Bruce Symonds, manager of the Lindsay branch, said the purpose of the "Open House" was to familiarize people with the communications, give them an insight into the complexities of the business and thus enable them to relate a mental picture of what was taking place when they telephoned, or watched television which involves the microwave system.

One of these days, he related, Lindsay will be in an "area long distance" zone which makes it possible for say, people living in Toronto to go to their telephone and dial Lindsay direct without operator intercption. Time, cost and other factors being electronically recorded ... Fantastic isn't it?

Attractive telephone girls and well-informed maintenance employees conducted the tours at the end of which each guest received a "telephone numbers book" so they could set up a sort of personal directory.

Open House Participants were:

C. St. Thomas, R. Allaile, J. B. Wood, R. Wyndham, K. Ross, D. McClure, D. Wagstaff, A. Pinney, W. Cook, R. Cox, J. Longworth, Miss Joan Hickson, W. T. Wood, J. Pointed Loaded Rifle At Game Overseer, Brother Officers Wrest It From Poacher

From time to time the life of a Conservation Officer is one not to be envied. The following story, submitted by Senior Conservation Officer Gordon Buie, illustrates this point very well.

"On being caught coming out of the Peterborough Crown Game Preserve at dusk, a Peterborough man, pointed his fully loaded, heavy calibered rifle at Deputy Game Warden Sanford Trotter of Apsley, but the rifle was quickly wrested from him by Conservation Officers Simpson and Young.

"As no amount of questioning on the spot produced any results as to the identification of the hunter, he was arrested and taken to our Apsley Headquarters. Here he gave several stories and identifications, all of which proved false, before the true name and address were finally established. Asked why he made so many false statements, his reply was 'to tell the truth never pays off.'

"The following morning officers found the carcasses of two freshly killed deer in the Game Preserve close to where the hunter was apprehended.

"Records in Lindsay Office show that this same man was found poaching in the Peterborough Crown Game Preserve by Officer Windsor of Peterborough, on November 8th, 1952. He was again apprehended by Conservation Officer Robt. Trotter when poaching the same Game Preserve for deer on the date of January 29th, 1953. At that time the officer advanced in the face of a fully loaded rifle being pointed at him with the hammer cocked. After, having the gun taken from him the accused threatened Officer Trotter with an unsheathed hunting knife.

50 Members Of Chamber Talk Industry

About 50 members of the Lindsay Chamber of Commerce met at the town hall Thursday night to hear the report on the industrial situation within the town and the prospect again regarding the new industry for the former Chatco plant.

The members were told that the arrangements for Hoechst Plastics (International) Ltd. taking over the plant have been finalized and all necessary transactions with former owners have been completed satisfactorily. He said it is expected that the plant will be in operation by the first of the year or possibly a little before, depending on how long it takes to have the heating equipment installed.

STOCK ISSUE

The matter of stock issue was discussed at considerable length and a spokesman for the Chamber said that the new firm of Lindsay Textiles Limited, had been set up with two purposes in mind; (1) to give people the opportunity to invest in Lindsay, and (2) to interest small investors.

Chamber president Lloyd O. Found said that a prospectus has been prepared by Canadian Lindsay Investments Ltd. and the stock issue. He said the prospectus points out that the firm plans to issue 1,100 shares of preferred stock and 1,100 shares of common stock. This, he said, would return about $12,000 which is the estimated amount required to do immediate financing.

Each share of preferred stock is to cost $10 and for each of these shares, the purchaser is permitted to purchase one share of common at $1.00. The maximum any one person can purchase is $1,100.

Mr. Found also stated that if the stock issue is over subscribed every stock sale of over 10 shares will be pro rated.

The president said the company has broad plans for the erection of industrial buildings, as it has been found that it is needed in the industry if the municipality has a building to offer.

He said he hoped that it has proven to be most satisfactory to build one-story, 12 to 15,000 square-foot buildings with a block wall at one end so that the occupants could expand if necessary with very little difficulty. Also if a tenant required more this space, they could move into the building while the addition was being constructed at one end.

MEMBERSHIP

The members were advised that there are now 300 members of the Chamber of Commerce . . . an increase of about 100 in the past six months. However, it was felt that the potential is about 440, and each member present was asked to contact two people, whose names provided, seeking their membership in the Chamber.

Among the visitors to the meeting were Messrs. Tim Turnbull and Robert Potts of the Industrial Development Branch, Ontario Department of Planning and Development. It is reported these two gentlemen were on hand as they were interested in the methods by which Lindsay and its Chamber secured a new industry and the system of a stock issue being made available to the public.

ESTIMATED DAMAGE $1,300

The Hill Head curve on Number Seven highway south of Lindsay continues to take its toll of injured motorists and damaged vehicles.

An estimated $1,300 damage was done to a late model car about 2.30 a.m. today when it went out-of-control on the curve and rolled over. The driver, Lorne Robert Mills of R. R. 2, Omemee was taken to the Ross Memorial Hospital at Lindsay where he was treated for lacerations to his right hand. He was lately released.

Provincial constable Tom Fitzpatrick was the investigating officer and it is reported the highway condition was satisfactory at the time of the unfortunate accident.

Thursday afternoon two cars collided at the intersection where the township road south of Hill Head curve meets the highway.

P. C. Gordon Lee reported that one car was driven by Bernard McAlpine of R. R. 1, Reaboro and the other car by Oliver Rohrer of Nassington. There were no injuries but damage to the two cars was reported to be extensive. Police say the township road at the time was snow-packed and slippery.

Santa Returns On Saturday

Santa Claus is paying his second visit this year to Clarke's on Saturday. He was in town last weekend when he greeted crowds of children from Lindsay and district.

According to a spokesman for the store, Santa will have gifts for each boy and girl who visits the store and to say hello. He will be on hand to greet the children from 9.30 to 10.30 in the morning and letters to Santa Claus can be mailed right in the store.

Bazaar Success Although Day Cold, Stormy

Blackstock (PNS) — Despite a cold, stormy day, many people attended the W. A. Bazaar in the Sunday School rooms of the United Church.

Mrs. George Wolfe was guest speaker and told of many interesting places she visited with her husband and how during their two months holiday in the British Isles. She had also on display some striking examples of Scottish home industries including beautiful Irish linen. Mrs. Harold Kyte rendered a delightful solo. Mrs Wolfe declared the bazaar open and the tables of fancywork, aprons, home cooking, farm produce and miscellaneous articles were soon sold.

A power failure, which left the church cold and dark, did not prevent an enjoyable lunch and social hour being enjoyed. Proceeds amounted to about $120.

ST. JOHN'S W. A.

St. John's W. A. met in the Parish Hall, Thursday afternoon and the scripture and lead in prayer with the "new members prayer" repeated in unison.

Miss Parr, representative to the Parish Council, reported on a recent meeting. Plans were made for every week and plans made for a wedding supper. The last chapter of study book was presented by Mrs Brown.

Lunch was served by Mrs. J. Forder's group.

95% of Town Revenue From Real Property Tax, Dep.-Reeve Tells Club

Ninety-five per cent of the revenue raised within the town comes from real property tax. This revelation was made by Deputy-reeve Joseph Holtom in an address to the Lindsay Kiwanis club.

"We have heard," said Mr. Holtom, "a lot lately about the financial trouble, of certain municipalities. They appear to be having difficulty in raising enough money to finance the various services that they are required to provide for the taxpayers of that community. From time to time we read or hear of certain municipalities that appear to be on the verge of bankruptcy and probably at the same time there is in progress a meeting of irate taxpayers who are airing their complaints about poor roads, no sewers, no enough schools and skyrocketing taxes. What a position for the Town Council to be in!

"Then we read about the announcement of an official of some Town or City or maybe, Prof. Gardner of Mercurytown Township, to the effect that there will have to be a municipal income tax, or sales, tax, or auto tax, in order for the municipality to obtain more revenue—that is unless, of course, the Provincial and (or) Federal Government recognize their responsibilities, and increase the grants to the Municipalities for the certain services that they are rendering. These services referring to are usually education and welfare and sometimes the administration of justice. The extent (to which the Provincial or Federal Government can be blamed, usually of course depends on whether that particular person is a Conservative or a Liberal.

"Well, what is at the basis of these outcries? What are — or what should be, the responsibilities of the higher levels of government in helping to finance these services? What is the proper relationships between municipalities and the provincial government? In education, for instance, the responsibility of the municipality or is it really a provincial matter? What are the sources of municipal revenue? What percent of this revenue is derived from property tax? and more important—how much of these services should real property be expected to finance.

"And finally—is the provincial government paying an adequate share of the costs of these services, supplying and administered by the Municipality?

"I suppose to you that these questions are urgent and are growing more so as Canada, and the provinces, and the villages and towns grow and expand.

"Fortunately, the problems of a town the size of Lindsay, are growing a steady, orderly growth perhaps are not as acute as those communities that have had sudden expansion. However, the basic problems are with us, and when one looks at one's tax bill, which we pay every year, one wonders just how much of the financial load, property should or can bear — perhaps first of all we should find out where the Town gets its money. This year 1956 the amount to be raised by property taxes is expected to be $609,878.80. Revenue from other sources within the Town will be approximately $243,000.00. So now we have established the fact that 95 per cent of the revenue raised within the town comes from real property tax. In addition provincial grants are $204,000.00"

Lindsay Realtor Wins Ontario-wide Contest

Enjoy trip to BIG CITY But you'll find home still best place after all--Chief

A Lindsay real estate agent had won himself a trip to New York in a sales contest sponsored by his company. Mr. Donald White of J. A. Willoughby & Sons, Toronto, had dished up records of 75 other salesmen in the firm's Ontario-wide employ.

Mr. White has been located at Lindsay for the past two years and the contest that he has just won will take him and Mrs. White on an all-expense trip to New York City. He says they will probably go there after the new year.

Mr. Willoughby, Sr., head of the firm, wrote Mr. White in part;

"I am rejoicing with the girls and boys in the office regarding your success in winning the all-expenses trip to New York. This has been a great achievement.

"It will be you and Mrs. White good so have a look at the Big City and see some of the new up-to-date cities. The trip should give you a new outlook on life and New York is the last word in this regard. . . No matter where you go though, you will find that when you come home, it is still the best place after all.".

Mr. White says he is naturally very happy with his success, and is proud which will be presented to him as a meeting in the Royal York Hotel in December.

Maude M. Norton

A former resident of Lindsay, Mrs. Maude May (Clarke) Norton, died at the home of her daughter in Meadowvale, Ont., on November 12th. She was in her 87th year.

Prior to her death, Norton was born in Coboconk the daughter of the late Ralph Clarke and Gertrude Burt. Her husband, Harry E. Norton, predeceased her. She had been residing in the Meadowvale district for some one year prior to her death.

The late Mrs. Norton is survived by one daughter, Elaine (Mrs. V. E. "Bud" Young) of Meadowvale, and three grandchildren, Michael, Paul, and Patty Young.

The funeral was held on November 15th, from the Mackey Funeral Home, Lindsay with service conducted by Canon H. Heaford of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Pallbearers were Messrs. Don Blackwood, Ted Adams, Ed Crossley, George Baldwin, Bert Everson and A. Jefferies. Interment was at Riverside cemetery.

Laff it off

According to the late Sigmund Freud's disciples, the grizzled father of psychoanalysis got a big kick out of quiling a man's leg. Once Freud listening with great intentness while a European communist expounded on the virtues of communism.

"The first half of our regime," laundered the communist, "will be filled with violence, but the second half will be all peace."

"You know," said Freud, "you have me half convinced."

"Half convinced?" asked the communist.

"I'm converted to the first half," said the tough-minded old humanist with a straight face, "but not to the second half."

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Life means more than food — Matt. 6:25.

We are not worms, nor more animals. We have a higher nature and require higher forms of spiritual food. Some make no provision to feed the soul.

Fenelon Falls Fills Council By Acclaim

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — All municipal offices in the village of Fenelon Falls were filled by acclamation for the coming year at the nomination meeting held Monday evening in the town council hall. The Council for 1957 consists of: Reeve—Mr. James Curtis; Councillors, Messrs. Wilfred Jackett, Harry Smith, Morley Elliott and Jack Vanatter. All re-elected by acclamation for a term of one year. Two new members were added to the Public School Board—Messrs. George Honey and Harold Sidey, and Mr. Jack Hanthorne was re-elected. Mr. H. A. Clerk was re-elected to the Board of Water, Light and Power Commission.

Mr. Curtis stated to you that these questions are urgent and are growing more so as Canada, and the provinces, and the villages and towns grow and expand.

"Fortunately, the problems of a town the size of Lindsay, are growing a steady, orderly growth perhaps are not as acute as those communities that have had sudden expansion. Slippery Roads Blamed Creating Highway "Pi"

Slippery roads were reported to be indirectly the cause of an accident last week which might have had more serious repercussions.

A Whitby man, Mr. Carl Manta had been proceeding east on Number Seven highway west of Manilla, en route to Lindsay, when he was driving up the long hill, the car in front of his began to skid.

Mr. Manta said he pulled to the left to avoid a collision but in watching the other car he said he inadvertently drove too far to the left and his front wheel struck the snow-covered shoulder, thus causing the car to go in the ditch.

As ill luck would have it, there was a broken windshield lying in the ditch at the exact spot and when a wheel of Mr. Manta's car struck the windshield, the tire was torn.

He said his car did not turn over since he was carrying a heavy load in the trunk of the car, composed mainly of local newspaper type, and this weight may, he said, have helped to keep the car upright.

Mr. Manta suffered only a bruised left arm when he was bounced against the door after the car took to the ditch.

CARTWRIGHT HIGH COMMENCEMENT, AWARDS PRESENTED

Blackstock (PNS) — Commencement exercises for Cartwright High School were held in the community hall to a packed house. After singing O Canada, the principal Mr. Polsey and vice-chairman spoke a few words of welcome, followed by the introduction of the student's council by Doug Davidson.

The girls' choir rendered three numbers; Mrs. John Venning made the presentation of the Intermediate certificates. Rev. Geo. Nicholson presented the Secondary School diplomas and Mr. R. Bowles presented the Honour graduation diplomas. Grade 13 diplomas were also presented.

The trophies won on Field Day were presented by Mr. Beacock and Miss Tyrrell. The Van Camp family made a presentation of Library books by the school. Mrs. Ivan Thompson presented the Wallace Marlow Prizes to pupils of high standing in grades 10, 12, and 13.

Nostalgia W. I. prize for highest standing in grade 9 went to John Peddema and was presented by Mrs. Malcolm Emmerson. Mrs. Leslie Thompson presented the Blackstock W. I. prize for Home-Economics to Marian Haines and Susanne Beverley Grant and to Barry Fisher for shop work.

The Henry Thompson prize for highest standing in grade 11 went to Catharine Bailey. The Principal's prize for highest standing in Latin and French in grades 11 and 12 went to Catharine Bailey and Doug Davidson.

The Valedictory address was given by Joan Venning, Toronto, Teachers' Training College.

Mr. G. Wolfe made the presentation of special awards from the McLean Hunte, Publishing House for highest standing in the graduating class to Lawrence McLaughlin and to the Valedictorian, Joan Venning.

The girls' choir again rendered three numbers, followed by a musical interlude by Catharine Bailey. A one-act play was presented — "High School Daze". Before "The Queen," Mrs. Lorne Thompson, pianist was presented with a bouquet of mums.

Safely Back From Japan Mission

Glenarm (PNS) —Glenarm residents were pleasing to learn that relatives of Rev. Clifton McKay of Knox Crescent - Kensington Church, Montreal, had received word of his safe return from a preaching mission in Japan.

Dr. McKay left by plane early in October on the invitation of the Korean Christian church in Japan for a month's mission on the occasion of its 50th anniversary. While there he participated in the General Board of Missions and also his congregation in Montreal, is having a particular interest on the Korean Christian Church as two years ago the Young Adult Group of his congregation sponsored jointly with the Board of Missions the visit to Canada of the Rev. Ki Sun Cho, a former moderator of the Christian Korean church in Japan.

Rev. Dr. McKay is well known at Glenarm as being the husband of the former Adeline Murchison of Glenarm) and while on holidays at their summer home near Rosedale is always called on to play the piano and band at the summer services in the surrounding community. Brothers and sisters of Mrs. McKay, namely Mr. and Mrs. Mac Murchison, Mr. and Mrs. Russel McLeod and Mrs. and Mrs. Wm. McIntosh of Fenelon Falls were among those that heard with pleasure of his safe return to his home and family in Montreal.

Wm. Ray Gibbs

William Ray Gibbs, 64, died suddenly Tuesday at his home, 56 The Kingway. Retired from business for the past six years he was a coal supplier to the merchant tailor trade.

Born at Cannington, he spent most of his life in Toronto and was educated there. He was a member of Runnymede United Church.

Beloved by wife, Eva Grace Gibbs, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. William North Jr., Toronto; two sons, Dr. R. L. Gibbs, Mt. John's, Que. and P. W. Gibbs, Cobden; a sister, Elizabeth Gibbs, and a brother John, both of Toronto.

West Ops 4-H Holds Season's First Meeting

The West Ops 4-H Club held its first meeting of the season at the home of the leader, Mrs. J. Graham. The assistant leader for this project is Mrs. V. Murphy. After the election of officers the girls chose Wyne Ops, Tidy Betty as a suitable name for the club. Work was started on the hat standard materials, pamphlets, etc. were given out.

The five members taking the course are: Marilyn Murphy, Maureen Gilmour, Anne Gilmour, Grace Walker, and Eleanor Graham. Another meeting was held at the home of Grace Walker.

QUIRK

Hefty Mrs. Pat. Wilkins complained bitterly when a London Court fined her 28 dollars on charges of reckless driving in her sports car. The overweight lady said she's really a very careful driver, and explained that when she turned a corner in the little auto "there was just so much weight on one side of the car that it overturned." (BUP)

Home Talent Takes Over H & S Meet

Haliburton (PNS) — Home talent had its innings at the Home and School meeting. The guest speakers who were to lead a discussion on the topic "What does the Home and School mean to me," were not able to appear because of illness.

Mrs. Norman Sisco, Mrs. Max Forest, Mr. Bill Crofts and Mr. Max Prentice stepped into the breach and everyone in the large audience agreed that they did a fine, if not excellent job each did in presenting the feelings of one member from the four different sections of the community on the subject. Mrs. Sisco spoke as a mother of the Dysart Home and Association.

Mrs. Forest presented her feelings as a member of the executive. Mr. Crofts as a school principal had many thoughts to contribute and Mr. Max Prentice summed it up by telling what a fully co-ordinated effort can do for the teacher as well as the child, the parents, the school and the whole community.

There was a real ability on the panel from one end of the table to the other and the president, Mr. George Brennan skillfully opened up the highlights of the regional conference held in Lindsay last month, kept things moving very nicely with the result that the meeting was able to adjourn for the social half-hour shortly after ten o'clock.

Miss Joan Cormack, Public Health nurse, spoke helpfully on the dangers of the school age, mobility, and stressed the fact that people have to 'care' before they can do. A person must be willing to be helped before he can be helped and the worst possible attitude for a prospective patient is that she is pressed by "oh it is good enough as it is," she said.

The Cormack will give the association a five minute talk each month and it is already evident that this feature will be the highlight of all future meetings.

The executive was most encouraged by the participation of new members during the week. These and the fine attendance were the first excellent results of the work of the new grade mothers. Mrs. Nick Nimigon, Mrs. Norman Sisco, Mrs. V. Billings, Mrs. H. Pudney, Mrs. J. Johnson, Mrs. Maurice Holland, Mrs. Oliver Higgins, Mrs. Lester Walling, Mrs. Ed. Duncan.

They will all be glad to help in any way they can between the home, the school and the association.

Mrs. Clifford Ingles' class won the attendance pennant which goes to the class which has the most parents in attendance at each monthly meeting, a father, in attendance at each meeting counts double in the contest.

There is quite a keen rivalry between classes for the honour of having the most interested group of parents.

It is reported a further growth of this useful organization is expected.

Cranberries

Give cranberries a new zest this Christmas, use them for refreshing fruit cocktails. The juice of cranberries may be used in combination with wine or other fruit juices for a first course. Try equal quantities of dry white wine and cranberry juice, chill and serve on ice with a lemon, cherry and mint garnish. It sounds good . . . so try it.

10 Deer, 3 Moose And Two Bears

Four men from Lindsay participated in a successful deer moose, and bear hunt at Haliburton Lake working out of the Bert Curry Hunt Camp. The four — Harold Wood of Wood's Men's Wear; Dr. W. A. Woodrow, Laird Gamble and Bruce McArthur — were in a party which accounted for ten deer, three moose and two bears.

Order of the day

Many Councillors Get Acclamations In Victoria Co.

Acclamations, it would seem, are becoming the order of the day this year.

With several of the nomination meetings for township and village councils already held within the county, so far there have been six acclamations recorded.

Reeve Waite, Lytle was returned to office as were the reeve of Bexley township councils.

An acclamation was accorded Fenelon Township council with the reeve being an acclaim.

Mr. John Alton is the new reeve of Eldon township and he and his council were acclaimed.

The township of Laxton acclaimed its council and reeve R. Goslin.

The village of Fenelon Falls will have a full council with all members has been acclaimed, and the new reeve is James Curtis.

Stanley H. Young

Received Education At Sunderland

Head of one of the world's largest business enterprises, Stanley H. Young, chairman of the board of Christie Brown and Co. Ltd. and Christie's Bread Ltd., died Friday day at his home, 8 Baby Point Terrace.

Mr. Young's business career was one of accomplishment from his first job as junior cashier in a bank to presidency of a vast bakery organization. His boyhood was spent in the Ontario village of Sunderland where he was born 63 years ago.

He received his schooling at public and continuation schools at Sunderland. During holidays he worked in the family bakery and later in his grocery school. While in his early teens, Mr. Young came to Toronto. He attended Harbord Collegiate and Wendell Avenue Public School. While in his Christie organization on Jan. 5, 1920.

Besides his wife, Myrtle Wilson Young, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. William Redpath of Edmonton; a sister, Cora L. Young of Whitby; and a brother, Wilfrid A. Young of Penticton, B. C. and Thomas H. Young of Toronto.

Had To Arrange Polling Station For Sole Voter

A unique situation arose this week following the nominations for Whitby township. Although all members of Council were acclaimed, one of the major issues was the election of the new school area board, which is to replace the school trustee system.

Of the several subdivisions in which votes are to be cast, there is a subdivision in the Myrtle district where only one person is eligible to cast a vote.

Therefore it was reported that the township officials would be required to appoint a deputy-returning officer, a clerk, a polling clerk, hire a room for polling purposes, and provide a ballot box complete for a large poll. It was also reported that this was necessary so that the one voter could retain his right to a secret ballot, although it is alleged that he had expressed his view on the subject anyway.

The situation, however, was solved since township clerk Murray Robinson has enlisted the lone voter in another polling sub-division for this one election only.

Roscoe McKague

Woodville (PNS) — The community of Woodville was saddened when it became known that Roscoe G. McKague and Elizabeth McKague and the late George McKague, had passed away on October 31st, 1956 at the Toronto General Hospital.

He was born in Mariposa township in 1868 and received his early education at Black's School and Lindsay Business College. Choosing banking as a career, he worked in different branches receiving a sound business training. While in Kinmount he met Dorothy Hopkins, whom he married in 1931. The young couple spent four years in Ottawa but in 1936 came back to Woodville where he was a jewellery dealer, operated a very successful grocery business. His witty remarks will be remembered by many.

Mr. McKague was a faithful member of the Uniting Church and on the Board of Stewards. Also a past District Deputy Grand Master of Cicerone Lodge, Woodville.

For 17 years he was Clerk-Treasurer of Woodville and very interested in community affairs. To his office came many seeking advice and help, which was always freely given and deeply appreciated. The depth of his appreciation was shown by the many floral tributes which were sent to the Stoddart Funeral Home from which the private funeral service was held.

The Rev. Dr. Pointen of Woodville United Church conducted the service. The pell-bearers were Dean McKague, Clare McKague, Jack Brown, Orville Webster, Roy McLean and Arthur Budd.

He is survived by his wife, his son Kenneth, his mother, four brothers Earle, Harold, Bert and Milton, and one sister Willina, all of Toronto.

Life And Customs Of Burma Are Told At C.G.I.T. Rally

A large group of Canadian Girls in Training and their leaders from all parts of Lindsay Presbytery gathered in Beaverton United Church for their Annual Fall World Friendship Rally. The theme of the Rally was 'Look In - Look Out - Look Up' which was carried out in the Theme Song, the decorations and the following poem which headed up the programme given to each girl:

'I used to think that foreign girls
Lived far across the sea.
Until there came a letter
From a Chinese girl to come.
'Dear Foreign Friend' the note began
As plain as plain could be
I'm wondering now who's Foreign
That other girl — or me.

Registration tags representing life in South East Asian countries were made for the occasion by Beaverton groups. A lively sing-song which including songs of the above mentioned countries, was led by Miss Merilyn Ross. Rev. S. B. Profit extended a warm welcome on behalf of the official board of the church. Mrs. Barbara Schroeder capably directed a craft period which was spent in making Christmas poinsettias.

Miss Doris Edwards, candidate secretary for Lindsay Presbyterial of W. M. S. conducted a most fitting and well chosen Worship Service at the morning session and in the afternoon brought an inspiring message and challenge to the girls. Her address was followed by a story told by Carol Smith, who represented Su-Kee, a Korean Red Cross nurse who had accepted a similar challenge from the Superintendent of a mission hospital in Korea.

The leaders held an informal business period during lunch hour led by Mrs. S. B. Profit, C. G. I. T. Secretary for Lindsay Presbyterial.

The guest speaker, Mrs. B. Peacock, of Cannington, was introduced by Mrs. Profit. Her subject was Burma, the land in which she was born and lived for a number of years and was well able to bring clearly to the minds of all present. Articles shown, made of teakwood, ivory, silver, lacquer and woven goods made in Burma were much appreciated and a great help in understanding the life and customs of the people. Carol Smith, on behalf of the leaders and girls thanked Mrs. Peacock for her splendid address, and presented to her a gift in appreciation.

Recreation periods conducted during the day were most capably directed by Mrs. Dennis Whelan of Beaverton.

Girls of Queen St. Church, Lindsay, conducted the closing worship service using the theme of the day. The duet "Paiwah Lord Jesus" closed the worship service. Miss Emily Cormish of Little Britain gave the Courtesy Report thanking those who in various ways had contributing to the success of the Rally.

(Groups then formed a large friendship circle and after repeating the C. G. I. T. purpose, closed with Taps.)

Mrs. Dack Elected President of WMS

Queen St. W. M. S. held its November meeting in the Church with 30 present, and the president, Mrs. Williams in the chair.

The reports of the following secretaries were given: Mrs. Forman, treasurer, gave the report of the financial standing; Mrs. Logan on the Missionary Monthly; Mrs. Fairman on letters to the sick, Mrs. Toner, supply secretary, read a letter of thanks for the layette.

The president called on Mrs. Craighthead to read the slate of officers for the year 1957, which are as follows: Mrs. Williams, past president; Mrs. Dack, president; Mrs. A. Thurston, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Vickery 2nd vice-president; Mrs. N. Nugent, 3rd vice-president; Mrs. H. Lamb, 4th vice-president; Mrs. Albert 5th vice-president; Mrs. G. Logan recording secty., Mrs. Forman; Treasurer, Mrs. March; Secretary Christian Stewardship, Mrs. Tocher; Supply secretary, Mrs. Craighead; Temperance Secretary, Mrs. Haight; Associate Members Secretary, Mrs Rodd; Community Friendship Secretary, Mrs. Fairman; Corresponding secretary, Mrs. Williams; Literature secretary, Mrs. W. Clark, Missionary Monthly secretary, Mrs. Beacon, Press secretary, Mrs. W. Parking, pianist.

The collection was taken and dedicated by Mrs. Williams.

Mrs. A. Thurston took charge, Mrs. Clark sang a lovely solo, "Lead Me Home", accompanied by Mrs. Dack. From the study book Mrs. Thurston gave an interesting talk on war-torn Korea, a country scarcely heard of 10 years ago. "Prayers and help are needed in so many ways to relieve the distress created by the war, bringing in the words Jesus, when he said, "In as much as you have done it unto one of least of these ye have done it unto me."

Mrs. Culbert read a letter of thanks from Mrs. Howlett for the gift received.

Mrs. Arthur Shier 1957 WA President

Cambray (PNS) The W. A. held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Webster with an attendance of 30.

The Devotional was conducted by Mrs. Walter Bagshaw, assisted by Mrs. Murray McKinnon and Mrs. Bert Daniels. This period was opening by Mrs. Bagshaw followed by the Theme hymn and prayer and the scripture was read by Mrs. McKinnon. The topic was very ably given by Mrs. Daniels and Mrs. McKinnon closing with prayer.

The meeting was then turned over to the president Mrs. Walter Louden who welcomed the members, visitors and expressed thanks to the hostess and to the devotional committee. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary Mrs. Mark Gordon and these were approved as read. Cards of thanks were read from Mrs. Jos. Nesbitt, the family of the late Miss Sadie Eakins and verbal thanks were expressed by Mrs. A. E. Tamblyn and Mrs. Wm. Thornbury on behalf of their husbands and Mrs. Lila Parson expressed thanks for her mother and Mrs. Richard Weldon.

It was agreed to send $25.00 to Mr. Bert Forman as he is a student Minister from Cambray. It was intimated that Fowles Corner W. A. have Christmas puddings for sale for the benefit of community societies.

Proceeds from the bazaar amounted to approximately $250.00. Final plans were completed for the tea banquets to be held in the near future in the church basement. It was also resolved to donate to the church general fund and the M & M. fund not exceeding $250.00 if required.

Mrs. F. J. Little gave the results of the nominating committee for the officers for the year 1957 which were: President, Mrs. Arthur Shier; 1st vice-pres. Mrs. Chas. Worsley; 2nd vice-pres., Mrs. Wm. The next meeting is to be at the parsonage and the meeting closed with the "Mizpah Benediction and all enjoyed a dainty lunch and good cup of tea.

Carrie Murchison

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — Mrs. Carrie Murchison passed away on Monday, November 19th at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Milton Sears, Minden, in her 80th year. Death came suddenly, though she had been slightly indisposed for about a week. She is survived by one son, Gordon of Three Rivers, Quebec and one daughter, Mrs. Milton Sears (Jeanne) of Minden also seven grandchildren: Carolyn, Muriel, Glen and Lila Sears, Elizabeth, Gail and William Murchison.

The late Mrs. Murchison was formerly Carrie Helender Barnes, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Barnes, of Woodville, originally of Poole, England. Born in Woodville, she was educated and spent her early life there, where she was employed in the Post Office. In January 1913 she was married to Alex Murchison and they farmed on the outskirts of Woodville until his death in October 1920.

Following his death she moved to Stouffville, where she resided for some 35 years. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church in which she took an active part, being organist in Stouffville for many years. Since leaving Stouffville she has lived with her son and daughter.

The funeral service was held on Wednesday, November 21st., from the Stoddart Funeral Parlour Woodville, conducted by Rev. J. C. Beckley. Interment was in Woodville cemetery, with Messrs. Archie MacMillan, Donald MacMillan, Arthur Kidd, Donald McPhadden, Angus McKay and Russell McLeod acting as pall bearers.

The floral tributes were very beautiful and friends from Lindsay, Stouffville, Cookstown, Fenelon Falls, Glenarm and Manilla attended the funeral.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Antibiotic Insurance

A new weapon against disease now offers your doctor — and you — extra insurance that the antibiotic he prescribes for you will be effective against the germs it is supposed to attack. The new drug, Sigmamycin, is actually a two-pronged weapon against families of germs which have learned how to survive in the face of antibiotic attack.

These hardy germs, called "resistant strains," have been causing increasing concern among physicians since antibiotics came into wide use. Like flies resistant to DDT, they sometimes flourish in concentrations of drugs supposed to be deadly to them.

Sigmamycin is a combination of two powerful agents. One is a broad-range antibiotic, active against more than a hundred human diseases. The other is a newly discovered antibiotic of narrower range, which knocks out resistant germs where they exist, or prevents them from arising altogether. Laboratory tests have shown that these two antibiotics in combination actually have a greater effect against infection than their total effects when given separately.

Resistant organisms have proved particularly troublesome in intestinal infections, where they have sometimes caused deaths. Resistant pneumonia germs have also appeared in recent years.

Conservatives Dissatisfied With CBC Convention Coverage, Plan To Televise Nine Hours

Dec. 3—The Progressive Conservative Party is dissatisfied with the C-B-C's planned television coverage of its forthcoming leadership convention.

The C-B-C plans to carry only nine hours of the December 12 to 14th convention on its TV network. The convention opens December 10th but the first two days are devoted to private meetings.

One score point among the Conservatives is that the C-B-C will not televise the keynote speech by Nova Scotia Premier Robert L. Stanfield. They point out that the C-B-C carried both keynote speeches of the Democratic and Republican Presidential conventions on television.

In a statement released in Ottawa, the party said—"The Conservative Party is forced to conclude the C-B-C considers television coverage of an American Convention, or a Democratic program originating in the United States, for to be of more importance than coverage of a convention of one of Canada's two major political parties." Encourage Your Child To Read, Librarian Urges H & S Assoc.

"Encourage your child to read", Miss June Wilson, Librarian of Victoria County Library, told parents at the November meeting of the Fenelon Falls Home and School Association, held during Young Canada Book Week.

"In books children will find companionship, satisfaction and pleasure as well as knowledge, for they hold the key to the minds of men over the ages," she said. "Children should be taught that books are a necessity, not a luxury, and they learn best by seeing their parents read and being read to thus developing familiarity with books, and a love of reading." She urged parents to utilize odd spare moments to read, and pointed out that a good child's book with have adult appeal.

In the corridor book display were many of these books. Miss Wilson concluded her enthusiastic talk on children's reading with a couplet with which book lovers will agree.

"Arithmetic is such a bore,
I do not like it any more.
But if you take this good advice,
You'll find that reading's really nice."

Miss Wilson who has introduced by Miss Irene Brown explaining the function of the Victoria County Library, which was established in 1950. The resources of the Library are at your disposal," she said, and she is willing to act in an advisory capacity at any time. Mrs. Wm. Hall voiced the appreciation of all to Miss Wilson for her splendid talk.

Mrs. Hebel gave a most interesting report of the District School Conference held in Lindsay, suggesting many helpful ideas for programme planning and other Home and School activities.

Mrs. J. H. Coburn chaired the meeting and received with thanks a donation for the Drapery Fund from the Girl Guides, which was presented by Betty Ann Smith and Anita Coburn. The attendance Shield was won by Mrs. Parish's room, and during the business period the matter of a Christmas supper was discussed.

The Mizpah Bepedician in unison closed the meeting after which refreshments were served with Mrs. K. MacArthur, room mother as convenor of the social committee.

Typical Tax Bill Shows How Money Raised Is Used

Suggests Fed.-Prov. Govts. Should Give More Practical Aid

In an address to the Kiwanis Club, Deputy-Reeve J. B. Holtom reviewed a typical tax bill of a home representing for $3,000. (The average assessment for Lindsay is $2800.00.—taxes $180.00.) "The majority of homes in Lindsay are," he said, "20-30 years old — therefore their assessment is lower than newer homes built in the past few years. The following points were brought out: (1) Education takes 43 per cent. of taxes. (2) other municipal County rates, fixed charges 27 per cent. (3) Town Council spends directly the remaining 30 per cent of taxes collected to cover all departments, such as Police, Fire, Board of Health, Sewage Disposal, Board of Works, Public Welfare, Street Lighting and Salaries and Administration.

"In the past 25 years, according to the Canadian Municipal Assoc., municipal revenue from taxes has increased 100 per cent. However, Provincial revenue is reported to have increased 600 per cent and Federal revenue 1,200 per cent. In other words, it is apparent that taxes from real property has not increased in proportion to that from other sources such as income tax, corporation tax, sales tax, gasoline tax, succession duties, etc. Many of these taxes are hidden and therefore an increase does not meet with the same resistance as does property tax which is usually paid in four large cash installments each year.

"In view of these factors," said Mr. Holtom, "and also remembering that municipal costs, especially education, are rising, and property taxes should not be expected to finance any great increase in the cost of these services. Additional revenue, therefore should be raised by other methods. Here are two suggested methods. (a) To broaden the municipal tax base by using local income, sales or auto tax—however this would be very difficult to administer and is not too practical for smaller municipalities.

(b) To request the Provincial government (or where applicable the Federal government) to assume a more equitable share of the costs of these services, now being supplied and administered by municipalities, especially for education and welfare. (Today the province contributes only 50 per cent of the cost of Lindsay taxpayer pays for education) and yet education under the BNA Act is a provincial responsibility and at the same time, the province has the means of raising the money through its broad source of taxes plus revenue from a tax agreement with the federal government.

"Debenture costs could," he declared, "be lowered if the Provincial and (or) federal would set up a fund from which municipalities could borrow at a low rate of interest. This year Lindsay paid on her debenture charges an amount of $117,600.80 of which only $68,414.93 was principal and $49,186.48 was interest. This is at a fairly low rate of interest (3 3-4 percent). Today the interest rate for new debentures is 5½ percent and yet the municipal associations have asked for this fund to be set up that perhaps would lend money at 2½ percent or 3 percent. This would save municipalities a great deal of money.

"Are taxes too high or too low in Lindsay?

"Well if you earn a good income and live in a smaller or older house on a street with all services, paid chances are you feel that you could stand an increase in taxes. On the other hand if you are living on a pension or other fixed income, or perhaps in a brand new house on a street with local improvement charges, you probably feel that taxes are quite high enough.

"Comparatively speaking, rents are low in Lindsay, this making it attractive to rent rather than own a house. The reason that rents are low is because there are approx. 70 low rental, Government-subsidized housing units in Lindsay. This is a big factor in keeping down the level of rents. C.M.H.C. pays Lindsay $7,367.00 in revenue in lieu of taxes or approx. $100.00 per unit.

Tale of a Dog

An unusual incident occurred Friday morning in the lives of Mr. Watson J. Wood and an unidentified dog.

Mr. Wood was passing Central School at a late hour of Friday (he lives about 14 miles p.n.) watching the children assembling for admittance. Suddenly something whacked into the side of his car. Startled and concerned he stopped, climbed out and beheld a dog lying on the roadway, apparently stunned. Concerning for its welfare Mr. Wood examined the dog and in the process was snapped at for his trouble.

Calling the police, he waited their arrival and in the meantime learned that he hadn't hit the dog — it had hit the car. Boys told him the dog had raced across the school lot at a certain speed and either didn't see the car, or couldn't brake in time, and rammed its side, head-on.

When the police came and arrangements for the dogs comfort were being considered, Mr. Wood decided to pet the unfortunate creature again. This time the dog didn't snap at him. It bounded to its feet, wagged its tail and bounded off up the street at a fast dog trot. And that is the tale of a dog which bumped its head on the side of a car.

Compares Various Election Figures At WI Convention

West Ops (PNS)—Despite blustry weather there was a splendid attendance at the meeting of West Ops W. I. at the home of Mrs. James Gibson.

Following the opening Ode Miss Wilson in a pleasing manner explained the use of the Community Library and reviewed several of the new books.

Mrs. Morse Tompkins reported on the convention held in the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, the theme of the convention being "Homes are a priceless treasure entrusted to our care."

Mrs. J. E. Houck told the delegates that at the last election in Toronto only 32 percent of people voted. In Japan 80 percent and Germany 93 percent voted. She felt people did not value their democracy.

Rev. Scott Leith, speaker at the banquet, chose as his subject, "How to be happy."

The F.W.I.O. report by Mrs. Gordon McPhatter was extremely interesting.

Plans were made for a bake sale and euchre early in December. The next meeting will be held in the Moose Hall, Lunch was served by hostesses Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Long, Mrs. Hines and Mrs. Ted Graham. The flower fund was increased by the results of an auction of muffins and biscuits, conducted by Mrs. V. Walden and Mrs. L. Graham.

Acclaim Officers For Mothers' Aux., Kinsmen Boys' Band

The members of the Mother's Auxiliary, Lindsay Kinsman Band, met in the Kinsmen Clubroom for the purpose of electing the new executive for the coming year. In the absence of the President, Mrs. Sharpe, the meeting was opened by Mrs. Stewart Peel. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. A. MacArthur, followed by a report on the rummage sale, by Mrs. Merle Lindsay.

The Chairman of the nominating committee, Mrs. M. Sleep, read the slate of officers to be presented for election. Any other nominations from the floor were asked for. None being forthcoming, it was moved and seconded that nominations be closed and the Executive be accepted as follows: President, Mrs. K. Bertie; sec'y, Mrs. T. Rome; treas., Mrs. W. Whyte.

The group captains for the following year will be Mrs. W. Davis, Mrs. R. Green, Mrs. E. Kennedy, and Mrs. C. Robson. After a discussion of projects for the coming year, the meeting was closed by the new President, Mrs. Bertie.

Thought for Weekend

"Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat and the body more than raiment? Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?" Matthew 6: 25-26.

Shirley Dawson Shower Recipient

Glenarm (PNS) — The home of the McKay family was tastefully decorated with pink and white streamers and bells for a pre-nuptial shower for Shirley Dawson, a bride of the very near future.

After all had assembled several contests and card games were enjoyed. Later an "Autumn Mock Wedding" was staged which proved to be a most entertaining affair. To Catherine McKay the wedding party arrived, taking their places for the ceremony.

As this appeared to be the culmination of a correspondence romance—on the bride turning out to be of Southern descension, the groom was not too sure of carrying out his obligations when beholding his lady love for the first time, in all her wedding attire of a waist-length figured nylon ensemble and carrying a bouquet of Bettertime Roses and Stephanotis of 1934. The ceremony was delayed from time to time in order for the bride and groom to agree to the many stipulations involved in the ritual but finally the parson was able to pronounce them man and wife.

As it was such a large wedding party composed of ring bearer for the double ring ceremony, flower girls and bridesmaids, the ushers found it difficult to find a comfortable seat for the bride and groom's parents, and the many friends of the contracting parties to witness the ceremony.

During the signing of the register the Misses Florence Ferguson and Faye Webster sang sweetly "Pack All Your Troubles In Your Old Kit Bag" accompanied by Katherine McKay.

After the wedding party had made their rounds of the different rooms in the house the main event of the evening took place when Shirley and her intended husband were asked to occupy gaily decorated chairs in the living room and several boxes of gifts presented by Joy Gatchalian and Johannah Brown to the honoured couple.

Several of the girls assisted Shirley in unwrapping the gifts while she read the name of the donour and the verse accompanying the gift, for which both Shirley and Sherman extended their deepest thanks for the gifts and those responsible for such a nice miscellaneous shower. A number of flash photos were taken by Donald McMillan during the evening.

A delicious and bountiful lunch was served by members of the McKay family and their assistants which proved a most enjoyable evening to its close.

Prior to this lovely showing, showers were held also in the home of Miss Beverley Hill and friends in Lindsay where Shirley is an employee with the Bell Telephone Campany.

84 Years Young And Still Spry

Haliburton (PNS) A visitor in Haliburton from West Guilford was Mr. Thomas Scott who is in his 84th year. Mr. Scott is in fair health and is quite able to get around in the cold snowy weather.

He has a farm, and he thinks, he will give up the syrup making. While in Haliburton he visited Mrs. Fred Parish and Mr. and Mrs. George Morrison and did considerable walking. He is remarkable for his years and he was a distinguished visitor as the homes were he called.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

New Life For Oil Wells

Recent Middle Eastern events threatening the transport of the West's major supplies of crude petroleum focussed new attention on the immense reserves of crude oil production in the United States.

One concept which has excited particular interest is that of secondary oil recovery using citric acid, now being studied by major oil producers and by Pfizer, the leading citric acid producer. Secondary oil recovery, usually by water flooding an underground reservoir, is used for wells in which production has slowed down to an uneconomical rate.

Recovery by flooding, however, is hampered by the formation of insoluble iron compounds in the water which clog the underground "pores" in the rock between the oil and the well proper.

To get rid of the iron, oil men use a chemical called a "chelating agent", from the Greek word for "claw", which combines with the iron and washes it out of the rock pores into solution.

Some chelating agents are relatively expensive, and most of them are not selective enough; they will "grab" several other elements besides iron. But Citric acid—a common chemical in nature, particularly in citrus fruits—is cheaper. Pfizer makes it by the ton by a mold fermentation process. And, as chelating agent, citric acid is highly selective, preferring iron to any other element likely to be prevalent in an oil well.

Trials of citric acid in a number of old tired wells have shown that it works. Thus chemistry is adding still another contribution to the productivity of our industrial civilization.

Wedding

Moore-Woolacott

An autumn wedding of much interest to resident of Lindsay, Sundriland and the Woodville districts was solemnized in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Lindsay on Saturday, October 6th, 1956 at 3 p.m.

The church was a bower of loveliness as clustered bouquets of pink, yellow and white blended in profusion with pastel blooms and ferns to make a beautiful setting for the ceremony, when Marlene Joy Woolacott of Lindsay, became the bride of Alvin Albert of Atwood. The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Marion G. Brown and the late Alfred Woolacott of Lindsay. The groom is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Moore, Argyle.

Rev. William J. March officiated at the double ring ceremony and Mr. William Perry soloist for the occasion sang "A Wedding Prayer" "before the ceremony and "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register.

The bride was lovely in an imported full length gown of cloud white tulle and Gulpure lace. The bodice of curved V period decolletage was offset with lace rosettes in blas relief and featuring short sleeves fashioned with bolted tucks. The skirt, very bouffant, was showered with clusters of matching lace rosettes and ended in a full sweep. Her fingertip veil of tulle was caught to a halo of pearls, also complimentary in earring, and necklace. She carried a bouquet of red roses and stephanotis.

Miss Shirley Thompson was maid of honour for the bride, while Miss Gloria Freeman and Miss Maureen Hawkins were bridesmaids. All were attired in floor length gowns of petal blue crystallete, ballerina length and featuring large back bows and very bouffant skirts. They wore matching leaf picture hats and carried nosegays of chrysanthemums in gold and shades of brown.

Little Beverley Jennings niece of the groom in matching floor length gown and identical flowers was the intriguing little flower girl. Mr. William Moore was best man for his brother and ushers were Mr. Leon Jennings, Ken Bound and Mrs. Leonard Hopkins, Petawawa.

Mrs. A. M. Wedlock presided at the reception following the ceremony.

The reception and wedding dinner 135 guests was held in the Canadian Legion Hall, York Street.

Mrs. Brown received her guests, gowned in an imported model of black crepe with heavy beige sculpture. She wore an ermine stole, with white velvet jewelled hat and white accessories. Her vrist corsage was of white gardenias and red rosebuds. Mrs. Moore, mother of the groom, was gowned in figured blue crepe with corsage of pink rosebuds.

A further reception was held at the groom's parents' home of the bride's mother, where some 400 friends, and relatives spent a happy time with the newlyweds.

At 9.30 the happy couple left on a wedding trip through Northern Ontario and points east. Since their return they have taken up residence at 2 Glenelg St. West.

For travelling away the bride wore a light blue ensemble with navy accessories, brown fur jacket and corsage of red roses.

Laff it off

Driving up to the house to deliver the family's seventh baby the Doctor almost ran over a duck.

"What's your duck out there? he asked.

"It is ours, but it ain't no duck. It is a stork with his legs worn down."

The Women of the Moose held their business meeting with 32 members present. A new candidate was balloted on for initiation at the next chapter meeting.

The committee in charge of the tea and bazaar reported the tea with last minute details. Several of the chairmen gave their reports. Christmas cards were to be mailed at the first meeting in December. A few of the members will be assisting the Royal Order of Moose with their Christmas party.

Jr. Graduate Regent Mary Crazy and the Guide will attended the instruction class, being held by the Film Board. A light lunch was served at the close of the meeting by Emma Maidens, Ada Growdie, and Dena Hope.

Solomon Hadley

Gooderham (PNS) — Three passed away in this neighborhood Wednesday, Nov. 14, 1956 one of the patriarchs of Glamorgan Township in the personage of Solomon Sylvester Hadley, aged 82.

Born in Verulam Township in 1874, he was one of a family of 12 who moved in the vicinity of Gooderham when he was two years old. When of age he assisted his father as clerk in a general store. Later he worked as a carpenter and bridge builder. He was a member of L.O.L. No. 11 and for many years a superintendent of the Sunday School. He took active part in municipal affairs, being reeve for several consecutive years where he conscientiously served the public. Fifty eight years he was married to Mabel Watt, who predeceased him in September 1951.

To mourn his passing he leaves five children, Roy of Lindsay, Mrs. Wm. Maxwell (Ruby), Garnet, Edward, and Mrs. Wm. Dovell (Jr.) (Violet) of Gooderham. Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. E. Langley (Edith) of Edmonton and Mrs. W. T. Robson (Lucretia) of Fenelon Falls, and two brothers Isaac of Lindsay, and Roy of Styal, Alberta. Others who mourn the loss of a loved one are 20 grandchildren and 31 great grand-children.

The funeral was held from the United Church at 2.30 on Saturday afternoon with Rev. B. Mintz of Allisa in charge. Assisting him were Rev. L. Mintz, his pastor and Rev. Holmes of Calvary Temple, Lindsay. The hymns sung were "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me". Mr. Blair Hanthorne was pianist. Many comforting scripture and words were spoken.

Beautiful floral tributes were a token of the high esteem in which he was held. Interment was in Gooderham Cemetery.

The pall-bearers were grandsons, Aubrey and George Maxwell, Clifton and Harold Hadley, George Hadley and Charles Hadley. The funeral was largely attended with relatives and friends from Hamilton, Peterboro, Lindsay, Oshawa and other centres.

Academy Theatre To Close On Saturday

Blame Lack Of Patronage For Decision To Close; Amused Lindsay 50 Years

After providing amusement for the people of Lindsay and district for well over 50 years, the Academy Theatre is closing following the last performance next Saturday night.

Mr. K. G. Garbig, manager of the Century Theatre, speaking for the operators of the theatre, said today that it has been decided to close the theatre due to lack of patronage in recent months. He said this is a move which is regretted by Twentieth Century Theatres who operate both of Lindsay's movie houses, however he explained that it is a case of economic necessity.

Mr. Garbig said however, that some of the equipment is to be taken from the theatre as it is hoped that the closing will be of a "temporary" nature and if certain circumstances alter, it is not beyond hope that the Academy might re-open. He said that the theatre will be kept in readiness for any group who may wish to rent the theatre for any reason such as concerts, revues, meetings, etc.

The Academy, it is recalled, was one of Lindsay's leading vaudeville houses for many years and travelling road shows from both Canada and the U.S. would play there, since early in the century. Lindsay was acclaimed, as old press reports indicate, a very show - conscious town.

Both vaudeville and movies played the Academy until the advent of sound which was installed in 1928. In 1930 the theatre was completely renovated in the manner in which it can now be seen. At this point the regular stage production, ceased and the Academy became a movie house exclusively, except for special occasions when might have arisen.

At this time the late E. S. "Pat" Meehan was the popular manager of the theatre. Mr. Meehan also was one of the owners of the building, and his clippings of theatre billings are historically interesting to study as they tell of the different eras and how the theatre coped with each.

The present film playing at the Academy is "Reach For The Stars" which according to Mr. Garbig, will be the last scheduled movie to be shown at the theatre for some time.

Laff it off

Jones: "It's time you gave me a raise. I've been working for you for five long years—and doing three men's work! How about it, boss?"

Boss: "I'm sorry, Jones, but I can't give you a raise. However, if you'll tell me who those other two men are, I'll see they are fired promptly!"

Buckley, Council Returned

Members of Ops Township Council have received a full acclamation and will serve the ratepayers of Ops for another year. Reeve Herman Buckley continues to head his council which comprises Messrs Sheraby Currins, Norman Nugent, Jack Sinnett, and Howard Wildrem.

At the nomination meeting held in Lindsay's Town Hall last Friday, where about 40 persons were present Wilbur Thorne, Sherman Moore and Sheraby Currins were also nominated for the office of reeve, but these men did not choose to qualify by nine p.m. Saturday.

Also nominated for Council were Kenneth Thorne and Claude Irwin.

The chairman for the meeting was Mr. Allan Currins and among the speakers were Councillor Joseph Hutton of Lindsay; Walter Reeds of Omemee Council, and Mr. Sam Endicott.

Reeve Buckley will be commencing his second term as reeve of Ops, and his third term as a member of Ops council. He said that he is very pleased to have received an acclamation and felt that the hard work done by his council during the past years has not gone unheeded.

CHRISTMAS SALE AT HALIBURTON

The Ladies Aid Group held their Christmas Sale and in spite of a snow storm it was very well attended. Most of the members were present and lovely aprons, fancy work, knitting and home made delicacies were sold.

Minden Man Liberal Candidate F. Welsh To Represent Riding

A widely-known Minden funeral director who has been active politically for about 30 years, Mr. Frank Welsh was selected to represent the riding on the Liberal ticket in the forthcoming federal elections which are tentatively scheduled for next June.

The meeting, held under the auspices of the Victoria-Haliburton-Ontario Liberal Association, of which Mr. M. J. Cunningham of Lindsay is president, was held on Saturday for the purpose of accepting nominations and electing the riding's representative.

Representation was made from all parts of the riding, and the chief speaker was Mr. W. J. Henderson, M. P. for Kingston. Other speakers included Mr. J. C. Allan, Ottawa, president of the Ontario Liberal Association, and Mr. W. G. Hale, Toronto, secretary of the Ontario Liberal Association.

The successful candidate, Mr. Welsh, was nominated by Mr. Jack Nesbitt of Lindsay. Also nominated was Dr. Foster Graham of Fenelon Falls (by Wm. Weir, Omemee); and Wm. Weir by Neg Thurston of Balsam Lake.

Mr. Welsh has been active in the Liberal Association for some 30 years, and in his own municipality he has served on council for the past 30 years, of which he was reeve for four years. Mr. Welsh has also been president of the Ontario Funeral Directors' Association.

Lindsay Musicians Contribute $562.25 For Expansion

The musicians of Lindsay presented the chairman of the RMH building fund, Col. R. I. Moore with $562.25 on Wednesday evening.

According to Mr. Harry Hawkins, this represents the proceeds from a recent dance held in the Armouries under the auspices of the local musicians. He said about 460 people were in attendance and all profits, after expenses, were to be turned over to the hospital.

It is interesting to note that the total expenses for this dance were only $34.30, since almost everything was donated.

LOCAL REALTOR'S BROTHER IN RMH, CONDITION OF ALVIN FOUND "FAIR"; DRIVER OF CAR GIVES ASSISTANCE

Suffers Injuries To Chest When Crushed Against Car

An unfortunate accident on Durham St. near Angeline about 7.45 p.m. Sunday has resulted in a 55-year-old Cresswell man being rushed to the Ross Memorial Hospital where he was reportedly on the "critical" list. Earlier his condition was considered to be Lindsay police report that the man, Alvin Pound, who is a brother of realtor Lloyd G. Pound, had stopped his car on the south side of Durham facing east and had been bending over the rear end of the car attempting to place a jack in position as the left-rear tire had gone flat.

While Mr. Pound was working in the rear of his car, police say another car, driven by George B. Coombs of Lindsay had been southbound on Angeline S. and was in the process of negotiating a left-hand turn onto Durham. It is reported that it was raining at the time and the streets were slippery with hard-packed snow.

As the Coombs car was completing the turn, police say it collided with Mr. Pound and crushing him against his own car.

Mr. Coombs, it is reported, rushed to get a doctor who lives nearby but was unsuccessful in locating him. He then placed the badly injured Mr. Pound in his car and rushed him to the Ross Memorial Hospital. After admitting the man, Mr. Coombs then proceeded to the police department where he reported the accident. Chief Hunter commented this morning that Mr. Coombs was very co-operative and behaved in this emergency in a manner which was commendable.

Dr. J. B. Coburn was the emergency doctor, and Drs. Hall and Service were the attending physicians. It is reported that Mr. Pound is suffering from serious chest injuries which included damage to his lungs as well as to several ribs.

Chief Hunter said today that there was a street light about 20 feet from where Mr. Found had been working on his car. He declining to comment when asked his opinion as to whether he felt there was sufficient illumination, although he pointed out that car headlights provide considerable forward illumination, especially on snow.

Constable Ross Bailey was the investigating officer.

Loses Her Speech After Fall In Home

Haliburton (PNS) — Mrs. Annie Iles of Haliburton fell on the kitchen floor at her home one recent evening. In the fall she struck the side of her face and her neck. She was taken to the Red Cross Hospital where she is receiving expert care. Mrs. Iles suffered from lack of speech for several hours due to her injuries.

After a few days Mrs. Iles was taken to her home where she is convalescing.

First Uranium Shipment Leaves Bancroft Mines

Bancroft, Ont. (Dec 3 —Bicroft) Uranium mines has made its first shipment of uranium concentrate from the rich Bicroft field, northeast of Lindsay, Ontario.

Bicroft President Robert A. Bryce said the first shipment, valued at 100-thousand dollars, left the mine last weekend. It is part of a 35-million 800-thousand dollar order from the Federal Government's Atomic Energy Agency.

About 500 men are employed at the mine and the concentrate, mill, which has been geared for one-thousand tons a day production.

Mrs. J. Nolan Hurt En Route To Church

A Lindsay woman suffered painful back injuries on Sunday morning when she fell while on her way to St. Mary's Church.

Mrs. James Nolan, 41 Kent S. E. was walking with her husband when she slipped on the snow-covered sidewalk. Mrs. Nolan was taken to the Ross Memorial Hospital where it was found she had not suffered any fractures. However it is reported that she has very painful back injuries, which may prevent her from getting around for awhile.

Mrs. Nolan's many friends have extended their best wishes for her speedy recovery.

The RCAF has announced that two of its once first-line aircraft, including the first jet to come into operational service with the air force, are being declared surplus. The piston-engined Mustang, top, a day fighter in service during the second world war and since, and the jet Vampire, above, used to equip the air force's first jet squadrons in 1948, are being retired after long and useful service. A single model of each is being retained in storage by the RCAF. Eighty-eight Mustangs and 29 Vampires will be sold.

Talk On The History Of Milk Given Fenelon Falls Rotary

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — Mr. Orville Sinclair, Field representative of the Toronto Branch of Ontario Milk Distributors and Mr. Bob Morrison of the Toronto Association Milk Foundation of Canada, were the guest speakers at the Annual Rural - Urban night of Fenelon Falls Rotary Club. The dinner was held in the Dutch Windmill Restaurant with 73 in attendance.

Introduced by Dr. F. M. Graham, Mr. Sinclair gave a most interesting informative talk on the history of milk production, going back 19 his story to the days of Columbus. He spoke of the dairy industry from producer to consumer, citing many comparisons and problems of today and yesterday. Mr. Morrison showed an excellent film, which dealt with food values of milk and dairy by-products, cheese, cottage cheese and buttermilk. Diet conscious members saw just what counting calories in a properly balanced diet can accomplish and in the milk and milk products play a most important role. Pamphlets were distributed in this connection, which will be valuable for future reference.

Mr. M. W. Robson thanked the visitors for their interesting presentation of a subject in which everyone concerned.

As is customary in Rural Urban night small mementos of the occasion were presented to three guests: Oldest operating farmer, Mr. Oscar Hetherington; youngest operating farmer, Mr. Melville Graham, and the farmer from the greatest distance, Mr. Marshall Southam of Kenatino, Sask. Presentations were made by Mr. Allan Graham, who planned the meeting.

Pre-Christmas Tea Held By Ladies Aid

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — A delightful pre-Christmas Tea and Bazaar was held in the Sunday School Room of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church under the auspices of the Ladies Aid. Guests were welcomed by Mrs. W. Johnson and Mrs. R. Armstrong. Miss Florence Bellingham was treasurer for the afternoon and the hostesses were Mrs. G. Curtis, and Miss Alice Moffat.

A lovely floral arrangement of yellow baby mums, bittersweet and pine centered the lace covered tea table, and during the afternoon, tea was poured by Mrs. Harvey Copp, Mrs. C. Grey, Mrs. Warren and Mrs. W. Haverp. Mrs. Hartle, Mrs. Mills and Mrs. Murchison convened the Tea Room. The small tea tables featured replicas in miniature of the large bouquet of yellow mums, bittersweet and pine. Serving the dainty refreshments were Mrs. Geo. Lee, Mrs. P. Johnston, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Basil McGee and Miss DeMille. Other members of the Society worked behind the scenes at the multiplicity of duties necessary to make such an event happy and successful.

The attractive bazaar tables arranged around the room were well patronized by eager customers. The booth, included home baking, in charge of Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. McIntyre and Mrs. Townsend; The Country Store, with Mrs. A. Kelly behind the counter and the bazaar table which featured Christmas novelties, aprons and many other useful articles, was in the capable hands of Mrs. Murchison, Mrs. H. J. Copp and Mrs. Sharman. June Johnston, assisted by Mrs. Morning, looked after the Mission Band table, which had for sale Christmas needs and other novelties.

Despite the snowy weather the tea was well-attended and financial results were most gratifying.

Wedding

Ancimer-Dummitt

Haliburton (PNS) — A lovely fall wedding was held in the United Church, Pine Avenue, when Shirley, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dummitt was united in holy bonds of matrimony to Ivan Ancimer of Bancroft, formerly of Jugoslavia, son of Mrs. Mary Ancimer, and the late Ivan Ancimer.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father and wore a floor-length dress of white brocade taffeta. Her finger tip veil was of tulle illusion and caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of red roses and baby mums. The bride's sister, Mrs. June Tripp was matron of honor and her dress was blue taffeta and she carried a bouquet of pink and white mums. Glenn Gibson cousin of the bride was bridesmaid and she wore a dress of mauve taffeta and her bouquet was bronze mums.

Faye Dummitt, sister of the bride, also was bridesmaid and she wore a dress of yellow taffeta and carried yellow and bronze mums. The church was tastefully decorated with mums and roses. Rev. Clifford manning officiated. After the wedding reception was held at the home of the bride, George St. The bride's mother, received, wearing a dress of navy sheer with a corsage of sweetheart roses and pink accessories. About sixty guests sat down to a delicious supper and the young couple received many lovely gifts.

The couple motored to Niagara Falls, for a short honeymoon trip and on their return they will reside at Bancroft.

Mary Arnberg

Mrs. Mary (Mamie) Arnberg, beloving wife of William E. Arnberg passed away at her late residence, Haliburton. She was in her 67th year and had recently recovered from surgery.

During the pass few weeks Mrs. Arnberg had not been responding to treatment and a sudden charge resulted in her death.

Her maiden name was Mary Hunter and she was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. Hunter of Eagle Lake. They were pioneers and she spent her early days on the farm in that district. For a number of years the late Mrs. Arnberg has resided in Haliburton. She was a quiet reserved lady and she had lived a life of grace and all that was good and beautiful. During her illness she had been missed from those places where it was always so pleasant and so stimulating to meet.

Mrs. Arnberg was, before her illness, a member of the W. A. group of the United Church and the members have many lovely memories of her friendship.

Besides her husband she leaves two sisters Mis Agnita Hunter of Haliburton and Miss Margaret Hunter of Orillia, one brother Mr. Allister Hunter, Orillia. The funeral was held from the United church, Rev. Clifford Manning officiating. The flowers sent by relatives, friends and neighbours bore messages of love and sympathy. Interment was made in the Haliburton Evergreen cemetery.

DOGS LOST

Haliburton (PNS) — Many dogs were lost during the hunting season and some have never been found. Often they are killed by wolves and if any are found, the finder tries to locate the owner. The dogs follow a deer for miles, but unless there is snow they cannot retrace their tracks.

1,000 lbs. Scrap Wire, $200 Value, Stolen Here

Lindsay police are investigating the theft of about 1,000 pounds of scrap copper wire, valued at approximately $200, which was reported to have been stolen from a locked shed at the rear of T. White and Sons scrap dealers on William St. S.

Police say the scrap wire was stolen sometime Monday night or early Tuesday morning. It is reported that the wire was kept in a shed, but when the proprietor arrived Tuesday morning he found the door had been forced open and the wire was missing.

Sgt. G. R. Eberts and P.C. O. Keating are investigating.

36 Years With Railway, Wm. Carmichael Retires

After 36 years of service with the C.N.R., Mr. William Carmichael was completing his final run this afternoon as conductor on the way-freight from Toronto to Lindsay. Mr. Carmichael, who has reached retirement age, was scheduled to be met at the station by a number of his friends including many railroaders.

Born at Uxbridge, Mr. Carmichael received his schooling at Fenelon Falls, and in the Cambray district. He farmed with his family until 1920 when he went with the railroad. Mr. Carmichael has worked not only out of Lindsay, but several other centres within the province, and he always considering Lindsay home, even when away. He has been working steadily out of Lindsay since 1939.

Mr. and Mrs. Carmichael reside at 71 Cambridge St. S. and their many friends have wished Mr. Carmichael sincere congratulations on his retirement.

Staff Is Tops In Organization, Gen. Manager Says

"Staff is the most important thing we have in our organization." So stated Mr. H. T. Thurston, general manager of Rossi Stores Ltd. (Claxton's-Lindsay), in his remarks to the staff of the Lindsay store at its annual Christmas party.

Claxton's employees enjoyed a turkey dinner at Bellamy's Restaurant after which they returned to the store for a period of recreation and the presentation of bonus cheques.

Lindsay manager C. Bassman declared the evening a real success.

Oakwood People Home From B.C. And Labrador

Oakwood (PNS) — A warm welcome is extended to Mrs. W. Blair (Nellie Lane) who has returned to Oakwood for the past two years. Mrs. Blair, R.N., has been with her husband in the Kittimat-Kemano area in B.C. Mr. Blair met his death in a tragic accident in connection with his work with the Hydro on the tremendous aluminum development in that area.

BACK FROM GOOSE BAY

Lloyd Anderson, Mrs. Anderson and family have returned from Goose Bay, Labrador, after over two years with the refrigeration plant of the R.C.A.F. in that far north air base. After a month to be spent with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Anderson and other friends, they leave the last of the month for Calgary, Alta., where he will continue with his work.

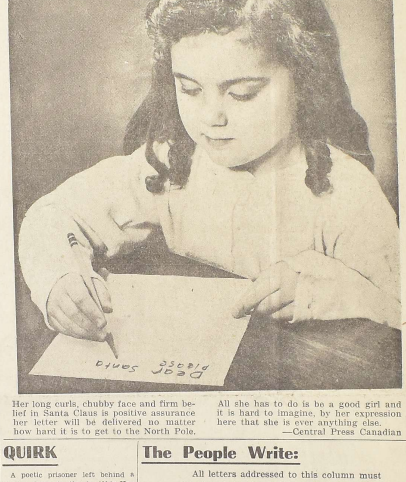
"DEAR SANTA CLAUS: FOR CHRISTMAS I WANT..."



Her long curls, chubby face and firm belief in Santa Claus is positive assurance her letter will be delivered no matter how hard it is to get to the North Pole.

All she has to do is be a good girl and it is hard to imagine, by her expression here that she is ever anything else.

The poem said:

"I caused and prayed . . . I cheated and lied . . . I couldn't get out of jail . . . no matter how I tried.

"So I made a key—to fit my door . . . I'm pore good buddy . . . you'll see me no more . . . I hope."

The poem was signed "thiefingly yours, Bob Harry Christmas and a Happy New Year."

Sheriff W. P. Tally said he expects the vanishing poet is headed for Texas. He hopes to have him back in jail in time to write some Christmas carols.

Report Support Of Outpost Lags

Haliburton (PNS) — The programme Committee of the Red Cross Outpost Hospital held a card party on Friday evening in the nurses' residence. Only five tables of players turned up and the committee had planned for at least 14 tables. It is reported that little interest has been shown in the ways and means of raising money lately.

REFUGEES FOR LINDSAY

There are apparently mixed feelings among the people of Lindsay concerning Hungarian refugees who might be sent to this district. This is to be expected since there is always a variety of reactions to situations such as this.

In view of the fact that this is a free country and everyone is at liberty to make his own decisions and reach his own conclusions concerning things such as this, it is entirely up to individual residents to determine to what extent they wish to help these people.

The town of Lindsay has made available certain facilities through which people may indicate what they wish to do in the matter of providing housing accomodation and it is likely that if other information is needed, it will be made known to local officials.

In the meantime the people will have to determine for themselves what they wish to do in the matter of welcoming these people from Hungary.

The Plight of the Farmer

Toronto, Ont.,
December 6th, 1956.

Editor,
"The Thursday Post",
Lindsay, Ont.

Dear Sir:

This reader's interest and imagination was caught by that flaring headline (Nov. 21 issue) "Former M. P. Declares—Future Of Mankind' Depends On Co-operation."

The above striking assertion was credited to Percy J. Rowe of Janesville, in the course of an address to a farmer-labour meeting at Fleetwood School recently. While this reader is not remotely like an economist, and still less of a CCF'er, I do sincerely believe that the above speaker is right on the target in the above generalization? I have for many years been convinced that, in fact, that there is nothing that competition can do, which co-operation cannot do better.

At any rate, in my rural-urban book, the Canadian people will be only prudent to take note of sixty almost startling trends as the following, which I cull from the above front page report: (1)—In speaking of the farmers, Mr. Rowe pointed out that Canadian farmers comprise about 1/ per cent of the population but receive only 5 per cent of the national income . . . "A third of their share"; and (2) —"The farmer gets less and less, the consumer pays more and more".

I would like to make a contribution to the above picture, in the form of the following thought-provoking 'quote' from an address by one of Canada's authoritative farm leaders (Dr. J. G. Taggart) Deputy Minister of Agriculture, Ottawa) to a recent Conference on Distribution, at Boston, Mass.: "According to the most recent returns, Agriculture provides employment for about 10 per cent of the total work force in the United States, while in Canada the proportion is about 14 per cent. In Canada, however, about 25 per cent of the farm work force is made up of unpaid family workers. Therefore, in that case, only 19 per cent of the paid or self-employed work force is engaged in Agriculture."

It is my belief that no other industry would, those days, tolerate such lubby pattern as this latter. I sincerely direct the situation to the attention of the leaders of organized urban labor. I am utterly opposed to 'child labor', May I take the opportunity of saying, also, that in my view Dr. Taggart's 25 per cent of "unpaid (farm) family workers" is even below the fact—i.e. if one remembers the 850,000 farm wives and rural women—in the age group 15-85—making indispensable contributions to economic productivity on Canada's 575,000 farms?

"If you don't read 'The Post' you're living in the dark"--Lamb

"If you don't read 'The Post' you're living in the dark."

This unsolicited testimonial was forthcoming from Councillor Russell Lamb at Monday's meeting of Council when Councillor William McCrae gave his report on the activities of the fire department.

Mr. McCrae told council that there has been some difficulty experienced lately when people have attempted to phone the fire hall and have called the old number instead of the new one. He said that it was not the fault of the department that the number was changed, but explained that it was necessary to have 3 lines installed at the hall in order to handle incoming calls without the caller receiving a busy signal. He said when this installation was made, the Bell Telephone Co. said they had to change the number to 4-2191.

"We advertised the change in newspapers so that the people apparently everyone did not remember," he said.

Councillor Russell Lamb said he heard the new phone number mentioning over the radio that day, and he thought Mayor Hick said he did not know about that but, "I read it in 'The Post' tonight."

"The newspapers in Lindsay have co-operated considerably to help us tell the people of this important matter," said the mayor, "and the radio station also has advised the people of the new number, since it can't be presumed that everyone reads the paper."

"Well," said Mr. Lamb, "if you don't read 'The Post' you're living in the dark."

Lindsay Men's Firm Will Supply Tanks (Hot Water Variety)

For the past few months, unbeknownst to many, Lindsay has a new industry in operation, which, although operating on a relatively small scale at the present, is reported to be showing promise of developing into a large business.

The firm is known as Acme Tank and Heater Co. Its location is at the Northern Casket Co. and the senior officer of the company is Mr. Eric Ferguson.

This information came to light at a Tuesday's meeting of the Lindsay Hydro Commission, when Manager Jack Lightbody advised the commissioners that for the past three months the Hydro has been receiving replacement water tanks and has been having service and repairs done to tanks by the Acme firm. Mr. Lightbody said he felt he should explain the position of the company since he has an interest in it.

Explaining, Mr. Lightbody told the commission that the usual supplier of replacement tanks for the Hydro, the John Woods Co., had written to him advising that they would be unable to supply small orders in the future due to a number of circumstances involving their production system. The company said they could sell in large lots, however.

Mr. Lightbody showed the letter from John Woods Co. which stated that the Acme Co. had been set up in Lindsay in order to be able to supply and service the water tanks for the Hydro and any other commission who so required. He said the company is doing the same work as previously done by the Woods Co. and at less cost to the Hydro.

A letter from the Woods Co. also indicated that they are referring any small order, for tanks they might receive to the Acme company at Lindsay.

Mr. Lightbody said he felt he should explain this situation to the commission himself just in case anyone might question at some future date, the ethics behind an employee transacting business with his employer. It was pointed out that the Lindsay Hydro has done some $100,000 worth of business with Acme in the past three months.

"If any of the commission have any question about this, I'll certainly drop my interest in this firm, as I am basically an employee of the commission," said the manager.

Commissioner Charles Lamb said that he felt the commission would like to do business locally where possible, but he asked that in the circumstances be checked by the solicitor, in order to prevent any possibility of a technical irregularity being present.

Mr. Lightbody pointed out that he believed the other firm interested in supplying the Lindsay Hydro with tanks, on a small order basis, but said he would write them all to get quotations which would be compared with those of the local firm.

Chairman R. A. Cosens was in agreement with this since, as he pointed out, a considerable amount of money is being spent with the Acme Co. and therefore he would like to see tenders called for from other firms, in order to compare prices and rates.

Mayor A. E. Hick consulted the Ontario Municipal Act and found that there was no rule which prevented the manager from being associated with a firm which supplied his employer, since the manager was not an elected representative.

It was finally agreed that quotations would be sought from several tank manufacturers in order to compare prices, delivery, sales tax, etc. "In order to protect all concerned."

Returns After Visiting Brother In Orlando, Fla.

Mrs. Andy Jones has arrived home after a trip of almost two weeks duration spent at the home of her sister, Miss Jessie Leach, and brother Mr. Kenneth Leach in Florida —the trip being motivated by the illness of her brother.

Mrs. Jones left Malton by plane and arrived at Tampa about five hours later, there she was met by her sister, arriving at Orlando, her destination, some time later.

As this was Mrs. Jones' first experience on plane flights, after settling down, she says it is almost like riding in a car only while sometimes above the clouds it was more or less like a snow storm, with great praise to the stewardess going up and down tending to the comfort of the passengers. Mrs. Jones feels now it is the only way to travel especially on a long trip, and enjoyed the country and scenery in Florida, especially the fruit groves.

PEOPLE and ANIMALS

J. W. Gill took his Fox Terrie; to the Vet at Ilford, Manitoba because he thought the dog had swallowed two shillings and sixpence.

However, the diagnosis wasn't as bad as that. The dog only swallowed two shillings and a penny—BUP.

Haliburton Choir Brings Songs To Highlands

Haliburton (PNS) — A recently organized group of the Haliburton District High School, a product of the night classes held in the High School, is creating quite an interest in the county and has chosen the name "The Haliburton Madrigals".

Starting over a year ago, this choir has been of immense value to the community, and fills a great need of cultural development among the people. From time to time this choir has been heard locally and under the direction Mrs. Finney, of Maple Lake, they plan to be heard in many programmes during the winter.

The Madrigal Choir has not been selfish in its developments and applications of talents. During the summer months it was called upon to provide entertainment at the numerous summer resorts in the area. This it did on the understanding that half of the proceeds went to the local Red Cross, and so far the Red Cross Outpost Hospital has benefited to the amount of approximately $30.00. The hospital committee has expressed its thanks to the Madrigal Choir for the gift of money for the financial aid to the Red Cross.

Laff it off

A housewife had had an exasperating day and her nerves didn't improve when her husband that night objected to buying her a new coat.

"There isn't one single man in a million—no, not a single man in ten million—who'd be as mean to his wife as you are!" she cried.

"You know," said he, "that's one of the things I admire most about you. You have such a wonderful head for figures."

Santa Claus Stocking Fund

1956 APPEAL

Total To Date $385.

Up and up she goes! The Lindsay Santa Claus Stocking Fund received much income during the past few hours from several quarters. Five contributions totalling $40 have pressed the campaign's total receipts closer to the half-way mark of its objective . . . $1,200.

Campaign Chairman T. B. Stinson has expressed renewed confidence that the fund will receive the loyal support of Lindsay people who know the many ways in which the Stocking Fund helps to bring good cheer at Christmas to numerous families who might otherwise be without even the traditional Christmas dinner. The chairman has on record many letters of appreciation for the comforts provided at this season of rejoicing for Christians around the world, and he feels that which provides the incentive to make an all-out effort to ensure that no one in Lindsay is deprived of the necessities of a good dinner on Christmas day. This is arranged through the distribution to needful people of a hamper of food and other requisites for the making of a good meal with some to spare.

The list of those helping provide this Christmas comfort follows.

Circulation, stimulated by good rural coverage, has moved ahead in leaps and bounds in the last three weeks. On November 16th, "The Post" notified its correspondents and subscribers of changes which would stimulate interest in the paper and then awaited developments. The outcome has been more than rewarding and as a result the management has decided to revive the popular chart showing where the new subscriptions come from and the number.

Since the changes were adopted, there have been 83 new subscribers to "The Thursday Post" and 24 to "The Lindsay Daily Post". Bobcaygeon is out in front in point of new subscribers to the weekly paper and Little Britain leads the daily section.

The new subscribers' list will appear at least once weekly—when a complete summary of developments in the circulation department will be given.

Nativity Scene In Worship Centre For Mission Band

Dunsford (PNS)—The sixth meeting of the Dunsford Busy Beavers Mission Band was held at the Public School. The worship centre was lighted with Christmas Candles to set off the Nativity Scene in the centre. The president Miss Fay Germyn opened the meeting with the theme.

The business period followed. The president then called on Mrs. Thorpe who very ably gave the Korean story of the Soonl which has been the topic of each meeting. The children learned to sing "Silent Night", in Korean language.

This was followed by a skit played by eight members. It was called "Light Your Candle". The children all ended the playing, singing "Jesus Bids Us Shine", and the younger ones sang an action song, "This Little Light of Mine."

Mrs. Alex Robertson taught them a new song and closed with prayer. After a Christmas treat the afternoon was finally brought to a successful closing.

Ed. McGahey

Oakwood (PNS) — Mrs. Jas. Thorndike received word that her son-in-law, Mr. Ed. McGahey of Vancouver, B. C. had passed away after a long illness, the last few days of which were spent in hospital. Because of uncertain weather and living conditions, no one from here attended the funeral in Vancouver. He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife Evelyn Cameron and one daughter and family, all of Vancouver, Mrs. Cameron's mother and brothers Archie and Stewart Cameron of Oakwood.

Holiday Fare

Don't forget the cranberry sauce you doing it nearer Christmas. It goes with any fowl and it gives color to your turkey platter or jellied. It's so easy to make but here is one way that will give a lovely color and flavor. Make a syrup of sugar and water and when it comes to a full rolling boil add the cranberries. They will have a good color and make your mouth water to look at them. It gives them a glazed look too.

Family Snapshots

Most of us are fonder of Christmas cards adorned with family snapshots than of any other kind; even than the fancy dollar ones. They help to contact friends you seldom see and to exchange photographs brightens them up. Especially if you can't be with them for Christmas, and the pictures make you feel closer just to have them around. Slip some in an envelope and mail them and you'll ring out just how happy the recipients are.

When To Stop

Arguing over the bride table whether it's O.K. for a man to give an old flame a Christmas present. Our ladies looked at us through narrow eye-lids and allowed that maybe a $1 Christmas card wouldn't be too scandalous.

Delicious, Brownies ...

Are you still wondering what kind of cookies to make for the Christmas and New Years' ahead? How about trying this one: 3-4 cup sifted enriched flour, ½ teaspoon double acting baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt and ½ cup butter. 1 cup sugar, 2 unbeaten eggs, 2½ squares unsweetened chocolate (melted), 1 teaspoon vanilla and ½ cup chopped nuts. Sift together flour, baking powder, and salt. Cream butter. Gradually add sugar, creaming well. Blend in eggs, melted chocolate, vanilla. Beat well. Stir in dry ingredients gradually. Add chopped nuts. Mix thoroughly. Pour into 9 by 9 inch pan, buttered on bottom only. Bake in moderate oven (350) 25 to 30 minutes. Cool and frost either before or after cutting into bars or squares. Add new interest to this recipe by varying the frosting.

Household Hint:

A ring mould can be made by filling a glass jar with chopped ice, and placing in the center of the bowl. Pour mixture to be molded around ring and set in the refrigerator. When the mixture is set, remove jar.

In Memoriam

WESTERN—In loving memory of our dear mother Florence C. Western who passed away December 12, 1955:

Many a lonely heartache,
Often a silent tear,
Always a beautiful memory,
Of mother we loved so dear,
Just beyond life's gateway,
In a garden bright and fair,
Where again we'll meet our loved one.
And there'll be no parting there.

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

And Moses said . . . Who am I that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?—Exodus 3:11.

God has had to use men with some defects. Perfect men have not been discovered yet. You are important to the Infinite.

—Central Press Canadian Bundled into the trunk of his car by two polite gunmen wearing pink gloves, Charles F. Dark, above, of London, Ont., was unaware that the bandits were robbing a bank of over $8,000. They forced him to drive them from London to nearby Mount Brydges, where they staged the hold-up while Dark lay in the trunk of the car. They then released Dark, who was uninjured and fled in his car. Ten hours later police arrested two suspects in another car and found $7,000 under the front seat.

McGeough - O'Leary

Shown above following their wedding are Mr. and Mrs. James Joseph McGeough. The wedding was held in St. Luke's Roman Catholic Church, Downeyville with Rev. Fr. V. G. Perdue officiating. The bride is the former Veronica Catherine O'Leary of Downeyville.

Veronica Catherine O'Leary Weds James Joseph McGeough

A lovely wedding was solemnized at St. Luke's Roman Catholic Church, Downeyville when Veronica Catherine, daughter of Mrs. Lavina O'Leary and the late Joseph O'Leary of Downeyville, became the bride of James Joseph McGeough, son of Mrs. Agnes McGeough and the late Bernard McGeough of Lindsay. Rev. Father V. G. Perdue was the officiating clergyman

The bride, given in marriage by her brother Paul O'Leary, was lovely in a floor-length strapless gown of chantilly lace and net over taffeta with full skirt and a long-sleeved lace bolero with Peter Pan collar. She wore a waist-length veil held to a star-pointed period headdress, and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations and white mums. The church was decorated with pink and white mums and the music was played by Mrs. Walter Herlihey, who was also soloist.

The bride's attendants were her sisters, Mrs. Ansel Woodcock of Peterborough and Miss Florence O'Leary of Downeyville. They were identical waltz-length gowns of blue and yellow lace net over taffeta. Their hats were a matching headdress trimmed with pearls and they carried bronze and yellow mums.

The best man was Mr. Bill Ford and ushers Messrs. Ansel Woodcock and Frank Walsh.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Lake View Inn where the bride's mother received, wearing a mink crepe dress with brown accessories and carrying a corsage of yellow mums. The mother of the groom wore a black crepe dress with black and white accessories and carried white mums.

For their wedding trip to Quebec and points east, the bride chose a dress of royal blue wool with a grey fur jacket and white and black accessories for travelling. She carried a corsage of red roses.

On their return the couple took up residence at 10 Russell St. E., Lindsay.

Lindsay W.I. Donating $25 To Two Funds

The December meeting of the W. I. took the form of a delicious turkey supper with Mrs. Hutton and Mrs. Rogers convening, assisted by the following committee: Mrs. Griffis, Mrs. Mark, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. McArthur, Mrs. Dayman and Mrs. Armstrong.

The president opened the meeting in the customary way and the secretary called the roll which was responded to by an exchange of Christmas presents.

After some discussion it was decided to send a gift to the link in England, also to donate $15 to the stocking fund, $10 to the cancer fund. Mrs. Heels was appointed secretary in the absence of Mrs. Rogers.

After the singing of "The Queen" the president conducted contests and other games.

REABORO LOL 820 INSTALS 1957 OFFICERS, 100 ATTEND

Reaboro (PNB) — The members of the Reaboro Loyal Orange Lodge No. 820 entertained their families at the Turkey Supper which was held in the Community Hall with around 100 attending this special occasion.

Following a hearty supper, the member, met in the Lodge room for the installation of their new officers for the coming year. Wor. Bro. Ranaig Smith acted as Installing Officer and the following officers were installed: Wor. Master; Wor. Bro. James Strachan; Deputy Master; Bro. Wm. Veale, Chaplain; Bro. Stanley Reeds, Recording-Secretary; Wor. Bro. Ross Parks and Financial Secretary; Wor. Bro. Elwood Smith, Treasurer; Wor. Bro. Delbert Hickson; Marshal; Bro. W. E. Hore; 1st. Lecturer; Bro. Morris Bell; 2nd lecturer; Bro. Jack Mazahay; Senior Committee; Bro. Carl Smith; Junior Committee; Bro. Russell Wright; Wor. Bro. Leslie Wright, Bro. Vern Bell, Wor. Bro. Jay Harper; Tyer; Wor. Bro. Clayton Smith; Auditors; Bro. W. Norton, Bro. E. Hancock.

Following the necessary transaction of the business at hand the meeting adjourned and the members joined their families again in the Community Hall where Wor. Bro. Jay Harper showed several very interesting films some depicting the lives of animals and other enjoyable pictures.

After the conclusion of the films, Mr. Harper announced that Glenaron Young People's Union had kindly consented to present the play, "Grandpa's Twin Sister" for their evening's entertainment. The play director introduced the various members of the cast. The leading character was the wealthy Grandpa who had many of his family trying to take advantage of his money. This part was very well acted and caused amusement especially whenGrandpa disguised himself as his "twin sister". Being fond of patent medicine, he had his own cure for everything. However the climax of the play came when "Grandpa" left his money to build a much needed clinic and there was still money left over and everyone was happy. The characters all played their parts well and it was very numerous throughout which provided an excellent evening's entertainment.

The members of the Lodge entertained the members of the cast, following the production of the play and a lovely lunch was served to the players bringing a very happy occasion to a close for another year.

Wins Trophy

Fenelon Falls (PNB) — At the Ontario Creamery Convention held in the Royal York late in November, Mr. Murray Smith, who owns and operates the Fenelon Falls Creamery won the John Scott trophy and an electric try pan donated by the Ontario Cream Producers for the individual high aggregate in cream and butter grading for the province. Mr. Smith received a cheque for making 100 per cent first grade butter for 1956.

He was also on the team from the Kawartha Buttermakers Club comprised of Tom Lonergan, Briar Dairy, Sutton and Bert James, Silverwoods, Lindsay. They stood second in butter, third in cream and third in high aggregate for the province.

Victoria County Offers Debentures To Public, First In 3 Decades

The members of Victoria County Council in considering the sale of some $375,000 debentures for the expansion of the two county high schools, has decided to offer to the public the opportunity of purchasing them rather than selling through a banking house.

A special meeting was called on Friday to discuss subject and several of the reeves reportedly were of the opinion that the residents of the county would avail themselves of the chance to buy shares in the projects.

As a result is was reportedly decided to sell the debentures at par and to guarantee a return of 5½ per cent per annum for 15 years, on each investment.

Earlier the debentures had been advertised for sale and only two replies had been received, the bids being 5¾ per cent for 20 years at a discount of 98.6, which would mean a net cost of 5.9 per cent. Council members decided not to accept this offer.

One member of County Council said that to the best of his recollection this was the first time in about 30 years that such a plan has been instigated within the county. It is also reported that there are to be no limits on the amount any individual or group may purchase.

It was further pointed out that the Department of Education pays 75 per cent of the approved costs.

Lindsay Company Purchases Site For Plant

Purchase of a site for a plant devoted to the manufacture of polyethylene film was announced on December 7 by L. A. Hanson, vice president and general manager, Viking Limited, Lindsay.

The plant site is located in Port Garry on Somerville Avenue. This is just outside of the city limits of Winnipeg. Purchase price was not disclosed.

According to Mr. Hanson, a modern plant of approximately 12,000 square feet will be constructed on the 11-acre tract. The plant will manufacture VISQUEEN polyethylene film used in the packaging and construction industries for such applications as produce and soft goods bags and moisture vapour barriers.

Council Agrees To Establish Registry Here

Councillor Says Charity Should Begin At Home

Lindsay's Council has agreed to set up a housing registry for Hungarian refugee relief, and authority has been given the mayor to co-ordinate the various agencies within Lindsay for this purpose. Advertisements are also to be placed in the press concerning the housing registry.

The discussion on the subject became quite lengthy when Councillor Russell Lamb told his fellow-councillors that he thought charity should begin at home and he was more in favor of the town looking after its own instead of Hungarian refugees.

Mayor Hick had received a communication marked "urgent" from Major W. W. Scott in Toronto, explaining the need for a committee to be set up in various municipalities to determine what form of housing accommodation, temporary or otherwise, which might be made available to refugee Hungarians who had fled their homeland in Canada. He explained that the government would assume all costs and the refugees would not become a burden on municipal funds. Major Scott said that a co-ordinating committee should be set up whereby various agencies, such as the Red Cross, National Employment Service, Catholic Women's League, Children's Aid Society, I. O. D. E., Chamber of Commerce, service clubs, etc. would be asked to assist in certain specific phases of the relief program, in order to eliminate overlapping. He pointed out, as an example, that the Salvation Army have already taken over the huge job of supplying clothing for the refugees, which would mean that clothing will not be called for from other agencies.

Mayor A. E. Hick said that Lindsay had already made a move and there are now forms available at the town office which can be filled out by anyone having accommodation available. He said that all this information will be compiled as fast as possible and forwarded to the relief headquarters in Toronto.

Councillor LAMB: "I think the government should look after such accommodation and we should look after our own. There's a man who was burnt out this morning (Monday) and he is looking for a place to live."

Mayor HICK: "I did not know this man needed a home. If he had contacted the town office or myself, I'm sure we could have helped him at once."

Councillor LAMB: "Well let the government look after these refugees."

Councillor BREESE: "The government cannot provide houses, because they haven't got them. It's up to the municipality to look after that end of the problem."

Mayor HICK: "Mr. Lamb, all we are doing is holding a registry so that people can tell us if they have accommodation, and what type."

Councillor LAMB: "There was a man who called me on Saturday and he said he only had a can of corn in his house for a meal. He needed help too."

Mayor HICK: "He called me too, but it was about 6.30 after all the stores had closed. We would never let a person starve or go hungry in Lindsay."

Councillor LAMB: "Well charity begins at home you know."

Mayor HICK: "About these Hungarian refugees. We are asked to let them know in Toronto what is available in Lindsay. We don't want the agencies overlapping, therefore the agencies are waiting for direction from Council. We have not yet advertised for people to list their accommodation, but we have had the matter reported in "The Post" which was in-reply to questions regarding what we are doing and intend to do for Hungarian relief. These refugees are all screened in Toronto and sent out from there. I have been told these people will not be a charge on the municipality. The government will pay all welfare given to them for at least a year, including rent."

200 4-H'ers And Guests Enjoy Shorthorn Breeder's Banquet; C.W. Hodgson Among Speakers

Oakwood (PNS) — 200 guests sat down at the annual banquet of the Victoria County Shorthorn Breeders' Association in the Community Hall, Oakwood. After singing of Grace and The Queen, a bountiful turkey banquet with all the trimmings, served by the W. I., was enjoyed by all.

With Mr. Ken Scott at the piano, Misses Marilyn Scott, Beverley McIntyre and Dorothy Dawson led in community singing, and later interspersed the programme by giving well-rendered selections, closing their part of the evening's entertainment with an inspiring sacred selection: "How Great Thou Art."

While sweaters with the 4-H Club crest were presented to all the 200 4H'ers of the various clubs present, who had shown Shorthorn calves by the Ontario Shorthorn Association, Mr. McDonald, assistant Agr. Rep. of Beaverton, named the boys and girls in the Lake Dalrymple Club and Mr. R. H. Shortis, Shorhorn fieldman for eastern Canada, on behalf of the Ontario Shorthorn Breeders' Association, made this presentation.

Mr. Maurice Freeman, assistant Agr. Rep. for Victoria County, called on the boys and girls of Bobcaygeon, Fenelon Falls, Oakwood and Omemee 4-H Clubs who were eligible for sweaters, and Mr. Shortis made these presentations. Twenty-six sweaters in all were presented.

Mr. Clayton Hodgson briefly addressed the Association. He stated that he was especially glad to be present as it was his first public appearance since his accident. Although he does not classify himself as a farmer, he has always been interested in agriculture, which is the basic industry of the country. He stated that he would be glad to do anything he could to help keep young people on the farm.

Mr. Leroy Brown introduced the guest speaker, Mr. J. G. Wharry of Peterborough. Born in Elgin County, he graduated from O. A. C., Guelph, and joined the staff of the Quaker Oats, Peterborough, of which he is now vice-president and general manager. In 1953 and 1954 he was on an extensive trip to Africa and the Middle East in the interest of selling flour. Mr. Brown summed up the introduction by saying "He is a family man, a business man and a gentleman."

After chatting for awhile, telling a humorous story, and relating his experiences with his son who joined the 4-H Club, Mr. Wharry referred to world markets. He said there are 1,875,000 cats and 2,000,000 dogs in Canada. Their company sold 1,000,000 cans of cat food a month. Looking for an outlet for flour, he went to Africa and the Middle East. He showed colored slides taken on this trip — the pictures being taken in Northern Nigeria, Belgian Congo, Gold Coast, Cairo, Syria, Beirut, Damascus, Lebanon and other places. These pictures showed some of the marvels of the world such as the pyramids and other carvings, the need for sanitation and better food, the housing of the people in the different countries, various means of travel and many other things of interest.

Special awards were presented to the seven 4-H members who ranked highest; Marshall McNeil of the Lake Dalrymple Club won the gold watch which was presented by the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Little Britain. Others receiving special awards were Donald Jenkins, Donald Sanguine, Harvey Nesbitt, Ken Tamblin, John Sims, and George Flett.

Guests at the head table included Mr. Wilbert Thom of Omemee, President of the Victoria County Shorthorn Association, and Mrs. Thom; Dr. and Mrs. Lester Chapman; Hodgson, M.P.; Mr. Wharry; Mr. and Mrs. Falk of Little Britain; Mr. Pitman, Bank of Montreal, Lindsay; Mr. Stokes, Toronto Dominion Bank, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fowler, Mr. Trewin, representing Durham County, and the four musical entertainers.

Mr. Stotts spoke briefly on the place Canada was winning for stock at the Chicago Fair. An Ontario bull was the Grand Champion in the class, and a Shorthorn steer was Grand Champion of the show in that class.

Small gifts and awards were presented to the singers and Mrs. Scott and to other members of the various 4-H clubs. It was announced that Mr. Roslyn Fleet was present and would receive membership fees "O Canada" was sung and another pleasant evening brought to a close.

Report Record Number Deer Hunting Violations

A record number of violations against the deer hunting regulations were recorded by officers of the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests in the Haliburton area this season. In two weeks' time, there were 28 violations, of which 29 were major offenses and all prosecuted, and nine were of a less serious nature and the offender given a warning.

Mr. Gordon Bule of the Department of Lands and Forests in Haliburton said this afternoon that Lindsay said that officers from Bracebridge and Whitney on Bill McEwen of Bownanville were stationed in Haliburton during the two-week season, and these men made all of the arrests.

The major offenses, said Mr. Bule, were for hunting without a license, shooting deer from a car, and other violations of the regulations. He said a special enforcement effort was put forth by the Department in Haliburton this year.

Will Ease Town Hall Crowding

Lindsay's town hall has been temporarily solved and the town is to have additional new municipal offices, plus quarters for civil defense headquarters and the Victoria Order of Nurses, plus extra committee rooms.

At Monday's meeting of Council, the subject of what to do with the large vacant apartment over the fire hall came up for discussion, and since several members of council were not familiar with the interior, the meeting adjourned while council took an inspection tour through the premises.

The apartment is a centre-hall plan with three bedrooms, a large double combination living-dining room, kitchen and bath. The apartment appeared to have been recently decorated, and after thorough examination, council members seemed to be of the unanimous opinion that the premises would make ideal office quarters. All rooms, it was noted, are off the wide centre hallway.

Council was told by Councillor Maidens that it would not be satisfactory to rent the location as an apartment as the tenant would be continually disturbed, especially at night, by the shrill fire alarm downstairs as well as the roar of the fire trucks starting up. He said it would also be unsuitable for children as there is no place for them to play, and there would be a hazard for them to be near the fire trucks.

Mayor Hick said that with the shortage of space the town offices are experiencing, he felt the Rotarians should be utilized for offices and committee rooms.

"I think eventually we are going to need a 'machine room' to house all the large office equipment we are accumulating," he said.

On the request of Councillor Maidens, it was agreed that the V.O.N. nurse would have her office in the south-east room of the former apartment, at a rental of $10 per month.

It was also agreed that the civil defence headquarters could be set up in the building if it was found to be convenient.

Deputy-reeve Holloon moved that the engineer should inspect the premises, and make recommendations regarding the numbering of the rooms, installing locks on the doors, painting for the corridors, etc. and make his report to council at the next meeting. It was stated that possibly another special meeting might be called before the end of the year.

Insurance Firm Sends Cheque For $1,500

The largest contribution yet received from an insurance company has been acknowledged by Col. R. I. Moore, chairman of the RMH Building Fund.

Col. Moore said that a cheque for $1,500 from the London Life Insurance Company was presented through the local representative, E. C. Pitts, with the best wishes of the firm.

Col. Moore said the committee were very pleased with this contribution, which is the largest individual gift yet received from an insurance firm.

FROM RED RULE TO RED TAPE

—Central Press Canadian

Although they escaped Red rule in Hungary, Dr. Miklos Gergely and his finiancee, Anna Vag, find there is red tape even in Canada. Applying for a marriage licence two days after arriving in Toronto, the young couple find they will have to wait to see if residence and other requirements can be waived. Dr. Gergely operated by candlelight on 350 wounded Hungarians in a Budapest clinic during the height of the rebellion

Omemee Vote Heavy, Ex-reeve Returned

Omemee (PNS)—Ex-Reeve Harry Deyell, who was defeated in his bid for reeveship of Omemee last year was returned to that office on Saturday in a three-cornred contest with Reeve L. W. MacKenzie and W. J. Reed. Mr. Deyell polled 204, Mr. Mackenzie 110 and Mr. Reeds 69 votes.

Topping the list of Councillors finds a new aspirant, Mr. Clarence Wrights, with 228. Mr. Ellis with 224, George Stephenson with 220, and Clare Parks with 202.

Mr. Parks has had one year's experience in municipal life.

Failing to make the grade, yet receiving a creditable showing were Wilfred Wilson 179, and Arthur Jamieson 167 in their first bid. A heavy vote polled with 375 electorating their franchise out of a possible 490 on the list.

Over 600 People Enjoy St. Andrew's Yuletide Sacred Musical Ev'n'g.

Over 600 people gathered in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Lindsay, on Sunday evening for the church's annual Yuletide sacred musical evening.

The choir, which had been augmented by members of the late Robert Cutt, organist there for 15 years, and other interested Lindsay and district singers, had been most capably directed by Mr. Gordon A. Peper, with excellent accompaniment at the organ and piano by interim organist Mrs. G. (Mary) Hall.

The offering was in aid of the Robert Cutt Memorial Fund. During the time since Mr. Cutt's untimely death, the fund has been receiving monies in order that an anticipated $50 perpetual scholarship may be instituted this coming season at the local music festival.

It is interesting to note that not only will the memory of this fine teacher be kept here in his chosen home, but also in Toronto where for this year's Davenport Music Festival a scholarship has been established in his name. Over the past years, such people as Ken Wilson, Barbara Chase, Joy Nesbitt, Bruce Davidson, June (Waddell) Tunnbull, Jean (Dunn) Perry, John Moore, William Perry, Eric and Joy Freeborn, Shirley and Beverley Moore, Marilyn Scott and many more of this yearly 100 pupils, have helped to a marked degree to make the (Davenport Festival) a musical highlight for aspiring musicians in Toronto.

The evening also marked the debut of what many people commmended will be a worthwhile addition in the town of Lindsay, a ladies' quartette (Joy Freeborn, Grace Prise, Louise Lamb and Frances Torrance, directed and accompanied at the piano by Mrs. G. A. (Marjorie) Peper). Their offerings of "A Star Was His Cradle" and "Carol of the Bells" were most well-received.

Other selections of the evening were sung by Christine Rounsley, "We Bring You Glad Tidings", "While Shepherds Watched", "A Christmas Lullaby" (latin), "When Jesus Christ Was Born", and "The First Christmas Morn"; tenor solo, "Bethlehem"; Larry Marshall; duet, "The Birthday of a King", Gordon Hick; baritone solo, "Silent Night" (a capella), Francis Taylor; offertory, piano solo, Marjorie Pepper; bass, solo, "Star of Bethlehem", John Moore; soprano solo, "The Holy City", Marilyn Scott, plus selected favorite Christmas carol-hymns in which the large congregation heartily joined.

Cannington (PNS) — The Lions Club held the annual Santa Claus parade in Cannington on Saturday. The children and adults took over in numbers and all received a bag of oranges and candy.

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

How long will thou (but) forget me O Lord? Forever?—Psalm 13:1.

Men have written us that they have prayer for strength that has not been given them. How do you known it has not been given you? Try using the strength God has already given you and God will surely give you more strength.

Our Own and Other Opinions

SYSTEMS NEED REVISING TO AVERT LAXNESS

When we have been employing a system year after year for a number of years, there is a tendency for system to become conducive to laxness or inattention. We figure the system is doing alright and, unless someone give us a prod now and then, we probably wouldn't stir ourselves to make improvements both needed and apparent on examination. In the case of the alleged inadequacies of some Lindsay polling stations on Monday last, it appears as though something of this nature may have happened in our local electoral system.

Speaking from the standpoint of newspaper people, we have no hesitation in declaring that we have always been courteously received at Lindsay polling stations on all our visits extending over a period of several years. But as newspaper people we are also bound to admit that is is never possible to be complacent about any given situation for any length of time. We have to be viligant and on the lookout for improved methods of handling various situations.

In the case of the electoral system problem which now confronts us, we assert that this is not a personal matter, nor should it reflect on any individual. If, as has been alleged, there are weaknesses in our voting system, it is the system which needs to be revised and improved so that the people operating it cannot come to avoidable grief.

With whom does this responsibility rest? We suggest that a committee, comprised of citizens versed in the requirements of the Electoral Act, be set up to investigate local procedure and recommend to Town Council any needed revisions. This should eliminate murmurings and provide adequate guidance for all people connected with the election system at the municipal level.

In the meantime we suggest to all those in any way connected with the town's voting machinery that the complaint received doesn't constitute anything but a blessing in disguise. It is not an occasion for anger, worry or gossip . . . . It is an occasion for constructive action which will, if properly and sincerely pursued, result in Lindsay establishing for itself one of the finest municipal election systems to be found anywhere in Ontario.

LOOK OUT BELOW!

"A misguided intercontinental missile presumably crashed in South American jungles. The missile—called the "Snark"—was fired from a Florida test center Wednesday. But it defied ground control orders . . . and went astray on the test flight over the Caribbean range. The U-S Air Force said it is not going to hunt for the missing Snark."

The news contained in the aforegoing dispatch is most disturbing to those who felt all along that the scientists building these gadgets were sure they could control them. It seems to indicate clearly that there is no guaranteed control of so-called "guided" missiles and it also makes us more suspicious than ever of the accuracy with which the man in the street is being briefed on the possible effects of atomic fallout which, up until now, government officials have tried to assure us is not hazardous to health.

If there are people on Mars, and if they can see what is going on in outer space, there is undoubtedly one piece of advice they would beam to earth dwellers and that is "Look out below!" And that we'll do!

IT WAS BAD, WASN'T IT?

The other night a television program carried its audience back to the days when the Varsity Drag was all the rage. There in all the foppery of the day, were the dancing boys and girls of a couple of decades ago and, as we watched the routine, a teen-ager in our midst observed: "and you think rock 'n roll is terrible!"

After the initial shock had passed we had to admit openly and somewhat shamefully, that maybe rock 'n roll wasn't so bad after all. Certainly the costumes worn by confirmed rock 'n rollers don't look nearly so outlandish as those the varsity-draggers were wearing and the physical contortions required to be a proficient rock 'n roller don't appear one bit more objectionable, if as much so.

It was bad in those days wasn't it when you see yourself as others saw you . . . . in the same way we view our modern teen-agers? But then it wasn't as bad then as now in many respects because people only had to endure it when someone had ambition enough to wind up the phonograph or the price of a new battery for the radio. Now, however, there is no escaping modern jazz because of the apparent lack of consideration shown by radio programmers, telecasters and endurance-type long-playing records, all of whom and which the public contrive to give a super-charge of rock 'n roll from dawn to dawn.

DANGER IN TOO TIGHT MONEY

While inflation can be bad for a country, a wrong idea of it, resulting in too tight money, could be a man-made obstacle. President John S. Proctor of the Imperial Bank said in a speech to the Canadian Society of New York. This would come about, he explained, if central bank authorities thought "a perfectly natural increase in prices and income and wealth were something unsound."

Monetary policy in Canada during the past eight months has been directed to curbing further expansion in certain fields of credit activity. As pointed out in these columns ,the effect is not uniform, and in some parts of the country results in hardship.

Canadians, with the purchasing power of the dollar shrunken, and their total annual savings less than the amount of taxes, turn in many cases to bonds and debentures rather than to enterprises such as attract U.S. investors in Canada.

If in fact there is inflationary potential in rising gross national product, our problem is bound to grow, Mr. Proctor points out, because "we have seen nothing yet."

His view is supported by a DBS bulletin dated October 30 and disclosing the May-to-August trend. This shows more people working, labor income up, important increases in sales of groceries, clothing, furniture and motor vehicles. Building was down as regards residential and government but not industrial. Exports rose faster than imports. The index of industrial production was up in almost all categories except iron and steel, and that would be a temporary setback.

Canada's economic expansion, Mr. Proctor believes, should be allowed to continue "without being affected by political instability and chronic inflation."

Bank presidents are interesting when they speak out, and Mr. Proctor has spoken to good purpose.

REGENTS, ORONO SPLIT GAMES, POINTS IN TWO WEEKEND HOME-AND-HOME GAMES

Lindsay Regents and Bowmanville-Orono Orioles split games and points in their home and home Lakeshore League games Friday and Saturday nights.

Friday night the Regents fired four goals in five overtime minutes to defeat the Combines 9-5. Saturday night the Combines fired four goals in 20 minutes of the third period to defeat the Regents 6-2. Jack Graham scored three times for the Regents Friday. Ray West fired a hat trick for Combines in each game.

On the fast Lindsay ice Friday night, both teams played a fast wide-open type of game while Saturday night in Bowmanville, sticky ice slowed up the game which was a close checking affair with, ice packs a dime a dozen. The Combines presented a stronger rear guard Saturday night with the addition of Hooper, Dykstra and Marshal while the Regents added Davis to their line-up.

Friday night, at Kiwanis Arena the Regents jumped to a 3-1 first period lead and kept the West Brothers pretty well in check. The Combines bounced back in the second period to outscore the Regents 3-1 for a four all tie. Combines scored early in the third period, and the Regents tied the game again within five minutes.

In the overtime session, the Regents ignited by Bill Williams, the breaker at 4.55, went on to pour three more pucks into the Combines net before the ten minute session ended.

Lindsay's first goal in the game came at 11.45 of the first period when Lou Hennessey cleared over the Lindsay blue-line to Ron Teel. Teel cut down Graham loose with a rink-wide pass, Graham, in the clear, in on Howe, and pushed the puck into the corner.

Two Lindsay penalties followed and Ray and Dean West tied the score just before the second penalty was due to expire. Graham, however combined with Teel and McGill within the minute to regain the lead, and Jimmy Hutton scored Hennessey's corner shot past Howe at 18.10 for the 3-1 lead.

Junior West got one back at the 30 second mark of the second period when he recovered a rebound from O'Brien, releasing Graham from his slashing penalty.

At 6.33 Hutton broke loose with Corley, and one defenseman to beat, Tommy drew the defender and dumped the disc to Vic who "put in for a nifty counter. Ray West moved the counter to 4-3. Regents at 8.16, when O'Brien clearned Junior's drive to the corner, and Ray's golf-ed return bounced in off the goalie. The neatest goal of the night tied the score at 15.15 on a four way passing play. Armstrong recovered at the Regent blue line and snapped a long pass to Dean West at the far boards. Dean slapped the rubber to Ray, about ten feet in front of the net, and fired to the left corner of the crease where Junior West tipped it over O'Brien's stick.

Ray West combined with Dean and Junior at 1.38 of the third period for a goal-mouth counter, but Parker, from Crawford and Growden duplicated the feat at 5.16. Through the remainder of the third period, O'Brien and Howe took turns in making sensational saves to end the period at five all.

In the over-time session, play continued at a fast clip. At the three-minute mark, coach Crombie sent the four West brothers out with Armstrong but to no avail. Finally Bill Williams, in his first turn out after a two stitch repair job in the third period, fired a screened shot from the blue line to relieve the tension and turn on the Regents.

Continuing on the offensive, Jack Graham fired his third goal at 6.15 when McGill passed Al Burns' rebound. Orlie Crawford cashed a rebound off Howe at 6.46 and Wimpy Parker completed the scoring at 9.45 with the teams playing four a side. Four roughing penalties at 9.04 cleared up a mix up near the Lindsay net.

Lindsay Regents and B. O' Combines met in their return match in Bowmanville Saturday night, with the Combines gaining the four goal win. Playing the second successive night slowed both teams down somewhat, but the Combine came on in the third period for the winning margin.

Combines opened the scoring at 9.03 of the first period, Robinson scoring from Walker and K. West. Growden, Parker and Hutton each fired at Howe before Growden's second flip lalled at 14.48 for a 1-1 first period score.

Ray West found an open corner at 14.14 of the second period for the only goal of the ragged close-checking session.

Ray and Junior West added to the score at 6.36 of the third with Crawford from Davis and Parker caught up at 5.15. Dean and Junior West broke in the clear to score at 7.15. Keith West from Hooper and Marshal moved the score to 5-3 at 9.04, and Ray West added to their goal assisted by Junior West and Hooper at 19.48.

The Regents had a decided edge in the first period on territorial play giving Howe a busy time. The Combines capitalized on breaks aways in the final period as the Regents attempted to storm their goal, and evened the score on the two games.

While the Wests brothers were outstanding for the Combines in both games, Jack Graham, Hutton, Williams were effective Friday night with Ted Mendick showing well in his first league contest. Saturday night, Parker, Crawford, Hennessey thrived in the heavy going.

The Chatterbox

by Millicent

Hard Hit

There were several aerials toppled over in the recent storm and it must have given the residents a fright. One on Francis street fell and it must have scared them out of a year's growth. It is still bent to the ground and it may be some time before it can be repaired. Perhaps one should have some insurance on these gadgets that we are not familiar with yet.

For Your Children

Within the past few years clothes for the small fry have become high fashion news. According to one Canadian children's wear designer fashions for four-year-olds follow the whims of Paris just as lavishly as do adult fashions. It has reached a point where American children's wear designers travel to Europe for openings and rush back home to whip up adaptations for the pig-tail set". A year ago, when Paris dropped the waistlines of women's wear to give the long torso look down went waistlines over the plump tummies of little girls. This year the trend reversed. The high-waisted "empire" line is tops for five-year -olds, just as it is for their mothers. But in children's finery, just as in women's fashions, there's always a middle course and Canada does not go in for setting down where nature intended them to be. A pretty fashion for little girls this year, is the diamond, usually brightly colored and fastened with a big flat bow at the back. Children's clothes do alter very little from one year to another.

Christmas Coming

We intend to take a tour some night and see if our main Incorporated is keeping up with the times. There is nothing lovelier than those lights and Christmas decorations to get one in the shopping mood. We expect our town will get busy and give our whole town a fairyland look and you can be sure the public will appreciate it. We have the snow and next comes Christmas.

Don't put off measures to correct little skin troubles. Gaze into a magnifying mirror and try to learn the brutal truth. To put off wrinkles, begin using cream as soon as your skin seems dry. A dry skin wrinkles early, and yours will be smooth and fresh much longer if you use cream faithfully. The brightness of your complexion depends partly on good cleansing, partly on your diet and general well-being. Watch these factors, and do avoid deep tanning and sunburn, which coarsens skin. Young hair is bright and shiny. Daily brushing and weekly shampoos will help to keep yours, that way, but if it becomes dull and dry, cream treatments will improve it. In winter, you need this treatment more than ever for the wind and cold takes more out of your skin.

Trim It Up

Set your Christmas pudding in a special made out of greenery and bits of holly. It will make a nice center for the table but be sure it is safe! Holly, red berries and other touches of red. Keep your flowers for your living room unless you have enough for both rooms.

Plenty Of Water

Your Christmas tree will live longer if you keep it in water. Most of the tree factories have cups at the place where the trunk of the tree sits. Keep these filled and your tree will stay fresh longer. That is, if you like to keep the tree up for New Years too.

Change Of Clothes

A British doctor believes Santa Claus needs a change of clothes. He suggests that instead of the Hungarian situation, Santa should take off his traditional Russian garments. He says: "Is it not high time the dear old gentleman was clad in a manner more acceptable to the western world?"

One For The Door

If you like wreaths for Christmas that are different here is one you might like. It is made of striped peppermint candies fastened together to make a pretty wreath. You'll need some wire and bits of green would help to fill it out. Two red bows . . . top and bottom completes it. It all sounds like something cheerful and very different. Let the youngsters make it Mom. The more they share in the second hand of things the happier they will be.

Removes Lime Deposit

The lime deposit (that sometimes accumulates on the inside of the tea kettle can be removed by putting in some vinegar, to which a little salt has been added, and allowing it to stand for a while. When bubbles begin appearing, it means the lime is dissolving. After it has been removed, rinse with clear water.

Lids That Stick

The lids that stick on glue, shellac, and other bottles unscrew easily after you coat them with a thin film of jelly. For best results, apply lubricant when bottles are first opened. A small amount of jelly is all you need. Another way: Cover bottle top with aluminum foil and screw lid down over it.

Dishwashing Trick

Latest trick in feeding plants is to mix the fertilizer salts with dishwashing liquid. The detergent holds the plant foods and releases them slowly. It also acts as a soil amendment and a mulch. Scientists, in the Sahara, where the tests were made, say the cellophane-plant-food combination compares favorably with peatmoss as a mulch.

Lakes Open

We noticed the lake is not frozen at Sturgeon except along some of the shores and Chemong is also open except for some near the shore. There were definitely no boats out and the water looked cold and chilly.

Christmas Treat

With Christmas coming soon here is a cranberry conserve you might like to try. One pound of cranberries, 1 cup water, 2 cups diced pineapple, grated rind of orange, 1 cup diced peeled orange, ½ cup seedless raisins, 2½ cups sugar and ½ cup chopped walnuts. Wash and pick over cranberries. Put in large saucepan with water. Bring to boil, ring thimmy 5 minutes, or until berries pop. Add remaining ingredients, except nuts. Cook, stirring occasionally, about 20 minutes, or until thick. Remove from heat, and add nuts. Pour into hot sterilized jelly glasses. Cover with melted paraffin.

Remove Fallen Needles

Here's a tip you may want to remember: If your tree has fallen needles and pitch stains immediately, your Christmas tree will give you no trouble, says the National Institute of Rug Cleaning. Tree needles can stain, so use carpet sweeper or vacuum to remove them quickly.

For small spots of pitch, use non-flammable dry-cleaning fluid to remove them. Have room well ventilated. With an eye dropper, apply solvent directly on the stained area. With chewing gum, blot the spot. You may rub lightly, but be sure to start at outside of stain and work in toward the center. Blot back, use an absolute minimum of solvent, as it can damage rubber.

Peanut Butter Kisses

One-third cup syrup, one-third cup peanut butter, one-half cup powdered milk, one-third cup sifted confectioners' sugar; shape into roll about three-quarter-inch in diameter. Roll may be decorated with chopped nuts. Chill. Cut into one-inch pieces. Makes 24 pieces.

Peaceful Fondant

The recipe calls for one-third cup soft butter, one-third cup Karo syrup, one label, one-half teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, three and one-half cups sifted confectioner's sugar. Blend butter, syrup, salt and vanilla in large mixing bowl. Add sifted confectioners' sugar all at once. Mix all together—first with a spoon and then with hand kneed in dry ingredients. Turn onto board and continue kneading until mixture is well blended and smooth. Makes about one-third pounds candy. Store in a cool place. You can half this recipe and tint half with red coloring and make it more effective with rolling half the recipe and cutting the second layer half red for the Holidays ahead. It gives a dash of color to this fine candy.

Home Made Ornaments

If you don't want to spend much on decorations this year you may want to make some colored foil. You can make so many artistic Christmas ornaments with it for the table or tree and the children can help with them. You can get all the bright shades you use at Christmas for these and they are a lovely color in the lamplight. It might save you money on ornaments too.

Light Sheets

If you are struggling with a heavy snow shovel these days be smart and get an aluminum one. They are light and work just as well as it. The snow is heavy enough without carrying a heavy snow shovel too. Right now it looks as if we're in for a real winter so get the right equipment now.

Lovely Decorations

Guests at the Anglican Tea and bazaar last Friday were intrigued with the lovely table decorations. Needless some lovely needle work with colored birds and trimming, they had a beautiful bouquet for the serving table. It meant a lot of work but it was all very much appreciated.

Stores Decorated

Our stores are starting to get busy, Christmas decorations up and they always come forth with something unusual. It set of perks us up for this festive season.

Household Hint:

Let The Young Fry Decorate

We were interested to look through the window of the North Ward school the other day and behold the lovelies decorations for Christmas we have ever seen. Together there were geranium plants on the window sills and both looked so Christmasy that we stopped to have a good look. It showed such a nice Christmas spirit and one feels that if a person has this, they won't want an abundance of gifts too. Actually it is the decorating that makes Christmas and the joy we has of making it as pretty as possible.

Seeds of Toys

The toys are lovely this year and those children are going to like what Santa brings. We expect there will be lots of letter in the mail for Santa and we hope that every child gets a fair share. There are so many lovely toys for children that it seems too cruel that there should be a lot of small instruments that children can learn to strum on. No telling what this come out of this sort of thing. If they are musically inclined they may get their start on one of these instruments.

Colored Casseroles

Now they are making pyrex dishes with a touch of colour. The lid is clear but you can get pink, blue or black for the bottom part. They look very pretty and you can take them right to the table. You may have pure white with blue daisies around the dish. It would make a nice gift!

Popcorn Balls

For quick popcorn balls for Christmas entertaining and decorations here is the recipe: one-quarter cup marshmallow, ½ cup popcorn, cup sugar, ⅓ cup syrup and ½ teaspoon salt. Heat oil in a 4-quart kettle over the medium heat for three minutes. Add popcorn. Cover, leaving small air spaces at edge of lid. Shake frequently over medium heat until popping stops. Meanwhile mix together syrup, sugar and salt. Add to popped corn in kettle and stir constantly over medium heat 3 to 5 minutes or until corn is evenly and completely coated with mixture. Remove from heat. Form into balls, using as little pressure as possible. Use butter on hands, if desired. Makes 8 popcorn balls about 2½ inches in diameter. Do not double recipe.

Household Hint: If you have apples stored away in your cellar be sure to check them over carefully every week and pick out those that are spoiling.

Sensitive Critters

A livestock show at London had a speaker today with a fascinating occupation.

George Crocker, hypnotizes pigs.

Crocker told his audience that pig farmers must be kind to their porkers. He said that pigs are among the most neurotic creatures in the world.

"If their quarters are cramped or they suddenly are a stranger or somebody says harsh words to them," said Crocker, "It upsets them terribly."

CWL Holds Pre-Christmas Benefit Tea

Little Britain (PNS) — A delightful pre-Christmas tea was held in St. Mary's Parish auditorium under the auspices of the C. W. L. Guests were received at the door by Mrs. R. H. O'Reilly and Mrs. F. Hutson and by Mrs. L. O'Reilly and Mrs. B. McGough. Mrs. J. Crosley was treasurer.

A lovely floral arrangement of red and white carnations with Christmas greenery, flanked with lit red candles in silver candelabra, centered the lace covered table. Mrs. J. Morris presided at the tea table and Mrs. George McCrae was tea hostess.

During the afternoon Mrs. F. Gillet, Mrs. G. Miller, Mrs. L. Burns and Mrs. J. Cudahee poured tea assisted by Mrs. J. Costello, Mrs. L. Skipworth, Mrs. E. Miller and Mrs J. Hogan. Mrs. J. Norris and Mrs. H. O'Reilly convened the tea room. The small tea tables were centered with beautiful Christmas decorations loaned by Hill's Florists. A number of the members assisted in serving the refreshments, other members worked diligently behind the scenes at the many duties necessary to make the tea such a success.

The bazaar, in charge of Mrs. J. Farrelly, Mrs. F. Cudahee and Mrs. C. Hanson, was well patronized and many took the opportunity to buy Christmas gifts there. The candy booth in charge of Mrs. L. Roche and Mrs. F. Roche did a thriving business and the ladies were anxious to please everyone, even the little school children who had only five cents to spend. The home baking table was laden with delicious cakes, buns and fancy baking. This was all so tempting that it sold readily.

The draw and the flowers, in charge of Miss Jean Powers was won by Mrs. J. Crowley. The quilt, in in charge of Mrs. F. Callaghan was won by Mrs. Gulvert. Despite the fact there was another tea the same day, the C. W. L. tea was well attended and the proceeds were satisfying. A cheque from the proceeds has been turned over to the Hospital Fund.

The monthly meeting of the C. W. L. was held in St. Mary's Hall with a good attendance. Mrs. H. O'Reilly presided and opened the meeting with prayer. She spoke briefly and thanked all who had participated in the tea and assisted in any way to make it such a success. Mrs. Frank Kirley read the minutes of the previous meeting which were approved as read. Mrs. Mrs. J. Crowley read the financial report.

Each convenor as they were called read splendid reports, showing the work being carried out by the C.W.L. Plans were made to remember the sick and shut-ins also the elderly people at the Victoria County Home for the Aged.

A letter was read from Mrs. L. O'Reilly the Diocesan President asking the Sub-division to aid the Hungarian people. It was decided to send a donation to this worthy cause.

The meeting closed with prayer and delightful program followed. Those taking part were Ladwina Verway, Joanna Grosvile, Margaret Gemmill, Jeannette Norris, Victor Warchma and Ann Crowley. Mrs. V. Murphy moved a vote of thanks to the young artists. Refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

Grasshill W.I. Holds Meeting

Grasshill (PNS)—Members of the Grasshill W. I. met at the home of Mrs. R. Cundy for their November meeting. Nineteen were present with three visitors and guides brought a jar of jelly and Christmas cards to be included in Christmas gifts for the needy in the community.

The president, Mrs. P. MacArthur opened the meeting with the usual singing of the Ode, etc. Minutes and treasurer's reports were read by Mrs. C. Black, Sec. Treas. A letter of thanks was received from the Victoria Home for the Aged for candies sent.

The 84th Annual Convention reports were given by Mrs. Jack Tamblyn and Mrs. Peter MacArthur. It was decided that the December meeting be held at the home of Mrs. W. Myers. Mr. Archie Jewell, Reeve of the Township, spoke on the canvas for low income housing. A contest was held by Mrs. Gordon Adams and at the close of the meeting lunch on the lunch committee served tea and cake.

Laff it off

The founder of a great business dynasty was approached by his office boy, an undersized lad of fifteen, for a raise.

"A raise?" said the businessman, squinting down at the boy. "What are you getting now?"

"Three dollars a week," said the boy.

"Three dollars!" said the boss. "Why, that's pretty good. When I was your age I was getting only two."

"That's different," returned the youngster. "Maybe you weren't worth any more."

Glenarm

(News For Week Ending Dec. 8) Mrs. Mitch Wood of Peterboro spent the weekend at the Sinclair home and in company with the Sinclair family motored to Toronto on Sunday, owing to the death of her cousin the late Mrs. Anne French and sister of Mrs. D. N. Sinclair.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Mosterd children John and Gerald, of Pleasant Valley visited their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hengeveld and family while Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hoyle, Bill and Miss Anne were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brown and family of Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. Goudie Lauenson and Murray visited parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Campbell and Mrs. James Laurenson of Lindsay, also Mrs. Jack Campbell of Bodville to a turkey dinner at their home the evening preceding to their 25th anniversary also on the weekend they themselves and son Murray visited friends and relatives at Markham and Locust Hill.

Deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. Wm. Riley and family on the death of her brother the late Mr. Neil Campbell whose passing took place in Lindsay with funeral services held at Fenelon Falls where he was a resident.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kinghorn of Hartley were sorry to learn that their prominent son Roger was rushed to the hospital on the weekend for surgery, but are glad to learn that now there is a marked improvement in his condition and hope for a continuance.

A large number from the community attended the marriage ceremony of Shirley Dawson and Sherman Nicholson at Zion (Fenelon) and heartiest congratulations are extended to the newlyweds, while on the weekend a trio composed of Messrs. Keith Hayward, Howard and James Nesbitt, assisted with a couple of numbers, accompanied by Katherine Mckay at "The Fireside" at Fenelon Falls for which a goodly representation from Glenarm attended.

Bible Thoughts

Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them; for the Lord thy God He it is that doth go with thee; He will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.—Deut. 31:6

The Old Testament is full of heroic deeds performed by men of faith. One great lesson of the Bible is You can do what you think you can do. Nothing is impossible!

Then shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. —Mark 12:31.

What a city it would be if every one in it lived by that rule!

Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness.—Matt. 6:33.

Do not worry.—Matthew 6:25.

It is one thing to think things through from all angles, but having reached a final conclusion as to what is wise and best to do, worry gets you nowhere. Often we have known shattering disappointments turn out to be glorious success. Do your best and wait calmly.

Investigate Alleged Election Infraction

Find Election Act Terms Are Lenient For Infractions

Although the election in Lindsay is over for another year, the memory is reported to be very much alive in some quarters of town.

"The Post" was asked to investigate a report that one of the candidates for a seat on town council had been advertising on election day urging people to cast their vote for him. Checking with the town office to inquire as to the legality of such an act, "The Post" was advised that it was a "matter for legal opinion and no comment could be made."

An individual indicated that he thought it was quite permissable for a candidate to solicit votes on election day, although he was not too certain. Mayor A. E. Rick pointed out that the regulations are different for municipal, provincial and federal elections, and suggested that the Ontario Municipal Act be referred to.

Section 125, subsection (1) of the acts reads as follows:

"No person on the day of polling shall use or deliver to any other person any card, ticket, leaflet, book, circular or writing soliciting votes for or against any candidate or by-law, or for an affirmative or negative answer to any question, or having upon it the name of any candidate date.

"(2) Every person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offense and liable to a penalty of not more than $200."

However The Act continues on a similar vein in section 162 where it points out that, "no election shall be declared invalid by reason of non-compliance with the provisions of this act . . . if it appears to the tribunal by which the validity of the election or any proceeding in relation to it is to be determined that the election was conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in the Act, and it does not appear that such non-compliances, mistakes, or irregularity affected the result of the election."

"The Post" was contacted by some voters this week who alleged they had been solicited by means of cards or handbills by one of the candidates on the day of the election, and the enquiry was started when someone asked whether this was permissible. They alleged that the action could have some effect in the way a person might mark his or her ballot.

Scotch Line Mission Circle

The regular monthly meeting of the Scotch Line Mission Circle was held at the home of Mrs. Bertram Robertson with all but one member present.

In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Embury took the minutes. It was reported the box for Bertha Belch's Missions was sent away and the postage was paid. It was decided to send a Christmas box to Edith Milloy in Africa. Mrs. Bearie offered to look after posting the parcel which must be got away immediately.

A letter was read from the Bloomfield gifts and money sent to them, also one from the secretary of the union acknowledging the last contribution to the Mission Fund.

Mrs. Arthur Kennedy gave a reading on Remembrance Day and Mrs. Torrance Robertson read a paper entitled "My Favourite Saint (Martha).

Millbrook Miller, 89, Works Daily; Dreads Idea Of Being Idle All Day

Millbrook — Henry C. Attwood of Millbrook has been a miller all his life, and just because it was his 89th birthday recently that provided no excuse for slacking, he said.

The sprightly old gent, who with his nephew Doug Sheppard runs the 100-year-old mill in the village was up at dawn, and down to the woodlot fog still lurking to do his share in turning out food for farmers' livestock in Durham county.

"If I didn't come down here, what would I do with myself all day?" he shot back when asked about retiring.

"Hell, never retire", was his nephew's opinion. The two of them run the mill in partnership, turning out about 35 hundred-weight bags of feed an hour.

Demand Dropped

Once they used to produce 160 pounds of flour an hour, but the demand for it has dropped with the decrease in home baking and no more flour is turned out. Instead, many of their summer days are spent sawing oats in a room at the top of the two storey mill.

The original mill was built about 100 years ago, but was burned down about 1915. A couple of years later Mr. Attwood came from Primrose, Dufferin County, where he had worked with his uncle, George Shepherd, to buy the rebuilt mill.

A saddle wheel driven by water piped from the top of the dam across Millbrook Creek still provides the only motive power for the belt driven machinery. "It's cheap and we've never seen the water drop low enough to stop its running", said Mr. Shepherd.

Born in Whitbitie, England, he was working at a flour mill at Port Hope, Ontario, when he decided to come to Canada at the age of 24 to join his uncle.

Christmas Thoughts

MIRACLE

Quietly, beneath the commerce clamors on
May be felt a peaceful power in,
From the inceptive stream of Bethlehem
The Royal Crown of love — the diadem.
That welling up through all the years
Calms our hearts and quells our fears.

Despite the hurt, world wars have caused —
Or fear its fruit, mankind is cursed —
And shattered faith, where hope was buried
Into calamities of a turmoil world
Faith still breathes — and hope springs strong again,
The Christmas spirit — builds the hearts of men.
The miracle I — we call it Christmas time.

In every age, of place, and clime,
Has lasted through the centuries of time
A lesson in charity of a love divine.
Intimate happiness — we term to find
Common to God — In the hearts of all mankind.

Laff it off

The school superintendent was visiting the school to see how the students are doing. In one classroom he put this question: "If the earth is 25,000 miles in circumference, and Niagara Falls 125 feet high, how old am I?"

"You are 42, Sir," said a boy.

"How do you make it out?" asked the astonished teacher.

"Well, I got a brother who is 21, and he's only half-crazy."

Sterling Weaver

Coboconk (PNS) — The residents of Coboconk were saddened to learn of the passing of Sterling Foster Weaver on Nov. 14th, 1956, at Sunnybrook hospital, in his 44th year.

Born Oct. 19th, 1912, he was the son of former Annie Turner and Cyrus Weaver. He received his education here and worked at the Gull River Veneer, for a number of years until his enlistment into the Army in September 1939. On Feb. 1st 1941, he married Mary Reseor of Toronto. He served in England during the war and after his discharge from the army, went back to the veneer factory. He then changed jobs and worked with the Department of Highways until ill health forced him to quit work.

Since 1950 he had been in poor health and his life became a series of hospital visits, periods of being bedfast, then up for awhile again. His longest stay at Sunnybrook was prior to his death, going there last spring, although he was home for a few days in July. He was a good singer, and played the guitar during his younger years.

He was a member of the United Church, and his favourite Bible passage was the 23rd Psalm. Left to mourn his passing, besides his wife, are four children, Keith, Kathleen, Kurt and Carolyn, his mother, Mrs. Annie Weaver of Fenelon Falls (his father predeceased him on Oct. 18, 1949), William of Fenelon Falls, Roy of Sudbury, Bruce of Lindsay, Rita (Mrs. Cecil Dale) and Shirley (Mrs. Mike Angiers), both of Lindsay.

He was a faithful member of the Loyal Orange Lodge and the Oangemen, also the Canadian Legion. Coboconk branch, performed graveside ceremonies. His casket was draped with the Union Jack. Pallbearers were Norman Hannivan, Lee Calater, Frank Kerr, Ed Brennan, Bob Callan and Andy Gillingham. Service was held from the United Church with Rev. Atkinson taking charge. He was laid to rest in Pine Grove Cemetery, Norland. Friends and relatives from Oshawa, Burst, Fenelon Falls, Lindsay, Toronto and Sudbury, were present.

Guilt Complex Is Blamed For Failing Sight

Hamilton, Dec. 1—(CUP)—It was reported today that a "guilt complex" is believed to be the cause of the failing eyesight of 27-year-old Rita Sullivan of Hamilton.

A doctor told Rita more than a year ago that worry or hysteria can cause eyesight to fail, but does not result in blindness.

Miss Sullivan tells how 10 years ago she cared for blind brother—a 24-year-old Jimmy — to ride down a steep Hamilton hill on his bicycle at top speed. The bike had no brakes and collided with a car.

Sullivan came out of the accident with serious head injuries which in turn affected his sight. He now has only eight per cent vision.

Solomon Hadley

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — Solomon Sylvester Hadley passed away at his home in Goodenham on Wednesday, November 14th at the age of 82 years.

Mr. Hadley, a highly respected citizen of Goodenham, leaves to mourn his loss two daughters and three sons: Mrs. Wm. Maxwell (Ruby); Mrs. Wm. Dovell (Violet) of Goodenham; Ivan Hadley Garner of Scarborough Bluffs, and Ted of Goodenham. Two sisters and two brothers: Mrs. George Langley (Edith) of Edmonton Alta., Mrs. W. T. Robson (Lucretia) of Fenelon Falls, Mr. Isaac Hadley of Lindsay and Mr. Roy Hadley of Styall Alberta, also survive.

Service for funeral was held on November 17th from Goodenham United Church. Interment was made in Goodenham Cemetery.

Safe Driving Week Success But Fog Fouls Up Officer

Despite all sorts of bad driving conditions ranging from snow to ice, to rain, and fog, "Safe Driving Week" in Lindsay and district is reported as having been remarkably free of any serious accidents.

Cpl. Ken Dennis of the OPP Lindsay Detachment said that the Safe Driving Week officially ended at midnight Friday and, despite extremely thick fogs, motorists have been very careful on the surrounding highways.

When roads were icy Wednesday night there were very few cars or trucks out, he declared, since the majority of people made arrangements to postpone any trips. These who did venture forth, he stated, were very cautious.

Cpl. Dennis cited a humorous incident which occurred last evening during the dense fog. He said, that his office received a call to investigate a matter in Reaboro, therefore a cruiser was at once dispatched. The officer driving the cruiser began to wonder, if he was travelling too far south since he had been driving for some time but had not reached the curve at the intersection of Highway 7 and 35. The officer soon realized that he was lost in the fog when he found he had missed the curve completely and had continued straight down 35.

Polling Station Complaint Substantiated

Professional Man Declares Secret Ballot Jeopardized, Check Reveals Inadequacy

Prompted by a request from a Lindsay professional man who had been one of those voting on Monday last "The Post" investigated an allegation that the privilege of the secret ballot was not secret any more at some of the polling sub-divisions

The professional man stated when he was voting it was very simple for anyone to peer over his shoulder and see how he marked his ballot. Checking with the Electoral Act it was found that all polling booths MUST BE ENCLOSED in order to insure privacy for each voter.

"The Post" called at the polling place which had been complained about and found that in one case there were two small desks set up on either side of the room with absolutely no shielding or curtain whatsoever to provide the voter with a little privacy.

It was observed that any person with some curiosity could, while standing at the deputy-returning officer's desk, observe a voter and how he marked his ballot. However, it was pointed out by one of those present, there was no rush at any time for the polls and therefore no crowd gathered during the day which might have still reduced the privacy of each voter.

In the same room were two widely-separated places for marking ballots at the back of the room. Those were not enclosed or screening either.

A check of some of the other polling sub-divisions revealed that locations for marking ballots had been set up in cloakrooms, or sheds, had been tacked diagonally across the corner of a room, though not very attractive was an effective way of ensuring the voter's privacy.

According to the Electoral Act, as stated above, an enclosure must be provided, and if it is not, the deputy returning officer must provide the requisites for that enclosed polling area WITH ANY COSTS TO BE ASSUMED BY THE MUNICIPALITY.

In another sub-division in Lindsay on election day, one deputy returning officer demonstrated considerable ingenuity in providing privacy for the voters. Having little equipment at hand, two tables were therefore turned on their sides and placed on either side of a a desk, thus blocking the view of anyone who might be standing nearby.

Hungarian Fund To Receive Gift From Fenelon W.I.

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — Mrs. A. M. McGee was hostess for the November meeting of the W. I. which was opened by singing the Ode and responding the Mary Stewart Collect. The Roll Call, answered by donation of talent money for the Hospital Extension Fund or telling something worth remembering in past institute years elicited many interesting memories and the fact that Mrs. W. Pogue has been an Institute member since 1902.

Plans were made for the Christmas meeting, each member to be responsible for a number.

It was unanimously decided that instead of a Christmas gift exchange an offering should be given to the Hungarian Relief Fund.

In a comprehensive stimulating report Mrs. McGeen, delegate to the annual convention of the Central Ontario area at the Royal York Hotel, gave the outstanding highlights of the convention. Mrs. Clugston, retiring chairman in her address stressed the theme of the convention "Our Heritage", when she said "Our heritage is a priceless treasure entrusted to our care, and no one has a right to the future, who does not treasure the past. Mrs. McGee stressed the main points of interest in addresses given by Mrs. Gordon McPhail, the retiring Ontario president, Mrs. Houck, Miss Helen McKercher and Mr. David McFaul who speaking on antiques, had on display a piece of goods woven in Lindsay in 1836. Branch members are the most important link in the whole organization." Mrs. McGee concluded, "the secret of your W.I. success rests with you."

Mrs. Corson of Coboconk, will represent East Victoria on the Provincial Board and Mrs. McGee was elected vice-chairman of the area.

Miss Viola McIntosh, Mrs. W. Pogue and Mrs. A. Brokenshire were appointed a committee to arrange for a Burns Night, when Scotch songs, followed by a reading "My Old Scotch Granny" read by Mrs. Mathers. Two delightful vocal solos by Mr. J. E. Barrett, "Afton Waters" and a Canadian hymn song "Land of Our Tomorrow", ended the programme which were a most enjoyable surprise. Mrs. Thomson and Miss Mayhee moved a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Barrett.

New Operator Fills Lindsay Taxi Quota

Lindsay's quota of 10 taxi operators has been filled with the granting by council of a license to Mr. Stan Hogarth to operate a taxi business in town. Council members pointed out that no further licenses will be granted unless one of the present operators cease business. This proviso in accordance with the request of the taxi operator's association.

The license of Mr. Lamb to operate a taxi business was also approved. Mr. Lamb explaining that he had cancelled his insurance earlier in the year as he was away during the summer. He requested that his license be re-instated.

Mr. McCrae asked, "Is this going to be a practice? We don't let a man man get a license and use it only during fair time and then permit him to renew it."

Mayor HICK: "A man of Mr. Lamb's character and reputation should also be considered."

Councillor HUTTON: "Yes, and it's a matter, of good management too."

Councillor MAIDENS: "He would be out of luck if he re-applied for his license if the quota had already been filled."

Councillor HUTTON: "It's not filled up."

Councillor MAIDENS: "I said if the quota had been filled."

Christmas Trees Are Hung, Merchants May Decorate Them

The Lindsay Parks Board was busy last week erecting Christmas trees on all the hydro standards in downtown Lindsay. According to the Chamber of Commerce manager Ed May, 50 trees so far have been purchased and the merchant's committee expect that about another 50 will be needed. Mr. May pointed out that the trees are all being purchased by Lindsay and a Christmas tree dealer. He said the privilege of decorating the trees rest with merchants along the main thoroughfares.

A large tree, similar to the one that was erected last year it to be placed in front of the Town Hall and will have coloured lights installed by the Lindsay Hydro.

Mr. May said that $50 has been spent so far for trees, which included some fairly large ones as well as those on the light standards.

Oldest Citizen Dies At 98

Coboconk (PNS)—One of the most widely-known and respected citizens of the Coboconk district, Mr. Frank Cooper, passed away on October 31st at the age of 98.

The late Mr. Cooper was the oldest citizen of Coboconk at the time of his death, and for many years he could be seen each summer enjoying his fishing at Gull River dam. Mr. Cooper always was in a good place and he never expressed a theory for his longevity except that he would comment that he never worried about a thing.

His wife, the former Abegail Punter predeceased him.

The funeral was held on November 3rd from the A. E. Bryant Funeral Home Coboconk, interment to the United Church for service.

Pallbearers were Les Calster, Ed Hessman, Earl Rogill, Bill Punter, Bough, Albert Woodcock, and Sanford Richman. Interment was at Pine Grove Cemetery, Norland.

Santa Welcomed To Fenelon Falls

Fenelon Falls (PNS)—Santa Claus made his first appearance in Fenelon Falls at the Legion Hall out said he had to hurry back to the North Pole because a lot of his toys were not packed yet. On hand to welcome Santa were a group of happy children and parents.

Gilli Waldeck entertained the party with singing, and also played the piano to lead the Christmas carol singing. When Santa arrived with his pack, he handed out 80 presents, and then to complete the good things each child was given a bag containing an orange, apple, peanuts and candy.

The committee, composed of members of the Ladies' Auxiliary and Men's Branches of the Fenelon Falls Legion were amply repaid for their combined efforts in providing this well-organized get-together for Legion veterans' children.

Poetic Plea

One verse goes like this:

When mailing out your Christmas gifts
Please send them early, do;
You'll find by test that it is best,
No waiting lines for you. —BUP.

Bride-to-be June Parrington Is Showered

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — Mrs J. Demering entertained some 36 friends at her home on Louisa St., as a miscellaneous shower in honour of Miss June Parrington whose marriage to Mr. Bruce Stewart will take place the latter part of December. The evening was spent in chatting, while awaiting the arrival of the bride-elect. June was seated in the place of honour under a pretty decorated arch behind a basket piled high with gaily wrapped packages.

Joy Martin assisted June to open her gifts which were then passed around for all to see and admire. June expressing sincere thanks to her friends for the lovely gifts which will always be a happy reminder of girlhood days in Fenelon Falls.

Mrs Demering assisted by the bride's sisters Mrs. Deane and Mrs. Phillips, served a dainty lunch.

W.I. Holds Social Annual Event

Cambray (PNS) — The Women's Institute held their annual social evening in the community hall with a fair attendance. Euchre was enjoyed and the prizes were awarded to Miss Zella Owens and Mr. Earl Van Dyke and Miss Margaret Rose Sluggett. The lucky draw prizes were Mrs. Norman Jewell, Lindsay (electric frying pan) and the blankets to Mrs. Duncan McKinnon, Peterborough.

The money raised is to be used to further the most worthy work the Institute is doing in our community. A social time and lunch was enjoyed.

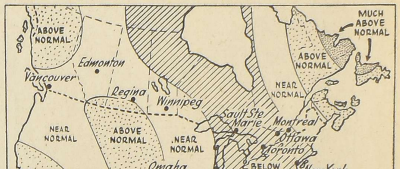
Horticulturalists To Decorate Trees For Christmas

Coboconk (PNS)—The Coboconk-Norland Horticultural Society met in the United Church Hall with a fair number present. Mr. Neil Porter of Orono, Director of No. 4 district was the speaker and gave an interesting lecture. Following the speaker, films were shown.

The society decided to place two large lighted Christmas trees in the village, one each side of the bridge. They also plan on carol playing at Austin's store, where the Christmas music will be heard.

A delightful lunch was served, closing the meeting.

FOR THE NEXT 30 DAYS—CHRISTMAS WEATHER



Only two widely separated spots in Canada are expected to have above-normal temperatures for the next month, according to the U.S. weather bureau's long-range forecast. Most of us will be battling with snow, ice and cold right up until Christmas.

Evening Auxiliary Christmas Sale

Haliburton (PNS) — The evening auxiliary of the United Church held their Christmas sale in the church basement and a large crowd attended. Some of the Christmas sales have repectedly been a little crowded up as every evening during the past month has been taken up with so many activities.

The Evening Auxiliary group have been a wonderful working group and their Christmas sale was a great success. Home made candy, cakes, tarts, pies and jellies and all sorts of needlework for Christmas gifts, were shown. During the next week bazaars will be the highlights of the week, and all have their share of shoppers.

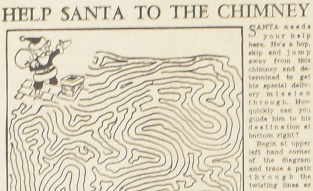
HELP SANTA TO THE CHIMNEY



SANTA needs your help here. He's a busy chap and jump away from this chimney and determined to get his special delivery mission through. How quickly can you guide him to his destination at bottom right?

Begin at upper left hand corner of the diagram and trace a path through the twisting lines as far as you can go. If you have selected the right route, you will not encounter any blind alleys. If you make a mistake the first time, begin the last over again.

THIS IS ON THE HOUSE!

SUPPOSE we make believe that this prospector, above, was given permission by her parents to draw something on the outside wall of her house for decoration purposes. She has outlined the figure with numbered dots. How quickly can you determine what she has planned to draw?

To find out, of course, you must draw a continuous connecting line from dot 1 to dot 2, etc.

Xmas Charade

Behold the wondrous Christmas tree
That Santa brought for you and me.
Come, let us  in to see
The gifts left for all the family.
For David a drum and a rocking-horse,
A box of candy, too, of course.
While Santa fulfilled mother's wishes
With a new set of china dishes.
Dad had a dozen ties before
And now he finds he  are more.
Oh! This belongs to me. Just look!
I have an empty pocket-book.

The asterisks stand for the letters of three missing words. The last two words are joined to spell the first word.

Tongue Twisters

SAY aloud swiftly and repeatedly:

Peter Piper gives easily aged ugly vegetables.

Long, lank, lean and lazy Lois lolled languidly.

Toast for '57

SANDY and Mrs. MacGregor are using one of their Christmas gifts, an electric toaster which browns bread on one side at a time. When she first began using it, Mrs. MacGregor placed two slices of bread in the toaster (respectly—two slices), and when they were done, she toasted one more piece, thus providing two pieces for Sandy and one for herself. It took 30 seconds to toast one side, so it required two minutes to complete the three pieces.

"Hold on," said Sandy, when he discovered what his wife was doing. "There's no sense making the electric company rich. Those three slices can be toasted in shorter time." With that, the thrifty Scotsman did exactly that without reducing the time any piece of bread was in the toaster. How?

Play This Old Favorite

THE related that the most popular of all Christmas hymns took but a few minutes to compose. It can be mastered on the piano or accordion in a short time, too, via the following method. Simply place this paper keyboard above the corresponding keys on your instrument and sound the keys indicated.

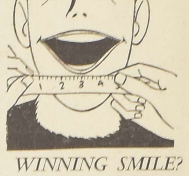
What Do You Imagine You See?

WHAT do you think you see hidden in the maze of lines above? Santa Claus? A bell? A dish? To bring the picture forth, apply colored pencils or crayons according to the following coloring indicators: O—Orange, Y—Yellow, B—Blue, V—Violet, G—Green, R—Red.

Did you guess the answer?

Measuring Up to Christmas



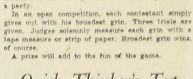
WINNING SMILE?

SOMEONE once said that people look prettier at Christmas. Perhaps it's because of that intangible something known as Christmas spirit. In any case, it's an excellent season at which to take the measure of a winning smile—an amusing test for a party.

In an open competition, each contestant simply gives out with his broadest grin. Three judges are given. Judges solemnly measure each grin with a tape measure or strip of paper. Broadest grin wins, of course.

A prize will add to the fun of the game.

Quick Thinker's Test



HOW quickly can you add and subtract letters in the rebus above to give you the correct solution? To do it in your head within one minute is exceptional.

Cracking Down on Shopping

TO SIMPLIFY Christmas shopping, Mr. and Mrs. Rickey Dallas each year exchange a rick and a rack. A stick rick and a crack rack together cost 180 simoleons. At that, the rick costs 26 more simoleons more than the rack. How much then, is the rack worth?

NOVELTY CUT-OUT FOR JUNIORS

HERE'S one time when it's fun to be on the outside looking in. For that's the idea of this novel toy window.

Bring colored pencils or crayons, add appropriate colors to the circle and window at right. Paste parts 1 and 2 on wrapping paper. Press on a box. When dry, carefully cut around outlines of 1 and 2. Also cut out the space between window curtains.

Punch holes through dots in center of circle and window. Push a paper fastener through window dot, then through circle dot. Bend back prongs.

To operate: slide tube beneath the window. Each motion will produce a different scene.

A thumb tack or even a pencil point may be used in place of a paper fastener if one is not available.

Scenes cut from magazines, etc., may be substituted for those given, if you prefer.

Jimmy's Allowance

HOW much money has Jimmy to spend on gifts? He has three times as many quarters as dimes, eight times as many dollars as quarters, and nine times as many pennies as his one dime.

HOW well will you stand up under the stress and strain of the holidays? That is, will you be equal to the pressure of crowds, last minute shopping, party-going, etc.?

Here are a few tests that may provide some indication—

1. This gauges your balance: With your eyes blindfolded, so that there is no possibility of your seeing anything, have yourself timed to determine how long you can stand on one leg without hopping around. (You'll be surprised to discover how much balance depends on sight.) Thirty seconds is fair; one minute good; but two minutes is outstanding.

2. The idea of this is to see if you can do two things at once perfectly. For this you will need a pencil and paper.

Have the person giving you the test call out two words commonly associated, and having about the same number of letters. The first of the words you are to write while you are simultaneously spelling out the second word aloud.

Some of the word pairs that can be used are: BERLIES and CREAM; SUNDAY and SCHOOL; APRIL and SHOWER.

3. This gives a line on your muscular coordination.

Hold out at arm's length a ruler with one edge upermost, and start by balancing a small Christmas gift at the end. This is easy. Now try a lipstick holder or something that shape, and then a pencil. If the object is heavier at one end than it is at the other, so much the better.

4. This tests your voice range. You need a competitive here, but constantly take part singularly. Each is required to sing out with his lowest and highest note. Object is to establish who possesses the greatest voice range, a valuable asset for shopping.

Hold That Line!

By Raphael Gallion

THIS design (above) is made with one continuous line. Can you duplicate it?

1. Lines are not to be crossed.
2. Lines are not to be retraced.
3. Corners may touch.
4. You may begin anywhere.

The Pinch

By Orian Jones

"DID you get a look at her in the dress?" John Carson asked his wife.

"Yes," Mrs. Carson said quickly. "Did you ever see anything like it?"

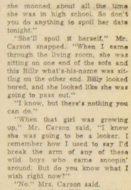
Mrs. Carson didn't answer. She was wiping the supper dishes, and he was sitting at the kitchen table drinking a cup of coffee. Mrs. Carson didn't answer because she knew her husband was pretty disgusted up, and she knew he was going to do enough talking for both of them.

"I've never seen her so pretty," Mr. Carson said. And what does she do? She sits in their looking like a scared rabbit. Why, all she'd have to do is flutter one eyelid and that Billy what's-his-name would fall off the sofa in sheer joy.

"His name's Billy Simmons. And you just remember that Helen's my, and we won't get anywhere pushing her. She'll have to come out of it herself," Mrs. Carson said.

"But when! The girl's twenty now."

"I don't know when. But I do know this date with Billy means a great deal to her. He's the one



"Now look here, boy," he said. "I heard a noise out in the kitchen. Did you pinch my daughter?"

she mooned about all the time she was in high school. So don't you do anything to spoil her date tonight."

"She'll spoil it herself." Mr. Carson snapped. "When I came through the living room, she was sitting on one end of the sofa and this Billy what's-his-name was sitting on the other end. Billy looked bored, and she looked like she was going to pass out."

"I know, but there's nothing you can do."

"When that girl was growing up," Mr. Carson said, "I knew she was going to be a looker. I remember how I used to say I'd break the arm of any of those wild boys who came snoopin' around. Did do you know what I think right now?"

"No," Mrs. Carson said.

"I wish that Billy what's-his-name would pinch her, or somethin'."

Mrs. Carson stopped washing the dishes. "Now look here," she said. "As he got out of his chair, Mrs. Carson clutched frantically at his arm. "What are you going to do?" she asked. He didn't seem to hear. He just pulled her out her hand went into the living room.

"Where did all right," Helen snapped. "You didn't pinch me, and I won't have my father accusing you of such a thing."

"I don't blame him for worrying about you," Billy said. "You're awful pretty."

Mr. Carson watched the compliment soften her. It was wonderful to see her take it without blushing, or getting confused.

"Then Mr. Carson watched Helen as she realized for the first time that she stood too-to-toe with her shyness. He saw the whole story in her face. At first there was surprise, then full understanding. Then an something very strange Mr. Carson didn't understand the last expression until she spoke.

"All right, Billy," she said. "If you think I'm pretty, how about taking me dancing?"

When Helen and Billy had left, Mr. Carson turned to his wife and smiled.

"Did you see that look on her face?" he asked. "It was brand-new—downright brazen."

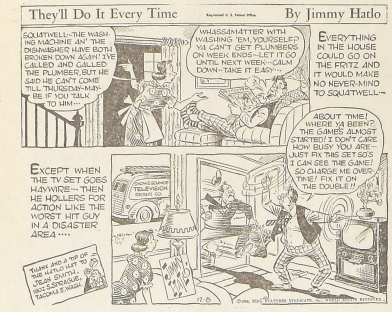
CROSSWORD PUZZLE SOLUTION



At the height of an attempted rebellion in Cuba, guests and employees of the Grand Hotel in Santiago are summoned to the streets and questioned by soldiers. The rebellion is believed to have been instigated by exiled political leader Fidel Castro, enemy of President Fulgencio Batista. Five pistols were found in the hotel group.

Neighbours Fete Newlywed Couple

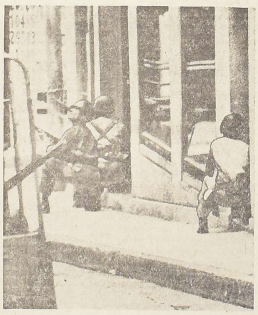
Bethany (PNS) — Bethany and district paid their customary tribute to newly-weds when they gathered in the town hall and presented Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Driver (nee Louise Adams) with a console extension table and matching chairs. Mr. Levi McGill read the address of congratulations and good wishes for a happy future. Mr. Charles McGill and Miss Helen Ruak presented the gifts. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing Euchre and dancing to music furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bristow and Mr. Levi McGill. Mr. Morton Davis called the square dances. Lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Driver are now residing in Peterborough.

CROKINOLE PARTY HELD AT GLENARM

Glenarm (PNS) — A very successful crokinole party was held in the schoolroom of the church when a number of tables of crokinole were enjoyed. Tally cards were distributed by the Misses Sandra Hargrave and Joanne Nesbitt and after partners were found, several games were enjoyed by those participating.

Mrs. Clifford Hargrave and Mrs. Stuart Morrison were time keepers in turns, and after tally cards had been collected it was found that Miss Marion Cork held the high score for the ladies, and Will Nesbitt for the men while consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. James Nesbitt, Sr. and Rev. Jackson. Following the games small tables were set up and all enjoyed the refreshments and lunch supplied by the ladies.



Cuban troops went from street to street in Santiago searching for snipers and rounding up suspected rebels. About 50 persons were killed or wounded, including 15 members of the armed forces.

Mrs. Fred Ferguson is also counted among the lucky ladies of Glenarm, she having held the lucky ticket on a lovely Christmas cake and container at Manilla, that was drawn during the weekend by a hydro worker, while the cake at Glenarm was received by Mr. Irwin Ledgerwood during the week.

Mrs. Ingla Jamieson also of Glenarm is also another lucky person, she having held the corresponding number for a beautiful "Susan Doll" sponsored by lady members of the I.O.D.E. in Lindsay.

Evening Auxiliary Holds Meeting

Haliburton (PNS) — The regular meeting of the Evening Auxiliary of the United Church was held at the home of Mrs. Rae Stinson with 14 members present and four visitors.

The meeting opened with singing O God Our Help In Ages Past" and the "Lord's Prayer" repeated in unison. Mrs. Bert Johnson read a psalm and Miss Geraldine Howe read a portion of the topic from the study book.

Mrs. Glen Robertson read a selection entitled 'Remembrance'. The president, Mrs. Roy Archer read the prayer.

The treasurer reported that $46.95 had been realized to date from Dr. Graham's illustrated lecture. An invitation was read from the W. M. S. to attend their Christmas meeting held in the church basement. A committee was appointed to look after the purchasing and making the new drapes for the church basement.

The next meeting will be in the form of a Christmas party which will be in the church basement. Each member is asked to bring a guest.

Bishop Of Cambray's Works Inspired Village's Naming; Once Boasted 16 Industries

Cambray (PNB) —The W.I. held a meeting in the Community Hall and Miss Sadie sinclair gave the following very interesting Historical Research paper on the early history of Cambray and how it got its name.

Mr Joseph Wilkinson was instrumental in selecting the name Cambray. Bishop Fenelon, a theologian, Bishop of Cambray, whose works were much admired by Mr. Wilkinson was the real cause of the selection of the name Cambray. He too perhaps is responsible for the name Fenelon of the township.

Mr. Wilkinson had what is the south-west portion of the village surveyed for village lots first, or before the remainder of the village.

He was the first postmaster, the village had the post office was a big building (in) homes near where Mrs. Jno. Tompkins' home was. The post office was moved from there down to the Jarvis home; where Mr. Harold Riches farm is now. Miss Mary Jarvis being the assistant postmaster. The Post Office in later years was in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Rodgers where the garage of Mr. Ernest Jordan is now operated. It was also in the general store of Mr. Wm. Gilbert, and is in the same location of the general store of Mr. Earl Van Dyke.

The little village has been the centre of considerable commercial activity in its day, there having been no less than 16 industries along the creek.

Beginning the farthest away, he found a saw mill on the property of Mr. Hay Weldon, east of the road bridge. This at one time was operated by Messrs. James and Bryan Just, west of the bride in Mr. Lorne King's farm is found another mill and also a shingle mill. Then, just at the bridge and road side, in Mr. Ray Hayes, was a saw mill and woollen mill. This was known as the Dillingham Mill. Farther up the creek on the land now owned by Mr. Harold Riches was a shingle mill, it was known as the Jarvis Mill and operated by steam.

A tannery was then operated on the land now owned by Mr. Albert Chambers. Tramping along up the creek again one sees the blue flags (wild iris) which still prove in clusters as they did long ago. Some of the tall elm trees are still standing on the property of Miss Marie Wilkinson where swing used to be used on Sunday School picnics. The traveller comes at last to the place where another saw mill and shingle mill stood. This site is just across the drive to the north from Miss Wilkinson's home and now is thickly grown with trees, so that no one would ever suspect a saw mill site, a flitting relic to the triumph of nature over man.

Again he goes on up the creek around the bend and a little further west on the north bend, and here is where a derrick stood. They were drilling for oil. At the time it created great enthusiasm. Hower oil was not found. Quite close to this, Mr. James Wells had a saw-mill and a shingle mill. Coming on out to the road again the traveller finds another mill site. The dam for this mill was where the fence now crosses the creek at the south end of the mill home. This was the first mill erected in the district and was operated by Sam Brock. It was a great boon to the scattering settlers. The first lumber from this mill was gotten by Mr. Samuel Fowler for his home. Also some of the seating in the roof of Mr. William Sinclair's barn and the wainscoting in the kitchen in his home was a product of this old mill.

The conservation of water supply was studied then as well as now. Mr. Sam Brock built a dam farther, up the creek, a little above Mr. Geo. Bagshaw's line fence. This flooded the marsh above. In the warm weather this was blamed for an outbreak of fever and ague. A keg of blasting powder exploded in the dam by some one. This of course put the dam out of commission.

Apparently the first school at Cambray stood where Mrs. Thos. Wood's house is now erected. This was a school was, burned and another erected about a half mile east of the village near where the present one stands.

Coming down to more modern times, but still old enough to be a most interesting productive year book. The first "Tatler" ever presented was in 1917 and its first editorial staff officers were:

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

A Girls's Hockey Team was started for the first time since 1914 in 1917. It was not very successful at the beginning, but with practice, they presented a successful team in 1922.

Essays were beginning to be printed in "The Tatler" in 1927. These were very interesting and represented a unique departure.

L. C. I. Library Club was started for the first time in 1931 for helping younger students in securing books. To-day it still carries on successfully.

The Principal at that time was Dr. T. A. Kirkconnell, who served in office from 1908 - 1936.

The Collegiate Staff in 1917 was 22 students and the Collegiate Roll in 1916 is 939 students.

On the teaching staff in 1917 were Mr. Geo. A. Gross, A. G. Lucas, Miss Moir, Mr. P. Barlow, Mr. W. Clarke, Miss D. Morley, Mr. J. Cameron, Miss Ethel Ford, Mr. W. J. Jennings, Mr. M. Erb. The teaching staff at that time totalled 16 and in this year-book there are 34 teachers of many subjects.

FIRST CURLING CLUB

The curling club started in the year 1935 after Christmas holidays. It was very successful and grows year each year with more members enrolling.

1833, this farm was deeded to Margaret Powell, widow of Major John Thomas Henry Powell, and on the same day, she deeded to Mr. John Jarvis. Negotiations for this place were under way as early as 1827 and in a letter to her brother she comments had to travel back and forth to England, and by mailing vessels at the time, spent the time of three weeks between 1827 and 1833. The deed says "Granted by King William". The farm deed for "Miss Maria Wilkinson's farm is dated 1839. The farm now owned by Miss Susie Sinclair was granted "Crown Reserve Land". The deed was dated in 1849. The deed for the farm now owned by Mr. George Bagshaw dates back 1838 and passed through two hands and then was owned by Captain Samuel Brock, cousin of Sir Isaac Brock. It was then passed down to his son Samuel Jr. and then to Gordon Drummond Brock, also Mr. Glen Gowing, who finally sold it to Mr. Samuel Bagshaw.

At the present time there are in Cambray one United Church, two general stores operated by Messrs. Van Dyke and Harry Watts, two garages operated by Messrs. Jas. Kitchen and Ernest Jordon, two plumbers, Messrs. Clare Patton and Allan Hadley, one carpenter and builder, Mr. Arthur Alger, who has erected three new houses in the village recently. One welding shop operated by Mr. Clare Jewell. There was also a Church of England which has since been renovated and is the home of Mr. Ernest Jordon. There is also the Grist Mill in operation by Mr. Angus Lacombe and a Mink Farm operated by Mr. Spence Bros. and a library with good reading for everyone.

Some "Firsts" In History Of Collegiate Are Recalled

Mrs. Brokenshire 1957 WA President

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — Soft music by Mrs. G. Honey was a pleasing prelude to the December meeting of the W. A. of Fenelon Falls United Church which was held in the Sunday School Room. Mrs. Hetherington opened the meeting with a poem "Hark the Glad Song", and conducted the business period which followed the singing of "Joy To The World" and prayer.

After a short discussion it was decided by the whole membership to the Rose Memorial Hospital Expansion Fund at this time. Mrs. Jordan and Mrs. McCoy were appointed as a committee to look after sending Christmas cards. The matter of compiling a church history as requested by the Presbytery Rally was presented by Mrs. Hetherington and Mrs. Ivera, Mrs. Byers, Mrs. Brandon and Mrs. McCallum agreed to be a committee to look after the project. Encouraging reports were given by the seven group leaders, with Group Six reporting the largest amount of money raised.

Mrs. Veasey presided for the service which was centered on the Christmas theme. The poem "Lord of Life and Love" was read, followed by the carol, "It Came Upon The Midnight Clear." Mrs. Murray McPeekan read a story "The Heart of Christmas," which pointed to the tendency to place the emphasis of Christmas on joy, not holiness and to celebrate Christmas without Jesus, whose birthday it is. Her story was considered with the Angel's message from Luke's gospel.

Mrs. George Palmer read the Christmas story as recorded in Matthew and Mrs. Carl Wray read an appropriate poem "How Far To Bethlehem?" Mrs. Hetherington accompanied by Mrs. Honey brought a lovely message in song "Love Divine."

Rev. Mr. Patterson presided for the election of officers for 1957. On behalf of the nominating committee Mrs. George Palmer presented the slate of officers with one vacancy. This was filled by a nomination from the floor and the following slate for 1957 accepted: Honorary president, Mrs. A. E. Tiers; Past president, Mrs. George Hetherington; President, Mrs. Wm. Brokenshire; First-vice president, Mrs. George Palmer; Second vice president Mrs. Edwin Brandon; Treasurer, Miss Ethel McLean, Recording secretary, Miss Lillian Murdoch; Corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. W. Jennings, Mrs. G. Honey.

Mrs. G. Hetherington, the retiring president thanked everyone for the co-operation and support, mentioning especially the Executive and group leaders. She welcomed her successor, Mrs. Brokenshire and anticipating continued loyalty to her.

Following the closing hymn and prayer, a cup of tea was enjoyed.

Quirk:

A dentist trained in hypnosis has convinced several hundred of his colleagues that "this wont hurt a bit."

But the man even more surprised is Salvatore Arini. He was operating the primary at the showing of a movie at a meeting of dentists in New York.

The film showed a dentist using hypnosis on a patient.

Suddenly, someone noticed that Arini—the psychiatrist—had fallen over in a hypnotic faint. After being revived with cold water, Arini said: "I was watcing that picture pretty closely. I don't really know what happened."—BUP.

Gilbert Campbell

Fenelon Falls (PNS)—The death occurred on Wednesday, November 21st of Gilbert Neil Campbell, Oak St. Fenelon Falls in his 69th year. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell.

Born in Fenelon Falls, the late Mr. Campbell was educated at Fenelon Falls Public and High Schools and lived in the village until 1918. At that time he went to Toronto where he spent some 37 years as an employee of the Queen City Glass Company. He was the secretary-treasurer of the company for several years. Four years ago he resigned his position in Toronto and returned to live with his family in Fenelon Falls.

He attended the Presbyterian Church. Although he had a frail constitution, resulting from an illness in childhood, Mr. Campbell possessed a kindly gentle disposition and the gift of happiness, and a host of friends mourn his passing.

Surviving are four sisters: Mrs. Mary Riley, Glenarm; Mrs. Bessie Magee, Fenelon Falls; Mrs. Christina Aubeybrook, Brantford; Mrs. Martha Stuart, Fenelon Falls and three brothers, Donald Campbell, California; Archie Campbell, Tacoma Washington, and James Campbell, Fenelon Falls. One brother Alex and one sister Martha predeceased him.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, November 24th from the Flaten Funeral Home, conducted by Rev. Walter Jackson of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church. Interment was in Fenelon Falls cemetery and the pallbearers were: Messrs. Jack Riley, Don Riley, Bruce Stuart, Sherman Moulthorne, J. J. Stewart and Jos. Minore.

The many beautiful floral offerings were silent messengers, of love and respect. Friends from Lindsay, Coboconk, Highland Grove, Glenarm, Toronto, Hamilton, Orillia, and Brantford attended the Funeral.

SUCCESS OF POLIO VACCINATION PROGRAM REQUIRES CO-OPERATION OF PUBLIC

Health Minister Dr. MacKinnon Phillips has appealed to those of the general public directly interested in the latest phase of Ontario's poliomyelitis vaccination programme to co-operate whole-heartedly with their local health authorities, in order that the programme be completed before the 1957 polio season.

"We are most anxious the programme be completing before the 1957 polio season," Dr. Phillips said. "Since the preliminary findings of our study of paralytic poliomyelitis this year have indicated that the attack rate among non-vaccinated children was 20 times as great as the attack rate among children who had received two doses of vaccine."

Ontario's health minister said the distribution of free poliomyelitis vaccine to local health departments is keeping up to schedule. A third of a million doses have already been distributed, and it is expected that a million doses will be in place in the hands of Medical Officers, of Health by the end of the year.

A second million doses will have been distributed by the end of February, and another million before the end of the school year.

"These three million doses will be sufficient to complete our aim of giving at least two doses of vaccine to every school and pre-school child between the ages of six months and 19 years, before the 1957 polio season," Dr. Phillips said. "The administration of three million doses of vaccine during the school year remaining is an enormous task. Local health authorities from now on will be announcing their vaccination programme dates, and I urge parents to co-operate in every way to see that their children are at a specified place at the appointed time.

"This is a community effort and health departments cannot be expected to meet the convenience of the individual. We shall need your help his or her vaccine this year if parents will co-operate."

Cannington Voters Reject Sunday Sports Decisively

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

I know how to live.Philippians 4-12.

Paul swept the whole gamut of human experience. The list of misfortunes, beatings, stonings, imprisonments suffered by Paul make a catalogue of atrocities that make us gasp in horror. His example has helped many in recent years to endure the torture inflicted by unChristian regimes in our own day.

Cannington (PNS) — Cannington electors who are opposed to commercialized Sunday sports voiced their feeling decisively at the polls on Friday. They voted 332 to 117 against permitting commercialized Sunday sport in the village.

However, the vote against commercialized sport apparently doesn't mean there is strong opposition to non-spectator recreation. According to an official of the village there will likely be public skating in the arena even although Sunday sports as such were voted down. The village spokesman said he was under the impression that most people had no objection to skating on Sundays.

First-handed reports of the election say those opposed to Sunday Sport organizing an extensive campaign. Those who favored the Sabbath day sports were less active, it is claimed.

100 Mothers, Babies And Friends Celebrate M.B.'s 20th Birthday

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — About a hundred mothers, babies and friends attended a delightful party in the Sunday School room of Fenelon Falls United Church when the Baby Band celebrated its 20th birthday.

Mrs. George H. Palmer, Superintendent of the Band presided for the festivities which opened with a devotional period, following the singing of several hymns loved by both children and adults. Mrs. Palmer read several appropriate verses from Luke's gospel and which she gave a commentary directed to the mothers. Included in her message were two poems "A Child's Appeal" and "Fundamentals" —

"Long ago I learned
Home may be near
Home may be far
But it is anywhere that love, and a few plain household treasures are."

Mrs. Hugh Dixon, school nurse, gave a short talk, stressing the importance of immunization. She reminded the mothers of the clinic for Polio immunization which is scheduled for the near future.

Accompanied at the piano by Mrs. M. W. Robson, Mrs. Patterson favoured with a lovely solo, Great Is Thy Faithfulness, which was much enjoyed.

Miss June Wilson, Librarian of Victoria County Library, the guest speaker, was introduced by Mrs. Palmer. Miss Wilson gave an excellent talk on "Books for pre-school children" with much valuable information for mothers on children's reading. While Miss Wilson stressed religious books, particularly, she had many recommending story and reference books in her large display, many of which are available at the local Library, all at the County Library.

Mrs. D. A. Scott, who organized the Baby Band 20 years ago, commended Mrs. Palmer on her splendid work with the Band during her five years as Superintendent. She then presented Life Membership certificates to the youngest baby girl, Catherine Cheryl Vanstier, and the youngest baby boy, Kenneth James Sykes. Mrs. Palmer presented a Life Membership to the baby farthest away, Anne Elizabeth Parkhouse in Germany, which was accepted by her grandmother, Mrs. W. B. Brandon.

The children graduating to Mission Band, Karen Coupland, Gordon Brandon, Julia Robinson, Douglas Pogue, Linda Ellery, Bob Graham, Linda Styles, Wayne Poulsom, Shirley Kaye, Wayne Willson, and Dean Thompson, were presented with their certificates and a beautiful bookmark by Mrs. Palmer. Mrs. Coburn welcomed the children to the Mission Band and presented each one with their Mission Band pin.

The delicious lunch provided and served by members of the Evening Auxiliary was highlighted by a beautifully decorated birthday cake. Julie Barrett and Jimmy Patterson, who had birthdays closest to the date when cut the candles, and the cake was cut by Mrs. W. B. Brandon. Each child was served a tiny decorated cake with a candle and ice cream, while the mothers enjoyed a cup of tea, sandwiches, etc.

Miss Viola McIntosh moved a sincere vote of thanks to the speakers, the soloists and all who had assisted in any way to make the party an unqualified success.

Record Crowd Turns Out For Santa Claus Parade

What police say was one of the largest crowds in years to turn out for a parade were on hand Saturday afternoon to see the Lindsay Santa Claus Parade, which was presented by the Lindsay Chamber of Commerce. Outstanding this year were the costumes. Incidently, the float which carried Santa Claus and his sleigh hog been built and decorated by the Lindsay firemen.

Getting underway shortly after 1.30 p.m. the parade proceeded east on Russell St. to Lindsay St. and thence to Kent St. and the Armories where it disbanded after the Lindsay Kinsmen Boys' and Girls' Band played a short concert.

Leading the parade was the cruiser of the town police department, followed by a decorated fire truck which carried the banner announcing the parade. The first float was that of the Bagshaw Lumber Company which carried a miniature Santa Claus and a sleigh. This was followed by the smartly turned out Lindsay Kinsmen Boys' and Girls' Band. Next came a group of young people dressed in the costumes of mummes and wearing out size papier-mache heads.

The Woman in the Shoe, who rode in the gaily decorated float of Tangney's Furniture was accompanied by flocks of children.

A bulldozer, which certainly altered was led by his master, and it was this dog who later was awarded a cash prize for its performance and appearance.

McElroy's Van and Storage presented a float decorated in Christmas heath scene. This was followed by a four-horse hitch of Clydesdale horses, then a float entered by Mackey's Furniture.

The manager of the Lindsay Bus Lines - - Mr. Harry Johnston - - drove one of his buses in the parade and this was followed by the Lindsay Girls' Pipe Band. Many comments were heard from the spectators for the fine way in which this band played and marched. It was noticed that the band has been considerably augmented since it was last seen in a local parade.

The Massey-Harris float followed and it came accordingly merriments as the scene depicted Little Boy Blue. The young lad who portrayed the leading role appeared to be asleep beneath a strawstack while some sheep rallied around him. If the lad was not truly asleep, he was certainly a fine actor.

The Blythe Chapter, IODE float, depicted a large snowman and the Lindsay Lions Club was represented by an odd-looking lion being led on a leash.

Finally came Santa Claus on his sleigh greeting the children as they surged forth to call to him.

Bags of candies and favours for the children were distributed along the parade route, but unfortunately the supply ran out before the parade came to an end. At the conclusion of the Santa Claus Parade hundreds of children gathered at the Armories in the belief that favours would be distributed there as in other years.

Chamber of Commerce president stated last night that he felt the parade was a great success except for the fact that possibly better arrangements might be made next year to distribute the favours more evenly.

Kawartha Valley WI Regular Meeting

Dunsford (PNS) — The November meeting of the Kawartha Valley W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Ross McKay. There was an attendance of 23 members and six visitors.

The meeting opened with singing the Ode, and O Canada, followed by repeating the Mary Stewart Collect and the Lord's Prayer in unison. The roll call was answered by naming "An inexpensive practical Christmas Gift."

Mrs. Roy Robertson distributed Red Cross sewing. The treasurer gave her report, also the cheer convenor told of the many kindnesses rendered. Mrs. Wm. McGahey reported on the Girls Club work and it was decided to give a donation towards the expenses. Mrs. Joe Robertson gave a report on Health. Mrs. Elliott on Community Activities and Mrs. Fulton on Public Relations.

Mrs. Arthur Kennedy explained the Penny-a-mile contest. Mrs. G. Robertson and Mrs. C. Parkes to be the captains.

Mrs. Roy Robertson gave a report on the Area Convention in Toronto of which she was a delegate.

Mrs. Jim Robertson introduced the speaker for the evening. Mr. John Mitchell spoke on the History of South Verulam. He told of the many hardships that the early settlers had when they first came.

Mrs. Wm. Coulter moved a vote of thanks to everyone helping with the refreshments.

The meeting closed with singing the Queen and Grace, followed by a dainty lunch.

Family Of Five Forced To Flee From The Flames

Lindsay's firemen had a rather busy weekend, with the only fire of major proportions occurring about 7.10 a.m. Monday and resulted in an estimated $1,800 damage being done to a St. Patrick St. residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Martin who reside at 34 St. Patrick St. with their five children ranging in ages from seven to 16 were awakened, firemen say, by the sound of crackling flames. The family was quickly herded outside and the fire department summoned. On arrival firemen found the kitchen at the rear of the Martin home ablaze and were forced to utilize their Scott Air Packs in order to enter the burning section of the house.

Fire Chief A. M. Watson said late-r he found the cause of the blaze to have originated in an oil-burning kitchen stove which had overheated and subsequently ignited a wall. The home is a story-and-a-half frame building, and Chief Watson said that since the kitchen door was closed, most of the fire was confined to the one room. Fire reportedly went up one wall to the attic and therefore smoke and water damage upstairs was extensive.

There was one casualty as a result of the fire . . . a pet collie dog was found dead, lying between two bed, in an upstairs room. Firemen believe the dog was suffocated.

Chief Watson said he would like to give particular credit to the Lindsay police and their co-operation during the fire. He said Constable Wm. Mosley was one of the first on the scene and he rendered considerable assistance to the firemen in laying out the hose and bringing it into the burning building. He said another officer ably kept early morning traffic routed around the fire scene, thus preventing any hindrance from cars and spectators.

SUNDAY CALLS

There were two fire calls on Sunday afternoon, one came in at 2.34 p.m. where a chimney had overheated in the home occupied by E. Stevens, 73 Melbourne St. W. Fire department officials report no damage was done.

At 4.40 p.m. the firmen responded to a call at 82 St. Patrick St. where a hen house at the rear of a house occupied by Mr. Joseph Bishop was ablaze. Chief Watson reported the hen house was destroyed and it is not believed there were any hens within the shed. He said the cause was not immediately known and damage was placed at $25.

NUMBER TROUBLE

Chief Watson pointed out that he was advised there has been some confusion since the fire department has its phone number changed to 4-2191. He said he was told that one resident last week was attempting to contact the department on old number and was unsuccessful. It was pointed out that periodically fire calls are routed through the police department. Chief Watson said the fire phone number is to be prominently displayed on a new sign outside the hall which also indicates the emergency bell.

Marilyn McCabe of Town Wed In Lovely Ceremony

A lovely wedding of local interest took place on Friday, November 30th, 1956 in the parsonage of Queen St. United Church, when Rev. William J. March united in marriage Marilyn Diane, daughter of Mrs. Myrtle McCabe 11 Sussex St. S. Lindsay and Grenville Coppins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Coppins, 20 Hamilton St., Lindsay.

The bride was pretty in a blue brocaded taffeta dress with matching bolero and a charming winter-white hat enhanced by a corsage of red roses. She was attended by the sister of the groom, Miss Winnifred Coppins who wore a blue princess-style dress of brocaded taffeta. Her lovely blue hat was studded with sequins and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The best man was Jack Starr, uncle of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother where she received wearing a grey suit with matching accessories. She was assisted by the mother of the groom who wore navy blue with matching accessories.

The young couple have taken up residence at 47 William St. N., Lindsay.

Prior to the wedding, the bride was feted with two showers; one was a pantry shower held at the home of the groom, and the other a miscellaneous shower at the home of the bride's mother.

21st Anniversary Of Janetville L.O.B.A. Unit

Janetville (PNS) — The twenty-first anniversary of the organizing of the L. O. B. A. "Silver Jubilee" Lodge was celebrated in the L.O.L. Janetville Hall, on Friday evening, Dec. 7th.

The party took the form of a Progressive euchre and there were nine tables in progress and at the conclusion of the ten games played the winners for holding highest scores were, Mrs. Bert McMullen and Miss Donna English, who played in a man's place as the men upon this occasion were in the minority. A pretty and useful door prize went to Mrs. David Tait.

As the result of a draw, a beautiful auto rug was won by Bobby Lamont of Lindsay and a three-piece doily set by Mrs. H. Cowden of Bowmanville, this lovely piece of work having been made by Mrs. Tait.

A delicious lunch was served and upon the daintily arranged tables, there were three birthday cakes, each bearing an appropriate number of glowing candles and before serving, these were blown out by the Worthy Mistress, Miss Irene McGill, and Deputy, Mistress, Mrs. Wesley Jordan.

The cakes were made by those members of the lodge, Mrs. M. Wright, Mrs. Harold Moxon and Mrs. Bert McMullen.

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Sluggitt and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deyell, of Lindsay, were among those present from a distance.

PATHETIC STORY

Sacking For Shoes, Sacking For O'coat, Stranger Is Helped

The pathetic story of a man wearing sacking around his feet in lieu of shoes, a potato bag tied around his waist to keep the chill winds from penetrating his tattered clothing, and his trousers ripped and held together with pieces of rope, was unfolded in court this morning when the case against Magistrate R. I. Moore, having found himself the recipient of a vagrancy charge.

Constable John Henley of the Lindsay PD told the court that he had never seen a man in such a condition as the accused when he was observed trudging along Kent St. carrying a gunny sack which he later found contained a piece of meat and a few canned goods. P. C. Henley said the man was dressed in nothing but rags, apparently hadn't his haircut in six months, needed a shave, and was extremely unkempt. He said his matted hair contained twigs which it was later revealed came from the cedar boughs under which the man had spent the previous night.

The man told the officer that he had come from Beaverton and was on his way to Peterborough so that he could try to get a ride to his ultimate destination, the east coast. The officer said he discovered that the man, who appeared to be in his late 40's, had no job, no home, and no next-of-kin. Constable Henley said the man was causing no trouble but he felt he was in no condition to be left alone outside, and therefore had him lodged in the cells. The man later stated he had come from Kirkland Lake.

His Worship, Crown Attorney Jordan, and Chief Hunter all expressed the opinion that they didn't know what should be done with the man, and casting an eye out the window at the heavy snow-storm which prevailed at the time, Magistrate Moore said he did not want to send the man on his way "in this weather." Chief Hunter said he felt that if the man went to jail for 30 days he would get soft and wouldn't be able to face the elements again.

"I would like to see him at least get to Peterborough where there would be more facilities for him to be helped or to get a ride," said His Worship. "Would you like to rest here for a few days?" he asked.

"No thank you sir," said the man, "I'd like to get going if I may."

It was decided to hold the man for 24 hours to see if the weather got better, and he also was provided with a few clothes to wear, in which he appearing in Court.

Chief Hunter was asked to contact the OPP and see if they would provide the wanderer with transportation to Peterborough.

Three members of the Colombian contingent to the United Nations Emergency Force look a little puzzled at first meeting with the "chinthe", mythological mascot of the RCAF's No. 435 Squadron. The meeting took place in Naples, Italy, from where the squadron now operates in support of the U.N. force. Here, LAC M. G. Bowers of Toronto explains that the chinthe recalls the squadron's first job—transport duties in Burma in 1944. This particular species of beast guards the entrance to Burmese temples.

Council

Councillor LAMB: "No, I guess not."

Deputy-reeve HOLTOM—"I don't think we expect a Hungarian to come to Lindsay, unable to speak English, to be expected to get along alone at first. This is simply an emergency measure."

Mayor HICK: "I want to point out that nobody has to take anyone into their homes, but if some people want to help, we would like to know about it. This is an agreement to assist over a crisis."

Burning Car's Petrol Tank Explodes

When the gasoline tank of a burning car exploded early this morning, firemen rushing to the scene report they thought they were about to face a fire which seemed to consume an entire section of the East Ward, since the fiery-red skies could be seen brilliantly in all sections of Lindsay.

At 1.05 a.m. a call was received from Mr. T. H. Bagshaw, 98 St. Paul St. advising of a fire in his garage at the rear of his house. Incidentally, it is reported that Mr. Bagshaw experienced some difficulty in reaching the department due to the recent change in telephone numbers. The new number is PA 4-2131.

The garage is located about six to eight feet to the rear of the Bagshaw home, and when the first fire truck arrived at the scene, the building was completely ablaze. All firemen, regular and volunteers were summoned and Chief Watson reports that the heat was so intense that the insulbrick on the wall of the house was melted, although firemen kept the house itself from igniting.

A 1948 model car which was inside the garage was totally destroyed, and firemen say the exploding gasoline tank considerably intensified the ferocity of the flames.

Chief A. M. Watson said he believes the fire was caused by electrical trouble either in the car or the garage wiring. He placed a conservative damage estimate at $500. Lieut. Alex McLaren and fireman William Spencely were on duty at the time of the fire.

Regulars and volunteers had completed their regular Monday night training program about 10 p.m. but were called out from their homes a few hours later.

Cameron Child Crushes Arm In Wringer

Cameron (PNS). —Crystal Moore, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Moore of Cameron had her arm badly crushed in the wringer of their electric washing machine.

While playing with a neighbour's child in the snow, the children's mitts became wet. They thought by running them through the wringer of the machine they would be dry, but to Crystal's sorrow her hand became caught. She was drawn in to the shoulder before the wringer released.

Luckily her father was nearby and hearing the cry of the child he rushed to her aid. She was immediately taken to Dr. M. E. Gorman at Lindsay and then to the Ross Memorial Hospital. At the time of the accident, the child's mother, Mrs. Orville Moore was in the hospital seriously ill.

Won't Evict, But Request Tenant Vacate

The problem concerning the townowne houses on Russell St. W. was discussed again at length by Lindsay's Council when members met Monday night.

The discussion started when a report from the town engineer and the Water Board superintendent advised that the water to the two vacant houses of the three could be closed off with little possibility of damage being done to the feeder line, except for a prolonged severe cold spell. It was also recommended that the fixtures be removed and stored away as they are in good condition.

Councillor Lamb thereupon continued with the story that he had expounded at the last meeting of council pointing out that he felt the town should not require the one remaining tenant to move out, despite the fact he had been given six months notice. He said he felt the houses should be utilized, pointing that a Lindsay man had lost his home that day and needed accommodation.

"If the man who was burned out came to us and asked for one of those houses, would we refuse him? I'm sure if some of those foreigners came here we'd give them the houses fast enough," he stated.

Councillor Found said he thought it was unnecessary to have the fixtures removed provided the pipes were drained. He said it would save wasting money where it was not needed.

When the engineer's recommendation was put to a vote, council was divided, therefore the mayor exercised his privilege and voted in favour of the motion.

Later in the meeting a letter from the remaining tenant was received where he offered to buy the three town houses for $1,000 and to put them in presentable shape, which he said, would also save the town the cost of tearing the buildings down.

"We wouldn't even consider such an offer," said His Worship. "The property alone is worth much more than that, besides it is not consistent with town policy. We are planning to build a parking lot on that site."

Councillor Found said that a recent meeting of mayors and reeves it was pointed out that most municipalities are in favor of tearing down old buildings to make room for improvements to the community."

Councillor LAMB: "But how can you force people to move out when you're looking for places to put people in?"

Mayor Hick replied that Lindsay is not in the real estate business, and that council approved on motion six months ago to tear down the buildings in question.

Councillor Breese explained that the policy is not to put people out on the street, but for the occupants to move as soon as possible.

Councillor HUTTON: "Not all members agree to that."

Councillor BREESE: "This was agreed on motion, Mr. Hutton, and not all members are required to agree. The majority rules on a vote of Council."

It was agreed that the tenant in the town-owned house could not be evicted, but rather advised that council wishes him to move as soon as possible.

Antenna Plant Is Threatened Tuesday By Hard-to-Find "Smoulderer" Blaze

Group Leader, Newsmen Combine To Pinpoint Elusive Fire Pocket

Fire Chief A. M. Watson said that he doesn't think its such a bad idea to have newspapermen around a fire after all as the result of a situation which occurred Tuesday afternoon in the plant of Lindsay Antenna Products, Wellington St. Two "Post" representatives and a night shift employee have been credited with having located a smouldering fire within the building, after firemen had about given up a search to trace a smell of smoke, and were in the process of reloading fire hose aboard the fire truck.

About 2.30 Mr. John Thomas, the proprietor of the firm notified the fire department that he and some employees could smell what seemed to be charring wood but were unable to locate the source.

On arrival, the firemen, under Chief Watson, immediately laid hose from the nearest hydrant and into the building. A search commenced in all quarters of the premises which soon was centred in the area of the boiler room. However, a thorough examination by firmen and some employees failed to reveal any indication of smoke.

Chief Watson then ordered his men to pick up the hose and reload it, although he said he would leave a man behind to keep an eye on things.

At this stage, the editor of "The Post", J. N. Fails and the paper's reporter, Jim O'Neill both of whom had arrived shortly after the fire truck, were prowling around a small room which housed technical testing equipment where the smell of smoke appeared to be exceptionally strong. An employee, John Woudwijk, who is a group leader on the night shift, came into the room and joined the newsmen in an examination of the walls and equipment, in an effort to fing any electrical outlets which might feel warm to the touch.

Then simultaneously Woudwijk and O'Neill glanced up at the ceiling and spotted a small round area of fire oozing through the ceiling and partially concealed from some angles by a projecting light fixture nearby. Both men shouted an alert and Woudwijk went to notify his employer while O'Neill ran to the door at the east end of the building to summon the firemen. Falls went to the north entrance door and propped it open to facilitate evacuation of the plant if necessary.

As soon as the men were told the fire had been spotted, Chief Watson and his firefighters rushed back into the building and into the room where the smouldering area in the ceiling was rapidly spreading. The firemen quickly ripped through the building board and saturated the area between the ceiling and the floor of the second floor, extinguishing the fire. As soon as the fire was out firemen began clean-up operations. A check later revealed that the cause of the fire, though not positively established, was believed to have been due to a dropped cigarette ash or butt which had fallen through a gap in the second storey floor boards just outside a rest room. Electrician Andy Widdis who visited the scene said he was satisfied the fire hadn't been started by wiring.

It was noted that while the fire-

Special Low Rates On Both Papers Now

New subscription rates to "The Thursday Post" and "The Lindsay Daily Post" (by mail only) have been announced just in time for Christmas. And if readers who like to make a lasting gift hurry, they can still get a Christmas subscription on the mailing list in time.

The new rates are extremely moderate in these days of high prices and costs. For example, if you live in a rural area and wish to subscribe to the daily paper, the new rate is $3.00. It is $2 the weekly you prefer, just a two-dollar bill guarantees you, or the recipient of a gift subscription, three years (156) issues of informative local reading that will not be available through any other media. This offer is for those who live in the counties of Victoria, Haliburton, Ontario, Durham and Peterboro. Gift subscriptions can be sent anywhere.

In making the announcement relative to the special rate prices, the management stated that it would not be able to set a time limit on this offer. "There is such a constant fluctuation in publication costs that I can only say we are making this special offer while circumstances permit but the special rates are subject to change without notice," the publisher declared.

The new, low prices apply on new subscriptions or renewals. And there's still time for gift subscriptions.

Thanks!

A request published in Tuesday's "Post" for a copy of a story entitled "Yes, Virginia, There Is A Santa Claus" has brought a most satisfactory response.

This morning a copy of the article was received from Mr. Glen Gordon and Mrs. Wm. Parkin and an offer of the loan of the article was also made by Mrs. Bruce Bagshaw.

The story, which appears annually in the New York "Sun" is reprinted in "The Post" today. Mr. Ed. May of the Chamber of Commerce said that it will also be reprinted in the bulletin issued to members.

"The Post" wishes to express its appreciation to those people who so generously offered the use of this valued article.

IS THERE REALLY A SANTA CLAUS?
—cub writer's reply is literary gem—

To the New York Sun,
Dear Editor:

I am eight years old. Some of my friends say there is no Santa Claus. Papa says "If you see it in "The Sun" it's so. Please tell me the truth. Is there a Santa Claus?"

Virginia,

"Virginia, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical eye. They think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds. They do not believe except they see. All minds, Virginia, whether they be man's or children's are little. In this great universe of ours, man is a mere insect, an ant in his intellect, compared to the boundless worlds about him as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole truth and knowledge.

"Yes Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and devotion and generosity exist, and you know that they abound, and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas, how dreary the world would be if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as weary as if there were no Virginias! There would be no childlike faith, then, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment except in sense and sight. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished.

"Not to believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies! You might get your pops to hire men to watch all the chimneys on Christmas Eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa coming down, what would that prove? Not everbody sees Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men see. Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not, but that's not proof that they are not there. No one can conceive or imagine all the things that are unseen or unseeable in the world.

"You may tear apart a baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world that not the strongest man, nor even the united strength of all the strongest men that ever lived could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love romance, can push aside that curtain and view and picture the supernal beauty and glory beyond. It is real. Ah, Virginia, in all the world there is nothing else real and abiding.

"No Santa Claus? Thank God, he lives, and he lives forever! A thousand years from now, Virginia, nay ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the hearts of children."

ABOUT THE WRITER

Charles Dana was a cub re-write man breaking in with the New York "Sun" when a letter was received by the city editor on a busy night. More as a joke than through any idea of getting a fine story out of him, the city editor tossed the scrawled epistle towards the timid Dana and demanded an answer for publication within the hour. And Charles A. Dana came up with a heart-tug that is considered a masterpiece by journalists in every part of the world. Incidentally, although it narrowly escaped being tossed in the wastebasket by the ironical city editor on the evening of its birth in the brain of Dana, it is now almost an institution with the "Sun" and it is annually reprinted on that paper's editorial page as a feature of the Christmas issue. It's creator rose until he was editor of "The Sun" which post he held for many years.

Virginia O'Hanlon grew up and became a kindergarten teach in New York City.

Deputy-reeve Feels Council Should Be Given Some Credit For Suspending Parking Meters

Lindsay's Council, which authorized the covering of the town's parking meters for one week before Christmas, and thus reduced the town's meter revenue by an estimated $400, apparently is receiving no official credit for the gesture.

Deputy-reeve Joe Holton pointed out today that the bags which cover every meter (and were installed by the meter inspector) offer the free parking "compliments of the Lindsay Chamber of Commerce, merchant's division." There is no recognition of the council's action whatever, and he also pointed out that if council had refused the request, the meters would still be in operation.

"I think council should have received some credit for this, because it was council which gave the final authority and thus is making the 'gift' to the motorists," he stated.

He recalled that the Chamber had asked council for permission to cover the meters and this was granted.

Ex-Chief Is Charged

Chief of Police John Hunter said today that charge of assault occasioning grievous bodily harm has been laid against ex-fire chief Alex Wylie as the result of an alleged occurrence on York St. N. Monday night in which fireman William Spencley, reportedly suffered a number of injuries. Mr. Wylie is scheduled to appear in magistrate's court on Friday morning.

Furnace Firing Ceremony Held

Present for the occasion were chief engineer Tom Langley, his assistant Cliff English, electrician B. Goodwin, assistant electrician Morris Coppins, and torch operator Art Dickinson.

After a few years of vacancy with no heat in the building at any time, this ceremony marked another step along the way for when the factory will be in operation.

Russell Lamb Extends His Best Wishes

Ald. Russell Lamb dropped into "The Post" Tuesday to say he wished to let the people of Lindsay know how much he has enjoyed serving them in the year just concluding and to extend warm greeting for the Christmas season.

"I find a great deal of pleasure in doing what I can for the people of Lindsay and I try to treat everyone alike whether they support me at the polls or not," said Mr. Lamb.

The alderman who is chairman of lighting for the town, says he is confident the New Year will see many improvements in street lighting.

Editorial

THIS WONDERFUL CHRISTMAS SEASON!

This is a wonderful season of the year, at least it seems so to us. We like the Christmas season because the spirit of goodwill towards our fellow man, which lies too much below the surface in many of us throughout the rest of the year, suddenly wells up and overflows. It is as though it had been forgotten in the hurry-burly of every day life, to exercise this delightfully contagious spirit as fully as we inherently know we ought. But then, it is perhaps because of this set of circumstances that we are impressed, even for this brief period in the Christian year, with the immeasurable possibilities for world betterment which full-time application of the spirit of goodwill possesses.

How many Christmases must we experience before we, individually and collectively, try to use this tremendous power for good on a year-round basis?

MAY NOT BE WHITE CHRISTMAS EVEN AT SOUTH POLE

Even Though it is the chapel nearest the south pole, there is little snow around it and the inhabitants may mind they don't have a white Christmas. It's the quonset hut chapel of the U.S. navy's "Operation Deep-Freeze", a manoeuvre designed to collect polar data and to test equipment and operational techniques in polar weather and topography.

SHORT SHORT STORY

Straw Boss

By Hal Borden

AT FIRST Mabel Turner had been overjoyed to find the "For Sale" sign tacked to the clapboards of the Cape Cod cottage. Even more so when Stuart Clark, young freelance architect, had offered to move out almost immediately.

But now the pleasure seemed to pass. In all her twenty-four years she couldn't recall having seen anyone so discouraged as the young man before her. Earlier the real estate man had told her Stuart was a returned POW recuperating from the Korean ordeal. He had been left with a five-year-old son following his wife's accidental death.

3 Minute Fiction

It seemed like misfortune had literally rained upon him for all the major builders had rejected his low-cost housing plans.

"It's harmful," she said. "To just quit this way. Why, your model houses are wonderful. There must be someone—"

Stu looked up at her sharply. His face still thin and gaunt. "Every major builder has had a look at them," he said with bitterness.

"Now what," she asked simply.

He shrugged his thin shoulders. "I'll probably become a floor walker in one of Uncle Lloyd's department stores." And there was sarcasm hidden in his voice.

"I'll probably become a floorwalker in one of Uncle Lloyd's department stores." There was sarcasm in his voice.

The heavy silence was shattered by five-year-old Bobby who, in a world of his own, was playing with one of his father's model dwellings.

Mabel was forced to smile at the way Bobby was directing his imaginary workmen about the tiny house. Then she turned back to Stu. "That playacting helps to fill in the blank spaces of his life," she said.

"From here on in there will be no blank spaces in his life if I can help it. He'll have to learn to like Uncle Lloyd."

Mabel said a shaky goodbye when Stu handed her the key to the cottage, told her where things could be found and what repairs should be attended to.

In the weeks following she threw herself into her new home and her town job. Loneliness seemed to melt away during the busy, flying days.

Her surprise engulfed her when Stu and Bobby drove up one Sunday afternoon.

"Just in time for lunch you two," was her happy greeting. "Toss your coats over any chair."

"We'll have to skip lunch." Stu told her. "We've just come after that feel model house for one thing. Bobby seems lost without it."

"Then you're lucky I saved it," Mabel answered. Remembering secretly how she had carefully packed it away. Bobby's eyes lit up at the sight of it.

"Uncle Lloyd bought him a big, new one," Stu stammered. "But Bobby didn't care for it somehow—" He never finished.

Silence again shrouded the cottage and somehow Bobby had momentarily been forgotten. Now, softly and industriously, his voice came through the open window leading off the porch.

They both watched silently as the five-year-old bent put the finishing touches on the model home. To his workmen he was issuing orders.

"—and if daddy doesn't marry Miss Mabel and we have to go back to that big spooky house, I want you men to take good care of this house and see that Miss Mabel always has a nice place to live."

Mabel lifted her tear fogged eyes away from the scene and started to walk away from the open window, but when she turned she saw that Stu had removed his coat and had tossed it over the back of a familiar chair. His hand reached out and took her arm and before she could speak, he kissed her.

"I can't let those tiny workmen do it all alone," he said. "I think we'll all have to pitch in and help out, darling."

Then after he kissed her again, he straightened up and asked like a hungry bear. "But first, what about that invitation to lunch?"

Dusters As Gift

If you want to please your wife or sweetheart you can always rely on dusters to please her. They can be worn for lounging and as a robe at night. They are making them short enough that you can work all morning in them and the materials vary from satin, silk to cotton. Plaids are also good in wools and they are smart enough to wear and keep you cozy at the same time. Maybe Santa will bring you one if you get him to lend an ear.

Bake Or Buy One

Don't worry about a Christmas pudding or cake if you just haven't the time to make one. We have some fine bakeries in town and they make you one and you'll have that time free to do other chores. Christmas wouldn't be right without a Christmas cake. They are handy to have on hand too.

Delicious Tidbits

If junior gets into your package of raisins before you have time to hide them, don't be too cross. There are lots of vitamins in them and you can always buy some more. One can nibble on them all morning and they are good for you and junior. They are better for him than too much candy so buy some extras for him and you'll be able to bake your cake as well.

Tree Wrinkles

If you can't get your thinking cap working and you don't know what to get for several on your lists, here is the solution. It's flowers and at Christmas one appreciates them more than anything. It might be a plant or cut flowers as long as it has a Christmasy look. If you can't afford to buy them yourself, why not try the plant idea. Take one of your plants and pin little colored balls over it. With a little tinsel with it you will see what we mean. An other way is to outline a tree on your wall and tuck it up with all the trimmings. There is always someway out when you need it.

Better Hide Them

It doesn't pay to buy candies and nuts too much in advance of Christmas. They are too tempting and it is possible to eat them all and be short for Christmas. The best way is to put them away and then you'll be sure of them. The nuts you get in cans keep fresh until you open them, so why not hide it away until Christmas. You might put up "NO Peeking" signs where they are stored. It takes strategy to hold these tidbits.

Household Hint:

Indoor plants may be cleaned with the dusting brush of a vacuum cleaner.

In Memoriam

PEEL—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Milburn Peel, who departed this life Dec. 19, 1955.
Beyond the gate our loved one
Finds happiness and rest,
And there is comfort in the thought
That a loving God knows best.
—Fondly cherished by wife Ethel and daughter Alvina. (4681)

HALL—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mildred Hall, who passed away, December 22, 1949:
Till memory fades and life departs,
You live forever in our hearts.
—Sadly missed by the family. (4653)

PEEL—In fond memory of our neighbour, Milburn Peel, who suddenly passed away, Dec. 19, 1955:
What we would give if we could say,
Hello, Milburn, in the same old way,
To hear your voice and see your smile,
To sit with you and chat awhile.
—Remembered by the Smith Family. (4663)

GROZELLE—In loving memory of a loving daughter and sister, Vina Grozelle, who passed away two years ago, December 17, 1954.
Oh happy hours we once enjoyed
How sweet their memory still
But death has left a loneliness
This world can never fill.
—Lovingly remembered by Dad, Nalie, Cora, Ruth, and Jane. (2509H)

GROZELLE—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Vina Grozelle, who passed away two years ago, Dec. 17, 1954.
Deep in the heart lies a picture
Of a loved one laid to rest,
In memory's frame we shall keep it
Because she was one of the best.
—Sadly missed by Edwin and children, Joy and John. (2508H)

The funeral was held from his late residence on Monday, November 19th, with Captain Wright who spoke word of comfort to the bereaved family. Hymn "When The Roll is Called Up Yonder" was sung, this being a favourite of the deceased; also Rock of Ages was read. Many beautiful floral tributes were a token of the high esteem in which he was held. Interment was in Lakeview cemetery, Kirkfield, beside his mother and father.

The pallbearers were close friends of the deceased: Howard McLean, Gordon McLean, Harold Williams, Peter Sabourich, Bill Tracey, Everett Smith.

The funeral was largely attended with relatives and friends from Toronto, Greenwood, Lindsay, Cooncook, Burnt River, Peterboro, Kirkfield, Gamsby, Head Lake and other centres.

men were combatting the fire, the many employees of the plant remaining quietly at their stations working, and gave the appearance of being very well disciplined. One police officer commented that the employees were very well trained for emergencies and did not panic or get in the way of the firemen. He suggested, speaking from an unprofessional point of view, that if such an unfortunate occurrence ever takes place again, it might be advisable to evacuate the building.

As the latest nation to be admitted to the U.N., Japan's policy will be to support world peace and anti-colonialism. These were the words of Japanese Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu as he prepared to accept a seat in the U.N. assembly in New York on behalf of his country.

MADRIGAL SINGERS ARE FEATURED AT H.S. CONCERT

Haliburton (PNB) — A very special event of the week was a variety concert in the Haliburton District High School where a capacity crowd heard one of the finest concerts of the year.

The Haliburton Madrigal choir under the leadership of Mrs. Finney gave several numbers that charmed the vast audience. Other well chosen numbers were enjoyed and short play.

The choral group will continue at the night school program in Haliburton High School starting in January and any who would care to join the class and devote one Tuesday evening for this grand opportunity have been invited to the classes.

The Madrigal choir has made wonderful progress and has had several engagements during the past year.

Live & Let Live Motto For W.I.

Bethany (PNB) — There were 36 in attendance at the W. I. meeting held at the home of Mrs. R. R. Bonsteel with Mrs. Thomas Jennings presiding. The roll call was answered with "your favorite recipe."

The minutes of previous meeting and reports of the Canadian Consumers' Assoc. were read by secretary, Mrs. Ralph Preston. Mrs. Hugh Decker reported that the girls who went from door to door on Hallowe'en hug received contributions amounting to $9.00 which had been forwarded to the UNICEF funds. Mrs. Mansell Finney reported two meetings of the 4-H Club. Mrs. Rupert Wood, Mrs. Preston Neal and Mrs. R. W. Pirie were appointed as a committee to arrange for Christmas cheer for needy families.

The program was in charge of Mrs. H. F. Hayson and members of group three. Mrs. R. R. Bonsteel and Mrs. Hayson sang a duet "Holy Night". Christmas carols were sung in unison. Mrs. Hayson announced the motto "Live and Let Live" and told some of the things that all could do to overcome intolerance of others. Mrs. Bonsteel showed a film "Christopher Mouse and the Christmas Story."

During the social hour Christmas gifts were exchanged among the members and lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. J. C. Cummiskey, Mrs. Rupert Wood, Mrs. H. F. Hayson and Mrs. Manuel Wright. A special gift from "Santa Claus" went to Mrs. Bertha Preston, with Beth Bonsteel drawing the lucky number for her.

Mrs. Ross Davidson expressed the thanks of the members to Mrs. Bonsteel for the use of her home, the Christmas atmosphere provided with a tree by the girls and other decorations.

The January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. W. Price and will feature Agriculture and Canadian Industries.

Wedding

Scarlett-Fox

Baskets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums adorned the chancel of Cooper United Church, Cooper, Ont., on Saturday, Nov. 10, at 2.30 p.m. for a pretty wedding when the Rev. J. F. Lane, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. E. V. C. Lewis of Queensboro united in marriage Carol Myra Fox of Belleville, daughter of Mr. Delos Fox, of Cooper and the late Mr. Fox, to Boyd Keith Scarlett, of Belleville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Scarlett of Kinmount.

Mr. John Druif of Marmora, soloist assisted by Mrs. Fred Bailey at the organ, sang before the ceremony "Because", and during the signing of the register "Through The Years."

Given in marriage by her eldest brother, the bride was charming in her floor-length bridal gown of white nylon chiffon, over taffeta with fitted bodice, having a "V" shaped neckline outlined with embroidered lace braid and sequins. The bouffant skirt was worn over a four-tired hoop. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was held by a lace headdress dotted with sequins and she carried a cascade of red roses and white 'mums.

Miss Iva Thompson of Belleville, cousin of the bride, was maid-of-honor, wearing a waltz-length gown of brazen crystalette with matching featured headdress and carrying a bouquet of bronze and yellow 'mums. Mrs. Bob Mainer of Belleville and Mrs. John Druif, sister of the bride were bridesmaids gowned alike in green crystalette with matching headdresses. They carried bouquets of bronze and yellow 'mums.

Mr. Harvey Young of Belleville attended the bridegroom while Messrs. Ted Fox of Cooper and John Robinson of Fenelon Falls were ushers.

The reception was held at Cooper Town Hall where the bride's mother received, gowned in cocoa color with brown accessories and corsage of yellow 'mums. The bridegroom's mother assisted, attired in navy and winter white accessories and corsage of white 'mums. The brides' table was centred by a three-tier wedding cake, flanked by white candles and the bridal bouquets.

Following the reception the young couple left for Windsor and Detroit, the bride travelling in a light brown tweed suit with brown and tangerine accessories and corsage of white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Scarlett are residing at 21 North Front St., Belleville.

The Lindsay Post,

Dear Sirs:

On tonight, (Tuesday's) paper, I notice your request for a copy of "Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus" and I have what I think is the article you are wanting and I am glad to send it to you. You will notice it is on a copy of the "Post" but I do not know the year.

I read your paper every night and would not want to be without it. I will look forward to the Christmas copy as I usually save all the Christmas readings in it.

Christmas Greetings,
Mrs. W. Parkin,

Mrs. Otto Spencer Elected President Of Bethany W.M.S.

Bethany (PNS) — W. M. S. of the United Church met at the home of Mrs. O. Spencer. The worship service was in the form of a candle lighting ceremony representing the spread of the Light of The World through all the different countries, which were represented by Mrs. Ross Johnston, Mrs. Milton Wright, Mrs. G. M. Longfield, Mrs. James Fraser, Mrs. Walter Rowland and Mrs. Thomas Jackson. Mrs. George Waddell led the dialogue and Mrs. R. R. Bonsteel sang several solos.

Mrs. Herb Coppins gave a most encouraging report of the year's finances, with all obligations met and a surplus over the Presbytery allocations.

Mrs. R. R. Bonsteel conducted the election of officers, with the following appointments: President, Mrs. Otto Spencer; vice-president, Mrs. Edgar DeBer; Secretary and press correspondent, Mrs. T. J. Jackson; Treasurer, Mrs. Herb. Coppins; Christian Stewardship, Mrs. Henry Jakeman; Associate secretary, Mrs. G. Waddell; Citizenship, Mrs. Manuel Wright; Temperance, Mrs. Mervyn Porteous; supply secretary, Mrs. G. M. Longfield; Missionary Monthly secretary, Mrs. Donald Lowes; Literature secretary, Mrs. Clarence Rowan; Community Friendship, Mrs. Walter Rowland; Baby Band Secretary; Mrs. Earl Westherill and Mrs. Ross Johnston as assistant; Pianist, Mrs. Clarence Rowan.

Plans were discussed for a Baby Band Christmas party. At the close of the meeting the hostess served lunch and a social hour was enjoyed.

Members of the Knights of Malta, a religious order dating back to the time of the Crusades, have put their resources behind the effort to aid Hungarian refugees fleeing across the Austrian border. The Lord Prior of the Order, resident of Austria, summoned the members toa ction and they have supplied food, clothing and shelter to the refugees. Left, Princess Ernestine Auersperg, descendant of one of Austria's ancient nobility, dispenses tea and bread from an improved counter under her window. Right, the foot of a refugee, blistered by the flight to Austria, is dressed by Count Meraviglia-Crivelli.

A TRIBUTE TO THE ROSS MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

(The brave little hospital still operating under such great odds.)

To the Administration, Nursing Personnel and Medical staff, especially Doctors Arnup and Service, I say whole-heartedly Thank you and good wishes for a bright future when you will treat the sick and injured in the New Hospital; also to my other friends I extend my thanks for their solicitude.

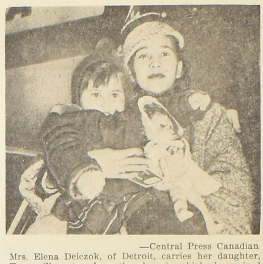
RETURNS WITH SMUGGLED DAUGHTER



—Central Press Canadian

Mrs. Elena Deiczok, of Detroit, carries her daughter, Tanya Chwastov, from the plane in which she arrived from England. The 2½-year-old child was smuggled from the U.S. by her Russian father, Alexis Chwastov, but was snatched from a Russian-bound ship by British authorities. A British court gave custody of the child to her mother. Tanya is clutching the doll Mrs. Deiczok brought her from the U.S. when she went to England to fight for the child.

REGENTS SCORE 9-2 WIN GAME WITH LAKEFIELD

Lindsay Regents downed Lakefield Lumbermen 9-2 at the Kiwanis Arena in one of their best performance, this season.

According to club officials, a "gripe" meeting last Saturday night seems to have put the Regents back on the track, and they travelled like a through express last night.

Orlie Crawford led the Regents attack with three goals and two assists. Bill Parker fired two goals and assisted on four. Growden, Green, McGill and Hennessey accounted for the remaining markers. Cayle and Neil Wasson scored for Lakefield.

The Regents took full advantage of an off night by Red Wasson and the Lakefield defence were no match for the buzzing Regents and seventeen penalties to the Lumbermen upset the game and referee Topping was kept busy as he meted out eleven sentences to the Regents.

Orlie Crawford opened the scoring when he cashed Bill Williams' rebound at 5:44 of the first. The Lumbermen bounced back with the equalizer at 6:35, Coyle scoring from Twist.

Martin was chased for holding at 10:33, and Parker combined with Crawford thirty seconds later. On the next rush, Parker cleared to Crawford at the blue line, and Orlie's drive bouncing in off Martin's skate. Seven minor penalties finished out the first period with the Regents getting three.

The Regents continued their drive in the second period, and Lou Hennessey's slider from the blue line slid under Wasson's stick at 4:40. Two minutes later Teel passed to McGill on left wing, and Ross' drive literally tore through Wasson's pads for goal number five.

At mid-period Kevin Hefferman was penalized for interference, following by Bill Hefferman for ten for expressing his opinions to the ref. During Kevin's penalty, Red Wasson turned in terrific goal tending to stem the rampaging Regents. Twist and McGill tangled at 15:56 and were given seven minutes each after they mauled out their grievance.

Grant Green tallied a screened shot on Parker's pass out at 2:56 of the third with the teams at four a side. Parker tipped in a neat passing effort from Hennessey to Growden to Parker at 10:07. Bob Growden scored Lindsay's seventh goal at 17:38 when Parker slapped Williams' rebound to the open side, and Orlie combined with Parker at 18:12 for goal number nine.

Lakefield scored their second goal at 19:54 when Martin set him up about four feet in front of O'Brien.

While the game was a typical Lakefield-Lindsay battle, the Regents displayed the extra drive in following up their shots and going all out both ways.

Maudie R. James

Born At Bobcaygeon, Dies In Saskatchewan

A pioneer resident of Price Albert, Mrs. Maudie Rebecca James, died recently in a local hospital. Funeral services were held from the chapel of the McKenzie Funeral home with Rev. R. J. McLellan of Wesley United church, officiating.

Mrs. James was born in Bobcaygeon, Ont., on December 31, 1882, and came west to Prince Albert, Sask, with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Courtney, at an early age. She had been a continuous resident of the city, since that time.

She was predeceased by her husband W. J. James in 1944.

Survivors include three daughters; (Eunice), Mrs. Charles Musk, and Miss Norma James of Prince Albert, and (Muri), Mrs. W. B. Smith of City View, Ont.

Members of Prince Albert chapter No. 16, Order of the Eastern Star, attended funeral services in a body, and the Eastern Star service was held in the chapel with Mrs. R. Buchanan, in charge.

Hymns sung were "How Firm a Foundation," and "Breathe on Me Breath of God." The service closed with the singing of "Prayer Perfect," by Miss Tina Hepburn accompanied by Mrs. C. Carle at the organ.

Active pallbearers were J. D. Rose, Jr., Lorne Kernaghan, Alfred Turner, M. A. Zubrack, O. Volderg and Thomas Smith. Honorary pallbearers were Arnold Angnew, Fred Agnew, T. Bagshaw, W. Fowler, John Parker, Charles Lacroix, Nat Webster and J. T. Tomlinson.

Interment was in the family plot, St. Mary's Cemetery.

BAND CONCERT

Bethany (PNS) — The Bethany Community Band, directed by Ernest Victory of Peterborough held a concert in the Town Hall, featuring Christmas Carols and community carol singing. Special selections by the Band were "Pacific Brandeur", "The Little Trishman" and "Deep River Rhapsody". Grant Griffin who is snare-drummer, also gave two piano instrumentals, "The First Noel" and "Deck The Halls With Boughs of Holly."

Mrs. John Burn Is Hostess For Christmas Meeting

Janesville (PNS) — The affiliated societies of W. A. and W.M.S. of the Janesville United Church, held their December meeting at the home of Mrs. John Burn Jr. in Janesville and it being the final meeting of the year, and also the Christmas meeting, was particularly well attended. The president, Mrs. Guy McGill, was in the chair and following the usual opening exercises, the Christmas Story from Luke 2: 1-19, was read by Mrs. Bert McMullen. The topic, presented by Mrs. McGill, stressed the idea of really putting Christ in Christmas, not only this year, but for all the years to come. The talk was concluded with the poem, "A Christmas Prayer" and the worship period was closed with a recording of Frank Parker, singing "O Holy Night."

Mrs. R. R. Bonstreel then conducted a candle lighting service, the candles lighting the countries of South East Asia, with Canada, in the remembrance that we would be joined in our Christmas thought.

Mrs. Horace Heaslip sang, "Joy to the World," while the candles were being lighted by a member of the ladies at the conclusion of this beautiful and most impressive service. Mrs. Bonstreel closed with the Benediction.

A social hour was then enjoyed, when two games, "The Night Before Christmas," and "Puzzle Questions," were played and readings appropriate to the season were given, "The Approach of Christmas", by Mrs. H. Heaslip and "Bring Dad on Christmas Eve," by Mrs. Bonstreel.

Afternoon tea, which included a number of Christmas treats, was then served by Mrs. Bonstreel and her assistants, Mrs. P. J. Rowe and Mrs. Donald Fisher.

The January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Horace Heaslip.

'It's got what the experts call "road sense"

The '57 Chevrolet can give lessons on taking curves and holding the road to just about any car going — no matter how much more it costs. Few cars at any price are so beautifully balanced and so smooth, sure and solid in action.

The '57 Chevy's road savvy isn't surprising once you learn what's underneath it—new developments in steering, springs and suspension. Chevy plants itself wide and low to the road, and with its pounds in the right places. Chevy's stay sticks so surely and solidly around corners and curves. That's why it seems to follow the road as though on invisible rails.

Chevy's new V8 power (up to 245 h.p.*) springs from what people who know have called the best performing passenger car engine ever built. And that makes the going even better! Snappier performance with more precise control! Come in and try it.

Sunday School Yuletide Party

Bethany (PNS) — The United Church Sunday School held their annual Christmas Party. Rev R. R. Hamilton did an singing Christmas carols. The Kindergarten group trained by Mrs. V. Jackson and Mrs. G. M. Longfield sang "Away In A Manger".

Barbara Angiers sang "St. Nicholas". Eleanor Porteous and Patricia Davidson sang "I Saw Three Ships Come Sailing". Leone Jordan gave a reading "Bobby Talks to Santa Claus". Dianne Mulligan, Lynda Davidson, Jane Fallis and Patricia Green sang "There's a Song In The Air" and "Santa Claus Is Coming To Town". Moving pictures — "Shorty, The Chimpanzee On The Farm" and "A Pony For Christmas" were shown by Murray Henderson and Bruce Wright. Ernest Beer, Marguerite Beer and Peter Beer acted and sang "The General's Pair Asleep."

Earl Weatherill, Sunday School superintendent was chairman. Mrs. Mervyn Porteous accompanied the musical numbers. Santa Claus arrived in time to distribute the gifts to each child. Lunch was served by the senior members.

Indians of the Chippewa band are beneficiaries of the largest sale of undeveloped land in Canadian history. The land lies within the borders of the city of Sarnia, Ont., and has been owned by the Chippewas since 1825. Sale price is estimated at $9,000,000 and some of the individual members of the band will receive over $100,000 for the property. Pat Anderson points to the area sold which will be developed by a U.S. firm. The sale makes the Chippewas the wealthiest tribe in Canada on a per capita basis.

—Central Press Canadian

Telford Adams, chief of the tribe for ten years before his retirement in March, sees benefits to each member of the tribe through the sale of land. He and his daughter, Pat, will continue to live on their ancestral land, 258 acres of which have been retained for erection of a village for all those who wish to remain

Olive Donnelly

Bethany (PNS) — Mrs. Olive Donnelly died in Toronto General Hospital on Friday, December 14th, following a lingering illness. She was born in Bethany, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Wake. Her education was received at Bethany school and Baker's Business College in Lindsay. Later she was employed at Secretarial work in Detroit, Mich., Toronto and Peterborough.

The funeral service was held from The Elliott Funeral Home in Toronto. Immediately surviving are three sisters Mrs. A. Kennedy (Eunice) of Ingersoll; Mrs. Ina Palmer, Bethany; Mrs. Neta Farnsworth, Toronto; and two brothers, George Wake of Ajax; Morton Wake of Detroit, Mich.

SOVIET HAS SANTA, TOO

—Central Press Canadian

An official greeting card from Santa Claus by the Soviet Union post-office showing a white-bearded gentleman with a pack on his back and a striking resemblance to that old capitalist, Santa Claus. The government prefers to call him "Grandfather Frost" and clothes him in blue. The written sentiment at the bottom translates into "New Year Greetings."

ALLEGE FIREMAN ASSAULTED BY EX-CHIEF, MAYOR SAYS HE IS "VERY MUCH CONCERNED"

Report Wm. Spencley Hurt In Fracas, Distress Expressed By Town Officials

Mayor A. E. Hick told "The Post" today that he is very much concerned over the circumstances surrounding the alleged assault of a Lindsay fireman Monday evening, and he said he is attempting to gather as many facts as possible about the matter in order to decide what, if any action might be taken by the town.

His Worship was referring to an incident which is alleged to have occurred on a York St. North property when fireman William Spencley was allegedly assaulted and extensively beaten by ex-fire chief Alex Wylie. As a result, Mr. Spencley is today reported to be confined to bed suffering from a considerable number of painful injuries.

According to the allegations, Fireman Spencely and Jack Miller were about to enter the York St. north property, having just left the fire hall a few minutes earlier. It is reported that as Mr. Miller entered the premises, Mr. Wylie was just leaving and observed Mr. Spencley, then called to him, after which the reported assault took place.

Mayor Hick and fire chairman Wm. McCrae have both visited Mr. Spencley at his home and report that he was in considerable pain, a number of cuts, scratches and bruises, as well as badly bruised ribs and other injuries, which they say Mr. Spencley apparently suffered as the result of being kicked. Mr. Spencley will be off work for some time due to this.

Chairman Wm. McCrae said that he feels the town had been most fair with the former chief and had not brought out any details at the investigation concerning fire department activities which might later reflect on the man.

"I received a lot of criticism for my action at the time," said Mr. McCrae, "but I refused to bring personal matters into the investigation. However, I think that this occurrence will help to indicate some of the problems the fire committee has had to face and might cast a different light on some circumstances."

Mr. McCrae felt the same as the mayor as far as the protection of town employees is concerned and said "I intend to get to the bottom of this."

P. C. Wm. Mosley was called to the scene of the alleged fracas.

CEASES PUBLICATION

The Ensign, a Catholic news weekly, announced last night it would cease publication.

The inability to arrange for a transfer of its operations to Toronto is reported to have been the major factor in its demise.

The Ensign was established in 1944 and had been taken over two years ago by Christ, the King Cultural Foundation of Ottawa.

Bus Service Report Draws Flat Denial

Mr. Harry Johnson has told "The Post" that he is concerned about an ill-founded report which is circulating concerning the bus service he manages. Mr. Johnson says there is absolutely no truth to a rumour being spread to the effect that bus service of Lindsay Bus Lines will be discontinued after the first of the year.

"About the only thing which may take place," said Mr. Johnson, "is that a curtailment of night service may be necessary after the New Year, but even this hasn't been determined."

SOMETHING NEW FOR SUBWAY USERS

—Central Press Canadian

The New York Transit Authority has initiated a new program of "live" carol singing for subway riders, an idea that may spread to Canadian cities. Shown singing on the shuttle at Grand Central are a trackman, conductor, policeman, stenographer and motorman. The carol singing is an experiment, said transit chairman Charles Patterson. "Our riders are our bosses," he added. "If they like it, fine; if they don't we won't continue it."

Man's Best Friend

Riverside, California
12 - 1 - 56

Lindsay Daily Post:

Dear Sir: I noticed in you paper that an angry ratepayer is complaining about the dogs in your fair city. Has he forgotten that the dog is man's best friend?

1. They have saved many lives.
2. When all humans let you down, the dog will stay with you.
3. They protect your property with their lives.
4. After a hard day's work, they are the first to greet you at home.
5. I think this particular person growls more than the dogs. And I would be willing to buy him a good dog to see if it would not change his mind about our good friends.

Tell him to think of his boyhood days.

I would hate to be his neighbour.

Sincerely,
A reader of your fine paper.

Christmas Sale Said Successful

Haliburton (PNS) — The W. A. of the United Church held its annual Christmas sale in the church basement. Tables full of fancy work of every description was on sale, knitting for young and old, and a table full of delicious home made rolls, tarts, pies and cookies—and a touch and take table that is prominent at bazaars as well as a candy table were soon sold out.

A very special feature was a tea room poured after by Mrs. Harold Black, Mrs. J. Pritchard and Mrs. Lila Curry. Especially nice sandwiches, cookies and small cakes were served. The table was nicely set, City flowers added beauty. Mrs. Rev. Manning poured tea.

Lindsay Curler Will Compete Against Scots

Scottish Curlers are to visit Canada this season, and will play in Toronto, Wed., Jan. 3rd. Lindsay Curling Club has been invited to send its one man to curl against them, and this honour has been offered to Harold Wood. If you wish to go up to watch the Scots curling, particulars can be found on the bulletin board. Any further information you can get from Cleve. —Curling Bulletin.

Two "8" Ends In One Sked, Thought Record

It seems rather strange that there should be two instances in one schedule of 8 ends being scored, since these feats are almost as rare as "holes in one" at golf. Harold Wood pulling off an 8 end against Bill Jardine was reported in an earlier bulletin, and Andy Widdis has duplicated Harold's feat in a game against Mill, Endicott, Incidentally, it is again remarkable that Andy, like Harold, did not succeed in winning his game, in spite of the 8 end. Harold lost his game; Andy was actually two up, but had to concede two points, so could only tie. Previous to this season, the last time that an 8 end was scored was about ten years ago when Bert Everson initiated an 8 end on Dr. Clarke of Peterborough in a Bonspiel." Lindsay Curling Club Bulletin.

Rooted and grounded in love — Eph. 3:17.

There is no fierce love than a mothers love, and in the higher orders of creation a fathers love is almost equally all absorbing. God has that kind of love for his children, our lives suffer if we repudiate that love.

Quirk:

A woman in Medford, Massachusets, thought she was doing the prudent thing when she had to leave home suddenly on an errand. She hid 520-dollars in the telephone book.

Trouble is . . . while she was gone . . . a man came from the telephone company with a new directory. The baby sitter gave him the old one in exchange.

U.S. NAVY TESTS BIGGER MISSILE

—Central Press Canadian

In this artist's conception, the U.S. navy's new Regulus II is shown as it would appear when launched from a submarine. The faster-than-sound high performance guided missile is a larger, faster and longer-range weapon. It is now under test and has been successfully fired.

THE QUESTIONER

The owl, that bird of anomalous name, is a repetitious question wrapped in feathery insulation especially for winter delivery. Hold the winter's supply of the summer's chippoorwill, the persistent night-crier, especially the bird often called the hoot owl.

Strictly speaking, there's no such thing as a hoot owl. The bird so referred to usually is a barred owl, occasionally a great horned owl. Both of them hoot, though in different keys, and with different emphases. But many owls are popularly misnamed. The small screech owl, for instance, whimpers and whines and whistles, but doesn't really screech. And only an occasional barn owl lives in a barn.

The barred owl, the most common of the hooters, is a big bird, somewhat larger than a crow. He has a claw for a beak, he seems to wear spectacles over his big eyes, and he has no feather tufts that look like ears. The great horned owl is still bigger, often with a wing spread of five feet, and he does have the ear tufts which excuse the name. Both are night hunters, of rodents, while the barred owl seldom tackles anything bigger than a rabbit, the great horned owl can kill a porcupine.

We know them by their voices, primarily. The barred owl's call consists of six or seven repeated notes, usually with a rising questioning intonation at the end. Two barred owls hooting at each other on a winter's night can sound like a whole flock. The great horned owl has a deeper voice and more of a challenge. He can make the darkness tense and quivering. And either of them can make a December night seem full of omens, which else can ask so demanding a question on a brittle, starlight night.

Successful Tea, Bazaar Is Held

A very successful Christmas tea and bazaar was held recently by the ladies of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church.

This year the visitors entered the church, and were welcomed by the president, Mrs. H. Taylor. Rev. Mr. McQueen conducted a brief service and declared the bazaar open.

Tables of aprons, candy, children's wear and fancy work, home cooking, etc. were loaded with good things to eat and for Christmas gifts. The tea was held in the S. S. room and looked very inviting with its lighted tree, decorated tables and soft music. The lovely serving table was centred with a basket of red and white carnations.

Pouring tea were Mrs. D. MacArthur, Mrs. D. Sinclair, Mrs. J. Kennedy and Mrs. B. McKerrin. Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. McQueen received the guests and the tea hostesses and servers were kept busy serving sandwiches, cookies and tea.

Single Passes Justified For Committeemen--Found; Necessary For Inspection

With regard to the recent discussion concerning the double passes issued the seven members of the Lindsay Recreation committee, the chairman Lloyd G. Pound told "The Post": "I for one intend, so long as I am chairman, to go in and out of any door of the arena or recreation centre anytime, without paying an admission fee."

Mr. Pound said he felt the committee should have the privilege of entering the premises at any time, "so they can see what is going on."

However, Mr. Pound said he agreed that double passes were certainly not necessary and he was going to bring the matter up at the next meeting of the recreation committee to see that the passes are issued in the committee member's name only.

He pointed out that very few members of the committee would abuse their passes by attending hockey games, or spectacles that would use them merely to facilitate their admittance to the building for whatever purpose they had in mind, and also as a means of identification. He said the passes were certainly not being used in order to show any form of favouritism and that the majority of members have not even used them yet.

Mr. Pound said he would not wish to hear of any member of the committee using the permit to exercise any undue influence or to accept any favours, but merely to permit them to make a normal check periodically which is part of their job.

Legion Officers Are Elected At Haliburton

Haliburton (PNS) — The monthly meeting of the Haliburton Branch of the Canadian Legion was held in the hall. A motion was made that the proceeds of the coming new year's dance will go towards a TV set for the club rooms.

Comrade Harold Kirkpatrick reported on behalf of the bingo committee and stating the jack pot went in three weeks and that the next series started at $200, with 20 members called for the letter "L".

Comrade Harold Douglas reported on the activities of the sick committee and reported that Jack Vickery had been confined to bed for the past three weeks and will remain there for at least four weeks more.

Comrade Len Bates speaking on behalf of the membership committee urged each member to bring at least one new candidate for membership in the coming year 1957.

Speaking on behalf of the social committee Comrade N. Nimigon stated that the attendance at the monthly socials has been small.

Comrade George Brennan local service bureau officer reported that cases had been handled with one case settled and three pending.

Comrade Bernard Davidson spoke on the coming stag night and he urged all members to push the sale of Christmas tickets.

On the Christmas tree committee George Brennan reported that all gifts, including treats for the children have been arranged for.

Poppy committee chairman Wm. Neimi reported a very successful sale. President Cliff Dawson thanked Comrade Neimi for his part in the poppy campaign.

7 FOR THE WEEKLY

Another seven new subscriptions were received for the weekly "Thursday Post" which bring the total of new subscribers to both the "Lindsay Daily Post" and "The Thursday Post" to 139 since November 16th . . . just over a month ago.

The newest subscribers are Messrs. Adam McCabe, Toronto; Mark Sears, Kirkfield; H. Prouley, R. R. 3, Woodville; Grant Chittpaugh, Victoria Road; Frank Welch, Minden; Mr. C. Brown, R. R. 2, Bobcaygeon; and Colin Campbell, Hartley.

Merchants Sponsor Santa Claus Parade

Omemee (PNS) — The annual Santa Claus parade sponsored by the Omemee businesses was held on Saturday afternoon with a large crowd from the surrounding countryside attending. The Legion band headed the parade followed by the Cubs and Scouts under Scoutmaster Joyce.

Some of those citizens who gave time and effort to aid in the success of the project and who entered attractive floats were Carnegie's store, Blanche's Beauty Salon, Ed Lace's Snack Bar, R. W. Mitchell, Christ Church Young People (who presented a scene from the Nativity), Omemee Creamery, S.S. children from Fee's school under direction of Mrs. Price their teacher; Canadian Legion men threw candies and nuts along the route as well as some King-size men representing Mr Planter, Mr. Peanut, Donald Duck, etc.

Converging in Coronation Hall, Santa distributed candies to hundreds of kiddies, some of them for the first time and efforts were made to see that none were left out.

Mrs. Rae Malcolm Entertains W.I.

Janetville (PNS) — The Christmas meeting of the Janetville branch of the W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Rae Malcolm, when there was a fine attendance of members.

The president, Mrs. Wilfred Leslie, was in charge, and following the usual opening ceremonies, the Christmas Story from the Bible and also a paper on the subject was read by Mrs. Arthur Hanna. This was followed by a Christmas reading by Mrs. George Heaslip. Mrs. W. Leslie gave a most interesting talk on the origin of the two songs, pertaining to this season of the year, "Silent Night" and "Good King Wenceslas"

A contest, "Christmas Turkey", conducted by Mrs. E. Archer, required some thought, and several of the ladies having the contest answer, a draw was made, when Mrs. Fred Bradburn, was the lucky winner. The contest was preceded by a Christmas reading by Mrs. Archer. At intervals during the afternoon Christmas carols were sung by all.

At the close of the meeting the annual Christmas gift exchange took place and each lady received a lovely gift.

Later a delicious lunch was served, with the added luxury of Christmas cake, by Mrs. Leslie, and her assistant, Mrs. Elmo Archer.

The January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Geo. Heaslip at Yelverton when the hostesses will be Mrs. G. Gilson and Mrs. G Bradburn.

Home After California Trip, Liked It But Convinced Ontario Hard Place To Beat

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Rogers have returned home to Lindsay after visiting relatives of Mrs. Rogers in California. The Rogers told "The Post" they motored down most of the way by the famous number 66 highway. On their trip down they went through Texas, stopped at the painted desert, the petrified forest, the Grand Canyon and took the tour through the famous Boulder Dam. While in Los Angeles they were able to attend a live television program.

Mrs. Rogers was very happy to meet, for the first time, many cousins living near San Francisco.

Mr. Rogers stated he had to buy his first set of tire chains to get out of California, but cleared the matter when he stated he came over the Donner Pass in the Sierra Mountains.

On the return trip through Utah and Wyoming they encountered temperatures as low as 22 below zero. The couple summed it up as a wonderful trip, but convinced Ontario is a very hard place to beat.

Christmas Carols Please Shoppers

Christmas Carols again are providing downtown shoppers with the Yuletide atmosphere, thanks to a pair of loudspeakers half-way up the TV mast above Earl Kennedy Electric.

Last year the seasonal music originated from speakers fastened to to hydro poles at Kent and William, and at that time there was the occasional complaint about their volume being too high.

However, this season it is noted that the location and height of the speakers tends to diffuse the sound and spread the pleasant music evenly over downtown Lindsay.

Several shoppers have been heard to comment that the carols are much-appreciated and help provide considerable Christmas spirit for weary shoppers.

One of these shoppers is Mrs. Velma McNickle, who called "The Post" to say how she has enjoyed the music and that it provided a nice background while shopping.

Laff it off

The head of one of the branches o la Banque Canadian Nationale was very vain about his appearance and when his hair thinned to the vanishing point, he covered up his baldness by wearing his hat all the time. One afternoon, after the doors had closed, the porter came in to clean up his office.

"Tell me, John," said the banker, "why it is that though you get your wages from us, you still haven't opened an account here?"

"Well, sir," said the porter, his eyes sweeping the banker's bald, "every time I look at you I get the feeling you're going somewhere."

NO MAN LIVETH TO HIMSELF

"When you have shut your doors, and darkened your room, remember never to say that you are alone, for you are not alone * * *." We don't suppose that many of the people, young and old, whose fan mailings are read in today's opening appeal for The New York Times Neediest Cases have been consoling themselves with reading from Epictetus. But this is the season when the helper and the helped learn, in the miracle of Christmas generosity, that no man liveth unto himself.

APPLY HERE TOO —

The words above which served to introduce editorial comments in the New York newspaper regarding its appeal for help for New-York's 100 Neediest Cases are also very apt in the case of this editorial appeal for support of the Lindsay Santa Claus Stocking Fund.

It is a fact that no matter how hard we may try, or how much we may desire to live unto ourselves it is not an easy thing to do and, in fact, is virtually an impossibility. There comes a time when we need help in one form or another and it is to our fellow man that we turn for assistance.

The Lindsay Santa Claus Stocking Fund was created almost half a century ago for the express purpose of either helping people in distress or helping them avoid a distressing experience. At first the fund was designed to provide a hamper of food for needy people at Christmas, the idea being to ensure that no one in Lindsay was without the makings of a good old-fashioned Christmas dinner with some to spare. Later it developed that there were people in our midst who found themselves in emergency situations at all times of the year which couldn't be relieved in time by existing relief agencies. The Santa Claus Stocking Fund, sometimes finding itself with a few extra dollars in reserve after its Christmas mission was performed, undertook to lend temporary but speedy assistance to people in straitened circumstances. This has since become almost as much a part of its work as the original project.

The things that we like most about the fund are that it applies no pressure in its appeal for support . . . money received and spent is accounted for to Town Council and there are no paid administrators. What else could anyone ask for if they were considering a gift to a charitable work at this Christmas season? Well, there is perhaps one other thing, but that has also been taken care of: anyone contributing to the fund is assured that a gift of any size is welcome and if that person prefers that no name be mentioned in acknowledging a donation, their wish is respected.

May this deserving fund expect your assistance in carrying out its work?

SAVE YOUR MONEY!

We learned this morning that there are still people driving cars who aren't aware that Lindsay's parking meters aren't taking in money this week. One gentleman is reported to have been seen putting his coins in the meter in the usual way apparently not informed that it wasn't necessary. This difficulty will be remedied as soon as hoods which are to cover the meters are placed over the meter heads, but in the meantime this further notice may help to save readers a few shekels.

It was interesting to note that parking space on Kent St. was at an absolute minimum shortly after business houses had opened this morning. Is this to be interpreted to mean that the people who HAVE learned of the money stupendous plan are showing their appreciation by patronizing our merchants on a large scale than would normally have been the case? And, if such turns out to be the case, could this be the thin edge of the wedge which would persuade town officials to abandon this method of raising money for all time?

(Yelverton)

A new fashion for ladies wear at W.A. was almost introduced by a local and shapely young matron through her own admission . . . dishabille, we should say. For after donning her coat on the way to the car in a mad dash familiar to any housewife with little children trying to make a deadline she spies a certain particular skirt hanging on its own little hanger.

Nothing to get excited about you say — unless of course that it was the skirt she thought she was already wearing. You guessed it . . . . it was, and she wasn't. — a trifle airy perhaps!

Maybe she will re-introduce the fashion in warmer weather.

Glenarm Man One of Two To Die

The bodies of two men lay for more than an hour Saturday in wreckage so badly twisted that passing motorists did not realize it was a car.

Howard Webdale, 31, of nearby Glenarm, and Harold Bailey, 36 of Bracebridge, were killed when their car skidded on a curve on No. 12 Highway and crashed into trees near Beaverton. Both were employes of Mille, Paving Co. of Bracebridge.

Police say the auto must have shot 50 feet through the air. The front seat was wrapped around a tree and the engine lay 75 feet away.

After many motorists passed the scene a workman noticed two coats in the wreckage and notified police.

DISASTER RELIEF IS DISCUSSED AT HOSPITAL MEET

Haliburton (PNS) The regular meeting of the Red Cross Outpost Hospital was held in the nurses residence with 19 members present. Mr. Cooper welcoming all present. The meeting opened with prayer led by Rev. J. O'Neil.

The donations sent in were gratefully received. The student body of the County District High School sent in a donation and the Madrigal Choir of the District High School had sent in a donation of $50. Reports were then presented and it was learned that many articles of hospital necessities have arrived and Mrs. Boyd Austin and her sewing committee will be ready to carry on this much needed sewing early in January.

The social and programme committee would like to see more attend the card parties in aid of the Red Cross and Mrs. A. R. Curry handed in $30.00 from her committee.

The guest speaker of the evening was Mrs. E. J. Rae of Peterboro who gave an interesting talk on Disaster Relief. She explained fully the great need of organized committees and told her listeners to be ready for any disaster that may come. Cards will be available with instructions in a few days, she said.

Mrs. Rae told the committee of the work of the Peterboro branch of the Red Cross and that they are fully organized in case of emergency. At the close of her talk Rev. J. M. O'Neil thanked her for the knowledge and the message and instructions she had given to the members.

Mrs. Smith gave a report of a recent fire and sheets and blankets were provided to the Family.

Mrs. Lawrence Tremeer; Christian Stewardship, Mrs. Gladwin Davey; Christian Citizenship, Mrs. A. Webster; Supply Secretary, Mrs. Frank Tremeer; Literature Secretary, Mrs. J. Lake; Mission Band Leader, Mrs. A. Pound.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Rev. Mr. Hunter. A very dainty lunch was served by the hostess and a social time was spent by all.

Free Parking Starts Monday, Council Awaits The Outcome

It started Monday a.m. . . . and many members of Lindsay's Council as well as the members of the Chamber of Commerce will be taking more than the usual interest in the town's parking meters.

Starting Monday, the meters will take a week's rest. They no longer will be forced to accept coins (and the occasional slug) from motorists anxious to contribute to town coffers. And motorists have the opportunity to try, for the first time in eight years, a first-come-first-serve basis in locating a place to park their cars while shopping, or waiting for their wives to shop as the case may be. And, there is to be no restriction on how long the motorist may park . . . only the conscience of the individual.

Thus, no parking tickets are to be issued by the parking meter control week, and as Chief Hunter says, "We will have time to keep an eye on several other things, nevertheless."

Lindsay's council reluctantly agreed to try a proposal made by the C of C merchant's committee that the town provide free parking for the week before Christmas. The Chamber said they would cover each meter and decorate each with a sprig of holly, "just to lend the right flavour."

Some councillors, it is recalled, were not in favour of the scheme, as they felt merchants, and others might abuse the privilege and park all day, whereas the Chamber felt the merchants would not jeopardize their own business by doing such a thing.

Council decided to give it a try and see what happens. "If it works, that's just fine . . . if not, look out," members averred.

It was pointed out by the Chamber that other communities have tried similar plans successfully, and that it had previously been suggested here but refused by the local Council.

Mayor Hick summarized the council's feeling, the other day when he said, "we're really curious to see what it will work. We want to really condemn the idea now based until we have seen it tried out. I feel the merchants and the motorists will co-operate, and I expect to hear a favourable report from the Chamber on the experiment."

Getting Decked Out

The decorations for Christmas on our main thoroughfare have started and we've been watching for them for a week or two. Most people like them and enjoy shopping better when there are some signs of life regarding the business section. It sort of gets you in the spirit and shopping is fun.

Wild Life

We are quite aware of wild life around our town and the snow gives one a good idea of what is going on in the night. It is interesting to look up the footprints in the snow so that you can tell just what animals are about. First thing you know you can name every one of them. The footprints in the snow can soon be identified. Maybe some homes have a wintertime pet around your house. Rabbits like to stick around and one year our neighbour had covered in his backyard when spring came.

Favorite Candy

If your family votes for candy you can keep some right on your shelf all the time. Candy is always nice to eat and handy when if you have any callers. Home-made varieties are delicious and the only trouble is trying to restrain yourself from eating too much. If junior is eating too much then you can hide them away for New Years.

Colorful Plant

One home we passed had a lovely window full of red geraniums. It was so pretty as a Christmas tree and they were apparently going to be just as their best by Christmas. If you have anybody on the sick list, they would surely bring them around in short order. They are so bright and cheerful and nice to have. It is surprising how long they last.

Nut Brittle

The small fry will like this candy and the donor will be "tops." Combine 1 cup light corn syrup, 2 cups sugar, 1 cup light corn syrup, ½ cup water and 1 teaspoon salt. Cover and boil 2 minutes. Uncover and cook to hard crack stage (300 degrees F.—hard crack stage. Remove from heat. Stir in quickly one-fourth teaspoon soda—stir only enough to mix. Add 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1 teaspoon vanilla and 1 cup salted nuts, crossly chopped. Spread thinly on greased cookie sheet 12 by 15 inches. Let stand until cool. Break into pieces. Makes about 1 pound.

Make a double batch for Christmas!

Teacher Disproved

A newspaper in Vienna, Austria, has disproved at least one bit of Communist propaganda to one young Hungarian refugee. The 12-year-old boy was, of course, a Red. He sipped gingerly from a bottle given him by the newsman. His Communist teachers had told him the dark liquid in the bottle was poison, concocted by capitalists, who are constantly trying to get a sip of poop. He must have been a brave little fellow to ignore his teacher.

Radio Activated

By 1980 we'll hardly have to lift a finger to get things done. So says John Bentia who envisions such things as houses which will close their own windows when it rains, meals that cook themselves, and doors that open at the sound of the right voice. Speaking at a this chap, the president of the Alliance Manufacturing Co. of Ohio, such remote control gadgets as TV tuners and automatic coffee pots will be avoided by gadgets already on the drawing boards. He says cars will park themselves at night, and start up themselves in the morning . . . even golf balls will be traced by radio. Well, we'll have to see them to believe them. It could be possible.

Forty Shoppers

Say Everybody! If you are still thinking about those cosy slippers or bubbly or a new outfit for junior, don't wait too long or you may find you have left it too late and you have to cross it off your list. Hell be disappointed and you'll feel like kicking yourself for being so long in getting at this Christmas shopping. Don't wait another day! That's Right!

For Mother:

"Black jetted-tulle wings spangled with silver and gold are much worn at dinky women" have you found an idea?

Date Pudding

This recipe is like brownie pudding . . . only it's date-nut cake a-top a butterscotch sauce beneath. Ingredients: 1 cup pitted dates, cut up, 1 cup boiling water . . . one-half cup granulated sugar, one-half cup brown sugar, one egg, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine (melted) one and one-half cups sifted enriched flour, 1 teaspoon soda, one-half teaspoon salt, 1 cup chopped walnuts, one recipe of brown sugar sauce. Combine dates and water. Blend sugars, egg, melted fat. Sift together dry ingredients; add to sugar mixture. Stir in nuts and cooled date mixture. Pour into 11 by 7 by 1½ inch baking dish. Top with brown-sugar Sauce: Combine 1½ cups brown sugar, 1 tablespoon butter, and 1½ cups boiling water. Bake in moderate oven (375H) about forty minutes. Cut in squares; invert on plates. Serve warm with whipped cream. Makes 9 servings.

Split-Rattan

Cut-off protruding ends of broken split-rattan furniture to stop continued unravelling. Pull remainder taut, nail to the frame. Glue adds strength, while flathead nails grip tightly. Protect split-rattan furniture with coat of thin shellac brushed over entire surface. Varnish does the same job well—either one will seal furniture's surface against dampness and dirt. Do it now so they will be ready when spring comes marching in again.

Sugar Balls

Most of us are on the lookout for a new kind of cookie for the cookie tin. Here is one you may want to try. I recently saw a marvelous, softened one-quarter cup sifted confectioners' sugar, 2 teaspoons water, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 cups sifted enriched flour and 1 cup chopped pecans . . . red and green colored sugar. Thoroughly cream butter, confectioners' sugar and vanilla. Stir in water. Add flour and mix well. Stir in nuts. Shape in balls, using about 1 teaspoon of dough for each cookie. Roll in colored sugar, some in green. Bake 1-inch apart on ungreased cooky sheet in slow oven (300 degrees) minutes or until firm to touch. Cool thoroughly before removing from pan. Makes four dozen.

A Real Machine

If you want to please your little girl this year, why not give her a real sewing machine for Christmas. With a real machine, she's every bit as seamstress and tearing good sewing hands. They have one at the market now and we're quite sure she will love you for getting it.

Even Steven

The cook is getting some ideas for Christmas dinner and with twenty-twelve days to Christmas we feel that today we can get almost any of our favorites. You'll have red tomatoes and green pickles and we have to put the touch of green in your salads and other dishes. Yes, it's easy to have a nice Christmas dinner. All the stirring and fussing if it is 30 below zero outside. When it comes to the dessert you'll see marvelous things which are extra but a touch of red in any salad or dessert. Yes, we can't grumble one little bit for our stores are full of the ingredients to make a delicious Christmas feast.

Delicious Soup

Here is a tomato bouillon that you might like to try during the holidays. You can make this bouillon the day before Christmas and serve it in the refrigerator. Add 4 cups tomato juice to 2 cans condensed consommé, 1 onion, 4 whole cloves, 8 peppercorns, ½ bay leaf, half teaspoon of salt, a little basil, 1 small onion, chopped, a few celery tops and sprigs of parsley. Simmer gently for 30 minutes. (Time to simmer depends on how you like your soup. Strain the bouillon well. Reheat just before serving. Garnish with lemon slices and sprigs of parsley.

Idral for Skating

Sturgeon is really solid ice and has been for some days. We hear that expect there will be skaters on the lake for the ice was keen and smooth. Many people trip to the lake for a quick skate and right now there are many skaters there over the weekend so if the snow hasn't smothered the ice there will be lots of children and grownups to enjoy a first skate on the lake.

Remember The Hustle Toe

Don't forget the mistle toe at Christmas and hang it over your porch door or in the house. Many people couldn't have a Christmas without it and it has been part of Christmas for many years. Some wear it in their coats with a bit of holly added. You can create a lot of fun with it and you dare not miss, have some whether it is real or factory made.

Newcomer

A young blonde boy is a newcomer to Hollywood, but she's getting enough fan mail for a veteran star.

She is Carrie Fisher, the first born—six weeks old—daughter of Debbie and Eddie.

The mailman staggers into the Fisher home daily under a burden of letters, cards and hand-made adoracate presents for the child from doting fans.

Says Eddie: "a lot of fans send toys, especially musical toys. We have enough presents to open a shop."

Debbie is saving the thousands of cards little Carrie receives from fans, so he expects will be able to enjoy reading them some day.

Just Leftovers

This is an important year for one little boy named Jimmy who still has faith in Santa Claus.

Chicago Post Office workers opened the seven year, old boy's letter. It was addressed to Santa Claus, North Pole.

The letter read, "Dear Santa, Please come to my house this Christmas. You forgot me last year. I don't want much. Just anything you have left over."

Lady Robinhood

A shoplifter and pickpocket may have been a sort of modern robin hood. Police in Berkley, California, say for more than 40 years, Mrs. Francis Matthews had a record of convictions and arrests ranging from petty theft to grand larceny. But she always has been taking money from some pockets to give it to others. Mrs. Matthews died last April at the age of 78. She left her in be every entire 50-room-and-a-half estate to the non-profit organization, guide dogs for the blind.

Discovers His Talent

Sometimes when a woman is ill, her husband discovers his talents as a chef. That's the case with university professor C. R. Kinison . . . the one man among 99 women competing for the title of top cook in the United States. Kinison who teaches graphic arts at Ohio University and practices the culinary art in his home in Athens, says he took up cooking because his wife's illness prevented her from preparing his dinner. Now the 47-year-old professor hopes to take the 25 thousand dollar grand prize at the annual grand champion of baking contest sponsored by a flour company. He entered a malt-flavored cookie made from flour.

Hopeful Christmas

Pity the poor people who have to watch their figures at this time of Christmas goodies! However, things aren't as bad as they used to be and there are ways and means to enjoy Christmas fare that will satisfy hunger without counting too many calories. It's just the past few years that everyone seemed to start to diet themselves in order to keep a normal weight. So, you'll find this Christmas season you can enjoy good food and have a least one bang-up dinner to boot. If all else fails you can always take that will cut down your calories to a lower level.

Simple Dessert

For a light, Christmas dessert you can buy some orange sherbet or lime sherbet and serve it with a piece of Christmas cake. It is so refreshing you will wonder why you never thought of it before. It is so much easier than the rich Christmas pudding and the fruit pie is just as fine flavor. It's so easy to buy your dessert either with sherbet or ice-cream.

Christmas Jam

This recipe makes six half-pint jars: One package of dried apricots, 1 can shredded pineapple, 3½ cups water, 1 jar maraschino cherries and six cups water. In large the members to report any missionary books they had read to her so she might add them to her report. It was announced Mrs. Keegan's group would be in charge of the January meeting. Mrs. Wallace would take the study book. The president called for the Bible reports be prepared and presented at the next meeting. A financial report was given by the treasurer, Miss Jean Wright.

Mrs. Lonie and her group were in charge of the refreshments. After all joined in a Christmas Carol. Two beautiful numbers were sung by a duet quartet, Mrs. Lamb, Mrs. Freeborn, Mrs. Torrance and Miss Fry. A fitting candlelight service was conducted by Mrs. Lonie Mrs. White, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Gorrel, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Rathburn. The lighting of a candle and giving a individual interpretation to Burma, Korea, Canada, Malaya, Hong Kong, and New Guinea. Prayers of gratitude were given by Mrs. White, Mrs. Graham and Miss Lonie. Miss Olive Geach then presented members with the history of many of the beautiful hymns. She was capably assisted by Mrs. Deyell at the piano. Some of these beautiful hymns were sung in duet form by Miss Edwards and Miss Dick and followed in the singing of the beloved Christmas Carols during the reading. The meeting came to a close with the hymn "Silent Night" and "The Lord's Prayer" in unison.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Lonie and her group, including Miss Olive Geach, Mrs. McCrae, Mrs. Gorrel, Mrs. White, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Rathburn, Mrs. McCarty and Mrs. Graham.

on of Lindsay; (Sara) Mrs. Wm. Pudsey, of Peterborough, (Annie) Mrs. Bigham, of Scotia, Man. and (Mary) Mrs. John McConnel of B. C.; also three brothers, Rutherford of Toronto, Bert of Peterborough and Kerman of Sorins, Man.

Funeral services were held in the Janetville Presbyterian Church, on Thursday, Nov. 15th, and were conducted by Rev. W. J. March, pastor of the Lindsay United Church, in Lindsay. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Russell Armstrong, Clarence McGrail, Wm. Sanderson, Merrill McGill, Wilfred, Leslie and Mr. Alpine McGill, the latter having since passed away. Interment took place in the Janetville Presbyterian Cemetery.

Many lovely floral tribute, were evidence of the love and respect in which Hilliard was held.

Cambridge St. United Church Evening Auxiliary Installs Officers At Christmas Meet

The Evening Auxiliary of Cambridge St. United Church held its Christmas meeting with about 50 members present.

President Mrs. A. McKessock gave a warm welcome to all present and thanked the group in charge for the beautiful seasonable decorations. As an introduction to the meeting, she read a poem entitling of Christmas. After a Christmas carol, Dr. Harold B. Neal led in the prayer.

A slate of officers for 1957 was presented by Mrs. G. Gordon, prepared by the nominating committee Mrs. R. Patterson, Mrs. W. Service and Mrs. G. Gordon. The adoption of this report was moved by Mrs. Graham, seconded by Miss Jean Wright. All were in favor.

St. Margaret's Guild Holds Delightful Christmas Bazaar

Pension Fells (PNS) — St. Margaret's Guild of St. James Anglican Church convened a delightful Christmas Tea and Bazaar in the Sunday School Room of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church which was decorated with evergreens for the occasion. Guests were welcomed by Mrs. S. Minthorne and Miss Alice Hand.

The low covered tea tables were centred with lovely arrangements of fruit, flanked by red candles. Mrs. George Calver Sr., and Mrs. J. W. Wheeler presided at the silver tea service. The small tea tables were centred with Christmas candle, and artificial snow. Strawberry shortcake and tea were served to the guests by Mrs. Isaac, Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. Brasbey and Mrs. Eva Dodd. Among those assisting in the kitchen were Mrs. C. M. Thompson and Mrs. W. Shuxenberg.

The table of delectable home baking was in charge of Mrs. Ken Arthur and Mrs. Hugh Hepburn, who as well as home baking had pickles, jam, jellies and candy for sale.

Mrs. Wm. Chalmers and Mrs. C. Quibell were in charge of the well-stocked bazaar table, which featured aprons, Christmas novelties and many other interesting bazaar items. Mrs. M. Elliott had charge of the white elephant and touch and take table.

The young folk, Merline Chalmers and Dorothy McLean operated an attractive wishing well, complete with the "old oaken bucket" (in modern plastic.

County Librarian Addresses H & S

The Leslie Frost Home and School Association met in the school for the regular meeting.

The Grade six pupils led in carol singing accompanied by Mrs. Ryckman. Mrs. Ryckman's group gave a very enlightening talk on helping children to become better acquainted with the wonderful world of books. As with all things, good reading habits must be set by the parents, she said.

Mr. Brown spoke regarding the school rink and it was decided the parents would assist in supervising the rink on Saturdays, with hockey in th morning and skating only in the afternoon.

There being a large attendance of parents Mr. Brown gave the attendance award for the evening.

Mrs. Cozens and the Grade one mothers served a delicious lunch, while the carol singing which had been tape recorded was played back.

Laff it off

A Texan who had hit it real big in oil made England his first stop on a Continental tour. With trademark Texas modesty, he ridiculed the small country wherever he went, at the same time extolling the incredible vastness of the Lone Star state. At one pub, a skeptical Britisher inquired the exact dimensions of that wonderful Texas.

"Why," explained the visitor, "I couldn't tell you in square miles, but if you were to get on a train you'd still be in Texas twenty-four hours later."

"So what?" retorted the Englishman. "We've got trains like that here too."

Taken Literally!

Here's one that was bound to happen.

A radio station in Houston, Texas has a pee-wee — "Behind Prison Walls" — featuring convicts from Ramsey State Prison. For 283 consecutive weeks, the station brought convicts to its studio to record the show and there was never any trouble.

Today, the inevitable occurred. Two convicted robbers — one a trumpeter and the other a trombonist—slipped away from their guards and escaped in an auto that had been parked outside the studio.

The station announced sadly that future "behind prison walls" shows would live up to the name.

Three Join Rotary Club At Fenelon

Fenelon Falls (PNB) — Three members were inducted at the Thursday dinner meeting of Fenelon Falls Rotary Club in the Dutch Windmill Restaurant. They are: Sr. Major Earle Harris, who was a Rotarian in Truro, Nova Scotia; Mr. H. B. MacLean, formerly a member of the Millsway Club and Mr. Morley Yearwood, a new member. The four avenues of Rotary were read and explained prior to the actual induction ceremony. The evening was spent in filling bags with candy to be given to the kiddies at the Annual Santa Claus parade.

144 VON Visits Made In Month; To Raise Rates

The December meeting of Lindsay Victoria Order of Nurses was held in the Town Hall.

The report given by Miss Dick stated that 144 visits were made during the month of November of which 121 visits were to patients requiring nursing care, remaining visits were of an instructive nature.

The second series of Prenatal Classes was ended during the month. A total of nine lectures were given to 12 girls. A tour of the maternity wing of the hospital was arranged for the expectant mothers.

The VON announced that because of a rising cost of V.O.N. service it was deciding to raise the fee 50 cents per visit, from $1.50 to $2.00 per visit. However, those unable to meet the full sum would be able to make other financial arrangements with the nurse, a spokesman declared.

PHOTOS PRINTED BY BAKING IN OVEN

—Central Press Canadian

Evla Kresge of the U.S. Signal Corps Engineering Laboratories, Fort Monmouth, N.J., uses asbestos gloves to remove a "baked snapshot"—a plastic picture—after developing it like a cookie for five minutes at 320-350 degrees Fahrenheit. The new picture-making technique requires no darkroom or photo chemicals. Heat alone brings out the image on the plastic-based print after a five-second exposure to ultraviolet light.

St. Mary's Christmas Concert Tells Story With Fine Moral; Large Crowds In Attendance

"The performance of these children, and their telling of "The Wonderful Story" should help us all to have a better Christmas than ever before," said Father Quinnelle, of Peterborough speaking at the conclusion of the second evening's showing of the Christmas concert by the children of St. Mary's School. Other speakers also commented most enthusiastically on the high ability of the concert, given by the children under the direction of their teachers; the choirs were well trained, and the actors in the play "The Giver of Gifts" had a sincerity that gave a professional touch to their performances.

After a welcome spoken by one of their number, a serious little choir of Grades four and five, sang two carols in unison, (and they sang them very well) and this was followed by a merry number by the pupils of Grade one, which caused much laughter. More carols by the boys of grades six, seven, and eight, were followed by a jolly huntsman drill and pantomime by the boys of Grade five. Grades three and four gave a charming little choral reading of "A Child's visit to the Crib," and a choir of the girls from grades six, seven and eight sang two really beautiful two-part numbers "Hasten Away" and "Adeste Fideles".

And then upon the stage the Mother Goose Picture book came to life; there was Mother Goose herself; there was the Queen of Hearts and Old King Cole; Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs; Jack Sprattt and Jack and Jill; there was Bo Peep; Bo-Peep and Jack Horner, there was Mistress Mary and Mary and Jay, there was the little girl with a curl and the Batchelor and his wife; there was Tom, Tom, and Little Red Riding Hood, not to mention all their attendants. And they sang, and they gambolled; their costumes were delightful, and the audience thoroughly enjoyed this effort by the children of Grades two and three.

After a short intermission, the Christmas play "The Giver of Gifts" opened on a young boy, who is telling his toy bear of how he is to sing in the church the next day, which is Christmas day. And he is told by his mother that his voice is a gift just lent to him by God. The second scene, which was extremely well done, was of the visitation of the Angel Gabriel to the Shepherds on the hillside. The third scene finds the boy and his sister at the stable in Bethlehem, and the boy finds that, although he has the lovely voice, the Christ Child cannot come it because of the child's selfish pride in his voice. When he is shown that only a gift of love is acceptable, the boy's song of adoration is heard by the Christ child.

Musical numbers were given during the evening by three young pianists and carols both before the concert and during the intermission were played by members of the Lindsay Kitsmen Boys' Band, and were much enjoyed.

The concert played to a capacity crowd both evenings, and there were many comments from the audience that they hoped it would become an annual affair.

Wine Christmas Cake.

The lucky winner of a large iced Christmas cake, looking just like a fairy castle in silver and white — was last night won by R. Otto, of Coboconk. The cake had been made by Mrs. Leo O'Reilly, and iced by Sister M. Raymond, and tickets had been sold for the P.T.A. by the children of St. Mary's School. The draw was made at the conclusion of the second performance of the Christmas Concert at St. Mary's Auditorium.

Stop At 14 Motels On Florida Trip

Reabore (PNB) — Mrs. Kenneth Thorn has returned from an enjoyable trip to Florida where she was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Victor Calvert, and Mrs. Elwood Smith, of Lindsay. They spent a week touring points of interest in Florida which included Miami, St. Petersburg and the Cypria gardens and a week en route stopping at other places of interest in the States. They were overnight guests at 14 different motels and were very much impressed by their attractive appearance, beautiful rooms and every comfort for very reasonable rates. Pay, was also added to make this a most pleasant holiday for them.

Mrs. M. Finney Bethany W.A. New President

Bethany (PNB)—There were 27 members present at the meeting of the Women's Association of the United Church held at the parsonage. Mrs. Frank Bigelow presided for the devotional period which included singing of the theme song, Psalm 128 read as the scripture lesson by Miss Maude Rodwell, and Thoughts on The Lesson given by Mrs. Bigelow, who also led in prayer.

The financial report given by Mrs. Finney showed a very encouraging report for a substantial bank balance.

Mrs. Gervin Mulligan presented the report of the nominating committee which was unanimously approved. Rev. R. R. Bonsteel conducted the installation of the new officers, for 1957 as follows: President, Mrs. Manuel Finney; first vice-president, Mrs. Thomas Jennings; second vice-president, Mrs. J. P. Henderson; Secretary, Mrs. Mervyn Portman; Treasurer, Mrs. Walter Neals. Mr. Bonsteel expressed appreciation of the work and loyalty of the officers retiring in 1956 with special thanks to Mrs. Bigelow for her excellent leadership during the past two years. Mrs. Bigelow expressed her thanks for the fine co-operation received from all members and offered congratulations to the new executive.

The members expressed sincere thanks to Mrs. Winnifred Spencer for her gift of additional new dishes for his church kitchen. The sum of $45.00 was donated towards the church missionary and maintenance fund.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Thomas Malcomson, who conducted an impressive candlelight service "Unto Us A Child is Born." Christmas carols were sung. Mrs. Preston Neals read the story of a Christmas Pageant. Mrs. Bonsteel showed section pictures of the Christmas story "Holy Night". The closing hymn was "Oh Little Town of Bethlehem," and the new President, Mrs. Finney pronounced the benediction.

During the social hour, Mrs. Bonsteel conducted a contest. "Bible Musicians". Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Milton Wright, Mrs. Donald Lowes, Mrs. P. Neals and Mrs. T. Malcomson.

New Canadians And Members Of Kawartha I.O.D.E. Meet At Jolly Christmas Party

New Canadians and members of the Kawartha Chapter I. O. D. E. met together on Tuesday evening at a jolly Christmas party in the I. O. O. F. hall. Mrs. T. A. Quinn, who capably convened the event, and Mrs. J. Beall, the regent of the chapter, made everyone welcome. At the end of the regular meeting the visitors were able to witness the installation ceremonies of three new members of the chapter, Mrs. G. U. Reid, Mrs. L. Davis, and Mrs. B. M. Macfarlane. Constituents were given to these members by Mrs. H. L. Lancaster, and Mrs. K. W. Griffin presented the pins of the order.

It was decided to join with the other I. O. D. E. chapters in the placing of a wreath at the Cenotaph at Christmas time. A display of quilts, knitting and sewing, ready for shipment to Europe and England was admired by everyone present.

The visitors led by Mr. Mendi Arenda sang several songs of their homeland. Miss Pina and Alice Marcus contributed two very fine duets.

In the scrambled word contest Mrs. Waklatsith won the prize and Mrs. C. Weisenthiizer received her prize for having the largest Christmas smile.

Mrs. W. R. Allely showed some beautiful dishes of the Canadian provinces which were very much appreciated.

Bags of candies and fruit were passed to the children. Then all gathered around the tea table, centred with a large Christmas candle, and enjoyed refreshments as well as interesting conversation with their new neighbours.

GRADES 4, 5, 6 PUPILS PRESENT PAGEANT AT KING ALBERT HOME & SCHOOL MEETING

The special Christmas programme arranged for the December meeting of the King Albert Home and School Association attracted a very large gathering of parents and friends. Mr. Neville's room won the attendance cup and also the award for the largest number of fathers present.

Following a very short business period, under the chairmanship of the president, Mrs. McGill and a period of familiar Christmas carols, the gathering was entertained by a delightful Christmas pageant entitled "The Shepherd Who Did Not Go". The Shepherd boy, David, upon hearing the glad tidings of the Messiah's birth, wanted to go with the other Shepherds to worship Him, but because of his duty he tend his sheep he felt he could not. It is the story of how he did at last, see the Infant Jesus.

Mr. pageant was very ably directed by Mr. Laurenson with Grades four-five and six participating. Grade four pupils, told the story in choral verse while pupils of grade five sang Christmas carols, interspersed throughout.

Mr. Laurenson has been commended on his very fine work in training the children who enacted their parts so very well.

Mrs. R. Graham, programme convenor, thanked Mr. Laurenson and Prof. Fletcher for their work in producing the pageant. The meeting closed with the singing of the national anthem.

The children enjoyed a treat of ice cream and cookies in their respective rooms while the parents were served refreshments with a Christmas flavour.

REVERSING TABLES ON SANTA CLAUS

Anyone would expect Santa Claus to have every child as a friend, but for Santa this can be embarrasing. When the temperature rose to near 70 degrees in New York city, the old gentleman, used to Polar cold, was nearly prostrate. So Margaret Knox, age two and a half, came to his rescue, mopping his brow—and at the same telling his what she expected in her Christmas stocking.

Coronation Lodge, N. Verulam Dedication and Installations

North Verulam held their meeting with 36 members present. A welcome was extended distinguished guests who included Right Worshipful Sister Rose Sexsmith, Grand Mistress of Ontario East; Right Worshipful Sister Myrtle Shroats, Junior Deputy Grand Mistress of Ont. East; Sister May Caird, Past Mistress of Eastern Star Lodge and Sister Hazel Malcolmson, all of Peterborough and also Sister Laura McCollum of Omemee.

As each one was welcomed, a Christmas corsage was pinned on them by Sister Mary Granaden.

After other items of business were dealt with, Worthy Mistress Sister Betty Armstrong asked he Right Worshipful Sister Rose Sexsmith to preside at the dedication ceremony. Those who assisted were: Right Worshipful Sister Edith Benton; Right Worshipful Sister Myrtle Sproats who prepared the dedication ceremony; Chaplain Sister Doris Granaden; Deputy Mistress Sister May Caird; First Lecturer Sister Debby Perryman; Director of Ceremonies, Sister Ruby Pletz; Junior Deputy Mistress, Sister Mildred Kerr; Second Lecturer, Sister Orlee Stewart.

The ceremony consisted of dedication of the Bible, which was presented to the Lodge by Right Worshipful Sister Lillian Milligan, then Grand Grand Mistress from Cornwall when the Lodge was instituted. The Emblems were donated by Brother Gilbert Granaden. The Altar Cloth which was donated by Sister Laura McCollum and the flags.

Then following the installation of officers. Once again Sister Betty Armstrong asked the Right Worshipful Sister Rose Sexsmith to preside. Sister Sexsmith then appointed Right Worshipful Sister Myrtle Sproats as director of ceremonies. Right Worshipful Sister Edith Benton as Chaplain; Sister Hazel Malcomson as Deputy Mistress; Sister May Caird as Recording Secretary; Sister Margaret Coulter as Inner Guard.

After all were installed Right Worshipful Sister Rose Sexsmith wished the newly-installed Worthy Mistress Sister Edna Kelly every success in her new undertaking and turned the meeting over to her.

Sister Kelly thanked the lodge for electing her as their Worthy Mistress and expressed appreciation to the Grand Lodge officers and others who had assisted in any way. She then asked the Grand Mistress to address the meeting, which she did in her very capable manner. Others who spoke were Right Worshipful Sister Edith Benton; Right Worshipful Sister Myrtle Sproats; Sister May Caird; Sister Laura McCallum; Sister Ruby Pletz.

Right Worshipful Sister Rose Sexsmith was presented with a gift from the lodge by Sister Betty Armstrong. Sister Sexsmith thanked them.

HOSPITALIZED

Haliburton (PNS) — Friends of Mrs. Lewis Pritchard are sorry to hear she is a patient in the Bracebridge Memorial Hospital where she was to undergo surgery. Her many friends hope for a full recovery soon

Attractive Gifts For Newlyweds

Valentia (PNS) — A presentation and shower for newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Stokes nee (Marjorie Braden) ang Mr. and Mrs. Tyson Griffith nee (Carol Morris) was held at the school house.

The young folks enjoyed dancing to the music by the Gilson family of Pleasant Point.

Approx. 11 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Stokes were called on to take the two chairs at the front when Mr. Jos. Cockrill read an address. Mr. Ben Howlett carried in the gifts and presented them to Wes and his bride. Among the presents was a lovely lace tablecloth and a coloured vase for the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Stokes thanked the Valentia people for the lovely gifts and invited all to come and visit them at Zion Mariposa.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffith were tendered a miscellaneous shower with Mrs. Ben Howlett reading the address. They were assisted by Mrs. Art Fields, Miss Stella Morris, and Mrs. Howlett in unwrapping the gifts, after which they thanked everyone for the useful gifts they had received and invited them to their home in Lindsay.

W.A. At Dunsford Earmarks $35 For Funds

Dunsford (PNS) — The Women's Association met in the United Church and opened its meeting with the hymn hymn and prayer by the president, Mrs. Jean Kennedy.

In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Atwell read the minutes of the previous meeting and Mrs. Max Kennedy gave the treasurer's report and the cheer report showed four home calls and eight hospital calls.

Group leader, Mrs. Ivan Thurston presided for the programme. A remembrance paper was read by Mrs. Ivan Thurston and the scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Hood as was the topic on "A Deepey Note Than Victory." A reading by Mrs. Wannamaker, "When Peace Broke His Arm", closed the program period.

During the business period it was decided to pay for the quilting material, see about purchase of a studio couch for the parsonage, and send Christmas cards and remembrances to shuting and others they wished to remember.

The December meeting hostess is Mrs. Allan Kennedy. The election of officers will take place at this meeting on the 21th.

It was moved by Mrs. Alex Robertson and seconded by Mrs. Atwell that the W. A. contribute $10.00 to the W. M. S. allocation and $25.00 to the Missionary and Maintenance Fund.

Violet Fader

Haliburton (PNS) — Mrs. Elder Fader passed away suddenly at her home in West Guilford on Tuesday December 4th after a short illness. She was in her 71st year.

Her death marks the passing of one of the pioneer residents of Haliburton. Her maiden name was Violet Sisson and her first husband was the late Bert Fry. They spent many years in the Gillies and raised a large family. The late Mr. Fry built a blacksmith shop and residence where he catered to the people in the community for a long time.

Moving to West Guilford Mr. Fry passed away and a few years ago his wife remarried. She was a kindly woman and had spent a busy life.

Beside her husband she leaves five daughters and two sons.

The funeral was held on Friday and interment was made in Maple Lake Cemetery.

Baskets of Fruit Are Presented To Patients

The Queen Street Y.P.U. held its meeting and after rallying at the church 24 members proceeded to Spruce Lawn Rest Home where they presented each patient with a basket of fruit. The group then sang Christmas carols to the ladies and gentlemen. Mrs. Burke thanked the group and presented them with a gaily-wrapped gift in appreciation.

The group returned to the church where worship service was held under the leadership of Clarke Birchard who chose as his theme "Our Christian Duty."

During the business period a motion was made that $10.00 be donated to the Martin family whose home had been damaged by fire that day. It was announced that a Christmas party will be held at the home of Betty Preston.

President of the union, John Moore, thanked the members for their support and co-operation in the past year, and he wished the new officers success.

Rev. W. J. March took over the later part of the meeting, and the slate of officers for 1956-57 whom the nominating committee had suggested was approved and elected. Mr. March then invested the new officers.

Laff it off

To show that barber shops never change, the manufacturer of a well-known hair lotion tells about an incident in Greece over 2,000 years ago. A citizen named Phocion had been sitting in silent exasperation while his barber was giving him a complete rundown on the weather. At last the barber asked, "And now, how would you like your hair trimmed."

"In silence," snapped Phocion.

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

He that loseth his life . . . shall find it. —Matthew 10:39.

The fall of Rome was in part explained by the fact that Roman nobility tried to avoid disfiguring scars in battle. Life is an all out proposition if we want to win laurels.

Mayor Appeals For Safe Yuletide Driving

"Should Aim At Accident-free Year"... Chief Magistrate

Holiday safety has become one of the prime concerns of municipal government, Mayor A.E. Hick stated today in a pre-Christmas announcement. All citizens were asked to co-operate in a drive against holiday accidents which each year take an increasing toll.

"We have established many records of which we can be proud during the past decade," the Mayor stated, "but there is one record which we should all eagerly seek. This year, we should work for a no-fatality record throughout our community. We should reveal our civic intelligence by proving that in this community an automobile is a modern convenience, not a weapon for mass killing.

The accident problem, the Mayor added, is heightened during the period of holiday celebrations. Ordinarily cautious drivers sometimes give way to holiday spirit and though their intentions are good, the end results can be bad.

To avoid tragic endings to holiday celebrations, Mayor A.E. Hick made the following suggestions:

1. On the way to and from celebrations, use taxis or buses and leave the car at home.

2. If you must drive your own car, make it a point to restrict your drinks to coffee or other alerting beverages.

3. More than at any other time, be a courteous driver. Give pedestrians and other drivers the right of way.

4. If you are tired, don't drive. Fatigue is one of the greatest of driving hazards.

5. Drive slowly, obey all traffic rules and keep a fair distance from the car ahead.

6. When you are the host, have consideration for your guests' safety too. Don't encourage them to overindulge; have pots of hot coffee available to serve departing guests.

By staying alert and staying alive, every citizen is making a contribution to his community", the Mayor concluded.

62 Years Together, Manvers Couple Happy, Healthy; Maxim: Be Temperate

Now nearing 90, husband loves circuses, Attended 89 shows in his lifetime

Bethany (PNS) — Bethany and community are happy to extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mitchell, two of the oldest residents of Manvers township, on the occasion of their 62nd wedding anniversary on December 11. Both are life-long residents of the district.

Until four years ago when Mrs. Mitchell suffered a fractured hip in a fall at home, they were living on their farm on the 10th concession of Manvers, just east of Highway 35, about 12 miles south of Lindsay. The new highway is being built through this property, which is now the farm of Mr. Earl Shea.

In this location and in two farm-or-home nearby, the couple were within walking distance of their childhood homes and were only outside the community for a period of nine years when Mr. Mitchell took charge of Nestonville Public School. In spite of advanced years, Mrs. Mitchell made a quick and complete recovery from her injury and was soon out of hospital. She reluctantly agreed to leave her own home and to reside with her husband at the home of his nephew with their only son, Edison, and his family.

Mrs. Mitchell was born Esther Emma Wilson, eldest daughter in a family of 10 children born to George and Elizabeth (Staples) Wilson, on October 13th, 1887, the year of Confederation. Her sisters, Gertrude (Mrs. Edward Weatherit) lives at Little Britain. Lily (Mrs. Richard Matchett) resides in Cavan; Edna (Mrs. Alan Irvine) R. R. No. 5, Lindsay; and Blanche (Mrs. D. W. Armstrong) is in Toronto. The other members of her family Mary (Mrs. Duncan Heatlip of Janetville); Susan, Anna (Mrs. J. P. Franks, Kitchener) and two brothers Archibald W. Wilson and Thomas Wilson are all deceased. Thomas Wilson was one of the pioneer druggists of Bobcaygeon, before leaving to operate his own drugstore in Buffalo, N.Y. The Wilson family was widely known and highly regarded in the district.

Mr. Mitchell is the youngest son of the late William Mitchell and his wife, the former Margaret McNeill and is the sole surviving member of their family of seven sons and two daughters: Martha (Mrs. Joseph Sutton) who moved to Roland, Man.; James, of Lindsay; Lizzie of Albany, N.Y.; John, of Lindsay; Hugh, Charles Mary (Mrs. Samuel Bruce); Robert of Souris, Man., are all deceased. Edward Mitchell was born in Cavan township on April 26th, 1868, but moved to his present home when five years old. He attended Fleetwood public school, Lindsay Model School and Collingwood Collegiate Institute before entering and graduating from Ottawa Normal School. He taught his home school at Fleetwood for four years; at Lifford School for a record-breaking period of 26 years, and prior to his retirement, at Nestonville, Ont. for nine years. After 39 years spent in the teaching profession he resumed the farm life, which he had never entirely forsaken and lasted until 1957, in ranching his several farm properties.

With the exception of one vacation spent in a trip to England in the company of a contemporary in school-teaching, the late Albert Mills, and another in a visit to relatives in Manitoba, Edward Mitchell preferred to spend his school vacations either working on his farm or on an excursion boat that operated on the Kawartha Lakes. This boat was owned by the late Dr. McCauslin and operated by a brother Thomas McCauslin, who died last November at the advanced age of 96 years.

Loves The Circus

Mr. Mitchell was never attracted to social or fraternal societies and except for a minor interest in baseball and a passionate fondness for the circus, devoted his time and energy to teaching and farming. He seldom missed a circus and boasts that he has attended 89 big shows. Now that the advent of television into his home brings such programmes regularly, he is able to continue his pursuit of the circus.

In his younger days Mr. Mitchell was interested in the work of St. Mary's Anglican Church at Lifford. Mrs. Mitchell was equally valuable in her services as Church organist. While living at Nestonville, they identified themselves with the United Church, which was closer to the faith of the Christian Temperance Union to which Mrs. Mitchell belonged in her youth. Both have been keen students of the Bible.

Recalls Changes

Mr. Mitchell has seen many changes in the churches, schools and homes of the district and his exceptional memory for names and events make him outstanding as a source of reference for past personnel of the district. In his day, 50 was the average attendance at the local school and few were brought by sleigh or buggy. Now, 20 pupils are all that are on the roll. As a young lad he walked the distance (4a) well at did his wife: the long way to Lifford School without being many days absent or late. Mr. Mitchell approves the easy transportation methods for school pupils of today and envisions a move to more consolidated schools.

He is much less inclined to favor the movie lessons and the pedals of learning within the school and less rigid discipline. Mr. Mitchell was relentless in the discharge of his duties as a teacher. He won the approval and admiration of his school inspector for his successful methods.

Shared Husband's Life

Unfortunately, the salary of the public school teacher in the late 80's and first quarter of this century was never very ample, that was the reason for his continuing farming activity and it proved successful financially. Mrs. Mitchell has always shared her husband's interests, a careful, thrifty housekeeper and happy in her wifely duties even in advanced years. She took an active in-terest during the yearly butter, baking bread, tending a garden and raising fowl at an age when most women are no no longer independent of help for lighter duties. Except for this fondness for garden and fowl, she was not an out-of-doors worker. She definitely disapproves the trend of many to work with tractors, as their husband's work, but has herself worked equally hard and long at the lighter chores and the sewing and mending that come after hours. Mrs. Mitchell shared fully her husband's ambition to succeed financially and they have seen their ambition realized.

Mr. Mitchell's maxim in life has been to be temperate in all things and he has preferred quiet rural life. It is his habits to get up very early, keep busy, avoid worry and tension and never keep late hours.

The couple had a daughter who died in infancy and one son, Edison John Edward Mitchell, who graduated from Peterborough Normal School, but as his father before him, has settled for farm life. He and his wife, the former Edna Blackwood have two sons, Earl Douglas aged 8 years and Gordon Edison, 5 who are the delight of their grandparents. The veteran teacher has recaptured peak interest in school curriculum and methods as he happily helps to instruct his older grandson in his daily lessons.

In Excellent Health

Both Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, whose physical and mental health are excellent, retain youthful energy. Last spring when road breaking up prohibited motors on his sideroad, Mr. Mitchell was glad to be able to walk to the highway, over a mile distant for his mail. Mrs. Mitchell for her part, brushes aside offers of assistance with "You would think I was some old Granny" making true that saying "Some are aged before they are old, some are old but are not aged."

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell both nearing 90, do surely belong in the latter group.

This moderatenatious couple would have had this occasion, like earlier milestones go unmarked, but it actually is a matter of real pride to them that they have been greatly honoured by receiving telegrams of congratulations from Her Royal Highness, Queen Elizabeth; another from Hon. Louis St. Laurent, Prime Minister of Canada; from the Premier of the Province, Hon. Leslie M. Frost; from John James, M.P. and from Hon. John Foote, M.P.P. A beautiful sacroll-type greeting was received from the secretary of the Province of Ontario.

Turn Over $1,110 To Lindsay Drives

The Lindsay Kiwanis Club has announced two substantial contributions to community projects.

A spokesman for the club has revealed Friday that it has turned over $1,010 in cash to the Ross Memorial Hospital Expansion Fund and that an additional $100 has been raised by the club for the Santa Claus Stocking Fund.

There is a personal link between the designated gifts which isn't at first apparent to newcomers to Lindsay. Mr. T.H. Stinson, long-time Kiwanian, is also a veteran of many years service on the Ross Memorial Hospital's Board of Governors. He has also served as chairman of the Stocking Fund since it was started.

Chicken Dinner Served To L.A. Final Meeting

Janetville (PNS) — The final meeting for 1956, was held by the Ladies Auxiliary of the local Presbyterian Church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McGill, on the 14th Con. of Manvers and was well attended.

The president, Mrs. M. Wright presided, and the meeting was opened with the singing of a Christmas hymn.

The minutes and correspondence were read by the secretary, Mrs. H. Johnston, the latter including letters of "Season's Greetings" from Mrs. Chas. McNeil of Pontypool and Mrs. Wm. Lawrenson of Toronto, also a note from Mr. and Mrs. Allan Morton acknowledging a remembrance received during their recent bereavement.

Plans were made to send Christmas treats and cards to any local shut-ins, and also to Mrs. Harry Walters and Mr. J. J. McGill, who are patients in the Port Perry hospital.

Homes were then offered for the meetings of the coming year and Mrs. W. McGill and Mrs. T. Mulligan were appointed to arrange programs.

In response to an appeal, it was decided to send $5.00 to the "Armadale" Home in Toronto.

The following program of readings was much enjoyed: "Its Christmas", by Mrs. Oscar Armstrong; "If", Mrs. T. Mulligan; "A Trap", Mrs. N. Bowen; "The Beast in the Stable", Mrs. Tait and "Adventuring," Mrs. E. Archer.

The afternoon was most pleasantly climaxed by the serving of a hot roast chicken dinner with all the extras, such as Christmas pudding icing cake, by Mrs. McGill and her assistants, Mrs. W. Staples, Mrs. Tony Marshall and Mrs. Mulligan. An expression of thanks was tendered the hostesses by Mrs. H. Johnston.

Would Review Labor Legislation

Ottawa, Dec. 13—(BUP)—An immediate review of all national labor legislation may be undertaken if a Conservative government is elected to Ottawa at the next general election.

It was promised in one of the platform planks which the Conservative National Convention was asked to consider, today.

Egg Price Support Stays

The government's price support on eggs will be maintained during 1957.

Agriculture Minister James Gardiner announced the support will be 38 cents a dozen, the same as applied in 1956. —BUP

Stole $5,000 Coin Collection, Gets Two Years, Less Day

Magistrate H. I. Moore this morning sentenced a young Lindsay man to the Ontario Reformatory for a period of two years less one day after the accused had pleaded guilty to a charge of theft of a $5,000 coin collection, the property of Miss Ethel Flavelle of town. The sentence is to run concurrent with a six-month sentence passed on the man two weeks ago when he had been found guilty of breaking, entry, and theft from Mr. Pat Jakins' business premises on Cambridge St. N.

The accused had been remanded twice by magistrate as police had intended to return an accomplice from Toronto who was facing a charge of indecent assault. However, since the accomplice was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary last week, Crown officials say they decided against returning him to Lindsay on the additional charge.

The accused had pleaded guilty previously to having entered the Flavelle residence early last fall and stealing the coin collection from a case in a recreation room. Police recovered almost the entire collection a few weeks ago . . . . most of it being found hidden in a culvert outside the town limits. Other portions of the collection were returned to police by several Lindsay residents who had reportedly purchased coins in good faith from the accused.

THE FIRST CHRISTMAS, 1956 YEARS AGO

Santa Claus Visits K of C Yule Party

The annual Christmas party for the children of the Knights of Columbus was held in their rooms on Sunday evening. At 7.30 p.m. the hall was filled with 150 happy little people and the program got under way with Brother Art Plumpton as M.C.

After several recitations and songs he called on the genial and popular G. K. Grant Willis who welcomed the children and their parents. He also assured them that Santa was drawing near.

Brother Joe Kirley, Treasurer of Lindsay Council and Chairman of the Christmas party committee, got a telegram that Santa would arrive at 8.00 p.m.

To the tune of "Jingle Bells" and some big "ho-hos" he arrived just on time at the beautiful tree, nicely decorated for the purpose. Santa was assisted by Brothers Phil Polito, Russ Williamson, Geo. Keenan and Tom Hutchinson. After the distribution of toys and candies, followed by the taking of some photos by Bro. Ken Grace, the grand old gentleman left with the promise he would visit them again on Christmas even and next year too if they were real good children.

Offers Reward For Remedy For Piles

There's a man in Georgetown, Ontario, who is offering a reward for a pile remedy which was known and sold in Lindsay about 25 years ago. The gentleman in question has written the following letter to "The Post" and asked the newspaper to advertise the fact that he is willing to pay a reward of $5.00 for information which will lead to the recovery of the pertinent remedy.

We publish the letter below, omitting the sender's name because of the personal nature of the matter under discussion. Any information relative to the prescription may be submitted to "The Post" and the contact will be placed in touch with the man offering the reward.

Here is the letter:

Georgetown, Ont.,
Dec. 8th, 1956

Wilson & Wilson, Lindsay,

Dear Sirs—

Some years ago (20) while living in Lindsay, I was troubled with Hemmorhoids; and was advised to get a local remedy, which could be had at any of the drug stores. This was so effective that I never was troubled with them again until recently. I was in Lindsay last month, but none of the present druggists can find the perscription, although Neil Gregory can remember putting it up. I believe it was also in possession of a good many residents of the town and I would be willing to pay $5.00 or even more to get a copy of it. I am enclosing check for $8.00 which should cover above $5.00 and pay for 2 insertions of enclosed ad. If any response, you pay them and forward reply to me. If this $8.00 does not cover expenses, let me know and I shall send you the balance.

Yours very truly.

Advt.—$500 reward will be paid to the first person who will deliver to the office of "The Post", a copy of old prescription for treatment of piles, in common use in Lindsay 25 years ago.

WA-WMS Attendance Reported Affected Due To Bad Weather

Woodville W. A. of St. Andrew's Church, Eldon, met at the home of Mrs. G. Telford. Due to bad weather conditions the attendance was small.

As this was the Christmas meeting the W. A. and W. M. S. held their programme together. The worship service in the Glad Tidings was conducted by Mrs. E. Jewell. Mrs. J. Torrey reading the parts. Several verses of the Christmas hymns "Close All Ye Palaces", "Joy to the World" and "As With Gladness Men of Old" were sung. Mrs. Douglas MacEachern sang a Christmas solo with guitar accompaniment and Mrs. J. Torrey gave a Christmas reading "The Legend of the Black Madonna." Mrs. E. Jewell led in prayer.

Mrs. J. Torrey took the chair for the business. It was decided to say the managers of the church fee a amount they need to complete the year. Homes were offered for the coming year and it was decided to have a verse of scripture containing a certain word for each month for roll calls. Mrs. M. Graham and Mrs. F. Smith were appointed group leaders.

Officers for 1957 are: President, Mrs. J. Torrey; vice-pres., Mrs. R. McEachern; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Douglas MacEachern; organist, Mrs. D. H. McEachern.

FIVE CARS PILE UP IN SAME SPOT IN MIDNIGHT KENT ST. ACCIDENTS

Two separate accidents, occurring at exactly the same time and in the same place, and involving a total of five cars, kept two Lindsay policemen busy shortly after midnight Saturday.

According to police reports, it all started when a car being driven east on Kent St. stopped for a traffic light at Cambridge St. The driver was Alvin Robertson, 16, of Omemee. A second car, driven by Donald Angiers, 27, of Lindsay, stopped directly behind the Robertson car. However, police stay that a third car driven by Howard Black, 20, of Cartwright township, collided with the rear of the second car, pushing it forward into the rear of the first car. Police state that Mr. Black volunteered the information that he did not see the cars in time to stop. Total damage to the three cars is placed at $800.

While Sgt. G. R. Keech was investigating this accident, another similar pileup took place in front of Arnold Motors, when a car driven by Lorne Taylor, 18, of Lorneville, had stopped behing two other cars which were waiting for the traffic light to change.

A second car driven by Paul Costello, 20, of Peterborough, is reported to have collided with the rear of the first car Mr. Costello told police he had been looking for a restaurant at the time of the accident. Total damage in this case was estimated at $90. There were no injuries, reported in either mishap. Constable R. W. Bailey investigated the latter.

Chief of Police John Hunter said the investigation is continuing.

ROTARY BRINGS SANTA CLAUS TO FENELON

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — The Rotary Hobo Band led by a tall stately bandmaster in "Top Hat and Tails" really stole the show at the Santa Claus parade. The Rotarians went all out both in costumes and instruments and their music was a sharp study in contrasts with that provided by the Bowmanville Boys' Training School Band, who led the parade. An authentic Scottish note of music was added by local pipers, Henderson McIntyre, Hunter Smith, and Clifford McIntyre.

Mother Goose characters such as "Humpty Dompty," "The Old Woman in the Shoe", and "Hickory Dickory Dock", predominated in the floats, but a number featured the traditional evergreens, a few with lighted Christmas trees. Humour and local interest was provided in practically all the exhibits and the Salvation Army float, depicted the Nativity Scene, with the shepherds. Spectators noticed one newly married couple starting out on their honeymoon in a buggy, driving a little white pony and many clowns, gnomes and wierd looking animals were an integral interesting part of the parade.

The central figure of the whole show, Santa Claus stood in the red chimney of his trim white house and called Christmas greetings to the spectators who lined the streets.

Santa's truck drew up on Francis Street, opposite the Post office where the Rotary Hobos demonstrated their versatility by helping Santa pass out bags of candy to the children, who were then the guests of the Rotary Club at a children's film in the Fenelon Theatre.

The parade is a co-operative effort of the business men and the Rotary Clubs and much credit is due to those who plan and work to make it an outstanding event, part of the traditional pre Christmas festivities in Fenelon Falls.

Laff it off

The story is told of the late Lloyd Paul Stryker, one of the greatest contemporary trial lawyers, that he was once angrily accosted by a man whose case he had beaten.

"I believe, Mr. Stryker," thundered the man, "that you would take a fee from the greatest scoundrel on earth!"

"Not so loud", cautioned Stryker, motioning the man to one side. "Now tell me", he whispered "what you have been doing?"

JAFF FORD INTERVIEWS INDIA'S FOREIGN MINISTER

Jaff Ford, widely-known and popular radio personality who left Lindsay a few months ago to take up his new duties at WGNS, Washington, has dropped a line to "The Post" advising of his latest work.

The card Mr. Ford sent bears the seal of the United Nations, New York, and he said that he had just completed a broadcast with Mr. V. K. Krishna Menon, India's foreign minister.

It is interesting to note that exactly one year ago today Mr. Ford portrayed the role of Santa Claus for the annual Christmas party of the RMH staff in the IOOF Hall.

Winning Ball Team Meets At Church

Valentia (PNS) — A special meeting was held on Sunday afternoon when the baseball boys marched into the church and sat in the centre aisle, being the winners in the Independent league. Mr. Mills was assisted by Mr. Bill Mark.

They were called to worship by a Christmas hymn "Angels From The Realms of Glory", and prayer by Mr. Mills. The scripture lesson was read by Mr. Bill Mark, then the choir rendered an anthem.

Mr. Mills then expressed his appreciation as well as all those in the congregation at having the ball players and their manager, Mr. Lorne Snoddon, for the service. The offering was received by Mr. Charlie Morris and Cecil Casey, and the offertory prayer by Mr. Mills.

A pleasing duet was rendered by Mrs. Mills and Miss Patsy Mark. Mr. Mills gave an interesting talk on "Sports", basing his remarks on three words: 1. Training, 2 Team Work, 3 Game of life.

Tells The Story Of 5,200-Mile Trip

Argyle (PNS) — The Lorneville-Argyle Branch of the W. I. held their monthly meeting in Argyle School.

The program was in charge of Mrs. H. Campbell assisted by Mrs. L. McPherson, Mrs. A. Moore and Mrs. A. Middleton. Mrs. W. Russell played the piano and the members all joined in sing sang Christmas carols.

Mrs. A. Middleton read a piece called "The Christian Spirit", Lorraine and Elizabeth McPherson favoured the audience with piano solos. Mrs. P. Goard gave an interesting account on her trip out west, on which her travelled 5,200 miles.

The audience sang more carols and later were paid a visit by Santa who distributed the gifts. The members were then served a tasty lunch and a social half-hour was enjoyed.

Diefenbaker PCs Choice Of Leader

Clear-cut Win On First Ballot

Ottawa, December 15—(BUP)—John Diefenbaker, "The Man From Lake Center" won a strong first ballot victory in the race for leader of the Conservative party Friday.

Diefenbaker	744
Fleming	393
Fulton	117

Fleming, the runner-up, immediately grabbed the microphones on the convention platform and moved that Diefenbaker's election be made unanimous. Fulton seconded the motion. Both congratulated Diefenbaker warmly.

Diefenbaker won the appelation, "The Man From Lake Center" in his first terms in parliament. The 61-year-old Saskatchewan lawyer now sits in parliament for Prince Albert.

Conservatives, in all parts of the hall went wild with the announcement — including most of the Quebecers.

Officers Elected By Valentia WA

Valentia (PNS) — The W. A meeting was held in the Sunday School room of the United church with a good attendance of members present. Mrs. Bob Snoddon and her group had charge of the devotional service with Mrs. Snoddon presiding. A poem was read by Mrs. Bob Snoddon.

Mrs. Russ Mark read the scripture lesson; Mr. Mills then offered prayer. The topic, "As Christmas Time," was given by Mrs. Art Baker. Mrs. Pete Hicks read a poem: Mrs. Bob Snoddon gave a reading "entitled, "What Do we get from Christmas". Mrs. Roy Grills, president then took the chair for the business period.

The minutes of the November meeting were read by Mrs. Ben Howlett, the roll was responded to by twenty members present and visitors. The flower report was given by Mrs. Ott Mark. Visiting report was responded to by Mrs. Mac Glassford, and Mrs. Lorne Snoddon. Mrs. Cecil Casey gave a good report of money raised and spent during the year, showing a balance of $29.96. Mrs. Lorne Snoddon gave a paper on Christmas Stewardship. A letter was read by Mrs. Roy Grills from Mrs. Elliott regarding the Albert College. It was decided to leave this over for the present time.

Mrs. Grills read a card of appreciation from Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Snoddon, sent to the W. A. for remembering them during their bereavement.

Mrs. Grills thanked all the varying committees for the work done during the past year, and declared all the offices open for the election for the coming year and called on the Minister, Mr. Mills to take charge of this election. It was moved and seconded that the officers remain the same and fill in any vacancies, with the following for 1957:

President, Mrs. Roy Grills; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. Charlie Morris; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. Art Hicks; Recording sec., Mrs. Ben Howlett, Corresponding sec., Mrs. Cephas Jordan; Treasurer, Mrs. Cecil Casey; Press Sec. School Festively Decorated During Children's Concert

Glenarm (PNS) — Zion (Fenelon) School was festively decorated with vari-colored Pom Poms, Rosettes, and ladder work for the seasonally fine concert presented by the pupils and their teacher, Mr. Keith Hargrave.

The opening selections were presented by the entire school with the numbers "A Welcome" and "Sing We To-day", after which Allen Henry, Bennie McGee and Lee Webster, favoured with a lovely piano duet, A jig "Chase of Hirch", where one of the pupils decided he wouldn't need a Geography or study of the different countries and their products was well given, after which piano solos were given by Katherine Sims, Lawrence Sims and Bonnie McGee.

Recitations as a group were given by some of the Junior pupils namely Jimmie Worsley, Margaret Bonstead, Sharlene Moynes and Wayne Donwell. An operetta enacted by Bennie McGee and Lee Webster "The Pot Has a Little Hole In It," was followed by a play "David Makes a Speech", depicting the trials of the household when their son forgot the speech he was to give at a gathering.

A vocal solo was enjoyed by Sharlene Moynes accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Morris Moynes after which "Tap Dancing" was enjoyed by Bonnie McGee. Their teacher Mr. Keith Hargrave accompanied during the evening. A drill "Ten Little Indians," in costume was given by a number of the Junior pupils while again piano solos were rendered by Allen Henry, Nancy Windebank and Terry Deane. Songs were given by a number of the senior pupils and a drill "Square Dance", and "Coming Round the Mountain" were exceptionally well done after which another piano by Lee Webster, Ray Windebank and Sandy Windebank was rendered.

While the children were preparing for a play "To the Fashion" and a lovely "Flashlight Drill" (when the lights were turned out to enhance those with flashlights to go through their drill to better advantage—Mr. Wilbert Worsley the very capable chairman of the evening remarked for a time on "The Rose Memorial Hospital Building Fund" and the appreciation of everyone in the community. He also called on a member of the school board for a few words, the latter adding his thanks to the teacher and pupils for their splendid concert.

Refreshments as a group were given by Betty Lou McLean, Lawrence Sims and Philip Webster.

A Pageant, consisting of "The Shepherd Who Slept" and the closing recitation by Terry Deane was just completed in time, before the arrival of Santa Claus, who arrived after various holidups and accidents from time to time while making his trip from the North Pole and distributed the gifts from a gaily decorated Christmas tree, assisted by their teacher and some of the older children.

The chairman extended since thanks to the hostess, Mrs. Hargrave which was endorsed by parents and friends for the splendid concert, also concerts by preceeding teachers, which all had the pleasure of enjoying and with the singing of "The Queen", brought the 1956 (Zion) concert to a close.

"Yes, Virginia, There is a Santa Claus" Who can supply a copy?

A request has been made of "The Post" to endeavor to locate the text of a Christmas story which is usually circulated each year and is entitled "Yes Virginia, There Is a Santa Claus."

The story is reported to have originally appeared in the editorial of a New York newspaper several years ago. After a little girl had written the paper asking if there really was a Santa Claus. The reply was so poignant and moving that it has been reprinted in countless newspaper, and periodicals every year.

However, there was no copy available at the offices of "The Post" at the present time, but the paper agreed to make a request of any of its readers who might have a copy of the article, and inquire if the item might be borrowed for a day or two.

Council Quickies

BOXING DAY

Council has declared that Wednesday, December 26th shall be a holiday in Lindsay and banks and stores shall remain closed on that day.

LOTS OF SALT

Deputy-reeve Cameron told council that if anybody doesn't think we put salt on the roads, here's the proof: he indicated a bill from the Sifto Salt Co. for $461.20 for salt which has been purchased this year.

POLIO VACCINE

Dr. W. R. Crowe, the M. O. H. for Lindsay advised council that for 1957 he proposes to innoculate the following: 800 pre-schoolers, (three shots); booster shots for 1,037 public and separate school pupils; 4,531 innoculations for kindergarten and high school pupils. He said that anti-polio vaccine has been administered in Lindsay's kindergartens, public schools, separate schools, high school, and St. Joseph's Academy.

SEWAGE PLANT

On the recommendation of the town engineer, council has agreed to sell and additional 150 feet of land to the north of the sewage disposal plant for further development in the future.

CLEANING SEWERS

On hearing the accounts of the Board of Works, Mayor Hick noted that the costs were beginning to increase for the clearing of sewers. He asked if it might not be better for the town to get into the sewer cleaning business itself instead of subcontracting the work. Deputy-reeve Holmes pointed out that most of the town's laterals were very old and were being plugged with roots, etc. Council decided to continue letting the work out to Mr. George Finney who has the proper equipment for the job.

Mrs. G. Jamieson Glenarm Hostess

Glenarm (PNS) — Accepting the kind invitation of Mrs. Gordon Jamieson members of the Missionary Society of Glenarm held its regular meeting at her home. The President, Mrs. Clifford Hargrave, presided and opened the meeting with a Christmas prayer, after which Mrs. Wesley Black read the minutes of the November meeting which were approved on motion of Mrs. Inglis Jamieson.

Correspondence was read concerning the annual report—Auxiliary Literature Report; also a letter from Miss Bessie McMurchie, missionary in India. Miss McMurchie acknowledged with thanks box sent to her containing miscellaneous articles so hard to get in India and considered luxuries. Her letter dated November 8 was received with pleasure by the society informing them of the safe arrival, in good condition of the parcel. Also a letter of encouragement to the society from the retiring president of the Presbyterial who was always so willing to give her advice to the society. On motion of Mrs. Mac Murchison and approved by Mrs. Grantlin McKay, the purchase of the new Study Book for 1957 was sanctioned, also the gift of a Study Book from the society to the Mission Band. The proceeds arrived from the ladies, that upwards of $16 was derived from the weekend party and over $11 from the travelling apron. It was decided to purchase a Life Membership if enough funds were in the expense fund and any difference added to the general fund.

Mrs. Inglis Jamieson, Mrs. Stuart Morrison and the two presidents of the Missionary Society and Ladies Aid on motion of Mrs. Wm. Hoyle and Mrs. Fred Webster were asked to make out a new programme for 1957.

The Christmas Worship Service prepared by Miss Nellie Smith and taken from the Glad Tidings with Mrs. Clifford Hargrave—Mrs. Jas. E. Nesbitt and Mrs. Wm Hoyle as narrators while Mrs. Gordon Jamieson led in prayer. The hymns used throughout the service were Christmas numbers with Mrs. Victor Webster playing the accompaniment. Mrs. James R. Nesbitt and Mrs. Grantlin McKay gave two excellent Christmas readings, after which Mrs. Victor Webster and Mrs. James R. Nesbitt contributed a vocal number.

The ladies in charge of the meeting were Mrs. Grantlin McKay, Mrs. James Nesbitt and Mrs. Jack Clark and a large number was unable to be present. Mrs Hargrave contributed a reading on her behalf entitled "Why He Came" and also extended thanks to the hostess and ladies responsible for the splendid programme after which a lovely lunch was enjoyed including Christmas cake and a social time enjoyed.

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Ye shall know them by their fruits.—Matthew 7:16.

There used to be many debates between adherents of different creeds. We hear of none today. We judge creeds by their fruits. If claims square with performance most observers are satisfied.

Blythe IODE Joins Civil Defense Plan, Urge For Training

The monthly meeting of the Blythe Chapter I.O.D.E. was held in the I.O.O.F. Rooms with Regent Mrs P. McNabb presiding.

The meeting was opened for business. The secretary's report was read by Mrs. W. Roblin, followed by the treasurer's report read by Mrs. D. Grayson. Correspondence was then reported. A letter of appreciation from White Cane Society, thanking the Chapter who entertained them in November.

Nominations were received for the new executive for 1957-58. Mrs. R. Price, Educational Secretary reported that candy canes and a suitable gift would be presented to the Chapter's adopted school for Christmas.

Mrs. J. Purdy, Services at Home and Abroad stated that a food parcel would be delivered to a needy family for Christmas.

Mrs. T. Humphries, Empire and World Affairs Convenor gave a very interesting reading on civil defence. Mrs. Humphries pointed out that all should be prepared to give assistance to any neighboring cities, namely Toronto, should disaster strike. It was moved that the Chapter contact someone who has received training in this field to give some helpful assistance in forming a civil defence in Lindsay.

It was reported by Mrs. D. Grayson that pre-natal classes will be getting underway February or March under the supervision of the V.O.N.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. C. Bateman, convenor of the annual Blythe dance, which was held in November. Miss Bassman reported that she had received many favourable reports regarding the dance as being one of the nicer dances of the year. Paul Minaenia, who's ordeal was a splendid job stated that they would be pleased to play again for the dance next year. Mrs. Myers on Regent Street was the lucky winner of the fur coat draw.

The choral group who will be calling on the hospital and community home during the Christmas season entertained the chapter with some carols, putting everyone in the Christmas spirit. Mrs. McNabb wished everyone a joyous Yuletide holiday.

Wedding Griffin-Hie

Haliburton (PNS) — A very pretty wedding took place on Saturday, December 16th in the Baptist Church when Miss Geraldine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hie of Stouffville was united in marriage to Neil Victor Griffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Griffin of West Guilford. Rev. W. J. Robertson officiated at the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and she wore a dress of pale blue taffeta with a lace bodice and baby pink mums and rosebuds. Her sister Jinny was bridesmaid and her dress was pink nylon and she carried pink baby mums and roses. Mrs. Sidney Sisson was organist.

After the wedding a reception was held at the Canadian Legion Hall, Haliburton. Mrs. Milton Hie and Mrs. Ernest Griffin received. Mrs Hie wore a dress of Forest green sheer, and black accessories and her corsage was baby's breath and roses.

Mrs. Ernest Griffin wore a pale blue sheer and her corsage was pink roses.

The guests sat down to a lovely wedding supper and in the evening a dance followed. The happy couple received many lovely gifts. Relatives and friends from Toronto, Dorset, St. Catharines and Stouffville were present.

After a short honeymoon the young couple will reside in Toronto.

Omemee Hockey Club Now In E. Peterboro League

Omemee (PNS) — Omemee Hockey Club has been finally admitted to the East Peterboro League comprising some 10 teams namely — Havelock, Lakefield, Millbrook, Young's Point, Hiawatha, Hastings, Warsaw, Keen, Apsley and Omemee.

The league opens up after the Christmas season. Omemee arena so far has not ben roofed for the season with the tender being let only recently to the same operators, Messrs. Cecil Armstrong and Lorne English and the weather was very unsuitable for natural ice.

Last year Omemee entered two teams in different leagues. One group topped the league, the other fared not so well. With so many young men working shift work at the General Motors and elsewhere it was deemed impossible to venture too far.

Haliburton Huskies Are Well Supported By Local Merchants

Haliburton (PNS) — The Haliburton Huskies hockey executive met at the Legion with all members present except Marshall Leighton who was unable to attend.

Plans for the winter season were discussed and the players who will try for this year's team were lined up.

The committee, composing Ron. J. Curry, Stanley Parish and Dr. H. E. Good, gave their report on the money that they have received. Practically every man in business in the community has given $25.00 to put the Huskies on a good sound basis.

The executive of the club are also quite pleased with the way the local hockey fans have been giving one dollar each. This makes them all members of the Haliburton Huskie hockey team. The management are planning for a gala opening night with a monster parade and other special attractions.

ICE TROUBLES

Mr. Mark Scheffee defence star of the Haliburton Huskies was chosen at the last community centre board meeting to be the new manager for the Haliburton arena for the season of 1956-57. Mark who has played for the huskies for the past few seasons is putting in his second year as manager of the local arena.

He has been hard at work trying to get ice in the arena but unfortunately two or three mild spells have slowed down the flooding. The caretaker has had some good sheets of ice and in a few hours a mild spell comes along — and soft ice.

With less than a week to go it was not expected a good sheet of ice will be ready by Christmas. The curling club is in the same situation, waiting for ice. At a special meeting during the week pins were made for a great season of curling. Mr. Don Johnston was elected president for 1956-1957 season.

"Unfonetic" and Artificial, But Prescribed and Correct

At present visiting New York City, December 22, '56.

To Editor,
Lindsay Daily Post,
Lindsay.

Dear Sir:

Up to now I believed that the word "tasty" is spelled tasty, the word "doughnut" doughnut and the word "night" night. But it seems to me, I was mistaken. For I saw here in New York in many signs and advertisements that the first word is spelling tayste or tayste, the second word is spelled donut and the third word nite. So I opened a dictionary and sdiy, I was right, the correct spelling being tasty, doughnut and night. But I did not enjoy this confirmation. For I remembered our children, who are taught the right spelling in school, and see all over—not only in New York but also in Canada—in many signs, advertisements and especially in the so-called "funnies" the wrong spelling. The reason for this strange divergence is that the correct spelling of English words is not phonetic but very artificial. So a more phonetic and therefore easier spelling should be introduced by the Government. But as long as this is not done the prescribed and therefore correct spelling must be used, not only in schools but all over, to avoid confusion of the children and lack of confidence in their teachers, who teach them the artificial and difficult spelling.

Sincerely yours,
"Lindsay citizen."

Hats off my lads to the Board of Works,
For they did a whacking good job,
On icy patch, where disaster lurks,

John Dayman Acclaimed President Of The Legion

John Dayman has received an acclamation to the office of president of the Canadian Legion, Sir Sam Hughes Branch, 67, for his second term.

At the election held last week, a very small percentage of those eligible to cast a ballot reportedly did so. The 1957 executive is as follows:

AND NOW TO GET READY FOR HOGMANAY....

With Christmas past and many of us back in harness again after a hectic season of preparations for a celebration which passed all too swiftly, there is still another bright spot in the current calendar for many, especially those of scottish ancestry who consider hogmanay to be the occasion for merrymaking.

Hogmanay, which comes as the old year is supplanted by the new, is also a time for expressing good-will and affection through the gifts of cheer to whom it is desired to show open signs of esteem. In years past, a hogmanay custom which may still be practiced in some parts of the English-speaking world, consisted of letting the children go about singing on the last day of the year and receive for their songs a dole, as of cakes.

Webster's International Dictionary tells us that hogmanay is perhaps a dialectal form of the obsolete French word "acquilannouf" which is freely translated to mean "new year's day, new year's gift."

The Oxford English Dictionary interprets the word to mean "The last day of the year, on which children go about singing and receive a dole, as of cakes; also the entertainment given a visitor, or the gift given to an applicant . ."

But whatever the real meaning of the word "hogmanay," New Year's Eve as we in Canada know it, is an occasion for gay get-togethers. New Year's Day is, for some, the end of a long period of "high living" and the beginning of a time or restored perspective upon which they embark with courage and high resolve to make the New Year better than the old.

No tragedies here

But Motorists Hard-pressed For Gasoline, Police Say

Chief of Police John L. Hunter said today that the campaign by police and other civic bodies to drive with care and caution over the Christmas holiday, apparently has paid off better in Lindsay than in many other Canadian municipalities.

Chief Hunter said that there was only one very minor accident on Christmas day when two cars brushed each other doing slight damage. He said there was no one arrested for being drunk or impaired and there were no reports of any disturbances.

The police officer on duty during the day said that the only phone calls were from people requesting the time or attempting to locate a gas station which might be open.

NO GAS STATIONS?

Along the line, police say that there were no gas stations open in Lindsay during Christmas day, although there had been three scheduled to remain open.

It is reported that a considerable number of local motorists as well as tourists passing through town attempting to locate a service station which was open and therefore were compelled to purchase gas and other supplies at service stations outside of town.

Summary for Thursday—Milder.

Hodgson Haliburton-Bound When Car-Truck Collide; Report Roads Treacherous

Haliburton (PNS) — Provincial Constable F. J. Ricard reports that investigation is continuing into an accident near Minden Saturday evening which sent Lewis Hodgson, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hodgson and Bill Kellett, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kellett, to the Red Cross Output Hospital for treatment for facial cuts, head injuries and other wounds.

Police say the pair had just left Minden after visiting with some friends and were on their way to their homes in Haliburton. About one-quarter of a mile east of Minden, the car, a small European model owned by the Hodgson youth's father, collided with the rear of a pickup truck driven by Earl Ward of Minden.

An estimated $500 damage was done to the car and about $150 to the small truck. Both the young men were taken to the Red Cross Hospital where Kellett required 30 stitches to be taken in his head. Hodgson required stitches to his face and chin as his head had struck the windshield on impact.

They were released from hospital the following morning. Police say that at the time of the accident, the road was glare ice and conditions were most unfavourable.

Will Initial Their Snowfence To Discourage Many Thefts

Yelverton (PNS) — In an effort to reduce the disappearance of rolls of snow fence in the township, members of the Mnnwaki Township council at the final meeting of the year, decided that the letters MT would be painted in each roll of snow fencing belonging to the township. OPP said that each year some snow fencing disappears, and have suggested that the owners make some identifying mark on each roll.

Other items of business before Manvers council included the following:

The following communications were received and read: Stuart Ryan QC, re advice, roadway at Pontypool; One School requisition S. S. No. 7 for $500.00; 4 sheep claims: Victoria County District 18 S. B. re the sanding of hills for the school bus. A request from a sheep valuator, asking a raise in fee of his duties for 1957; Health Unit, monthly report; Mountain Sanitarium, Hamilton re hospitalization; Peterboro Civic Hospital re hospitalization matter and several accounts.

On motion of Jakeman and Brown the new schedule of pay for election day is to be as follows: Deputy R.O. $1.00 per day and 20c per mile one way for securing and returning the ballot box. Or 10c a mile one way for securing box and 10c per mile, one way for the return of the ballot box. Poll Clerk to receive $6.00 per day. Hall rents to be $6.00 per hall.

On motion of Jakeman and McGill, the Livestock Valuators are to receive $2.30 per valuation.

On motion of Brown and Malcolm, Earl Argue was to receive an allowance of $29.00 for trips to Lindsay and Oshawa, being a refund of the telephone tolls for 1956. (Township business and transportation of indigent).

On motion of Jakeman and McGill, Russell Kerr was to receive $300.00, being a refund of the deposit required re the gravel contract for $1956.

Moved by Malcolm, seconded by Brown that the Reeve and Treasurer be authorized to sign checks for the accounts, a few of which are as follows:

Municipal World, supplies 23.20; H.E.P.C., Bethany St. Lights 68.37, 1-4 year; H.E.P.C., Pontypool St. Lights, 72.75, 1-4 year; H.E.P.C., Janetville St. lights 140.78, 1 year; John Burr, Janetville lights and rep., 26.44; Harold Stewart, sheep claim, 22.00, Everett Mitchell, sheep

65 APPEAL MANVERS ASSESSMENT

Bethany (PNS) — Sixty-five taxpayers in Manvers township appealed their assessment at the Court of Revision held in Bethany Town Hall; the court sitting for a period of five days.

C. P. Amis of R. R. 5 Bowmanville was the presiding officer and the other members of the Court were W. D. Haig, Colborne; Grant Broatch, Trenton; H. Clark, Cobourg and the Durham Assessor Garnet Shields.

The original assessment for the township as returned by assessor Walter Rowland totalled $1,967,070.60. Reductions made by the Court amounted to $12,750.00 leaving the new roll total $1,955,120.60.

Legion Buys Ambulance For Fenelon Residents, No Charges To Be Made

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — At the December meeting of the Fenelon Falls Legion it was decided that the branch purchase an ambulance for the use of residents of Fenelon Falls within the County of Victoria. The Ambulance Committee comprises Ted Jones, John Gleed, Howard McInnis, Lloyd McIntosh, Lloyd Moore with President Art Pogue as chairman. The committee has worked out a plan so that everyone may benefit from the purchase of the ambulance.

All trips are subject to doctor or police calls unless otherwise arranged with the committee.

Residents of Fenelon Falls, trips within the County, no charge.

Residents of Fenelon Falls (Branch 218 members excluded) trips outside the County, a charge of 15c a mile two ways.

Non-residents of Fenelon Falls (Branch 218 members included) trips anywhere a charge of 15c a mile, two ways. (Example transporting a patient from Burnt River or to Lindsay, 25 miles at 15c a mile, 2 ways, a cost of $7.50).

A flat rate charge will be made from Fenelon Falls to Peterborough $10.00; and Toronto $20.00.

50 per cent of above charges will go to the voluntary driver, the balance to the Legion for payment of licenses and for payment of all necessary insurance coverages.

The ambulance to be purchased has everything required for the careful transportation of two or even four patients, having two stretchers, one chair (specially designed for moving patients up and down narrow stairways), two folding seats, cupboards and shelves, special lighting, heating and ventilation, frosted windows and a vacuum cleaner.

The Fenelon Falls Rotary Club is co operating with the Legion in this ambulance project, supplying the blankets and linen. It is planned to hold various activities to raise the money for the project and the Legion already have received a cheque for $50.00 from a summer resident. Several other citizens have also promised financial assistance.

OL' SATCHMO STEALS THE SHOW

—Central Press Canadian

Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong was given one of the greatest ovations in his life when he performed with the London Philharmonic orchestra at a concert for the benefit of Hungarian relief. Here "Satchmo" is listening to conductor Norman Del Mar, who once was a trumpeter in a band and later in an orchestra. During the performance the orchestra was to have played Liszt's Hungarian rhapsody No. 2 when the audience began chanting "We want Satch." We want Satch." Unable to make himself heard, Del Mar finally led his musicians off the platform and Armstrong took over.

Alfretta Logan

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — Following a very short illness, Miss Alfretta Logan passed away at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Chalmers on Sunday, December 9th in her 84th year.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday, December 11th from the Platten Funeral Home, conducted by Sr. Major E. Harris of the Salvation Army of which the deceased was a member.

Interment was in Fenelon Falls Cemetery.

Blessed are the merciful for they shall obtain mercy.—Matt. 5:7.

One way that is effected is by memory. It is far, from the only way, but memory can cruelly punish the wicked. Memory is eternal.

SHORT STORY — Anderson Place

By Mary Pourchot

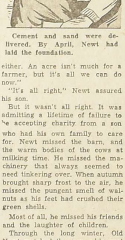
3-Minute Fiction

IT HAD been the Anderson Place for fifty years. It was one of those farms that defied a man to make a living from it. And yet, old Newt Anderson had tried. As a young boy he had worked with his dad against the sandy thin soil. He had married and returned to the farm with his Rose, taking over the place when his dad died. Side by side, he and Rose had plowed and fertilized and struggled to make the land pay for food and clothing for them and their three children.

So when the Anderson Place went for taxes, and Old Newt, alone now, had moved out, the neighboring farmers were surprised. They wondered how anyone who had loved the soil and who had put muscle and sweat and years into it, could leave.

But Newt was through. He left his 120 acres of sand and built himself a tar paper shack on an acre of ground next to the highway.

"It's yours, Dad," his son Paul said. "You needn't pay us back, either. An acre isn't much for a farmer, but it's all we can do now."



Cement and sand were delivered. By April, Newt had laid the foundation.

"It's all right," Newt assured his son.

But it wasn't all right. It was admitting a lifetime of failure to be accepting charity from a son who had his own family to care for. Newt missed the barn, and the warm bodies of the cows at milking time. He missed the machinery that always seemed to need tinkering over. When autumn brought sharp frost to the air, he missed the pungent smell of walnuts as his feet had crushed their green shells.

Most of all, he missed his friends and the laughter of children.

Through the long winter, Old Newt watched the cars whir past his tar paper house near the highway, his nose keenly sensitive to the gasoline fumes. When March came in with a whisper of spring, Newt had an idea. There was no time for nostalgic daydreams now. A lumber company from town brought the first load of two by fours and concrete blocks. In the next week, bags of cement and a load of sand were delivered. (By April, Newt had laid the foundation.) When Paul came for a visit, the little building with windows on three sides was roofed and painted.

"Why Dad, what are you up to?" Paul asked, astonished.

"This." Newt answered with a sheepish grin. He held up a large freshly painted sign that read in bold letters, "Newt's Drive-In."

"Well, doggone, Dad! Who would have thought an old farmer like you would be running a drive-in!"

Newt surprised everyone that summer. Even himself. He sold soft drinks and sandwiches as fast he had to hire help from town to relieve him. By September when the books were added up, Paul informed him of his profits.

"Can't be right," Newt objected.

"That's more than we ever cleared on the Anderson Place, after a whole year of hard work. You just check those figures again."

But the profits were genuine, and Newt's Drive-In prospered more with each summer. From June until September the farmer enjoyed serving new friends by the car-load, and heard the laughter of more children than had ever visited the farm.

One day Paul returned from the bank with "You're a rich man, Pop. Look!"

The figures were staggering to Newt.

Paul asked, "What are you going to do with all that money—buy up more poor farms?"

A smile spread over Newt's weathered face as his words came slowly.

"No son. I thought I might . . . well, when I get enough together . . . I'd just like to buy back the Anderson Place. You know just to retire on."

They'll Do It Every Time

Mrs. Muir's Pupils At Lodge Dinner

The Loyal True Blue Lodge held their Annual Christmas supper in the Lodge Rooms of the Moose Hall with the juvenile lodge as their guests.

The rooms were decorated in true Christmas fashion, with a Christmas tree in the corner.

After a delicious supper of roast turkey and all the trimmings, ice cream and frozen strawberries, Mrs. Muir and her pupils very kindly put on a show which was heartily enjoyed by all present.

Sister Nugent moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. Muir for so kindly giving the show. The entertainment was under the convenorship of Sisters. Junkin and Moynes, and so with the singing of "God Save The Queen" the enjoyable evening came to an end.

Fenelon Falls

Mrs. Russell Armstrong was re-elected president of the Ladies Aid of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at the December meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. L. Lansfield. Other officers elected for 1957 are: 1st. vice-president, Mrs. R. Sharman; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. G. Curtis; Secretary, Mrs. G. Calder; Assisting Secretary, Mrs. R. McIntyre; Treasurer, Miss Florence Bellingham; auditors, Mrs. B. Packer, Mrs. H. J. Copp; pianist, Mrs. Chas. McIntyre; assistant pianist, Mrs. W. Jackson; press, Mrs. R. Armstrong; Manse Committee, Mrs. W. D. Murchison, Mrs. Harvie; Welcome and Welfare, Miss Moffat, Mrs. Mills, Mrs. Warren, Mrs. W. Havery; Decorating and Flower Committee, Miss Moffat, Mrs. Harvie, Mrs. Warren.

Mrs. Russell Armstrong, presided for the meeting, which she opened by reading a poem, "A Christmas Prayer". The devotional period on the Christmas theme was conducted by Mrs. W. D. Murchison. The minutes were read and approved. Roll call showed twenty-seven calls on sick and shut-ins. Holiday cards were turned in and it was decided to use the cards again in 1957.

A bale of good used clothing will be sent to Evangel Hall, members were asked to leave donations at the Church. It was also decided to send a donation to the Rose Hospital Expansion Fund.

The meeting was closed with a hymn and the Lord's prayer, after which refreshments were served by Mrs. Mennies, assisted by Mrs. Harvie.

Don't Drive In Fog

The worst things motorists dislike these days is driving in the fog. Many won't do it and there is no doubt that this is the best thing under these circumstances. It's better to stay home for the holiday than to put you and your family in any danger. Be Careful! Coming or Going.

Use Your Head!

There will be many people who are prepared to motor for this holiday but here is the best for your safety. Don't start on that long trip home if there is fog or ice. Better to stay home and eat plain food than to have an accident coming or going. It just isn't worth it and it may be nicer when New Years comes along and the weather could be ideal for motoring.

Be Equipped

If you have to make a trip that might be ice covered make sure you have good tires and a big bag of sand in the back compartment. If you slip over the shoulder too far then you have it to help you get it back on the road. A couple of sacks will get you out of a rut or off the shoulder, so why not take two or three along. Perhaps you know all these tricks but be sure you don't have to use them, by being careful.

School House

The school house of the future may feature a "cafeterium"—A sort of educational catch-all.

The word is not in any dictionary yet . . . but it may be if the idea catches on. It is a combination cafeteria, gymnasium and auditorium.

One such cafeterium is in the newly-completed 12-room school at Emmitsburg, Maryland. The gym isn't in operation during lunch hour. Nor is the auditorium which includes a small stage.

The sisters of charity at St. Joseph's College had the grade school built in just 12 weeks. It'll open its doors on January second.

Beautiful Women

A man who ought to know says the most beautiful women in the world are in the most unlikely places.

Producer George White says they are not in show business but on farms, working in offices or in department stores. He made the statement just before tonight's opening of the "George White Scandals of 1957" in Los Angeles.

He said he can want ads in Los Angeles and New York newspapers . . . auditioned 300 girls . . . and picked 18. He said he didn't use theatrical papers because "I doubt if there would have been six girls who looked fresh enough or beautiful enough for my show."

"Baby Doll"

A Protestant Clergyman says the controversial movie "Baby Doll" is not as morally objectionable as Cecil B. DeMille's "Ten Commandments." However, Sean Pike said in a sermon at New York's Protestant Episcopal Cathedral of St. John the Divine that his women's aired has children in "Baby Doll" because they wouldn't understand it.

Re-touching

The Duchess of Kent has ordered a dress painted on one photograph that revealed the bare shoulders of her 20-year-old daughter Princess Alexandra. The Princess originally posed in a strapless evening gown, but the Duchess apparently didn't think that was enough . . . and ordered a retouching job. The secret came out when a London newspaper printed both versions.

Household Hint:

Now, that Christmas is over, don't leave that tree standing too long. The needle, become dried out . . . and are highly inflammable.

KIDNEY ACIDS
Rob your Rest..

Many people never seem to get a good night's rest. They turn and toss—whose it an "nerves"—when it may be their kidneys. Healthy kidneys filter poisons and excess acids from the blood. If they fail and impurities stay in the system—disturbed rest often follows. If you don't rest well get and use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's help the kidneys so that you can rest better—and feel better. 136

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Joseph Hutton, who passed away Dec. 27th, one year ago.

Weep not for me, nor wish me back.
I now from pain am free.
I am in the promised land
Where you will come to me.
You watched over me while my bed,
And now, I'll watch for you.
And when you reach the golden gates
I'll come and lead you through.

—Sadly missed by his wife Minnie, Sister Annie, Brother Frank. 4720

WATTS—In loving memory of Ada, who passed away December 29, 1955.

Oh how patient in thy suffering,
When no hand could give thee ease,
God, the helper of the helpless,
Saw thy pain and gave thee peace.
—Ever remembered by sisters and brothers. (4727)

WESTCOTT: In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Sarah H. Westcott, who passed away December 31, 1951.

However long our lives may last,
Whatever lands we view,
Whatever joy or grief be ours,
We will always think of you.
—Lovingly remembered by husband and family. (4719)

MORAN—In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Catherine Moran, who passed away, December 28, 1955.

We seem to see in the soft dim light
A face we love the best;
Recalling her as the sun's last rays
Go down in the far off west.
We miss her more, as time goes on,
We can never close our hearts;
And the lamp of our love still burns
Her heart the truest in all the world.
Her love the best to recall.
None on earth could take her place,
She still is the dearest of all.
—Lovingly remembered by daughter Margaret, Chester, and Laurie, John, Roger and Aline. (4683)

MORAN—In loving memory of my mother, Catherine Moran, who passed away December 28, 1955.

No one knows how much I miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain
I have suffered, since I lost you
Life has never been the same.
In my years your memory lingers,
Sweetly tender, fond and true.
There is not a day, dear mother,
That I do not think of you.
—Sadly mared by son, Edwin. (4682)

NEWS ODDITY

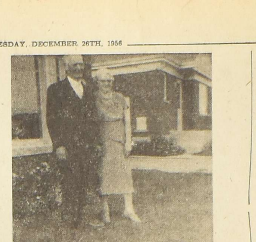
News director, Lou Wagner of Station WTNJ in Trenton, New Jersey, broadcast only good news on Christmas Day.

As Wagner explained it . . . He got "sick sick tired of that accident stuff." —BUP.



Shown here are Mr. and Mrs. Angus Campbell of Oakwood who were honoured recently by members of their family on the occasion of their 58th wedding anniversary.

Oakwood Couple Celebrate 58th Wedding Anniversary

Omemee (PNS) — A capacity crowd filled Coronation Hall for the concert put on by the High School pupils.

Principal F. R. Simpson opened with a welcome address followed by music by seven boys who belong to the band, namely, Charlie Bent, Homer Brooks, Jim Elliott, Charlie Evans, Don Green, Grant Hart, and Don Hyland. Violin solos were rendered by Mr. S. Z. Rutter, a teacher, accompanied by Mr. Moss.

Twelve boys demonstrated tumbling gymnastics. Jim Armstrong, G. Bent, Clifford Black, H. Brooks, Douglas Given, Don Green, Bill Kemp, Grant Hart, Don Hyland, Dune Lennox, Don Mitchell and Albert O'Neill.

Mrs. Geo. Stephenson directed 30 girls in a dance entitled, "Christmas in Killarney"—Edna Gladding, Eileen Hall, Marilyn McQuade, June Middleton, Eva Morrison, Anne Pilling, Darlene Nelson, Anne Williams, Beth Sauliter and Isobel Sibley. Thirty-seven pupils formed a choir to sing "O Holy Night", "What Child is This"? and "A Capital Ship."

A one-act comedy, "Swept clean off her feet" and directed by Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Angus Campbell of Oakwood were entertained on December 16th on the occasion of their 58th wedding anniversary. Some 35 guests were present at the restaurant of Allen and Isobel Prain. Mrs. Prain is a grand-daughter of the couple.

The family presented the happy couple with a sum of money after a delicious turkey dinner cooked and prepared by Mrs. Campbell. The couple are both in very good health, and care for their own home as well as finding time to help their family do many things when they are needed.

After the honoured couple had extended their appreciation for the party given them, all enjoyed an evening of progressive euchre.

Expansion Fund Chairman Extends Season's Wishes

Col. R. I. Moore, as chairman of the Hospital Expansion Campaign has extended the season's wishes to the many people of Lindsay and district who have assisted in the campaign.

In an interview with "The Post" Col. Moore said that the "generosity of the people of the district has made it possible for us to commence the extension in the very near future.

"I am more amazed at the contribution of the citizens than at the small number who have so far failed to respond to this call for help. I wish to thank everyone who has worked hard on this campaign and to assure the people of the district that we will have our new hospital thanks to their donations."

Read included Anne Pelling, Homer Brooks, Charles Evans, Wanda Bannon, Herbert Robertson and Judy McQuade, brought forth much merriment.

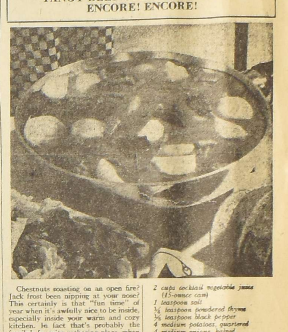
TANGY BEEF STEW FOR SUPPER. ENCORE! ENCORE!



Chestnuts roasting on an open fire' Jack frost been nipping at your nose? This certainly is that "fun time" of year when it's awfully nice to be home, especially inside your warm and cozy kitchen. In fact that's probably the family's favorite gathering place, when it's HAPPY BEEF STEW for dinner. It's the perfect cold night dinner.

Vary your beef stew occasionally to promote taste changes in the menu. Slickest trick for this beef stew is to make-ease ahead it bright red, refreshing cocktail vegetable juices. This adds a delightful tangy flavor, and though the family won't care as they eagerly dive in, it's loaded nutritionally too. There are eight different vegetable juices contributing to the flavor-color-nutrition melody that's bound to please everyone.

Serve your stew right from a marvelous electric skillet, or a pretty, big casserole . . . add a warm loaf of caraway rye bread and lots of butter. Complement the meal with your own special tossed salad. Everyone will glow . . .

HAPPY BEEF STEW

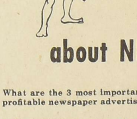
2 cups cocktail vegetable juice (11-ounce can)
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon powdered thyme
¼ teaspoon black pepper
4 medium potatoes, quartered
4 medium onions, halved
2 cups raw green beans (10-ounce package, frozen)

Dust beef with flour; brown in shortening. Add cocktail vegetable juice and seasonings; cover and simmer about 1 hour. Add vegetables, cover and continue cooking over low heat until vegetables are done. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

FROZEN SOUP WITH BUTTER BALLS

In these "rush-rush" days, we sometimes wonder how we'll get a satisfying nutritional meal on the table. Here's an answer that's bound to please. Heat one can (10 fluid ounce size) of frozen condensed oyster stew soup. Drop the golden butter balls (we've made early in the morning into the soup; cover and simmer unstirred just 10 minutes. Here's how to make the butter cream ½ cup butter, blended in 1 egg. Mix with ½ cup flour; ½ teaspoon salt and ¼ teaspoon chili powder. Chill several hours. Form into marble-sized balls (about 100) drop into simmering soup.

MEMO TO ADVERTISERS



Questions and Answers about NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

Q. What are the 3 most important rules for profitable newspaper advertising?

A. 1. Your advertising message should be newsy, friendly, informative, easy to read. Give facts and news about your merchandise and service.

2. Advertise regularly. Make your advertising do what successful salesmen do—call on customers and prospects consistently.

3. Insist on audited circulation reports that give you the FACTS about the audience that your sales messages will have when you buy newspaper advertising.

Q. Is there a measure for the value of newspaper circulation to an advertiser such as the standards a merchant uses in buying merchandise—for example, like STERLING on silver?

A. Yes—in the well known circulation standards of the AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS.

Q. What is the A.B.C.?

A. The A.B.C. is a cooperative, non-profit association of 3,450 advertisers, advertising agencies and publishers in the United States and Canada. Organized in 1914. Brought order out of advertising chaos by establishing a definition for paid circulation, rules and standards for measuring, auditing and reporting the circulations of newspapers and periodicals.

Q. What does A.B.C. do for me?

A. At regular intervals one of the Bureau's large staff of experienced circulation auditors makes a thorough audit of the circulation records of each publisher member. The results of each audit are published in an easy-to-read A.B.C. report for your use and protection when you buy newspaper advertising.

Q. What are the FACTS in A.B.C. reports?

A. A.B.C. reports tell you how much circulation, where it goes, how obtained and other FACTS that help you buy advertising as you would make any sound business investment—on the basis of known values and audited information.

Q. Are all publications eligible for A.B.C. membership?

A. No. Only those with paid circulation. This is important to advertisers because it is evidence that the paper is wanted and read.

Q. Is this newspaper a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations?

A. Yes. We are proud of our circulation. We want you to know the FACTS about the audience your selling messages will have when they appear in these pages. Ask for a copy of our latest A.B.C. report.

Wedding

Coulson-Sinclair

Rev. Gladstone Wood of Riverside United Church united in marriage Miss Marilyn Jane Wesley Sinclair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Murray Sinclair of Bellerperche Pl., Riverside, and Mr. Herbert Bruce Coulson of Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Coulson of London.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an Empire style gown of rare Italian silk, with a V neckline outlined with Venetian lace embroidered in seed pearls and iridescent sequins, and long sleeves forming point, at the wrists. The princess-style skirt fell into a cathedral train. Her veil was held by her head with a Juliet cap of matching Venetian lace embroidered in seed pearls and iridescent sequins, and she carried a cascade of white orchids and white Puji chrysanthemums.

Miss Linda Sinclair, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, wore polisettia red Italian velveteen styled with an dress of the bride, with a white velvet cummerbund, and a bow and streamers at the back. She wore a matching Juliet cap, and carried a white shirred velvet muff with a corsage of Puji chrysanthemums with red centres, and red velvet leaves.

Mrs. James Spencelyn, cousin of the bride, of Lindsay, as bridesmaid, wore a similarly styled gown.

The flower girl, Kevan Ann Coulter, wore a dress of red Italian velveteen, with a full shirred skirt and puffed sleeves, and a velvet sash and bow, and a matching flowered headpiece. She carried a white muff.

The church was decorated with large white chrysanthemums with red centres, and white tapers.

Mr. Keith Hills of London was best man and the ushers were Mr. Richard Wesley Sinclair, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Mr. Stewart Stage, of London.

The bride's mother wore navy blue silk crepe embroidered with silver crystals, a white orchid teacher hat, and a corsage of white Puji chrysanthemums and pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore twilight satin with a matching hat, and similar accessories, and yellow rosebuds.

A reception followed at the bride's home.

For a wedding trip to Chicago, the bride wore a brown cashmere sweater and skirt and a brown tweed coat, a white beaver hat, brown snakeskin accessories, and an orchid. Mr. and Mrs. Coulson will live at 196A, Avenue Rd., Toronto.

"Proof of the pudding...

Yelverton (PNS) — Exponents of the "Live Modern" regime are humble pie this week or more explicitly, in one instance, "plum puddin."

One local lady whose manage is equipped with the most modern amenities of present-day living, in electric appliances, night blew a fuse when after stirring and stirring for hours, her Christmas pudding full of rich, spicy and costly ingredients and had slipped it into the oven of stove or were or whatever plum puddings do, the electric power was turned off.

It is reported that the static electricity emanated by this culinary expert, if harnessed, would have cooked, yes, burned to a crisp in five minutes, that Christmas delicacy.

Cake and cook, both cooling fast, were rushed with greatest expediency to a neighbors where another shock was produced when the neighbor saw our heroine come rushing in with something small wrapped deep in "swaddling clothes" where in due time the aforementioned chunk of pudding was cooled into a less modern but more effective cook stove.

Results: Time will tell, as the proof of the pudding is in the eating.

Central Senior Yule Concert Draws 250 Parents, Friends

Public Schools all over Lindsay are holding Christmas Concerts in traditional fashion these days. Central Senior Public School, although grown in stature from former days, hasn't neglected the concert's place in school life.

Some 250 parents and friends were on hand for the concert. The following is the program for Thursday's concert:

1. School Choir: O Come All Ye Faithful—Descant, Unto Us a Son is Born—2 part—German.
2. Grade 7 Choral Speaking.
3. Dance, Scottish Dance, Ace of Diamonds.
4. School Choir, What Child is This—Traditional — Soloist, Linda Heatle. While Shepherds Watched their Flocks — Descant.
5. Grade 8 Choral Speaking.
6. Dance, Pop Goes the Weasel, Polly Wolly Doodle.
7. Play.
8. Boys' Chorus—2 part. Masters in Hall.
10. School Choir. The Christ Child—2 part—Austrian. Angels We have Heard on High — French Melody.

Decorations — Holly, poinsettias, etc., by Art Club, under Mr. E. J. Wood; Choir, under Mrs. G. K. Garbig and Prof. Fletcher; Dancing in charge of Mr. Fairfield and Mrs. Tompkins. Play under the Drama Club in charge of Mrs. C. Hewie. Choral Speaking—Choral Speaking Club under Mrs. J. Smith.

Grade 7 Choral Speaking Club had two Christmas poems to present. Both poems were based on legends that have grown up around the Christmas story. The first poem was called "Around the Manger", which tells of the legend that on Christmas Eve, all the animals are given the power of speech. The second poem was "The Tree Carol" and tells why the trees are evergreen.

Grade 8 Choral Speaking Club had two numbers to give. The first one was Works from an Old Spanish Carol—at sea, off a lonely island on Christmas Eve all the birds and beasts bow in adoration before Jesus."

The second poem was called "Gates and Doors". Have you ever thought of the "hostler" or "stable-boy" who helped Mary and Joseph the night of Jesus' birth? This poem imagines the privileges the stable-boy or "hostler" had in tending the animal on which Mary rode.

Masters in this Hall: (Old English Carol). This is the traditional March which accompanies the Christmas ceremony of bringing in the boar's head, the carolers bearing the news of the birth of Jesus to the noblemen in England.

HERITAGE IS PRICELESS TREASURE THEME OF 54th WI ANNUAL MEETING

Reaboro (PNS) "Heritage is a priceless treasure entrusted in our care" was the theme underlying of the 54th Annual Central Ontario Area Women's Institute Convention, the report of which was given to the members of the Reaboro Branch at their November meeting held at the home of Mrs. Harold Fleming in Lindsay. Mrs. Jack Simnett who attended the Convention at the Royal York for three days.

Mrs. Clayton Smith, the President conducted the meeting and welcomed the members and visitors after which the Ode was sung and the Lord's Prayer repeated. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the Secretary, Mrs. Delbert Hickson and were adopted as read. The Roll Call was answered by, "What I did the last hour before I went to the Institute" which was most interesting. Mrs. Hickson presented the financial report which showed a very good balance of money on hand. Mrs. Fleming gave the flower report showing a balance of $1.67 after tea and bus had been remembered during the month. Mrs. Lewis Soles the district Director reported on the district meeting which she had attended and that the West Victoria Institute social evening was to be held in the middle of the month at Little Britain. It was decided to send the sum of Thirty-five Dollars, $35.00 to the hospital fund at the present time. The date was set for the Christmas bazaar and bake sale which was to be held at the end of the month and each member should donate articles or food in the amount of $2.00. It was also decided to have a Christmas tea and Mrs. Elmer Mahood was appointed to be in charge of the tickets for the draw. The members were asking to cater for the Annual banquet but after some discussion it was decided to cater to this banquet. Mrs. Smith told the members that they had been asked if they would care to help make a Santa Claus suit for the Reaboro Santa Claus and that it would be furnished by the school board. However, after the pros and cons were talked over, it was decided to make the suggestion that a Santa Claus suit be rented for this occasion. Following the business period Mrs. Smith asked Mrs. Jack Simnett to present her report of the Central Area Convention which she had attended. Mrs. Simnett first graciously thanked the branch for giving her this wonderful opportunity of being their representative at the Convention and that she had enjoyed it thoroughly. In reference to the convention theme, "Heritage is a priceless treasure entrusted in our Care" the speaker gave briefly the remarks of the Chairman, President Mrs. Kingston who said, "We should be proud of our heritage and cherish it, as we have freedom of movement, speech and freedom to worship as we see fit. These are our heritage to honour and pass on to city children so they may have a better place to live. We must have faith in God, to direct our ways so we can look wisely into the future at all times. Asking His help so we may understand our fellow man better and show more devotion and love to less fortunate and be more patient and kind to the sick and then our community will be a better place in which to live." Mrs. Simnett also gave summary of the reports of the different conveners and of a very interesting talk on parliament procedure which was given by Mrs. J. E. Houch, Brampton who had the privilege of representing Canada at the United Nations banquet held in New York. Mayor Nathan Phillips also gave a very welcome to the Institute delegates and told them to enjoy themselves in the city of many institutions, which they could use and enjoy themselves in a city where 25 languages were spoken and only one was one. A demonstration of girls work was then directed by Miss P. Eadie and included demonstrations on the use of Cereals—cereal shelf Tea Biscuits, Safety in the Home—a Sink, How different cuts of meat should be bought and served — Clothes, closet up to date. It was stressed that this was sure splendid work that more of it should be carried on in our branches. Mrs. Simnett then gave a short summary of Miss Myrtle Stuart's educational talk she gave on her trip to Great Britain and the highlight of her trip when she was presented to the Queen at Buckingham palace. Mrs. Simnett, reporting on the lovely luncheon which she attended, she told of the Hon. Wm. Goodfellow's greeting being conveyed by Dr. C. D. Graham and of the talk given by the guest speaker, "Rev. Scott Leith, B.A., D.D. who took as his theme, "How to be Happy" and remarked, "If you want to be happy you must rejoice and be exceedingly glad. We must build a road of impossibilities. If we don't try to do good along the road we can hardly expect to build a strong nation". In referring to the F.W.I.O. President, Mrs. Gordon McPhatter's address, Mrs. Simnett told of the different important points stressed by her in regard to the coming year which included the matter of education in which the presidents said that the W. I. hoped to be first, and forward in this matter having radio and television broadcasts and that it was hoped that percent of success in 1957 would be Co-operation, and Life is measured by what we put into it rather than what we take.

The resolutions introduced at the convention included, "Old Age Security pension from $40 to $65; despite advertising Alcoholism, Fire crackers so small children, Temperance Society place educational program in schools and churches, Home Economics films, Textile mills to guarantee material for 1 year, Health Insurance schemes covering home nursing care in private homes as well as in hospital and all reports to be mimeographed. The resolutions were all discussed and sustained. Miss Ethel Chapman gave an inspiring address on kindness one to another especially to the sick and aged and to help in any way possible in securing comforts for crippled in our communities and the shut-ins and in concluding she said, "Work together for the good of mankind, try to visualize the understand sympathize one with another. In life its the little things that count. The past is gone, lets look to the future with confidence and courage." This talk was followed by a demonstration of rug hooking and showed very beautiful rugs on display and this was of great interest to all present. The Tweedsmuir awards were also announced. The delegates were also privileged in having a party and listening to a very delightful "Mock Trial" and also called, "Wife Wanted" as well as being entertained by musical selections during the session. In concluding Mrs. Simnett told the members of some of the roll calls that were suggested and of Norwood Institute giving the W. I. prayer on their programs which was an excellent idea and one which might be used in the Reaboro branch. Mrs. Smith thanked Mrs. Simnett for the splendid report she had given explaining clearly the business which had been transacted and of great importance to all branches.

The meeting then closed with the Creed and the National Anthem after which a social hour hour was enjoyed and the hostess was assisted in serving a tasty lunch by Mrs. Simnett, Mrs. Jay Harper and Mrs. John Boyce.

Archbishop Joseph Kiwanuka, 59, Uganda, Africa, is being mentioned in Vatican circles to be under consideration for elevation to the College of Cardinals when the next consistory to create princes of the Roman Catholic church is held in Vatican City. Should Pope Pius XII select a Negro, it would conform with the pontiff's expressed desire to keep the Church's high senate body as representative as possible.

Christmas Meeting Dunsford W.M.S.

The Christmas meeting of the Dunsford W. M. S. took place in the evening of the home of Mrs. Walter Brien with 22 members and friends present. The meeting opened with a Christmas hymn followed by a bible reading by Mrs. Walter Hore, and Mr. Thorpe led the members in prayer.

It was arranged to have the annual meeting for the election of officers at the United Church Hall at Dunsford.

Mrs. J. J. Thurston read with great feeling an old and well-loved poem of Tennyson's "Ring Out Wild Bells," and late in the programme

Ladies' Guild Plans Christmas Work At Bethany

Members of St. Paul's Ladies Guild were entertained at the home of Mrs. William Mark for their December meeting.

Officers elected for the coming year were as follows: President, Mrs. Morgan Bigelow; vice-president, Mrs. Glen Wentworth; secretary, Mrs. Rupert Wood; treasurer, Mrs. Charles Reynolds. Mrs. G. E. Meades conducted the installation of officers and expressed appreciation of the work of the executive for the past year with special thanks to Mrs. Wm. Mark for her capable leadership.

Reports were heard from all committees showing a year of progress. It was decided to provide flowers for the Christmas service in the church and also to assist in purchasing Christmas gifts for the Sunday School children.

During the social hour, progressive euchre was enjoyed and lunch was served by the Hostess assisted by Mrs. Mervin Smith, Mrs. Morgan Bigelow, Mrs. Glen Wentworth and Mrs. Hector Morton.

Chairman of the Toronto Metro Licensing commission, Magistrate Fred Hall scratches his head as he considers the long history of taxi licensing in the city which has evolved into sale of $15 licenses for as much of $5,000. With members of the commission, James McGubbin, secretary; Metro Chairman Fred Gardiner and Magistrate O.M. Martin, he has accused the Toronto Police Commission board by delaying the work of the Metro board and, by inference, being responsible for the trafficking in taxi licenses. —Central Press Canadian

The Christmas meeting of the O.N.O. Club was held at the home of Mrs. Helen Dorrell. A letter was read by the secy. from the Children's Aid thanking the club for the knitted clothing sent to them.

The club was requested to conduct a "Marcy of Dimes Bilfe" in the community. The possibility of conducting a nursery class for pre-school children during church hours in late evening was discussed. It was decided to send the annual contribution of $25.00 to the Northumberland and Durham Tuberculosis Association and $25.00 to the Salvation Army.

Ted Cole will be the orchestra for New Year's Dance The T.B. Association gave $25.00 to the club with which to buy and pack a complete Christmas dinner including presents for the children of a needy family in the community.

Members also offered to donate. After the gifts were distributed by Santa Claus all enjoyed lunch served by the hostess and her group.

Fenelon Falls

Members of the Fenelon Falls W... A shared in an informal Christmas programme at their December meeting, which was held at the home of Mrs. R. Hartlingne, with the president, Mrs. J. E. Barrett in the chair.

Christmas items given by the members on the programme were in personal serious and lighter vein and included an amusing reading, "How Not To Wrap Christmas Gifts," and the story of the first Canadian Christmas carol. "The Moon of Winter Time," written 300 years ago by Father Jean de Brebeuf pioneer Missionary, this carol was translated in 1926 by the Canadian poet J. E. Middleton and later set to music by Dr. Healey Willan. Just a few of the interesting items were Christmas Customs in Australia; the story of babooche, a Russian folk tale, a reading "When Hope Was Born" and the beautiful poem by Christina Rossetti, "Love Came Down At Christmas." The programme was interspersed with Carol singing and a lovely Christmas recording by the Ilford Girls' Choir. A Christmas word contest was won by Mrs. McGee.

A display of inexpensive handmade Christmas gifts and decorations demonstrated what can be accomplished by clever willing hands. The president and Mrs. McGee acknowledged with thanks the generous donation of handmade articles suitable for Christmas gifts made by Mrs. Smith. These articles were auctioned, adding a goodly sum to the funds. Small Christmas favours were presented to each guest and the members drew for the name of their Friendship Sister for the year. It was decided to send next the regular and special collection to the Hungarian Relief Fund.

A delicious lunch which included Christmas cake was served and before the party broke up a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the hostess for her gracious hospitality.

Reaboro

Santa Claus made his first appearance in Reaboro this Christmas season when he arrived at the Community Hall to distribute presents and candy to the members of the Baptist church Sunday school.

The children and their parents gathered in the basement of the hall and following the singing of "Grace" enjoyed a bountiful Pot Luck supper after which the Annual Christmas concert was presented with the children from the various Sunday school classes taking part.

The superintendent, Mr. Rob Reeds conducted the program which opened by all singing the Christmas Carol, "Hark The Herald Angels Sing" after which the following numbers were given:—Recitation — Welcome—Ian Cameron Reeds which was followed by a recitation by Christie Harper, "A Welcome to Christmas", Recitation "A Loud Welcome"—Kathryn Aldous. Recitation—Welcome"—Tommy Smith; Recitation—"The Three Gifts" — Doris McGahey. Monologue — A Christmas Scheme"—Jimmy Ioan; Duet — "Away in a Manger" was sung nicely by Fay Ireland and Kathryn Aldous. Recitation — "Merry Christmas"—Susie McGahey. "The Christmas Story" was impressively told by the following girls and boys: Kathryn Aldous, Doris McGahey, Sandra Short, Debbie Miller, Eleanor Reid, Catherine Littlejohn, Bonnie McGahey, Billie Reid and Bobby Aldous. Recitation —"Christmas Hope"—John Miller. This was followed by the Christmas Carol, "O Come All Ye Faithful" nicely sung with motions by Joe Vogelsberg, Jimmy Sloan, Robert Littlejohn, Bobby Aldous and Billie and Eleanor Reid each rendering a piano solo which was much enjoyed.

Following this part of the program Mr. Reeds asked Mrs. Smith to show a film called, "A Saviour is Born". This was greatly appreciated and very interesting and appropriate for Christmas as it was pictures, beginning with Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden and the coming and Birth of Jesus giving full significance to the Christmas story by these beautiful colored pictures and the resume which Mrs. Smith gave as she showed each picture was most impressive. Following the showing of the film those present were favored by Mr. Leigh Reeds playing three violin solos being accompanied by Mrs. Reeds. Among his selections Mr. Reeds played, "Silent Night" and "Open Up Your Heart" and everyone enjoyed this music very much.

Mrs. Smith was then asked to present the Mission Band Awards for attendance and Memory work which had been won for the year's work by the members. Mrs. Smith first explained the importance of the Mission Band work in the community with the children and urged the parents to encourage the children to read the Bible when they were young and to enjoy it. Those receiving prizes for attendance were the following: 1st prize, Billie Reid and Eleanor Reid, 2nd prize —Doris McGahey and Debby Miller. Prizes for memory work were given to the following: 1st prize — Billie Reid, 2nd prize—Eleanor Reid, Debby Miller, Bonnie McGahey and Bobby Aldous. Prizes for Proficiency were given to Kathryn Aldous, Christie Harper, John Miller and Susan McGahey.

Following the distribution of these prizes a vocal duet, "From the Crib to Calvary" was beautifully sung by Doris and Bonnie McGahey. A dialogue, "Voices from the Past" was enjoyed and most interesting explaining what one missed when one does not know the Savior and let him be one's guide this being stressed by the characters in the dialogue who were: "The Innkeeper" — Joe Vogelsberg, "Shepherd", Bobby Aldous, "Wisemen" Robbie Littlejohn and the "Man of Today", portrayed by George Sluce. The program concluded with the recitation — "The Grandest Man", given by Karen McRobbie. Mr. Reeds then asked the pastor, Rev. E. C. Smith to speak.

Rev. Mr. Smith expressed the enjoyment of those present in listening to the concert adding seeing all the little children perform on the platform and commended the Superintendant, Mr. Reeds and the teachers of the Sunday school and Mrs. Veala, Mission Band Leader on the success of the program, and invited all present to attend the church service on Sunday which would be a Christmas service as would the following Sunday service as some would be away Christmas week-end. Following these remarks the carol "Joy To The World," was sung and Rev. Smith pronounced the Benediction after which Santa came dashing into the hall from the stage door

Yelverton W.A. Meets At Home Of Mary Moore

Yelverton (PNS)—The December meeting of Yelverton W. A. was held at Mary Moore's. President Lorna Wilson opened the meeting with the Ode. The Devotional was in charge of Corrie Malcolm. Based on the Christmas theme, it consisted of a poem by the Convenor; Scripture—Ruth Malcolm; Topic, "The Real Meaning of Christmas"—Mrs. W. H. Stinson; a poem—Keeping Christmas, followed by prayer by Isabel Wilson, interspersed by the singing of Christmas Carols in Unison.

A financial report was given by treasurer, Mrs. Jas. Shecleton; a letter—fruit report by the treasurer of that committee, Mrs. W. J. Malcolm. Mrs. Norman Wilson was lunch-hitting for the absentee, secretary, Peggy Stacey.

Much discussion with no-too-definite conclusion took place re purchasing of another organ for the church.

Three hundred dollars was how over voted to start the organ fund; $60.00 voted to the Minister's salary; $50.00 to the Missions, and $10.00 to Hungarian Relief fund.

A donation was also made to purchase candy bags for Sunday School children to be distributed at the Christmas concert.

The next meeting is to be held at Janet Spencer's in January. A Christmas gift exchange and roll call provided a pleasant interlude.

Ruth Wilson took charge of the program which was made up as follows: Audrey Gibson, a Christmas Reading; Mrs. W. H. Stinson, a reading, "Something New"; Ruth Malcolm—"Christmas Spirit"; Isabelle Wilson—"Christmas in Other Lands;" and finally, Contest— by convenor.

A lovely lunch was served by Bernice Gibson, Joyce Malcolm, Marjaree Stinson (by proxy) and Mary Moore.

causing much pleasure to the little tots who had looked forward to this time with great excitement. Santa greeted everyone then proceeded with the help of Bob Reeds and George Sluce to distribute all the presents and give bags of candy to all the children. This climaxed another annual Christmas Concert.

Janetville

The annual Christmas entertainment and tree was held at the Bethel Public School S.S. No. 10, Manvers Township, when the teacher, Mrs. H. Laura Rowen and her well mannered pupils, presented an outstanding concert of songs, dialogues, etc. with Mrs Horace Heastip being the piano accompanist.

The chairman for the event was Mr. Virtual Staples, one of the School Trustees who, after a few remarks, announced the following program:—"The Maple Leaf Forever", sung by the pupils and followed with the "Pledge"; Recitation of "Welcome" by Stan Staples, Chairman's address; Recitation by Allan Pollard; Recitation "Bobby" by Linda Heeley; Dialogue—"Picnic Luck", by four boys, Glen Staples, Bruce Shea, Robert Lakett and John Pollard; Recitation, "Letter to Santa Claus", by Joan Shea; Recitation "Toys", by Bruce Heeley; Recitation "No Christmas Spirit", by Ralph Heastip; Song—"My First Christmas" by the pupils, accompanied as soloist, by Ruth Heastip; Recitation, "The Last Little Apple", by Heather Heeley; Recitation, "Girls", by Ralph Porter; Dialogue, "Harry's Pockets" by Ivon Shea and Ralph Heastip; Recitation, Lour McGill; Recitation "The Little New Year", by Beverley Shea; Recitation, "Santa's Visit", by Sandra Armstrong; Recitation "Licked" by Robert Porter; Song by the junior girls; Recitation by Marlene Shea; Recitation, "The Story of the Star", by Ruth Heastip; Dialogue, Mrs. M. Cutty; Recitation, Sarah Armstrong; Recitation "Large or Small", by Isobel Jackett; Recitation, Donna McGill; Dialogue, "Disappointing Dinah", by Ruth Heastip and Ralph Porter; Recitation by Bruce Shea; Dialogue, "The Sense", by four junior girls; Recitation, "Grandpa's Christmas", by Dora McGill; Recitation by Dorothy Porter; Dialogue, "Mother's Helpers", Shirley Shea, Anne Pollard and Allen Dangerfield; Recitation by Robert Jackett; Songs by the pupils, "Santa Claus" and "Santa Claus Comes" The concert was concluded with the singing of "The Queen" and a few minutes later, much to the surprise of all, Santa Claus, in person arrived and with the assistance of a number of willing helpers, distributed gifts, from the Still wearing her blue-skirted Olympic uniform, Hungary's star swimmer, Vali Gyenge, 23, flew to Toronto from Vancouver where she was met by her fiance, Janos Garay, at right, whom she'll marry "very soon." The young couple were to have married in Budapest but Garay, one of the top-echelon leaders in the October revolt, had to flee his native land when Russian tanks and troops moved in on a house-to-house search for freedom fighters. At the conclusion of the 1956 Olympic games in Melbourne, Vali also "fled" to Canada where she plans to make a new life with her soon-to-be husband.

Little Britain

The W.M.S. of the Little Britain United Church was held in the Sunday School room. Mrs. Heatlie opened the meeting with a hymn.

It was decided that some more books be purchased for the missionary reading. Mrs. Cornish gave the report of C.G.I.T. rally held in Woodville. It was decided to hold the executive at Mrs Will Cornish's and that all secretaries have a full report ready.

Mrs. Chidley took the leader's part for the Christmas worship. Mrs. Casey, Mrs. Heatlie, Mrs. Cornish, and Mrs. Moya Avery took the different parts and prayers and the lighting of the white candles which were arranged around a tall white candle and the Open Bible hymns "Come All Ye Faithful", "Silent Night, Holy Night" and several other Christmas ones were sung. Mr. Mills gave the Christmas message "Let us go to Bethlehem". He also gave the benediction. Mrs. Chidlye thanked all who took part. A dainty Christmasy lunch was served and a social half hour spent.

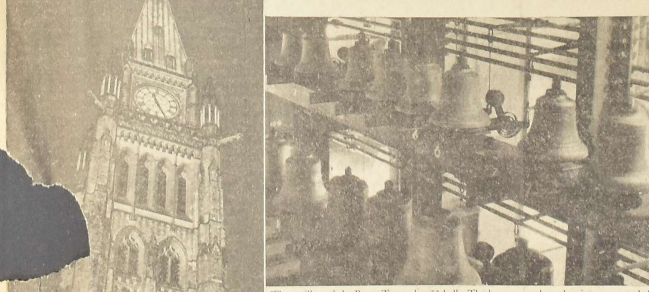
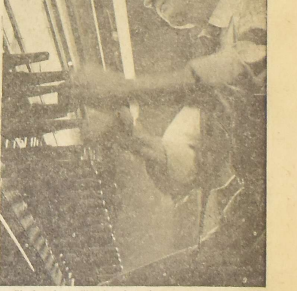
Peace Tower Bells Ring in New Year

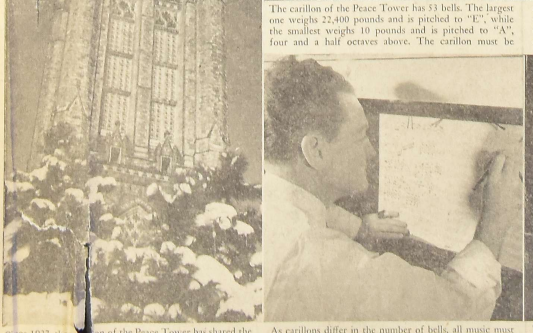
Parliament Hill Signal



The carillon of the Peace Tower has 53 bells. The largest one weighs 22,400 pounds and is pitched to "E", while the smallest weighs 10 pounds and is pitched to "A", four and a half octaves above. The carillon must be cleaned twice a year and the carillonneur, himself, supervises all the work. The carillon was installed in 1927, to mark the 60th anniversary of Confederation and to commemorate the peace of 1918.



Playing the carillon is a feat of strength as well as skill. The keyboard is six feet long and consists of peg-like keys forced down by the fist with foot pedals used for sounding the bass.

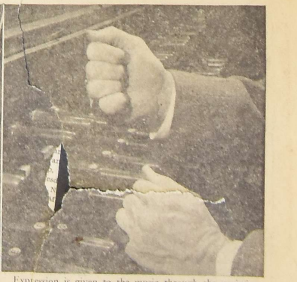


Since 1927, the ... on of the Peace Tower has shared the joys and sorrow... of the Canadian nation. From this gothic style cow... cascades of joyous notes will herald the advent of the ... ew Year.

As carillons differ in the number of bells, all music must be specially arranged. Robert Donnell, Dominion Carillonneur since 1939, has made more than 2,000 arrangements as well as composing for the bells.

The turnbuckles connecting the keys to the wires that work the clappers must be adjusted before playing as they are affected by the weather.

National Film Board of Canada photos by Gar Lunney.



Expression is given to the music through the variation of touch and guards must be worn to protect the hands. Mr. Donnell trained as a carillonneur in Canada, the United States and Europe.
